At 10:30 A.M., 5/30/72, the above-named upon request was telephonically contacted. [redacted] desired to know the extent and basis for FBI cooperation with local authorities in connection with the upcoming DNC and RNC.

He was informed, in your name, that the FBI furnishes to interested Federal and local agencies information which comes to our attention relative to persons or organizations which may be planning disruptive or riotous activities in connection with the conventions.

He was informed that violations which might arise incidental to the conventions, which would be within FBI investigative jurisidction, are:

Interstate travel with intent to incite or promote a riot

Federal Statutes dealing with the safety of the President

Federal Statutes relating to assaulting members of Congress or certain other Federal officers [redacted] then desired to know:

Whether the information available to the FBI indicates that the main thrust of protest activity will be against the DNC or RNC. He was informed the FBI did not care to comment or speculate on this.

He was insistent upon an answer to whether the FBI has any information that specific groups are planning protest or disruptive activities.

He was informed we did not desire to comment.

He asked whether the FBI watches the flow of travel by airlines, buses and other means into this area; and is the FBI as part of its investigative technique using wiretaps in connection with its convention investigations.

He was informed it would not be possible to comment on whether a particular investigative technique would or would not be employed.

He asked how many Agents is the FBI using on investigative activities in connection with the conventions.

He was informed no comment could be made relative to the size of the force employed on a particular investigation.

[redacted] thereafter stated he has interviewed numerous local and federal officials and the leaders of some organizations relating to the anticipated size of the demonstrations and had received varying estimates. He therefore desired to know on an off-the-record basis what the FBI thought relative to the extent of protest activity which would occur.

He was informed the FBI did not desire to comment since this would be entirely speculative.

Allegedly, the Antiwar Union was formed by [redacted] to continue massive public protest against U.S. military policy in Southeast Asia and for implementation of plans to disrupt the national political conventions in Miami.

[redacted] advised the FPC had established both a residence site and office facility in Miami for the FPC. The residence is located at 4462 N.W. 10th Street, telephone number 305-444-0962. The office is located in the newly opened Miami Media Office, an old Western Union facility, located at 805 5th Street, Miami Beach, Florida. The house presently is under lease at a rental of $250 per month. The office is $100 for the term until the convention, plus the cost of supplies to make it usable. There was no office phone as yet. [redacted] office/residence in Tampa is located in a [redacted] telephone [redacted]

TP T-4
May 8, 1972

In regards to finances of the FPC, a minimum operating budget of $30,000 has been developed including the following major items:

Publicity	$15,000
House and Office Rent	2,400
Utilities	300
Telephone	5,000
Food	1,200
Transportation	1,600

No problem in obtaining the $30,000 is expected as contributions from national radical organizations and profits from various benefit performances should be sufficient.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC), ALSO KNOWN AS FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC), STATE-WIDE MEETING, TAMPA, FLORIDA, MAY 5 - 6, 1972

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It was also decided that no dues would be exacted from FPC members, and that each organization participating would have one vote at the FPC State Steering Committee meetings. For instance, if the Miami FPC and Miami Women's Liberation send representatives to a meeting, each would have one vote.

A meeting has been scheduled at an unknown location in Atlanta on May 15, 1972 and May 16, 1972, at which nation-wide representation from radical organizations is expected.

This is being billed as a very important meeting at which some heavy planning will be done and it should serve as a good barometer of what will ultimately happen in Miami. Since current indications are that the RNC will probably be held in Miami sometime in August, FPC is including that in its planning, too. Representatives from FPC's counterpart in San Diego, which had been planning for the RNC there, are expected to attend the Atlanta meeting and FPC is hopeful that many of their ideas can be utilized in Miami.

May 8, 1972

Following the discussion of the May 15, 1972 meeting the second agenda item was a report by [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) about an action to take place on May 20, 1972. This will include a benefit concert in Tampa to raise funds for the FPC and a rally co-sponsored by FPC and the South Tampa Military Counselling Center, to be held at the main gate of MacDill Air Force Base. FPC voted to co-sponsor this action while agreeing that any civil disobedience should be removed from this action so that they will not be linked.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC), ALSO KNOWN AS FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC), STATE-WIDE MEETING, TAMPA, FLORIDA MAY 5 - 6, 1972

Demonstrations to take place at the forthcoming DNC and RNC in Miami were discussed. It was agreed that the focus of attention would be on the Republican rather than Democratic convention. It was mentioned that the main thrust would be at the Republicans and the hope was that Mc Govern, although it was doubtful, would get the Democratic nomination.

[redacted] of the FPC gave the impression of being at odds with [redacted] and his national organizations, the Antiwar Union and the Indochina Information Center. [redacted] wants control of the demonstrations to take place at the national conventions, but fears [redacted] and the national groups will gain control since [redacted] only has about five followers.

[redacted] apparently will act in a low profile during the conventions and if he goes to Miami it may be only toward the end of the conventions. He wants to avoid the "Chicago image" and his current conviction appeal seems to be what has prompted this action. b6 b7C

The Indochina Information Center was established only about two months ago. Already there appears to be a power struggle for control. [redacted] of the Center and [redacted] appeared to be at odds with each other.

May 8, 1972

The tone of the demonstrations is still intended to be peaceful and legal. It was pointed out that another "Chicago" at the Democratic Convention would preclude the possibility of any kind of demonstration at all at the Republican Convention. There was also a lengthy debate on whether FPC should support a particular candidate and while most people favored McGovern, it was agreed that no formal statement of support would be made, at least for the present, and that the endorsement by all candidates of FPC's three point Peoples Platform should be sought.

It was also agreed that since the Democratic Party overall appeared move favorable to FPC goals than the Republican Party, the demonstrations in July should be low key and designed to educate the delegates and the public on its three point platform. For the Republican Convention, which FPC regards as hostile to its demands, the demonstrations will be more active and vocal, employing larger numbers of people and intend to force the delegates to recognize their demands through sheer weight of numbers.

May 8, 1972

This meeting then moved into overall discussion of the entire time period between the beginning of the DNC and the end of the RNC. [redacted] pushed the view spawned by [redacted] that the RNC has overwhelming priority and that since liberal Democrats will effectively deal with the DNC and media people will deal with the period between the DNC and RNC, that the task of the left is to deal with the RNC exclusively. The expected effect on Nixon, who is considered by this school of thought a shoo-in winner for re-election, is to put pressure on him to stop all form of United States presence in Southeast Asia- implementation of the FPC three point program.

[redacted] and [redacted] countered, saying that this approach was not good enough in that it completely ignores domestic issues and represents a tacit alliance with liberal Democrats. It also leaves Mc Govern (should he be nominated, which they consider highly unlikely) open to the attack of being called the candidate of the left. They felt instead that 1) both conventions should be dealt with as the separate events they are; 2) that the interim period is especially important to the success of the actions; 3) a Peoples Platform should be developed. It was further discussed with the adoption of the following basic outlines: 1) that a happening (Woodstock type) as has been proposed by New Party and Zippie is unacceptable; 2) that the DNC should be related to in a very low key educational way to prevent backlash by police or community people harming the RNC effort; 3) that separate analysises be developed about both conventions to allow for maximum effect at minimal cost; and 4) that a united front be developed to act in concert in addition to any other actions done by individual constituencies.

After lengthy discussion, the DNC analysis ran like this. Although Mc Govern would be the most valuable candidate in terms of ending the war, both his home policy and the lack of belief that he can be nominated preclude him being acceptable broadly. It was argued that since Humphrey's nomination will probably set off massive walk-outs by delegates pledged to McGovern, Jackson and Chisholm, the efforts of the left should be concentrated on low key education projects. These projects are to be based on the Peoples Platform concepts of tying the Southeast Asia war, the sinking economy, and general malaise of the American people together. This albatross will be hung around the neck of the Republicans and expecially Nixon. This, it is thought, would give the liberal Democrats the chance to get what they can inside while still leaving all avenues open to the left at the RNC.

The period between the conventions is to be a period of massive community support building work in the Miami-Miami Beach area. This will be an attempt to inform the people who live in this area what is planned and to explain, in detail, why the events are planned. It is also seen as a period of intensive preparation for the RNC based largely upon the type of outcome of the DNC in terms of the goals as outlined above.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC), ALSO KNOWN AS FLORIDA PEOPLE'S PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC), STATE-WIDE MEETING, TAMPA, FLORIDA MAY 5 - 6, 1972

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The activities centering around the RNC are to be designed to express outrage and to explain why this outrage is felt. Since it is felt that the media will be turning outward from the convention - the outcome of which is certain - for their story, massive education campaigns are to be mounted to make the demonstrators knowledgeable as to the record of this administration both on the foreign and domestic fronts. Large, media oriented, displays and street theatre are planned to maximize the effect of the media coverage. Furthermore, [redacted] is in Washington, D.C., [redacted] He has amassed a great deal of equipment and expertise in this field and is confident of a real bang-up job in that area. At least one massive march and rally is planned to develop the feeling of united front among all present and to add power to the media image. Civil disobedience and other Mayday-type tactics are to be condoned unlike at the DNC. It is felt that these actions express better the outrage at what Nixon has done. It is believed that just as with President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968, the left has the power to discredit the incumbent to the degree that he will be unable to win. The exact nature of the events outside of the 'united front' actions is to be left to the skills and resources of the groups doing them. It was, in summary, decided to use, develop, and organize, using the three point Peace Proposal and the developing People's Platform.

It was decided that FPC will give each organizational affiliate one vote. This system replaces a two vote per region scheme that has prevailed to date. It was brought out that the Tallahassee FPC grouping is prepared to send two full time staff to the Miami Office and support the same for the period of the term between now and the end of the RNC. There was some minor discussion of finances and a women's meeting of small significance.

It's campsite or confrontation, Yippie leader declares here

Yippie leader Abbie Hoffman has given the City of Miami Beach one week to designate a campsite for thousands of non-delegates expected to arrive here for this summer's two political conventions.

If the city does not designate a site by then, Hoffman said, "We will advise young people to defend themselves —to prepare for a confrontation."

Hoffman said, "If the city, A Beach police spokesman already indicated he expects a decision by the first week of June.

Leaders Of Youths Back Plan

By JOHN McDERMOTT And ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writers

A proposed encampment site on Miami Beach for demonstrators during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions drew immediate support Tuesday from youth leaders but outspoken opposition from Miami Beach councilmen.

The proposal, by Beach Mayor Chuck Hall, was that the athletic field at Miami Beach Senior High be turned over to the demonstrators with the city-owned, nearby par-three golf course used to handle the overflow.

The Miami Beach mayor, urging the citizenry not to be terrified by predictions of violence, said much of the potential trouble could be averted, if the encampment project is approved.

HALL told the Tiger Bay Political Club at the Dupont Plaza Hotel that several of the "hippie, yippie and zippie leaders," representing a cross section of youths, approve the idea.

County Manager Ray Goode also favors the proposal, Hall reported following talks with the manager at the courthouse.

However, the mayor's suggestion drew opposition from other members of the Miami Beach council.

Councilman Harold Rosen said he didn't want to give the demonstrators anything — "none of our public facilities. I don't want to be an appeaser for those people."

COUNCILMAN Leonard Weinstein also didn't want the demonstrators to be given use of any public facilities, especially those which would bring them close to the schools.

Councilman Herbert Magnes said he was "very much opposed" to giving demonstrators an encampment, saying it should be separated from residential areas. Greene's suggestion for possible encampment sites would include the U.S. government reservation at the south end of Miami Beach, the dog track parking lot if owners were agreeable, Watson Island or the old Port of Miami on the Miami mainland.

Most of the councilmen voiced a sentiment expressed by the mayor that the federal government pay any subsidies which might be necessitated, because the conventions are a national problem.

Councilman Leonard Harber called Hall's suggestion "premature." He suggested taking no action until more concrete information was available on the plans of the would-be demonstrators.

COUNCILMAN Robert Goodman also disputed Hall's recommendation. He likened it to a blanket invitation for "neighbors" to visit one's home without specifying whether the neighbors be persons who lived close by or in an area of 20 blocks.

Goodman called Hall's proposal "crystal ball gazing" without knowing the actual needs.

Councilmen Greene and Rosen voted against inviting both the Democratic and Republican conventions to meet here. Weinstein joined the opposition when the council majority of Hall, Manes, Haber and Goodman voted to invite the Republicans here after San Diego fizzled out.

County Manager Ray Goode — chosen by Gov. Reubin Askew to coordinate plans for non-delegates — said he agrees with Hall's suggestion.

"I spoke with Mayor Hall before the Tiger Bay meeting and I agreed that this would be a good place," he said.

Bill Ritter, 22, spokesman for the newly-formed Miami Conventions Coalition, greeted Hall's proposal as "a good first step." The MCC was formed last week in a merger of the San Diego Convention Coalition, which had planned protests in San Diego when the Republican Convention was scheduled for that city, and the Florida People's Coalition, including the Miami Liberation Front.

THE MCC is an effort, Ritter said, to pull together various protest movements into one coalition which can bargain for such things as a camp site for demonstrators.

Equally favorable response to Hall's proposal came from Jerry Rubin, a spokesman for the Youth International Party, one of the groups planning to demonstrate.

"We support it completely," Rubin said of the encampment site. "That would go a long was toward making sure Miami Beach does not have another Chicago."

Rubin said he and other Yippies met with Hall Friday and expressed a willingness to work with public officials to keep order.

"WE TOLD Chuck Hall we were willing to make an alliance with the city," he said. "Chaos at the Democratic convention will play into the hands of the reactionairies. We don't want that."

Chuck LaMont, spokesman for the National Convention of Gay Organizations, said that group has requested a campsite on Twenty-First Street Beach and will continue to negotiate for that location.

"We are not diabolically opposed to Mayor Hall's suggestion, but we feel that a separate gay campsite is needed because of possibile animosities from other demonstrators with anti-gay feelings," LaMont said.

HE SAID the group prefers Twenty-First Street Beach "because it's a world known gay beach and is very close to the social and community gay life of Miami Beach."

Hall predicted an encampment, where the youths could assemble, let off steam and plan their "peaceful" demonstrations, would ensure "cool" conventions instead of a repeat of the violence which erupted at Chicago during the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

He also discounted estimates that 100,000 to 200,000 youthful demonstrators will come here for the July 10-13 Democratic Convention and the Aug. 21-23 Republican Convention.

His own forecast was 20,000 to 30,000 "or less."

As for the possibilities of violence, Hall said he has met with representatives of various youth organizations and they have assured him they want peace.

"I HOPE they do . . . and we will try to take them at their word," he said.

But, he warned, the best strategy is to be prepared and go make possible a suitable encampment site.

The youths, he explained, don't want to be based at some faraway place such as the Interama site northwest of Miami Beach, or even on the beaches themselves.

"They are asking for an encampment in the city, not on the ocean," he explained.

Hall turned down the use of the city-owned Bayshore Golf Course saying he did not want to risk the damage which it might undergo.

THE MAYOR said that if the city cooperates and give youths a bivouac area from which to operate their leaders have assured him they will remain there only during the convention period.

That would mean vacating the area between conventions and thus minimizing the trouble potential throughout the six-week period, he said.

Hall said he is "concerned that someone" is making a concerted attempt to terrify the residents of Miami Beach and all of South Florida by predicting riots and disorders.

Senior citizens, in particular, are terrified by such reports, he said.

AS A result, Hall said he has asked federal authorities to investigate and determine if there isn't a planned campaign underway to create an atmosphere of fear by unknown elements.

Regardless, the mayor said his own prognosis of the conventions is that the Democratic one is likely to be "cool" if either Sen. George McGovern or Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey get the nomination — especially McGovern because he has the backing of many of the youths who would be demonstrating.

The Republican convention, however, is more likely to be a target, Hall said, because the youths want to demonstrate against President Nixon.

A group of young black students who gather around Dillard High School in Fort Lauderdale and who refer to themselves as United Black Students apparently no longer meet. This group formerly discussed black culture and history subjects. The members of the group have disbanded. Some have entered the military service and others are in college or have moved from the area.

There is still no indication of any black extremist activity at the Fort Lauderdale area. There is no indication that anyone has been in the Fort Lauderdale area recruiting or organizing blacks, young or otherwise, for activities at the upcoming political conventions on Miami Beach.

LATE NEWS BRIEFS

U.S. force for conventions denied

WASHINGTON — The government has rejected a request by Miami Beach for a 1,000-member special force consisting of members of the armed services for the Democratic and Republican national conventions this summer. It said, however, it might consider an alternative force.

The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, which provides grants to local and state police forces, said today it had looked into the request and decided that "use of military personnel in this matter would be inappropriate."

Herald Staff Writer

The federal government Wednesday rejected Miami Beach's request for the creation of an elite, 1,000-member military "Convention Peace Corps" but said it might consider an alternative force to help keep the peace this summer.

The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, which has spent some $500,000 to train and equip the Beach police and some from other departments, said it had decided that the "use of military personnel in this manner would be inappropriate."

THE BEACH City Council, in its 4-3 vote May 3 to invite the Republican National Convention, had called for the creation of the special corps to help police the GOP conclave Aug. 21-23 and the Democratic National Convention July 10-13.

Proposed by Councilmen Robert Goodman and Leonard Haber, the corps was to have included "1,000 duly qualified men and women" computer-chosen and "rigidly selected from suitable and appropriate branches of the armed forces of the United States."

The criteria for their selection were to have been "a history and experience of skill, intelligence, tact and psychological qualities, persuasiveness and diplomacy," and they were to have been deputized as police officers for the convention period.

The LEAA said that it feels "the general concept for a substantial police-community relations project during the conventions is a good one and the agency would give serious consideration to a grant application for a project of that sort."

THE AGENCY said it is discussing several possible projects with Florida and Beach officials, but it declined to elaborate.

Goodman and Haber, who had discussed their corps proposal with LEAA administrator Jerris Leonard before bringing it to a vote and had said it had his support, said Wednesday they were not surprised at the LEAA's decision.

"Although I disagree with their philosophy on this, I am not surprised, nor am I disappointed," said Haber. He said LEAA officials had spoken with him about the plan.

"I disagree with them," said Haber, "because I think that the fear of people pointing to the military route of the thing and therefore concluding that it's a bad thing is not one I subscribe to anymore than I do to the astronauts, who happen to come from the military."

GOODMAN SAID he was "disappointed, because I thought it had a lot of merit."

But he said he had met with Police Chief Rocky Pomerance and police officials from Washington and Los Angeles and was "more confident that we will be in a position of readiness and be able to accommodate a large number of people . . . barring any unforeseen problems."

City Manager Clifford O'Key said he "would like to investigate what alternative they have in mind." But he said the city's planning "is not contingent on (the special corps) being trained on the scene."

Clouded thinking about protesters

We think there is reason to examine the community's rising anxiety over the protesters expected at the presidential conventions in July and August on Miami Beach.

Inflamed by thoughtless or deliberately provocative commentary, much of it emanating from the plethora of radio talk shows, whole segments of the community seem on the verge of hysteria. Apparently they envision hordes of violence-prone radicals swarming over the city.

Well, no one would deny that demonstrations can lead to violence. For that reason elaborate security precautions have been made a part of the convention planning. Police officers have even been given special training for this difficult assignment.

In addition, in order to forestall developments that could lead to disorder, certain common sense arrangements are necessary. Mayor Chuck Hall alluded to this phase of convention planning in public remarks Tuesday when he suggested designating certain areas as camp sites for non-delegate visitors. The adverse reaction on his colleagues on the Miami Beach Council underlined the fallacies that have sprung up around this entire issue.

The first is that the act of preparing to accommodate protesters is the same as inviting them to the convention. It isn't, and it might clarify the point to examine it from the other side. If the community makes no preparations, would anyone assume that the protesters will stay away?

A second fallacy, an equally futile exercise in semantics, is whether or not local government has a responsibility to provide camping areas, toilets, emergency health and legal facilities and so on. Let's assume that there is no such responsibility, moral or legal. Will the situation be improved, will it be less volatile, if we forget about such preparations and let the protesters survive as best they can? We think not, and fortunately, neither do the authorities.

Still another false notion is that the protesters will arrive in unimaginable numbers — a hundred thousand, is a commonly heard figure — and that they will be bent on violence. Well, not even the authorities have had much success in securing an estimate of the number of non-delegate visitors. The best guesses are nowhere near a hundred thousand.

Furthermore, the avowed purpose of every group we have heard about is to demonstrate for this or that cherished cause in a peaceful manner. As we said, the prospect of violence is always present, but it will be greatly diminished if our public officials are able to make preparations of the type Mayor Hall proposes without interference from a lot of overwrought observers who cannot or will not examine the matter in a rational manner.

The conventions and the courts

Round-the-clock magistrate system aims at prompt hearings

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Judges will be pulled from Dade's trial courts to serve in a committing magistrate system that will function 24 hours a day if necessary during the national political conventions, Circuit Court Judge Thomas E. Lee Jr. told The Miami News today.

"We have seen the quality of justice decrease in other areas of the country during times of civil disorder," Lee said. "That will not happen here."

Lee and 10 other judicial officers last year developed, as a project for the Florida Bar, a proposed master plan to deal with the administration of justice during civil disturbances.

That plan will be implemented in Miami if necessary during the conventions, Lee said.

"We release these plans to the people not as a warning but to reassure them that plans have been made to protect the citizens and the rights of those charged with crimes," he said.

Here are the goals of the master plan:

● The arrest and effective prosecution of those who riot and engage in related crimes.

● Prompt arraignment and judicial hearings for arrested persons under conditions which comply with the letter and spirit of due process and do not aggravate community relations.

● The maintenance of bail and release reforms despite riot conditions, and the protection of the rights of arrested persons.

● The dissemination of adequate detailed information regarding persons arrested and the use of impartial observers to report the proceedings back to the community.

To meet these general goals elaborate procedures have been set up.

Judges and lawyers

All of the judges of Metro circuit, criminal and juvenile courts will serve at some time at the magistrate court, which will be set up at the Metro justice building and operated 24 hours a day.

Before the Democratic convention all of the judges will attend a one-day class on procedures with the emphasis on uniformity of charges and bail.

"Excessive bail may further inflame the situation and, besides depriving the defendant of his freedom, also waste court and counsel time in subsequent bail reduction hearings. Bail is to be provided only to assure the presence of a defendant in trial and not punitive purposes," the master plan cautions.

The public defender's office, the American Civil Liberties Union and the Florida Bar will make legal counsel available for persons arrested during demonstrations or related incidents.

Public defenders will be used only in the case of indigent suspects. Persons who are arrested and are found to have the financial means to afford a lawyer will be required to pay for services rendered.

The lawyers will attend a two-day school on the emergency procedures some time before the Democratic Convention, July 10-13.

Prosecuting attorneys will be drafted from the office of the state attorney and the county attorney. They also will be on hand at the Metro Justice Building in shifts 24 hours a day.

Suspects and police

All of those arrested in the vicinity of the convention hall will be taken to a staging area near the convention hall by the arresting officer.

The location of the staging areas will not be released to the public.

At the staging area a short form arrest and booking procedure will be used. Two photographs will be taken of the suspect with the arresting officer. The suspect will be searched, his right thumb print and the date and time of the arrest will be recorded on the back of the photograph.

A multi-purpose simplified arrest form will be filled out containing the badge number of the arresting officer, the name of the suspect, the suggested charge, the approximate time and place of the arrest and a brief summary of the conduct involved.

The arresting officer will assist in the preparation of the complaint and arrest forms and he will be required to swear to the complaint before the court clerk assigned to the staging area.

The police officer will then be free to return to his post.

Another detail for transportation will take the prisoners to the Metro Justice Building to be booked.

Immediately after booking and consultation with attorneys the prisoner will be taken before a magistrate, or if a juvenile, before a juvenile court judge.

The magistrate will then determine if the prisoner should be released on bail, released on his own recognizance or released through some other method such as a station house summons — similar to a traffic ticket. Or the suspect may be booked into jail.

At this time also juveniles will be separated from adults and male prisoners will be separated from female prisoners. Persons charged with felonies or other serious crimes will be separated from those accused of less serious crimes.

If jail is recommended, the women will be held at the City of Miami jail, the men at the Metro jail and the juveniles at the Kendall Children's Home.

Information

Two different information centers will be set up and in operation on a 24-hour basis. One information center will be for police and governmental information to be used by the press. It will be manned by experienced information officers and located at the principal operations and command center. The plan suggests that it be made easily accessible to all representatives of the media.

The location will not be disclosed to the public.

A second information center will be set up at the Metro Justice Building to be used by the friends, family and lawyers of those who have been arrested.

Ten volunteers will man five phones day and night. Anyone may call the numbers — which will be released later — and find out the present status of any person believed to be arrested.

Trials

Persons arrested for civil disorder or other related incidents during the conventions will not be brought to trial until such time as the civil disorder is over and the community has had an opportunity to "calm down," the plan suggests.

At that time defendants will be charged separately and individually and each case decided on its individual merits.

When possible, offenses committed within the boundaries of any municipality will be tried by the court of that municipality, when the offense is within the jurisdiction of that court. Offenses occurring within the unincorporated areas will be tried in county and-or state courts.

U.S. won't send military for convention duties

The federal government has rejected a Miami Beach request for a thousand soldiers to maintain order during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

Yesterday's decision by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in Washington brought mixed reactions from officials in Dade County.

The LEAA said "the use of military personnel this summer would be inappropriate."

"The general concept for a substantial police-community relations project during the conventions is a good one and the agency would give serious consideration to a grant application for a project of this sort," an LEAA news release stated.

On May 3, when the Miami Beach City Council voted to invite the Republicans to convene on the resort strip it requested a special peace keeping force from the federal government.

The force would have been on duty from July 1 through August 31. The Democrats will convene from July 10-13 and the Republicans from Aug. 21-23.

Officials in Miami Beach and Washington said alternative security steps were being considered, but could not be publicly disclosed.

"I wouldn't be so bold as to suggest that there will be no trouble," said City Manager Clifford O'Key, "but civil order will be maintained."

O'Key said enough federal security forces of some sort "will be available — there's no question about it."

When Don Printz, president of the Miami Police Benevolent Association, heard about the LEAA decision, he said:

"It appears the process of selecting the President is going to be nothing but just more and more turmoil each time around. I think they should bring the federal troops in."

Oliver Bright, president of the Greater Miami Crime Commission, said "local law enforcement is not adequate" to handle events that may occur in connection with the conventions.

"I'd like to see one of the conventions get out of Miami Beach," he said. "If it doesn't, then the federal government better provide adequate protection."

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, expressing approval of the idea of specially trained convention security forces, indicated he thought it would be "inappropriate" to use military personnel.

The chief said he was confident federal authorities were "exploring all possible avenues to be of further assistance."

As you know, the site of the Republican National Convention has been changed from San Diego, California, to Miami Beach, Florida. The date of the convention remains August 21-24, 1972.

Referenced communications set out instructions for the development and handling of information concerning demonstrations during these conventions. These instructions remain in effect with the exception that communications concerning demonstrations at Republican National Convention should now be sent to Miami. "MIREP" will be used as the code word for demonstrations during the Republican National Convention replacing "CALREP."

Bureau letter of 4/4/72 instructed that LHM on certain individuals were to be sent to the Miami and San Diego Offices. In view of the change in the convention site, San Diego will have no need for these memoranda.

Information concerning groups that will sponsor or participate in demonstrations during the conventions should be furnished promptly and on a continuing basis to the Bureau and Miami.

In addition, informants should be targeted against those organizations or groups which (1) have demonstrated a propensity for violence in the past, (2) have engaged in acts of civil disobedience in the past which could possibly lead to violence at the conventions, (3) have planned actions to disrupt the conventions, or (4) are known to be under the control or influence of the Communist Party or other revolutionary groups. To insure that adequate informant coverage exists and sources are available to travel with such organizations or groups, the Bureau and Miami should be furnished with the size of the contingent expected to travel, mode of travel, informant coverage available, as well as the identity of the sources who will be traveling with the group. Once it is determined that the group is actually going to Miami Beach an immediate request of the Bureau for authority for such travel by the informant should be made.

It is the Bureau's responsibility to collect and promptly disseminate information on any planned disruptions. For this reason each office should be continuously alert to activity in its territory relating to the conventions. Information developed is to be promptly reported by teletype or airtel, whichever is deemed appropriate, consistent with the nature of the information and should thereafter be followed by LHM. Miami Office should, of course, receive copies of these communications. Memoranda are to be prepared in a concise and professional manner. Where rumor is reported, it should be clearly labeled as such. However, every effort should be made in such cases to verify unsupported allegations.

You will be expected to furnish this matter continuous and preferred attention to assure that the Bureau's responsibilities are met.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an undated underground type newspaper called the "Beach Blanket News" was distributed in the Miami, Florida area over the weekend of May 26, 1972. This newspaper was identified as being published by the Youth International Party.

The Youth International Party (YIP) is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

The "Beach Blanket News" contained articles mainly relating to the national political conventions scheduled for Miami Beach during the summer of 1972. Page 6 contained an article captioned "Zip in the Sky". This article stated the Federal Government had announced there would be sky marshals on every flight going in and out of Miami during the convention. "These sky marshals have often in the past demonstrated their extreme danger to passengers. On numerous occasions they have started waving their guns around and shooting people, freaking out entirely at the slightest provocation and totally mishandling the liberation of occasional planes. Therefore, YIP will hope to have zippies on every flight trained in non-violent pacification armed with tranquilizer guns and experienced in calming these people off their bad trip.

Enclosed are two copies of the basic organization chart of the Miami Office dealing with receiving and disseminating information prior to and during the coming Democratic National Convention. It is believed the same organization would be applicable with respect to the Republican National Convention, perhaps on a slightly larger scale.

The responsibilities of the various units indicated on this chart are as follows:

Desk number three handles investigations dealing with Cubans and communist action organizations.

Desk number nine handles investigations dealing with the New Left, extremist, and bombing matters.

The two Cuban, two communist, two New Left, and two extremist coordinators are Agents well experienced in these fields, and are responsible for targeting Agents and informants for gathering intelligence regarding demonstrations planned, in progress, or completed, together with appropriate dissemination by teletype to the Bureau, to intelligence liaison coordinators prior to the convention, and FBI Command Post during the convention through the intelligence liaison coordinators.

Agents assigned to the respective coordinators are generally experienced in these fields, will handle informants and gather intelligence regarding demonstrations planned, in progress or completed.

The two informant coordinators will be on duty round the clock during the convention to receive informant reports, and emergency targeting thereof, in the temporary absence of any handling Agent. It is expected a number of informants from other offices will be in this area accompanying protest groups.

The two intelligence liaison coordinators will prepare and disseminate to, as well as receive from, interested agencies at the Combined Intelligence Center prior to the convention, and during the convention to the Command Post for immediate dissemination to the interested agencies, information relating to protest demonstrations contemplated or in progress. These Agents will prepare a daily summary teletype relative to demonstrations, and significant incidents which occur during the day, and planned for the next day, this teletype being in addition to the individual dissemination of teletypes prepared under the captions of the various organizations handled by the Cuban, communist, New Left, and extremist coordinators.

The photo lookout Agents will observe and photograph protest demonstrations in the immediate vicinity of the convention complex for evidentiary purposes in connection with possible violations of the Antiriot Laws, Assaulting Federal Officer, etc., and disseminate their observations during the course thereof to the FBI Command Post, and/or coordinators.

The FBI Command Post at the convention complex will disseminate, and receive from the interested agencies at the Combined Intelligence Center, routine and urgent information regarding demonstrations planned, or in progress. Will disseminate, and receive by direct line to the Secret Service Command Post, urgent information such as that relating to the safety of candidates.

The Combined Intelligence Center now being created under Intelligence Supervisor [redacted] Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement, will receive intelligence information from all agencies relating to demonstrations planned, in progress, or completed, and coordinate the investigative effort of local law enforcement agencies. The Bureau will be represented by an intelligence liaison coordinator at this center prior to the convention and by the FBI Command Post during the convention. It is noted [redacted] is scheduled to attend the FBI National Academy during its [redacted] session.

The Secret Service Command Post, which is located directly adjacent to the North Hall, where the convention deliberations will be held, is in charge of all Secret Service operations relating to the convention, inside the convention hall, protection of candidates on and off the convention complex, and their own intelligence operations relative to activity of protest demonstrations.

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. The Zeigtgeist International Party (Zippies) is the political wing of the YIP.

It was previously reported that virtually all of the planning for YIP activities at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) has been conducted by the Madison, Wisconsin YIP chapter. At the initial planning meeting held in Madison in January, 1972, THOMAS KING FORCADE, YIP activist from New York City and member of the Underground Press Syndicate, was the principal instigator of the move to oust former YIP national leaders ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN from their leadership positions. It was reported that FORCADE was one of those who would possibly attempt to take control of the organization during the convention activities.

ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Antiriot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending an appeal, they were released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago.

During early May, 1972, both the FORCADE faction and the ABBIE HOFFMAN - JERRY RUBIN faction of YIP met with officials of the Miami Beach Police Department and claimed to represent the national leadership of the YIP. A YIP National Congress was scheduled for May 26-28, 1972, to be held at the Center for Dialogue, Miami.

In May, 1972, ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN rented [redacted] for which they paid a $300.00 deposit. b6 b7C Registered as occupants of [redacted] This group, representing themselves as the YIP, also rented office space at Rooms [redacted] for which a $1,200.00 deposit was paid. Four telephones in rotor sequence were installed in this office, telephone numbers [redacted] through [redacted]

Also in May, 1972, TOM FORCADE moved into a house at 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, where a number of recently arrived YIP activists from Madison and other sections of the country were permitted to lodge. FORCADE published the first issue of a YIP newspaper called "Beach Blanket News" and attempted to organize a YIP chapter. He was instrumental in causing the cancellation of the YIP "National Congress" at the Center for Dialogue and in its place he scheduled a three-day "Conclave", to begin with a banquet at his residence on May 26, 1972.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Reportedly members of the HOFFMAN - RUBIN YIP faction were excluded from this activity, which was totally disorganized.

On May 27, 1972, a planning and strategy session was scheduled at FORCADE's residence and this was reportedly to be attended by the HOFFMAN - RUBIN faction in an effort to work out the differences between the two factions. This meeting was held at the FORCADE residence with about 40 persons in attendance including HOFFMAN, RUBIN, and their associates. Although the meeting was ostensibly for the purpose of ironing out their differences, HOFFMAN and RUBIN staged a well-planned and effective attack against FORCADE, blaming him for all the difficulties and factionalism divisions within the YIP. At the conclusion a motion was passed expelling FORCADE from the YIP and naming him a "police provacateur and/or maniac." Immediately following this vote, FORCADE departed alone. FORCADE's followers were encouraged to remain within the organization.

In the future the YIP will be run by a YIP collective of 12 or 13 members, including HOFFMAN and RUBIN, and all decisions will be made by the collective. HOFFMAN and RUBIN may continue to act publicly as YIP spokesmen due to their widespread popularity. Activity during the first week or two of June will be devoted to issuing a "Survival Handbook" and YIP leaflets, and it is not expected that any strategy planning relating to the conventions will be conducted.

FORCADE, while no longer affiliated with the YIP, may attempt to form a separate group and continue to use the name ZIP or Zippies for this group.

In late May, 1972, thousands of YIP leaflets were distributed throughout Miami Beach containing the word "Danger" at the top and "Save Miami Beach" at the bottom. This leaflet, issued by the YIP collective at the Meridian Medical Center, stated that the YIP had come to Miami Beach to focus protests and the energy of the young people into peaceful demonstrations and urged all Miami Beach citizens to contact their Government representatives and request accommodations for the expected 100,000 protesters in order to maintain peace. The leaflet states "We will have a peaceful summer if the city stops dragging its feet and starts negotiating with us. But without planning, we are headed for the chaos of Chicago".

On May 30, 1972, TOM FORCADE and a small group of his followers came to the YIP collective office on the second floor of the Meridian Medical Center, 1674 Meridian Avenue, and were physically ejected by HOFFMAN and his group. HOFFMAN's group was extremely concerned when FORCADE was later reported to be observed outside the building carrying what appeared to be a can of gasoline. b7D

B. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)

FPC, also known as the Florida People's Platform Coalition (FPPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the DNC in Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

The FPC has obtained a residence in Miami located at 4462 N. W. 10th Street, telephone number 444-0962. Its office is located at 805 5th Street, Miami Beach.

MM T-7 [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

A national FPC conference was held in Washington, D. C. on May 17-18, 1972, with representatives present from other national protest groups, including the Anti-War Union and the San Diego Convention Coalition. On the first day it was generally agreed that no national group would explicitly direct all protest activities at the conventions and local organizations would have a major voice in the overall planning. It was also agreed that there should be minimal action at the DNC as compared to the Republican National Convention (RNC) since any violent action at the former would result in counteraction by police and possibly negate the activities of a massive effort at the RNC. It was reported that [redacted] of the Anti-War Union would not accept the philosophy of the umbrella-type group and would independently organize to conduct his own activities at the conventions.

On the second day of the FPC conference, agreement was reached on use of the FPC seven-point peace plan as the major organizing tool. It was generally agreed that during the DNC all protest activity would be tightly controlled and attention would be directed toward promoting the differences between the two factions within the convention hall, more specifically toward turning the Democratic Party toward the left. At the RNC a concerted attack will be made on the foreign and domestic policies of the NIXON administration. It was generally felt the news media would devote more attention to radical protest activities outside the convention hall at the RNC since the nominee is certain to be President NIXON. All parties agreed that in the final stages of the RNC massive demonstrations and "May Day" type activities would occur.

MM T-7 [redacted] b7D

The above meetings were plenary sessions held principally between the San Diego and Florida representatives and formed a general background for the main conference of national protest groups held on May 19 and 20, 1972. At this main conference the following occurred:

Plans for the conventions were kept in very broad terms, with the discussions being broken down into two phases dealing with the DNC and RNC.. During the Democratic phase it was decided the demonstrations should be kept in a "soft tone" and the conference hoped to have the DNC support the three-point program of the Anti-War Union. This three-point program is (1) Immediate withdrawal from Southeast Asia; (2) Removal of the South Vietnam THIEU Government; and (3) Payment of reparations to South Vietnam. The conference also hoped to involve the various constituency groups in demanding acceptance of this three-point program by the DNC.

Regarding the Republican session, a general three-day program was adopted as follows:

First day, massive demonstrations, presumably peaceful; second day, constituency action by individual groups; and third day, massive civil disobedience.

MM T-8 [redacted] b7D

At the conclusion of the above meetings a position paper was issued declaring formation of the Miami Conventions Coalition. The position paper states the following points were agreed on:

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

(1) The Republican Convention should be the major focus of anti-war activity.

(2) The tone of the demonstrations should be one of confrontation, serious resistance, and non-violent civil disobedience.

(3) Organizers for the convention activity will attempt to build alliances with different groups, that is "third world people", women, "gay people", students and youth, veterans, labor and the elderly.

(4) Strength of the organization depends on people coming well-organized to the convention actions from different regions and cities.

(5) At the DNC emphasis will be placed upon support for constituency actions, spirited but low-key anti-war street presence, lobbying, propaganda and expose.

(6) The Miami Conventions Coalition will not publicly support anyone for the candidacy.

It was also indicated that "Expose '72", a large exposition of anti-war, anti-administration and third world community topics would be promoted as a tool for national and international organizations. Topics would include exhibits on the air war, economy, Chicano and black movements; continuous showing of movies; workshops; guerrilla theater; and publishing of an underground type newspaper.

MM T-4

[redacted] for the newly-formed Miami Conventions Coalition, said the Miami Conventions Coalition was formed last week in a merger of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the FPC, including the Miami Liberation Front. According to RITTER, the Miami Conventions Coalition is an effort to pull together various protest movements into one coalition which can bargain for such things as camp sites for demonstrators.

"The Miami Herald"
May 31, 1972

C. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "Participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

National leaders of the SDS in Boston have indicated disappointment with the decision to change the site of the RNC from San Diego to Miami Beach. The reasons for this are that Miami Beach lacks a youthful radical base and is isolated and easily defensible. SDS hopes for a large turnout of radical groups and individuals as was almost assured at San Diego have dwindled. Participation of SDS in the activities at the RNC in Miami Beach have not been ruled out but there is a noted decrease in enthusiasm and optimism among SDS leaders as the convention nears.

Boston SDS leaders have not held any discussions concerning activities at the DNC.

SDS Summer Projects Meeting was held at Northeastern Univeristy, Boston, June 1, 1972, and one of the topics discussed was action to be taken at RNC and DNC. SDS members were urged to attend both conventions. Demonstrations and protest marches during both conventions were planned, although a note of pessimism continued to exist as to success of RNC demonstrations due to b7D change from San Diego to Miami Beach. It was agreed that printed material was needed to publicize demonstrations at the conventions and it was decided to begin distribution of leaflets announcing SDS support for these demonstrations.

D. GAY ACTIVIST ALLIANCE (GAA)

GAA is a homosexual group headquartered at New York City whose purpose is the promoting of "gay rights". A Miami chapter of GAA was formed in early 1972.

At a rally at Columbus, Ohio, on May 21, 1972, sponsored by the GAA, a recognized student group on the campus of Ohio State University, an announcement was made urging everyone to go to the national political conventions in Miami and stating if they could not be at both conventions, they should plan to be at the DNC. The announcement stated arrangements should be made through the GAA office in Miami.

MM T-10

[redacted] of the Chicago chapter of GAA has recently been in Miami organizing for DNC activity by this organization. He has indicated a small gay demonstration will be held at the Lincoln Road Mall, Miami Beach, at noon on June 5, 1972. Participants will be dressed in the attire of the opposite sex and while the demonstration is ostensibly to support "gay rights", it is actually for the purpose of testing the reaction of the Miami Beach Police Department to such activity. b6 b7C b7D

MM T-11

[redacted] spokesman for the National Coalition of Gay Organizations, advised that his group has requested that the City of Miami Beach furnish his group a camp site on the 21st Street Beach, Miami Beach, which is already widely known as a "gay beach". He said a separate gay camp site is needed because of possible animosities from other demonstrators who harbor "anti-gay" feelings.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

On June 1, 1972, on the program "The Informer", a daily talk show on Miami Beach radio station WKAT, talkmaster [redacted] talked by telephone with [redacted] who identified himself as President of the Miami chapter of GAA. He related as follows: b6 b7C

The GAA has made plans for peaceful demonstrations at the site of the DNC in support of the delegates within the convention committed to the support of "gay rights". Some 50 such delegates are already committed. The expected number of gay demonstrators was estimated at over 6,000 based upon the number who attended a recent national convention in Chicago sponsored by the National Coalition of Gay Organizations. Some of the demonstrators will be dressed in "full drag", complete attire of the opposite sex, and others will be dressed in "skag drag", partial female attire or full female attire with beards. GAA considers this a political action and the demonstrations will be in support of full civil rights for all homosexuals in every field.

E. SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)

The SCLC is a civil rights organization primarily of black membership with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, formerly led by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

A spokesman for the SCLC at SCLC headquarters, Atlanta, Georgia, said on May 31, 1972, that this organization plans to hold an encampment called "Resurrection City II" in Miami Beach during the DNC. This activity will be led by SCLC leader Rev. RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY. About 300 persons, mostly poor blacks, recruited from rural Alabama, will occupy "Resurrection City II" to focus attention on the problems of the poor and to "challenge the Democratic Party to take a position". The people will live on a camp site in Miami Beach which has not yet been selected. According to the spokesman, the demonstration will include a mule train march and will be "strictly non-violent". He stated "There's no plan to be any kind of disruptive force".

disbanded on May 22, 1972. [redacted] of Snowplow, cited the lack of cooperation on the part of local authorities with the organization as the reason for its disbanding. The PCPJ is self described as consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive, nonviolent civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war. b6 b7C

PCPJ spokesman [redacted] said the PCPJ leaders have called for a massive gathering of people at Miami Beach during the RNC to engage in confrontations with the police. He said large-scale "trashing" and the abandonment of junk vehicles throughout the freeway system in Miami are contemplated.

B. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

A VVAW meeting was held on May 27 and 28, 1972, at the apartment of SCOTT CAMIL, VVAW Southern Regional Organizer, Gainesville, Florida. About 25 persons were in attendance, mostly from the southern region of the United States. The primary purpose of this meeting was to discuss VVAW convention plans and one of the major discussions concerned VVAW contingency plans in case the Government "moves in" on the VVAW. These discussions concerned establishing means of communication between regions, establishing escape routes, establishing methods of shipping supplies secretly and assuring security within the VVAW against police infiltrators.

SCOTT CAMIL and JOHN KNIFFEN, VVAW Regional Organizer from Texas, will be the focal point of all action to take place at the Miami Beach conventions. Efforts will be made to get as many people as possible to Miami Beach and to bring about a police confrontation. Large quantities of "wrist rockets", which are similar to sling shots, have been ordered for use of the VVAW demonstrators and the use of crossbows against the Miami police is being considered. Both the "wrist rocket" and crossbow were demonstrated at the meeting.

CAMIL claimed to have four or five "fire groups" composed of three to five people in each. These groups will conduct "tactical maneuvers" in the Miami area during the conventions, such as "blowing up places", using firebombs, shooting police officers with "wrist rockets" and crossbows, and placing "cherry bombs" in police cars.

VVAW members in Gainesville were instructed not to take firearms to Miami Beach and to hide the wrist rockets in the groin area or around the ankle while traveling to Miami Beach.

Efforts will be made to change the next VVAW national steering committee meeting to Miami or Gainesville rather than Milwaukee, after which the participants can proceed to the convention area. Not many VVAW members are expected to be at the DNC and their principal target will be the RNC.

Many of the VVAW members who traveled from other cities to the above VVAW meeting brought with them various weapons and a number of them engaged in target practice on a farm near Gainesville prior to the meeting.

Although SCOTT CAMIL has a tendency to exaggerate for effect, he is considered extremely dangerous and capable of executing some of his plans. He has indicated he would not hesitate to kill a police officer if provoked.

MM T-14 b7D

SCOTT CAMIL traveled to Miami on the night of May 29, 1972, and returned to Gainesville on the night of May 30, 1972. The purpose of his trip was to contact leaders of various Cuban exile groups in effort to reach an agreement with them concerning counter-demonstrations or activities against the VVAW. CAMIL contacted some official of Alpha 66, an anti-CASTRO Cuban exile organization, who stated his organization would not interfere with planned VVAW demonstrations during the conventions provided the VVAW did not carry out any pro-CASTRO activities. CAMIL at this time also made general inquiry of this individual as to a possible source of arms for his group.

MM T-15 b7D

IV. POSSIBILITY OF COUNTER-DEMONSTRATIONS AND DISTURBANCES IN ETHNIC COMMUNITIES

A. CUBAN EXILE ACTIVITIES

As previously reported, several protest organizations including the VVAW and FPC have expressed concern over the possibility of counter-demonstrations or actions by the numerous anti-communist Cuban exile organizations and individuals in the Miami area. As noted above, information was received that SCOTT CAMIL of VVAW had traveled to Miami to contact Cuban exile leaders in effort to forestall any possibility of such counter-activities against the VVAW and he reportedly reached an agreement to this effort with at least one Cuban exile organization.

On May 17, 1972, JORGE LUIS HERNANDEZ, Editor of the Spanish language newspaper "Regreso", and a member of Governor REUBIN ASKEW's Community Task Force overseeing convention preparations, warned that anti-Vietnam War demonstrations in the Miami area during the conventions might spark counter-demonstrations by Cubans. He said he anticipated potential problems with the Cuban-American community and he said there are already rumors about counter-demonstrations at Miami Beach. He expressed the opinion that counter-demonstrations might be avoided if Cubans are given a voice at each convention.

"Miami News"
May 18, 1972

b7C

On May 24, 1972, Miami Beach Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE and other Dade County police officials attended a meeting in Miami called by [redacted] on behalf of the Cuban community. The discussions concerned avoiding confrontations between the Cuban community and protest groups. [redacted] and the other Cuban leaders attending this meeting generally expressed interest in avoiding such confrontations and indicated they would make known their feelings throughout the Cuban community.

On May 25, 1972, several anti-CASTRO and anti-communist Cuban exile organizations in Miami, including Abdala, Juventud Autentico and the newly founded Comite Ejecutivo Libertador (Liberation Executive Committee) (CEL), planned to launch an attack against a meeting of the YIP scheduled to be held at the Center for Dialogue, Miami, on the night of May 26, 1972. Plans included the use of tear gas inside the building followed by physical attacks upon those persons subsequently emerging from the building. This plan was never carried out inasmuch as the YIP meeting at the Center for Dialogue was canceled. A strong possibility exists that similar counter-activities will be conducted by Cuban exile groups in the future as Juventud Autentico has indicated it hopes to destroy the idea that young Cuban exiles will quietly permit pro-communist demonstrations in Miami Beach during the forthcoming conventions.

C. PROTESTS BY MIAMI BEACH RESIDENTS

Attorney ELLIS RUBIN, Miami Beach, announced that he and 13 other persons have formed a group to oppose protest demonstrations and the use of public property by "hippies",

"Yippies" and "Zippies" and others. RUBIN said the group will be called "Operation Backbone". He called upon the local police officials to strictly enforce all local laws pertaining to Vagrancy, Loitering, etc., during the convention time.

On May 23rd, 1972 a meeting was held in Chief Pomerance's office with representatives of SCLC. Chief Pomerance, Colonel [redacted] Major [redacted] and Captain [redacted] of this department met with [redacted] SCLC coordinator and [redacted] and [redacted] an advance team for the Reverend Abernathy.

SCLC's primary concern at this time is for a camp site, of their own, for an estimated 1500 to 2000 of their followers. They requested that the location be announced soon and authorization for occupancy by July 1st. They enumerated their preferences as (1) Flamingo Park, (2) Lummus Park. These representatives were admittedly unfamiliar with this area. Chief Pomerance advised that they inspect all open areas prior to submitting their preferences and explained that he was not authorized to specify a camp site if indeed one were to be specified but that he would refer their requests to the City Manager.

[redacted] explained that SCLC intended to erect "tents and shanties" and that it was the community's responsibility to furnish toilet facilities, etc. They also requested that the City provide a large tent for shelter in the event of inclimate weather. They plan a second site somewhere in the City of Miami and intend to use charter buses for transportation between the sites. They requested some form of identification for their buses and escorts upon entering the City limits.

The SCLC representatives showed considerable concern reference an unconfirmed front-page local newspaper article referring to an "armed camp" of Cubans residing in Miami who intended to side with the police against demonstrators. They reiterated that their purpose here during the convention is not one to disrupt.

SCLC has an office in Miami from which they will direct their operations. It is located at 59 Street and 7th Avenue N.W., phone 757-6379. SCLC plans a convention of their own in Dallas, Texas during the second week in August, 1972.

Judge Outlines System for Conventions

24-Hour Courts Planned

Speedy Hearings Part of Proposal

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Judges, prosecutors, volunteer defense attorneys and detention officers will be prepared to operate a streamlined, round-the-clock court system in Miami during the two National Conventions, Circuit Judge Thomas E. Lee Jr. announced Thursday.

"We don't anticipate any civil disturbances, but we are prepared," explained Lee, chairman of the Committee for the Administration of Justice for the conventions.

"The greased system," as some attorneys are calling it, is based on a master plan prepared for the Florida Bar last year by Lee and other court officials.

HERE'S HOW the plan would work in various situations, as described by Lee in an interview:

A 13-year-old Miami youth "gets caught up in the enthusiasm" outside convention hall and is arrested for a minor violation.

The boy is processed through a "short form" booking system at a pre-selected staging area near the trouble scene. Then he is whisked to a wing of the Metro Justice Building set aside for dealing with juveniles.

If the offense is minor and if the youth's parents can be contacted, he'll possibly be released in their custody without bond, and stand trial later, after the conventions.

A key provision of the plan calls for separating juveniles from adults, and those charged with serious crimes from persons accused of minor violations.

"IF A FELLOW throws a bomb, he will be prosecuted very efficiently," Lee said.

A publicly published telephone number will connect callers to an information center with the name, charge and disposition of every prisoner, and every person who has been released.

Due process of law and efficiency are dual goals of the plan. At the staging areas, Lee explained, this will mean "getting the arresting policeman back on the job as quickly as possible and still insuring proper identification of the arrested person."

One step towards achieving this will be Polaroid photographs of the officer and prisoner together.

THE PRISONER will be searched and his right thumb print and the date and time placed on the back of the photograph. After swearing out a short-form complaint to a court clerk assigned to the staging area, the officer will return to duty.

Public defenders or other volunteer defense attorneys will be present through each stage of the process. This means, Lee said, that even a prisoner with no money will have legal counsel available through the time he is brought before a committing magistrate.

Accused persons, unless indigent, will have to hire their own lawyers for the actual trial, Lee emphasized. But trials will be scheduled later, after the conclusion of any disturbance.

Judges will be briefed in advance to insure uniform bonding policies. The general philosophy, Lee said, will be "to use alternative methods to bond whenever possible on lesser offenses," and "not to use the amount of bond as a punitive measure."

LOCATION OF staging areas and emergency overflow detention centers will not be publicized in advance, Lee said. But other key facilities have been publicly designated:

Men prisoners will be held in Metro Jail, women in the Miami City Jail. Juveniles, if not released by a magistrate, will be taken to Youth Hall or Kendall.

The Metro Justice Building will be the central court center. But teams of judges and lawyers will be supplied with special identification to enable them to cross police lines, if necessary, and hold court in other locations as needed.

RE: ZIPPIES AND VVAW -- TOM FORCADE et al.

MIDEM

On Friday, May 19th, 1972 a meeting was held in Chief Pomerance's office with self proclaimed leaders and members of the Zippie and the Viet Nam Veterans Against the War organizations. Chief Pomerance, Colonel [redacted] Sgt. [redacted] Sgt. [redacted] Captain [redacted] represented this Department. [redacted] phone [redacted] represented the VVAW. Thomas Forcade, [redacted] and [redacted] were there in behalf of the Zippies.

Tom Forcade was the spokesman for the Zippie representatives. He introduced himself as a former "Yippie" who had participated in numerous demonstrations, smoke-ins, etc. about the nation. Forcade claims to be a leader of the YIP movement, one group of a coalition of groups using the umbrella title of Zippies. He claims that he, rather than Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, is the spokesman for the movement. He spoke of the likelihood of a smoke-in here and of previous smoke-ins in New York City, Madison, Albany, Boulder and Austin.

Forcade announced that the Youth International Party has been planning for six months to come to the Democratic Convention. He expects some 50,000 to 250,000 youths to be in Miami Beach and participate in major non-violent demonstrations in specific manners. He commented that "the American public is tired of violence". His major concern is an adequate camp site for party members and he considers the Bay Shore Golf Course as the only suitable location. He predicts problems if a good camp site is not provided. Forcade claims to have worked Woodstock and other "happenings" and that the major problems to contend with were traffic and communications. YIP has recommended to all their people to bring battery radios. Station WMBM (Miami Beach) is committed to periodically broadcast counter-culture information.

[redacted] formerly with the White Panther Party, claims a close affiliation with the underground newspaper network. He commented that he did not foresee any violence at the convention, necessarily. He stated that his Party definitely does not want to see President Nixon re-elected.

[redacted] is from Pennsylvania. Her only comment was that she is an advance representative and would report back as to her findings.

[redacted] said nothing during the entire meeting.

[redacted] of the VVAW anticipates that 6000 of his group will attend the conventions. He inquired as to when he could obtain a permit for a massive assembly of people. His group anticipates to fully cooperate with the authorities and intends to "take care of their own". They too want part of the golf course with the alternative of Lummus Park. They will stage their own demonstrations in their own, to be chosen areas. Scott Camille is considered the Florida head of VVAW. [redacted] advised that Scott is currently s[illegible] trial for 1972 kidnapping and six drug arrests.

MI

cc for YIP + VVAW

Both groups concurred that "we do not oppose McGovern". They claim that currently the youth groups are calm and that McGovern can keep them that way.

Both groups expect the community to designate the Bay Shore camp site and furnish water, toilets and parking. They will acquire their own kitchen facilities from an organization titled "The Hog Farm".

YIP anticipates camping here from July 9th - 14th, then breaking camp and departing. They would like access to their site by July 2nd in order to ready it for the 9th. They anticipate constructing a stage and having rock festivals and other events daily.

Chief Pomerance inquired if the same arrangements are anticipated for the Republican Convention but received little response and no committments. Forcade commented only that they were "working on it". Chief Pomerance explained the Police Department's position reference authorization of camp sites if indeed authorization is to be granted, whereupon both groups requested, through the Chief, an opportunity to meet with the City Manager in the near future to confirm a camp site area.

One of the nation's major civil rights groups, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, announced plans Wednesday for a "Resurrection City II" encampment on Miami Beach during the Democratic National convention July 10-14.

Meanwhile, a proposal that convention demonstrators be allowed to camp on the athletic field of Miami Beach Senior High School ran into complications. School officials said Beach High is scheduled to be in session this summer with more than 500 students.

SCLC headquarters in Atlanta said about 300 persons, mostly poor blacks recruited from rural Alabama, will occupy Resurrection City II to focus attention on the problems of the poor and "challenge the Democratic Party to take a position." The original Resurrection City encampment was held in Washington in 1968.

THE REV. RALPH David Abernathy will leave Atlanta today to recruit volunteers for the Miami Beach demonstration, the spokesman said.

He said the demonstration, which will include a multrain march, will be "strictly nonviolent," explaining that "there's no plan to be any kind of disruptive force."

Abernathy led a demonstration at the 1968 Republican Convention in Miami Beach, but the SCLC demonstrators were housed at that time at the Center for Dialogue in Miami.

This year, the spokesman said, "the people will live on a campsite in Miami Beach which has not yet been worked out."

Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key said he had not been informed of the plan. After he receives the SCLC proposal, O'Key said, he'll make a recommendation to the City Council, probably at its June 21 meeting.

Beach Mayor Chuck Hall meanwhile said he hopes the council's June 7 meeting will produce approval of his proposal to designate a central campsite for all protest groups on the grounds of Beach High and the city-owned Par Three Golf Course.

OTHER OFFICIALS, however, said use of school property would also require approval of the Dade County School Board.

School officials expressed mixed reaction to the idea.

Beach High's nine-week summer quinmester would have to be switched to another school, but that would probably be a good idea anyway because of the school's location, only two blocks from the Convention Hall, said School Board Chairman William Lehman.

"With all the street people, the tourists and oglers and news media, it would be like trying to hold school in the middle of a circus," Lehman said.

"YOU'VE GOT to have some place for these people to go," he added, "and I don't object to use of one of our facilities."

Hall said he'll go ahead with his plan to push for approval by the Beach City Council.

The mayor said he expects some initial opposition. He noted that the council voted by a narrow 4-to-3 margin to invite the Republican Convention, and added:

"This decision is really more important, because this is necessary to ensure a successful and cool summer for our conventions."

Cooling It For Conventions

ATTEMPTS to frighten people in Miami Beach and elsewhere by predicting trouble during the political conventions are a disservice to the community.

We agree with Beach Mayor Chuck Hall on that point.

It would be an equal disservice to spread a welcome mat for anyone who might want to come here to freeload.

Everyone directly involved in the planning seems to be searching for a course midway between the extremes of permissiveness and repression. The vaunted lines of communication are wide open and busy.

The whole matter is in competent hands. We are confident it will be dealt with satisfactorily. The arrangements should be made quietly — not with speechmaking in public places or over the airwaves.

FROM : SA [redacted] b6 b7C

SUBJECT: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)
IS - YIP

On May 26, 1972, [redacted], President of Wometco Enterprises, Inc., was contacted at his request at his office located at North Miami Avenue and 3rd Street. He made available the following material:

1. Memorandum from [redacted] to [redacted] dated May 25, 1972, concerning contacts by YIP representative [redacted] with [redacted] and his attorneys on May 24, 1972, with regard to YIP's possible use of Tropical Park for a rock festival. No conclusion was reached on the use of the park but the memo contained statements by [redacted] regarding possible plans of YIP to obtain money from Miami Beach businessmen through means which appear to be approaching extortion. Specifically, the YIP plans to contact these businessmen advising them that the convention period will remain peaceful as long as they cooperate completely with YIP and other dissident groups. b6 b7C

2. A Channel 4 TV news item which was used on the 6:00 P.M. news broadcast on May 25, 1972, concerning YIP handbill distributed throughout Miami Beach on that date, along with a copy of the handbill.

3. Two reels of 16mm film of CBS news coverage of a May 25, 1972, meeting of the Alliance for Safer Cities, a private business group in Miami, which meeting was unexpectedly attended by YIP leader ABBIE HOFFMAN. HOFFMAN spoke before the group stating YIP would be attempting to influence both political parties to address themselves to the issues of poverty, the Vietnam War, and peace. HOFFMAN said if there is trouble in Miami this summer it will not be caused by the young people but by the Republican Party. It is noted these reels do not contain the soundtrack but one of them contains good color pictures of HOFFMAN delivering this speech.

[redacted] advised none of the furnished material need be returned. He said he may be able to supply additional information on a confidential basis gathered by his news staff regarding activities of HOFFMAN and if he obtained such information he would contact the writer. He was advised the Bureau was certainly appreciative of his assistance in this matter. b6 b7C

Non-Delegates Will Represent Broad Spectrum

When the politicians and the delegates gather in Miami Beach next month for the Democratic national convention, they'll have plenty of unofficial company. Non-delegates of every stripe and style will be there to be seen and — they hope — heard. This is a look at some of them.

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Black farmers from the Alabama backcountry, planning to trudge the streets of Miami Beach behind a mule train.

Young white anti-war activists, declaring they'll be here for "10 days that change the world."

Welfare mothers who've fried a hundred chicken dinners, raising money to book solid three Beach hotels.

Gay liberationists who want to camp on 21st Street Beach, and women's libbers looking for a church lawn to unroll their sleeping bags.

Straight establishment types in suits and silk dresses, booking hotel suites from which they'll boost the candidacies of Hubert Humphrey and George McGovern and George Wallace.

THESE ARE among the side-liners who'll be in Miami for the first of the summer's two national conventions.

In effect, the Democratic Party has invited the whole wide spectrum of American politics, and the action will by no means be limited to the 3,016 delegates who'll gather at 1700 Washington Ave.

Phil Seib, special assistant to Party Chairman Larry O'Brien, summed up the point last week.

"Legitimate political acts at a convention," he said, "are not limited to the hall."

Thirty-six days before the convention is scheduled to open July 10, no one knows how many non-delegates will come, or precisely what part they'll play in the making of a presidential nominee.

But it already is clear that the variety of style and sentiment will defy any single stereotype.

IT'S POSSIBLE, some convention planners suggest, that the majority will come not as members of any recognized group, but as individuals.

"A great number of people cannot be labeled, and will be coming in groups of two or three," Seib predicts. Some will come because they took part in the party's reform efforts "and want to see their efforts come to fruition, even though they were not elected as delegates."

"Others are coming because they're committed to a given candidate. Altogether, there will be a very wide range of temperament and ideology."

Not even the oft-used label "convention visitors" can really be stretched to cover the unexpected crowds, many planners say. They expect a major part of the convention population to be composed of people — especially young people — from right here in South Florida.

IN CHICAGO in 1968, they point out, the number of out-of-towners on the streets at no time was more than 5,000 to 10,000. The rest were from the Chicago area itself.

Similarly, some of the plans for demonstrations in Miami assume that local people will play a major part.

The National Welfare Rights Organization, for example, has booked hotel rooms for 1,200 representatives from around the nation for its own Miami Beach convention, scheduled for July 5 through July 9.

But the NWRO predicts at least 5,000 participants for its planned demonstration July 10, on the opening night of the Democratic Convention. Where will the other 3,800 come from?

"LOTS OF THEM," says NWRO organizer Will Colom, "will come from right here in Miami and Broward County."

Yet, as this example suggests, much of the action will center around recognized groups and individuals now making specific plans to promote their points of view.

They include :

● The National Welfare Rights Organization, which, as previously mentioned, is planning its own convention for the five days preceding that of the Democrats.

Composed primarily of welfare mothers, mostly black, NWRO plans to bridge the gap between what happens inside the hall and what occurs outside, Colom says.

The group's national chairwoman, Buela Sanders of New York, is running as a delegate in that state's primary Tuesday. She and other NWRO leaders — some already delegates — hope to push a "poor people's platform" in the convention itself.

"And while people are de in Tuesday's New York primary. Outside the hall, the National Women's Political Caucus plans a rally, with headquarters at the Betsy Ross Hotel.

The Feminist Party will lodge some women at a hotel, but other members are seeking a church lawn for sleeping bags, according to Irene Davall, that group's national coordinator.

Women, she says, are 53 per cent of the population and "we want 53 per cent of everything — House seats, Senate seats, judgeships, Cabinet posts, everything."

According to Mrs. Davall, women will sing, demonstrate, and perform guerrilla theater on the streets; but their mood will be more "hopeful" than angry.

● The Youth International Party, among the most visible groups already in Miami, which has rented a five-room office suite (at $1,000 for the summer) at 1674 Meridian Ave., near the convention hall.

Its leaders — although they are careful to point out they are only two among a steering committee of 15 persons — include Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, who were among the "Chicago Seven" convicted of crossing state lines with intent to incite a riot at the 1968 Democratic Convention. The convictions are being appealed.

In any event, leaders say, Miami will be different, so far as YIP is concerned:

"In 1968, our rhetoric was more inflammatory. We opposed the entire Democratic Convention as a fraud. Four years of Nixon have taught us how important it is to send Nixon into permanent retirement.

"So we come to Miami Beach with a specific political goal: to oppose Nixon's and Humphrey's war.

"It is not in our interest to have chaos."

YIP's convention theme is "10 days to change the world" (five at each of the two conventions.)

Rubin and other Yippies have initiated meetings with city and county officials to discuss their plans. Hoffman even took part in a city of Miami police training session. Primarily, the meetings have centered on the group's requests for a campsite.

"I've told city officials we want a peaceful event, but you've got to take care of certain basic human needs," says Jeff Nightbird, 28, a Texan and member of the YIP steering committee. "What created Chicago was stalling and buck-passing."

While conceding that it remains to be seen how many youthful anti-war people will align themselves with the YIP, Rubin predicts that massive numbers will be here to press for an end of the war.

> "Legitimate political acts at a convention are not limited to the hall."
> —Phil Seib, Demo Party aide

"There are always hundreds of thousands of young kids who look for a place to go in the summer. From the word we get, Miami is going to be the place to be," he said.

● A group calling itself Zippies, also claiming the Youth International Party label, which has rented a house in Coconut Grove and plans a "smoke-in" to demonstrate its demand for legalized marijuana.

● Local groups affiliated with national and state organizations planning to be present for the convention, including Vietnam Veterans Against the War and the Miami Liberation Front, both with a strong stop-the-war stance.

● The National Coalition of Gay Organizations, represented locally by Miami Gay Activists Alliance. It is planning a gay caucus and seeking a separate campsite at 21st Street Beach.

Among points in the gay platform is an amendment of all federal and state laws "to prohibit discrimination in employment, housing, public accommodations and public services because of one's sexual orientation."

● San Diego Convention Coalition, Coordinator of protests planned for San Diego when the Republican Convention was scheduled for that city.

Several SDCC members are now working in Miami to develop a Miami coalition with an "anti-imperialist" position as the central issue. They have been joined by the Miami Liberation Front and its state affiliate, the Florida People's Coalition, as well as other groups.

In its first public statement last week, the fledgling but growing Miami coalition announced plans for "Expose 72," a sort of world's fair of protest. This may include civil disobedience, but it will be nonviolent, said one spokesman, Bill Ritter, 22, of San Diego.

He explained:

"We're not coming here to fight with the police. We're coming here to expose and confront bankrupt policies.

"We want to make political statements, and they certainly get lost in fighting with the police."

The one point on which they all agree is that they believe they have a right to be here — a right guaranteed in the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States:

"Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech . . . or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

For their convention, Democratic Party officials have said, that right can be taken literally, by the unorthodox as well as the orthodox, by minorities as well as majorities, so long as all remember to include the key word, "peaceably."

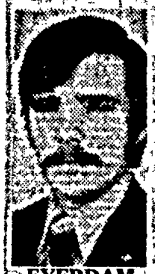
Officials seek to moderate hysteria about conventions

By RICH EYERDAM

The woman on the radio talk show heard another woman on another radio talk show say that she had heard the police were being beaten with bags of human waste during convention preparation sensitivity training.



EYERDAM

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance heard the talk show and winced. He and other public officials responsible for keeping order during the upcoming national conventions are concerned by the hysteria expressed by local residents.

"This isn't some Martian army coming in here," Pomerance said. "These are somebody's children. And we are not beating anybody with bags of human waste."

County Manager Ray Goode also hopes that calmer heads will prevail. He has found the demonstrators reasonable so far. "They are not animals they are people," he said.

And Circuit Court Judge Thomas Eugene Lee Jr. said he announced plans for a 24-hour magistrate system to handle convention arrests expressely for the purpose of cutting down the hysteria.

"I have a teenaged son with long hair," he said. "He's smart as a whip and wouldn't harm anyone or encroach on their rights. I would guess many of the young people coming down here are like him and that does not seem to me to be cause for concern."

2,000 U-M students hold antiwar rally

By NICOLETTE HANDROS
Miami News Reporter

About 2,000 University of Miami students turned out at noon today for a rally to protest President Nixon's decision to mine North Vietnamese ports.

Although there were no violent eruptions during the speeches, someone apparently uncorked a container of "pepper gas" which spread through a portion of the crowd.

Campus security police said there were several complaints of burning nostrils and stinging eyes but, as far as could be determined, no one required treatment.

The majority of the crowd and the speakers apparently were unaware of the incident.

Students were urged to turn out again at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Dinner Key when boats will sail to Nixon's Key Biscayne compound with "symbolic" balloon mines.

Key speakers at the rally were: actor Donald Sutherland; actress Candice Bergen; Yippie leader Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, of the Chicago Seven.

"If we could make it as hot in the White House as it is here today, we'd be doing a responsible job," Sutherland said.

Jerry Rubin, who aroused the crowd to applause and cheers, urged students to remain in Miami this summer and to participate in convention demonstrations. The other speaker echoed his sentiments.

Dade man held in USF protest

Special to The Miami News

TAMPA — A Miami man charged with inciting a riot and resisting arrest was being held under $15,000 bond today at the Hillsborough County Jail.

Kenneth Ray Anderson, 22, of 8100 SW 137th St., was arrested Wednesday night outside the University of South Florida. Anderson was participating in a 500-student protest against President Nixon's decision to mine North Vietnamese waters.

Anderson, a junior at USF, was arrested with more than 20 others when they failed to leave a street they were blocking near the university. Police moved in with tear gas and riot clubs.

I arrived in Miami, Florida during the [redacted] and immediately traveled to the Center For Dialogue, 2175 NW 26th Street, Miami where I talked at some length to a white female named [redacted] She told me that plans to have a national convention at the center that weekend to plan demonstrations to be held in connection to the national political conventions during the Summer, 1972, had fallen apart and that it did not appear that any meetings would take place at the center. She explained that a group called Operation Snowplow had been created in Miami for the purpose of coordinating the demonstrations expected in the city, however, that this group was in a state of collapse. This group had planned to negociate with city officials for use of public beaches for housing. She indicated that ABBIE HOFFMAN and other YIPPIE leaders apparently would not cooperate with Operation Snowplow. She told me that for further information in connection with planned demonstrations, I should see either ABBIE HOFFMAN at the new YIPPIE headquarters located at 1674 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach or contact [redacted] of the Gay Activists Alliance", telephone number 754-0008. I was also given the telephone number 633-7507, "Switchboard of Miami" which I was told was a message center for young activists.

I traveled to Miami Beach and went to [redacted] where I encountered [redacted] also in the office, seemed quite surprised to see me. I had not seen either man in a year and I was surprised how much both had seemed to age. The office was large and quite luxurious in comparison with New York YIPPIE facilities. There seemed to be 15 to 20 people, most of them women, in the office. I recognized several of the people as being from New York, however, I did not know their names. While I was there I also saw JERRY RUBIN in the office.

me that FORCADE was an "Agent Provocateur" who had a place in Coconut Grove. I told them that I had come to Miami to attend the YIPPIE convention that weekend because I felt that the national political conventions were of vital importance in connection to the Movement. They told me that there would not be a convention that weekend. They indicated that they were running activities in connection to the conventions. They stated that they had no intentions of dealing with anyone unless they represented a group of people who intended to participate in the demonstrations. I told them that while I had the blessings of [redacted] and [redacted] of Rising Up Angry in Chicago, I could not make binding decisions for this organization. (I had been told by [redacted] prior to my trip that Rising Up Angry did not plan to send more than a token delegation to the demonstrations). Although I

He stated that he would take me to various locations seeking information concerning the YIPPIE convention or planning meetings for the political convention. We drove to Coconut Grove seeking TOM FORCADE, however, were not able to locate his address. We stopped at a theatre building (which I think was called the "Upstage") and went to the second floor office of the New People's Party. No one was in the office. We then went to the office of the DAILY PLANET where we were told that Operation Snowplow was falling apart.

On Saturday night, May 27, 1972 a meeting of the Gay Activist Alliance took place, however, [redacted] The next day he talked to some people and told me that at the meeting it had been decided that the Alliance would ask the city to allow the Gay people to take over the 23rd Street Beach and another beach for use in housing people coming to Miami for the conventions.

Note Cites Impact of GOP Parley

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

The manager of next month's Democratic National Convention pledged his personal support Monday of Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall's suggestion that a campsite be provided for the expected thousands of visiting non-delegates.

Richard J. Murphy, in a hand-delivered letter to Hall, said he believed that designating a camping area was "absolutely essential" to the party's "basic priorities" for the July 10-13 convention.

HE DESCRIBED the priorities: "To maintain a condition of peace and orderliness in the community at the time of the convention, to carry out the business of our convention in a deliberative manner and to protect the right of all citizens to dissent peacefully."

"This makes me feel very good," said Hall. "It was certainly unsolicited by me."

ALTHOUGH the opinion of the six other City Council members has appeared to be strongly against Hall's stand, the mayor said: "I never felt far out on a limb at any time, because in my mind it was the only solution."

Murphy's letter said the addition of the Republican National Convention Aug. 21-23 "has very substantially changed the nature of the circumstances surrounding our convention.

"At the time of the invitation by the city of Miami Beach to the Republican National Committee, law enforcement agencies possessed reliable information that large-scale demonstrations were planned for the convention wherever it might be held.

"IT IS reasonable to anticipate that many of these demonstrators will now be present at the time of the Democratic Convention as well.

"Indeed, it is reasonable to expect, in the present political circumstances, that as a natural consequence of any city's invitation to the major political parties, thousands of non-delegates will convene for the purposes of various political activities.

"I sincerely hope that the appropriate governmental bodies will approve your plans and carry them to fruition."

The council is expected to debate whether to set up campsites, and if so where, at its meeting Wednesday morning.

Medical Volunteers Sought

By ENA NAUNTON
Herald Medical Writer

With fewer than five weeks to the first of this summer's political conventions, volunteer medical personnel to look after as many as 100,000 non-delegates have yet to be identified and trained.

Expecting that both doctors and laymen will need at least eight hours of specialized training to meet emergencies that may arise, Dr. Eugene Nagel of the University of Miami School of Medicine Monday described the staffing for a proposed series of first-aid centers as a "staggering problem."

Fliers have gone out to medical-school and nursing-school students, plus the main campus of the University of Miami, said Nagel, but it is too soon to know what the response will be.

At a meeting with Goode, he raised the question of paying Florida-licensed doctors who are taking residency training with the medical school to be team leaders in first-aid treatment stations. Others on the committee questioned how a group of hospital doctors could be paid and nurses and other physicians be expected to work free.

Nagel predicted that study sessions would be going every night of the last week of June and first week of July to prepare professionals and laymen for convention first-aid. Senior members of the medical school training program have volunteered to teach, backed up by volunteers from Switchboard, the youth emergency call service, how to handle drug overdoses.

Last Friday, M. John Hanni Jr., executive vice president of the Dade County Medical Association expressed doubt that the DCMA members would be willing to study for eight hours in addition to volunteering for medical duty, though he has said physician volunteers will come forward in response to a mail poll going out Wednesday after the 2,500-member DCMA's Tuesday night annual meeting.

County Manager Goode promised Monday to get county and state legal advice on whether the state's Good Samaritan law or Civil Defense emergency services will provide an "umbrella" to protect medical personnel from possible malpractice suits — a problem that might cause some volunteers to hesitate in coming forward.

Goode described volunteer manpower as "the most important" means of keeping down cost of the operation. Presented with a $2,032.30 estimate for the cost of medical supplies to look after just 20,000 non-delegates for a week, Goode said "I am pleased to see you are keeping it a modest amount. Some of the figures I have seen have scared the hell out of me."

ReMMairtel to Bureau, 6/2/72.

As pointed out in referenced airtel, the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement (FBLE), is coordinating the gathering and dissemination of intelligence information from and to the various law enforcement agencies during the coming national conventions.

On 6/2/72, Intelligence Supervisor [redacted] FBLE, who will be coordinator of the Intelligence Center, furnished additional details regarding the functions of this center. b6 b7C

The objectives of the center will be (1) to facilitate and encourage a full exchange of intelligence information among participating agencies; (2) to facilitate a coordinated tactical review of incoming intelligence information to ensure all operations commanders are kept informed of important developments in a timely manner; and (3) to facilitate and encourage the coordinated review of collection efforts by participating agencies, and, where appropriate, the development of further intelligence targets together with suggestions as to which agency would be most effective against specific targets.

Representatives of local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies will be in the Intelligence Center, and have appropriate desk space. These include:

Miami Beach Police Department
Miami Police Department
Dade County Public Safety Department
U. S. Secret Service
FBI
Internal Security Division, Attorney General's Office
FBLE
Florida Beverage Department.

The coordinator will be [redacted] who will have a support staff, including the Joint Agencies Staff Support Unit. b6 b7C

Participating agencies are to send all intelligence information as quickly as it is developed, through their representative to the Joint Agencies Staff Support Unit, where it will be evaluated as to source and content. It is planned that all intelligence information received will be processed by the Staff Support Unit as follows:

The information will be logged in;
Copies will be made for and distributed to each participating agency;
Distribution of the intelligence information to pertinent offices of these agencies outside of the Center will be made by each agency's representative as he deems essential.

Each participating agency is expected to detail to the Center a representative and such other staff as is deemed necessary. A representative will meet with the coordinator and the other agencies' representatives at times to be determined by the coordinator, to review incoming intelligence information and to give advice on the items to be summarized for the Intelligence Center's Summary.

These representatives will be responsible to keep their own operational headquarters informed of important intelligence information.

Representatives will also be responsible collectively to develop collection targets and suggestions as to which agency should be given the task.

The coordinator of the Center will be responsible for the operation of the Center within the outlines stated above, and its operating procedures; responsible for the preparation of the daily, or more frequent if necessary, Intelligence Center Summary of important information received at the Center. He will also ensure that important intelligence information is passed to the appropriate headquarters in the most effective and expeditious manner.

It is anticipated that the Center will be partially operating as of 6/12/72, and will accelerate to full operation on 6/26/72. It will revert to limited operation on 7/21/72, and return to full operation on 8/7/72. It should be secured on 9/5/72.

Inasmuch as the Intelligence Center has been set up by Executive Order of Governor REUBIN ASKEW, with the complete agreement of Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE, Director of on-site convention security, it is recommended the Miami Office participate completely in the operations of this Center. UACB, this will be done.

3 groups forming coalition to organize protests here

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

Activists from San Diego, Tampa and Miami have announced plans to set up a coalition to organize demonstrations here during the Democratic and Republican National Convention.

At a press conference yesterday in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the activists from three different movement groups said they are hoping that dissident groups planning protests during the conventions will join the coalition.

The coalition, to be called the Miami Convention Coalition, will stage peaceful protests during the Democratic convention July 10-13 and during the Republican convention August 21-23, the activists said, in an attempt "to confront and expose the corrupt policies of the U.S. government."

The announcement of the proposed coalition was made by spokesmen for three groups — the San Diego Convention Coalition, the Florida People's Coalition and the Miami Liberation Front.

The San Diego Convention Coalition is the group which was planning to organize protests at the GOP convention in San Diego until the GOP switched the convention to Miami Beach.

The Florida People's Coalition is a statewide group based in Tampa which was set up several months ago to plan protests here during the Democratic Convention.

The Miami Liberation Front, a local organization formed early this year, describes itself as "a group working for a political sense of community and resistance in Miami."

Representatives of all three groups said yesterday that their organizations will merge and will urge other groups organizing for the summer political conventions to work with them to form a "united front."

Other groups planning demonstrations during the two conventions include: the Yippies and the Zippies, factions of the Youth International Party; the Gay Activist Alliance; the National Coalition of Gay Organizations; the Vietnam Veterans Against the War; the National Welfare Rights Organization, and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

In a statement distributed during the press conference yesterday, the three groups planning to organize the new coalition said the coalition will be made up of groups "banding together in a united front to oppose a common enemy — the forces of racism, sexism and imperialism."

Rumor control chief named

Boyd A. Arp, administrative assistant to the Dade County manager, will organize and direct the county's "rumor control, information, and media operation" for the Democratic and Republican conventions.

County Manager Ray Goode announced Arp's appointment yesterday and named several other committee assignments for the conventions in July and August.

DeWayne Little, director of Citizens Information Service, will direct the rumor control division; Art Peavy, Dade County Parks and Recreation director, will oversee information dispersal; and Ruth Kassewitz, the county's communications officer, will be in charge of the media section.

Robert Simms, director of the Community Relations Board, was assigned to establish teams of field observers to relay news from Miami Beach to the information networks.

Dade's budget director Bill Hampton will establish and operate a Metro "command center."

A Convention Community Planning office was opened in April at the county courthouse. It is headed by John Van Wezel, a senior administrative assistant.

Other assignments include: Bob Cason, community planning assistant, who will oversee judicial and law enforcement plans; Katherine Wood, who will develop health, medical and child care needs; and Bonnie Lepoff, who will plan sanitary facilities for the non-delegates.

On May 30, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] had arrived in Hialeah, Florida late the previous evening from Gainesville, Florida. He was accompanied by [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) and by a [redacted] (Last Name Unknown). [redacted] reportedly wanted to be placed in contact on May 30, 1972, with Alpha 66. [redacted] had heard that anti-CASTRO Cuban exile organizations in Miami would physically oppose anti-war demonstrations during the coming Republican and Democratic Conventions at Miami Beach, Florida. If Alpha 66 is reportedly the leading militant Cuban exile organization [redacted] wanted to arrange a conference with that group, purpose of which would be to make a non-aggression pact for the Conventions.

Re: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

On May 31, 1972, the above source advised that [redacted] had talked with the second in command, name unknown by source, of Alpha 66 the previous day. He was unable to talk with the leader of Alpha 66, (First Name Unknown) [redacted] because this individual was in California. According to [redacted] he and the Alpha 66 second in command had come to an agreement. Alpha 66, [redacted] said, would not physically confront the VVAW unless the VVAW provoked a confrontation by carrying on activities specifically pro-CASTRO. [redacted] also indicated that the Alpha 66 spokesman had implied that Alpha 66 would consider making available to [redacted] an undisclosed number of grenades. [redacted] seemed elated at this prospect but said nothing as to the use he would make of these grenades were they to become available. The source continued that [redacted] returned to Gainesville, Florida the evening of May 30, 1972. b6 b7C

On June 1, 1972, source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to a subsource, [redacted] earlier in the week had been in Miami and had inquired of Alpha 66 as to where arms could be obtained.

On June 5, 1972 [redacted] Secretary of Press and Propaganda, Alpha 66, Miami, Florida, advised that earlier last week an American, whose name he was unable to understand over the telephone, called local Alpha 66 headquarters and asked to speak to [redacted] (Alpha 66 Secretary General). [redacted] answered this call. Being unable to speak English, he had another Alpha 66 member who does, come to the telephone as an interpreter, to whom the caller furnished no name, advised the caller that [redacted] was in California and inquired as to the purpose of the call. The caller said that he was the leader of a group of VietNam veterans who oppose the war and who intend to stage anti-war demonstrations on Miami Beach during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions. The caller continued that if Alpha 66 is considered the leading Cuban exile organization in the Miami area, and by reputation could be expected to oppose anti-war demonstrations, he wished to arrange a conference with Alpha 66 leaders. Hopefully, an agreement could be reached at such a conference whereby physical b6 b7C confrontations between Cuban exiles and his group would be avoided at the Conventions. [redacted] advised the caller, through the interpreter, that Alpha 66 favors the Vietnam position of the Republican administration and accordingly opposes "immediate pullout" anti-war demonstrations. However, Alpha 66 considers political conventions to be matters of United States internal politics with which Cuban exile groups have no legitimate concern. Assuming that this Veterans group does not itself provoke a physical confrontation with Cuban exiles, [redacted] could promise that Alpha 66 would not interfer with the demonstrations of the caller's group. The caller was also told by [redacted] that no need was seen for future discussions of this matter. The caller agreed.

[redacted] said that there was no mention during above telephone conversation of grenades or of a source of arms purchases by the Veterans' group. [redacted] noted that Alpha 66 is basically opposed to the group represented by the caller and would under no circumstances, even if such were available, give or sell weapons to this group or advise this group where weapons could be obtained illegally.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, antiestablishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)

The SMC is controlled by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and its youth affiliate, Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). SMC initiates and supports public demonstrations against the war in Southeast Asia.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

As the youth organization of the SWP, the YSA serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. The YSA is described in the masthead of its official publication, "The Young Socialist Organizer," as "a multi-national revolutionary socialist youth organization."

In October, 1970, the RAC received recognition as an approved organization at USF, Tampa, Florida. RAC is made up of radical leftists and liberal peace groups at USF who want to build a movement in the Tampa Bay area.

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

The Malcolm X United Liberation Front is a local black activist organization which was organized in the Fall of 1969, to unify the Negroes in Tallahassee, Florida. The organization adopted the motto "Liberation by any means necessary."

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)

On May 17, 1972, meetings were held in Washington, D. C., at the New York Presbyterian Church, by FPC and the San Diego Convention Coalition. Representatives from San Diego, Washington, D. C., New York, and Florida were present. Approximately 20 were in attendance. An agenda was drafted. Points of unity were developed. Extensive discussions were held on the merits of the San Diego Seven Point Peace Plan as opposed to the Three Point Peace Plan of the FPC.

On May 18, 1972, a meeting was held at the Institute of Policy Studies, Washington, D. C. [redacted], a Rennie Davis advance man, had made arrangements for the conference room, which was located on the second floor. b6 b7C

A discussion was held on the agenda and what actions were to be taken between the conventions. Also discussed was what posters should be made. The Seven Point Peace Program and the Three Point Program again were discussed. A discussion was also held on how to relate to the Democratic and Republican Conventions, as well as how to relate to the media.

It was decided that activity between the conventions should be minimized. Participants to remain in the city, however, were not to be handfed and should help build and work in the community. A discussion was held on the dangers of symbolism that might appear in posters.

The focus with respect to the Democratic and Republican Conventions would be on the latter.

On Friday, May 19, 1972, the meeting was held at the Quaker House, Washington, D. C. Security was tight. Representatives from Washington, New York, San Diego, and Miami attended.

With regard to the security, representatives went to the Antiwar Union where they were given a number by Bob Lamb and signed on the sheet opposite the number given. At that time they were told where the meeting would be held. When they arrived at the meeting they again signed their name after the same number and the signatures were compared. Approximately 38 people were at this meeting.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)

The discussion at the meeting concerned the whole spectrum of activity to be engaged in and also a discussion on how best to assist McGovern so as not to alienate people from him.

Mention was made that on the night of the nomination a vigil would be staged. It was implied that if McGovern was not nominated, heavy action or civil disobedience could occur. Rennie Davis only talked about the vigil; however, a chain of laughter broke out and the implication was that vigil was sort of a code name for a trashing action. Everybody seemed to catch on. No one needed to say there would be heavy action, but it would just happen.

It was also mentioned that regional offices would be set up in other cities. Out of these meetings came the Miami Conventions Coalition, which would encompass the San Diego Convention Coalition, the Florida People's Coalition, the Miami Liberation Front, the Antiwar Union and the Indochina Information Center. The Yippies, while not a part, would be associated with the Miami Conventions Coalition.

Attorney [redacted] who has worked with the movement and who apparently has a somewhat spotty record, stated he would bring his family down from New York to Miami and would also bring some money.

The San Diego Convention Coalition is a group comprised of representatives of various radical groups in San Diego, California, which was formed for active opposition to the United States Government through "serious, determined, and long term social upheaval."

The Miami Liberation Front is a local coalition of students, women and young workers who share a common opposition to racism, sexism and imperialism. The coalition is organized around the consensus that there must be co-ordinate non-violent opposition and confrontation to the Democratic National Convention to be held on Miami Beach during July, 1972.

Allegedly, the Antiwar Union was formed by Rennie Davis to continue massive public protest against U. S. military policy in Southeast Asia and for implementation of plans to disrupt the national political conventions in Miami.

Following several days of meetings in Washington, D. C., the following points were agreed upon as a position to be taken by the Miami Conventions Coalition, which will be made up of all the organizations that met in Washington, D. C.:

1. Major focus of the antiwar activity for the Summer of 1972 will be the Republican Convention. This will include massive and dramatic demonstrations, marches, and civil disobedience at the Republican Convention, August 21-24, 1972.

2. Action to be taken at the Republican Convention should be one of confrontation, serious resistance, and non-violent civil disobedience.

3. It is necessary that all people participating in the convention actions from different regions and cities be well organized and prepared.

4. The position to be taken for the Democratic Convention, July 12-15, 1972, will be an emphasis on low key antiwar street presence, lobbying and propaganda and expose.

5. The Miami Conventions Coalition will not publicly support anyone for the Office of President.

During discussions at the Washington, D. C. meeting, it was felt that the primary objective of the groups coming to Miami should be to defeat Richard Nixon and the repressive forces he represents.

The militancy of the demonstrations at Miami were discussed, the use of civil disobedience as a tactic, and the problem of the large Cuban population in Miami. It was felt that it would be best if the onus of confrontation should be placed on Nixon and that the presence of the left in Miami should not be allowed to become the issue.

FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)

There was a feeling by certain individuals that all possible should be done to insure McGovern's nomination at the Democratic Convention with the exception of outright endorsement. It was also felt by some that the demonstrators should be trying to push the Democrats and the country to the left.

Principles of Unity

Seven principles of unity were discussed at the Washington meeting by the people from Florida and California. They were neither accepted nor rejected and were merely discussed.

1. Advocation of an end to the U. S. Government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon administration.

2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Conventions Coalition.

3. Opposition of all social, political and economic forces which perpetrate domination and exploitation based on sex.

4. An immediate end to all U. S. aggression and involvement in Indochina.

5. Opposition of U. S. interference in internal affairs of other nations and support struggles of national liberation.

6. Non-violent demonstrations in Miami.

7. No support of a Presidential candidate.

TP T-1 [redacted]

Following is a Miami Conventions Coalition Position Paper dated May 19, 1972, as provided by TP T-1 on [redacted] 1972;

MIAMI CONVENTION COALITION MAY 19, 1972

During the past two days, representatives of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida Peoples' Coalition have extensively discussed the actions that should be taken at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami Florida on July 9-14 and August 21-24 respectively. We propose the following Principles of Unity for building a United Front to confront and expose both parties this summer:

1. We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine e.g. NEP, Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft-Hartly Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, FAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the bussing issue.

2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating the following relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Convention Coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of Third World communities: technical and economic assisstance to groups organizing around the conventions in Third World communities; emphasis by white organizers on the issues of racism; and the problems of working people intheir own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism, and imperialism.

3. We oppose all social, political, and economic forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation based on sex roles. We support the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and sociatal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all US aggression and involvement in IndoChina, and support the PRG 7-point plan for peace in Vietnam. The major points of which are:

   a. The US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all US troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.

   b. The US must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam, and end its support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the US government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

5. We oppose all US interference in the internal affairs of other nations, and we support struggles of national liberation.

6. The demonstrations we are planning should not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be pushed through the use of slogans or the speakers' platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

These points, based on an anti-imperialist perspective, will provide the focal point for uniting the many different constituencies planning activities at the conventions.

DC official stresses preparation here

Mob-control expert has some advice

BY RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

The head of the Washington, D.C. Civil Defense Center is in Miami this week to advise County Manager Ray Goode on Convention preparations.

George H. Rodericks told The Miami News today he came to Miami on the recommendation of "movement people — I think you call them non-delegates," to share his 13 years of experience with demonstration preparations in the nation's capital.

The 56-year-old father of 4 said that he has learned from the average 400 demonstrations that take place each year in Washington that adequate preparations cannot be stressed enough.

"It is much better to remove the doubt and remove the fear and set a precedent for cooperation than to go into these things uninformed and unprepared," he said.

He said that the Nixon administration and previous administrations had evolved a policy that all people have the basic right to assemble peaceably and express dissent.

"The present administration and the past administrations recognized that if the Boy Scouts or the American Legion wanted to assemble in Washington we would all want to help. We no longer discriminate between groups. Any group in lawful pursuit of First Amendment (freedom of speech and assembly) rights receives the same treatment," he said.

Rodericks' position in Washington puts him in the middle between police and demonstrators. He must deal with seven different city and federal police departments as well as military commands and diverse federal agencies.

The Mayor's Command Center in Washington provides a central emergency action control facility where:

- Threats to the well-being of citizens are forecast and anticipated.
- Key government officials and others communicate quickly with each other based on facts fed to the center from the affected area.
- Uniform policy is formulated and implemented.

The key to making things run smoothly is communication, unified leadership and a uniform policy relating to what will be done by whom and when, he said.

Rodericks expressed confidence in the ability of demonstrators to organize themselves and get along within guidlines negotiated with authorities.

"Most of the demonstrators you have coming here are professionals," he said. "They have done their thing before. They are not freaked out, wild-eyed dangerous animals as I have heard from some talk shows.

"They are very politically minded and want to do for themselves whenever possible and we try to help them take care of themselves."

Rodericks said he did not wish to draw a parallel between Washington and the situation Miami Beach faces with two national conventions this summer.

He did offer some general principles followed in Washington. They, are:

- Camping areas are requested and permitted only on rare occasions. However, Rodericks said the private sector such as the Anglican Cathedral and universities in the area have provided camping facilities. It all depends on the plans worked out between the government and the demonstrators, he said.
- The government cooperates only with groups who are willing to get the required permits and carry their share of the load.
- Most groups are cooperative, In return for their help the city has provided, on different occasions, trip tents for drug overdoses manned by movement people who were trained by the city; public toilet facilities, radio communications equipment to be used by movement marshals policing the crowds, salt tablets and water.
- Long before a demonstration is planned the government conducts an "out reach" program to learn who will be attending, what they want and how a compromise can be struck.
- Rhetoric on both sides is kept to a minimum.

● Businessmen and other private citizens are involved in the preparations and planning for major demonstrations.

● Representatives of "movement people" are always allowed access to the mayor's command post and to the non-security plans that have been set up.

● Surplus material such as Civil Defense supplies removed from razed buildings is used whenever possible to cut down the bite on the taxpayer.

Rodericks said that his purpose in Miami is to advise Goode on the role of the executive. Goode said he is glad to have him.

"Everyone from the White House to Woodstock says that Rodericks is the man to have when you are planning for a crowd," Goode said.

"I feel an obligation to both sides, to the movement people and to government people to get them to level with each other," he said, "if that's the only help I can be, it will be enough."

Beach council passes law requiring permits for parades

The Miami Beach City Council today passed a parade ordinance that would subject paraders — or demonstrators — to stiff penalties if they march on Beach streets without a permit.

The council voted unanimously for the ordinance, requested by Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance. No reference was made to the two national political conventions to be held on the Beach this summer.

The City of Miami Beach currently has no parade permit ordinance, but permission is normally obtained through the police department and city manager's office.

The new ordinance carries a penalty of a $1,000 fine and 90 days in jail or both for violators.

It also requires that groups seeking a parade permit must inform police of the parade route and the time and date of the parade. Parade sponsors must also provide first-aid care for parade participants.

MORE

A spokesman for Pomerance said the parade ordinance would give police a tool for easier handling of parades or demonstrations which might take on a parade form.

"Suppose we have a situation of counter-demonstrations, where the red hats are demonstrating against the green hats, and vice-versa," said the spokesman, Sgt. Peter Corso.

"We could schedule one group in the morning and the other in the afternoon with the parade permit procedure," Corso said.

Chief ROCKY POMERANCE has made a request of LEAA for funds for use of 1,000 military men for policing duties during the convention period, which request was denied by LEAA. This request stemmed from a proposal by Miami Beach City Councilmen LEONARD HABER and ROBERT GOODMAN that a 1,000-man "convention peace corps" be established for use in 1972 and future conventions, these men to be computer-selected from the United States Army for their judgment, levelheadedness, etc., and to be paid from LEAA funds. The recommendation for such a "convention peace corps" was a condition attached to their affirmative vote regarding the issuing of the invitation to the Republican Party to hold its convention in Miami Beach. This was considered a political move by these councilmen and it was not generally felt from the outset that this proposal would be approved by LEAA. It, therefore, came as no surprise when the proposal was turned down.

According to Colonel [redacted] consideration has been given for 1,000 Washington, D. C. civil disturbance police but this idea was abandoned when it was determined that this would require Congressional approval. b6 b7C

No additional proposals or requests have been made with regard to additional manpower for routine police duties. If a riotous situation occurs which cannot be contained by available sources, the following procedural plan will be implemented:

Governor REUBIN ASKEW will be requested to order the available Florida National Guard forces into the area to reinforce the local police. If the situation is considered sufficiently grave, an injunction will be obtained in Federal Court requiring removal of the demonstrators by United States Marshals. 50 United States Marshals will be available within the convention complex for this purpose. In the event these Marshals are unable to enforce the injunction, a request will be made for United States Army troops to be called in to restore order.

Florida National Guard

At a convention planning meeting held at MBPD on June 7, 1972, Florida National Guard Major General HENRY W. MC MILLAN, State Adjutant General, and Colonel HUGO WINDHAM furnished the following breakdown of National Guard troops which will be in training status and available for policing duties if necessary during the convention period. The figures are based upon 85% of assigned strength to allow for sickness and other emergencies, and the breakdown is divided into phases representing availability of manpower from the standpoint of location and time necessary to arrive on the scene. Since Phase I represents local troop strength immediately available, it is further broken down into time periods.

PHASE I

Location: Miami area
Time: One to two hours
Available Manpower:
1) Democratic Convention - 200 men
2) Weekends during interim between conventions - 200 to 470 men
3) Republican Convention - 590 men

PHASE II

Location: Southeastern Florida, including Miami
Time: Four to eight hours
Available Manpower: 1,215 men

PHASE III

Location: Central Florida
Time: 12 to 14 hours
Avdlable Manpower: 1,915 men

PHASE IV

Location: Statewide - other areas
Time: 13 - 48 hours
Available Manpower: 1,471 men

If necessary to mobilize the National Guard throughout the entire state (implementation of last three phases), the total manpower available within the time span of one to 48 hours would be 4,641 men.

United States Army Manpower Backup

Colonel FRANK DIETRICH, Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, G-2, United States Army, 18th Airborne Corps, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, who was present at the June 7, 1972, planning meeting, advised that during the period of both conventions, three brigades of 1,800 men each, a total of 5,400 infantry troops, would be on standby and in combat readiness for use at the convention site. Although no firm decision has been made as to their standby location, Colonel DIETRICH felt these men would probably remain at Fort Bragg until it becomes necessary to order them into the Miami area. They would be flown in by military aircraft and their estimated time of arrival would be from two to three hours.

CAMP SITES FOR NON-DELEGATES

A public controversy has developed regarding the designating of a public area or areas as camp sites for the thousands of non-delegates expected to arrive for the conventions. On June 6, 1972, a spokesman for the newly founded Convention Coordinating Committee, a coalition of eight activist groups, stated in a press release that these groups have requested that the Miami Beach City Council designate four public areas as camp sites. These areas are:

MM 80-1353

The Bayshore Municipal Golf Course

The Miami Beach Par 3 Golf Course

Flamingo Park

21st Street Beach

A number of Miami Beach residents have voiced their opposition to the furnishing of such areas for use of non-delegates.

In a confidential memorandum to the members of the City Council dated May 31, 1972, concerning accommodations for non-delegates, City Manager CLIFFORD O'KEY stated that announcements by council members regarding meetings with protest leaders, giving them additional exposure to the news media, and public proclamations by council members to the effect the demands by protest leaders are legitimate requests of peaceable citizens who desire to exercise their civil rights, have been viewed by experts with previous experience in this field as actions which work to the disadvantage of the city. Additionally, he said these experts feel that announcement of encampment sites and logistical support of the assembled non-delegates has worked and, if continued, will work to the distinct disadvantage of the city. According to O'KEY, previous experience has shown that protest leaders must have an additional attraction to lure the numbers they claim as their constituencies. The procedure they have followed in the past is to obtain a camp site large enough to accommodate a "rock festival" after which they will hold such a festival and attract numerous young people who are normally attracted to such an activity. These masses of young people are then used by the protest leaders for their political purposes. O'KEY stated identification of a camp site would be a serious tactical error at this point and strongly recommended against such action by the City Council.

On June 7, 1972, Chief POMERANCE confidentially stated he had received assurances from the City Council that action would be delayed on this issue until at least June 21, 1972. Chief POMERANCE also expressed the opinion that cooperation should be extended to the non-delegates in certain fields but the question of housing should be delayed as long as possible to discourage some drifters from traveling to the convention area.

At the regular meeting of the Miami Beach City Council on June 7, 1972, the Council voted to shelve the issue and to refer the question to City Manager O'KEY for further study. This issue will undoubtedly be raised at the next regular Council meeting on June 21, 1972.

PARADE PERMITS - NEW LAW

At the above City Council meeting on June 7, 1972, the Council passed an ordinance which would subject paraders or demonstrators on Miami Beach to a penalty of a $1,000 fine or 90 days in jail, or both, for conducting a parade without a permit for such activity. Prior to this ordinance the City of Miami Beach had no parade permit law and the new ordinance would give the police additional leeway in controlling demonstrations by adjusting their scheduling and by having advanced knowledge of proposed demonstrations.

Concern for Protesters

Replaces Billy Clubs

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

The portable toilet has replaced the police club as the symbol of Miami's planning for protest at the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

And Richard Nixon — the very man many of the dissenters are expected to denounce most loudly — may help pick up the tab for their stay in South Florida.

There's no lack of police planning for the possibility things will get out of hand. But there's also a big push to prevent trouble, by facing in advance the questions raised by predictions that thousands of non-delegates will flock here to do their thing in the streets.

IF THEY DO come, where are these people going to sleep? How are they going to eat? Where will they find bathrooms and Band-Aids and drug-overdose talk-downs?

And above all, who's going to pay for it?

Increasingly, convention planners are pointing to the same source for answers — the federal government.

Gov. Reubin Askew and his staff met in Washington Friday with acting U.S. attorney General Richard Kleindienst and his staff. There was no announcement afterwards, but an Askew aide confirmed that the subject was more federal money for convention preparation. (One federal grant already is paying for police training.)

Meanwhile, Dade County Manager Ray Goode made it clear that while local government may place the order for such necessities as portable "johns," it isn't planning to pay for them.

"I DON'T SEE us using local tax dollars for this purpose," Goode said. "It appears to me there is a sufficient commitment on the part of federal agencies to provide us supportive facilities and funds."

For example, Goode said, there is the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness.

"They provide anything you need if they make the determination this is a role they should play.

"And I think they probably will."

The implication, some officials are saying privately, is that the U.S. Army may provide C-rations as well as riot control, and that it's all part of a trade-off that gave the Republican Party a new home in Miami Beach when its original plans fell apart in San Diego.

"The one advantage of having both conventions here," says a local planner, "is that the federal agencies are a lot more responsive."

ALL THIS could mean the party in power will end up using federal funds to implement a philosophy advocated by the Miami Snowplow Company, a private volunteer group that has been the loudest advocate of planning for the physical needs of non-delegates as well as delegates.

Snowplow already has endorsements, if not dollars, from the Democrats. "We're behind Snowplow," Philip Seib, special assistant to Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien, said last week. "Their concerns are our concerns."

Some inside observers now believe the outlook is for Snowplow to get just enough private money to pay office expenses and stay alive as an idea source and a bridge between public officials and protest leaders.

Actual physical facilities — and the money to pay for them — probably will flow through normal government channels.

Clifford O'Key

. . . invites talks

Gov. Askew

. . . opens doors

AND SO while Gov. Askew opens doors in Washington, city and county officials, as quietly as possible, are making daily decisions about nitty-gritty details.

Yes, there will be camping areas. No, the county will not build tent cities as such. Yes, arrangements will be made for low-cost food. No, Dade tax dollars won't subsidize free food for demonstrators.

Coordinating the logistical planning is County Manager Goode, who has two desks in his office and spends little time at either, operating in stead at a low, round coffee table — which at any given moment may contain no fewer than a dozen telephone call-back slips.

Goode starts with the philosophy:

"We should recognize that peaceful dissent, nonviolent demonstrations and parading are rights that we are obligated to protect.

"THE BASIC health and welfare of everyone, including dissenters, must be protected."

That gets translated into specifics as officials quietly survey "15 or 18" potential campsites, on both sides of Biscayne Bay. The possibilities, Goode says, include "the obvious places — the major county parks and the major city parks, the beaches themselves."

Goode is careful to point out that the county is not the only jurisdiction involved: "We've obviously got to defer to the judgment of the city of Miami Beach on activities that affect their city."

On the other side of the bay, Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key is talking the same kind of diplomacy.

WHEN ANTI-WAR activists announced last week that they'll negotiate for campsites on golf courses, O'Key responded: "I'd be more than pleased to discuss it with them."

Other possibilities, according to Goode, include Lummus Park, Haulover, Greynolds, Watson Island, the Interama site, and "the whole section of county and city-owned areas of Key Biscayne."

But nothing has been finally nailed down, Goode says, because the idea is to let the demonstrators themselves have a voice in the planning.

"It has to come through communication with the people involved. If you try to preplan it all," Goode says, the movement people won't accept it. "I wouldn't either," he adds.

THE SAME approach — what Goode calls "keeping your options open" — extends to planning for other facilities.

When a baseball manager reported last week that his team had been rescheduled out of Miami Stadium to make room for riot troops in July, Goode didn't deny it. He didn't confirm it, either.

There may be a need for "staging areas," he said. There could be a need for "supplemental detention space" — the language officials are using to talk about overflow jails. And, best of all possible worlds, places like Miami Stadium just might sit there empty.

What's the worst that could happen? No one's saying.

But the planners are not overlooking the possibility Miami might have a hurricane on top of everything else. To cover that contingency, an organization called "Concerned Clergy" and the School Board are exploring the use of churches and schools as emergency shelter.

IRONICALLY, the establishment is well ahead of the movement in getting it all together. San Diego had a well-financed, well-organized coalition of protest groups. This could be transplanted to Miami along with its target, the GOP convention. But it hasn't happened yet.

Instead, self-appointed spokesmen have begun arriving in town, raising the question of just who they speak for.

One of the loudest voices has been that of Jerry Rubin, who along with fellow-Yippie Abbie Hoffman and others was convicted of inciting riots at the 1968 Chicago convention.

A reporter asked Rubin who the movement's leaders are. His answer: "Everyone who's determined to humiliate and defeat Richard Nixon is a spokesman and spokeswoman for the people's movement."

THE PROBLEM, of course, is that not everyone in the movement agrees — even with each other. Along with Rubin's Yippies, another group, who call themselves Zippies, have an advance man in town.

Says a Zippie circular: "We consider Jerry Rubin a publicity hound."

Askew Sets Up 7-T[illegible]etwork

Convention Du[illegible]s

Defined

Local and State Agencies Linked

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Gov. Reubin Askew signed an executive order late Monday creating a seven-tiered network of officials and civic leaders responsible for coordinating preparations for the twin-convention summer.

The governor, in a self-described effort at "insuring state-local cooperation and coordination in the planning and conduct" of the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, named:

● William L. Reed, executive director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, as state coordinator of all state "non-military functions and support in the area of health, safety and welfare."

● County Manager Ray Goode as area coordinator responsible for "all public health, welfare and safety, including convention site security, within the Dade County area."

● Maj. Gen. Henry W. McMillan, state adjutant general, as military coordinator "in all matters involving the Florida National Guard and any federal military forces that may be required."

● Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance as chief of convention site security encompassing the "convention site complex and adjacent areas."

● Goode, Miami City Manager Melvin Reese and Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key as a local task force for support services, to be augmented by anyone else designated by Goode.

● Pomerance, Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy and Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire as a local task force for public safety, plus anyone else appointed by Goode.

IN ADDITION, Askew spelled out the duties of his fledgling community coordinating task force, an 18-member citizens group headed by Orange Bowl chief Ernie Seiler.

Seiler's task force, for instance, was described as an attempt to "facilitate and encourage a meaningful dialogue and exchange of information between the responsible municipal, county and state officials and interested citizen groups, both residents and nonresidents" — an obvious reference to the various counterculture groups already in the area.

THE TASK force was given the responsibility to "advise and report to the governor concerning the identification and resolution of community problems relating to the holding (of the conventions) and . . . to serve as a principal liaison between the governmental agencies and participating private organizations, groups and individuals."

Askew Sets Up 7-Tier Network

Convention Duties Defined

Local and State Agencies Linked

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Gov. Reubin Askew signed an executive order late Monday creating a seven-tiered network of officials and civic leaders responsible for coordinating preparations for the twin-convention summer.

The governor, in a self-described effort at "insuring state-local cooperation and coordination in the planning and conduct" of the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, named:

● William L. Reed, executive director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, as state coordinator of all state "non-military functions and support in the area of health, safety and welfare."

● County Manager Ray Goode as area coordinator responsible for "all public health, welfare and safety, including convention site security," within the Dade County area."

● Maj. Gen. Henry W. McMillan, state adjutant general, as military coordinator "in all matters involving the Florida National Guard and any federal military forces that may be required."

● Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance as chief of convention site security encompassing the "convention site complex and adjacent areas."

● Goode, Miami City Manager Melvin Reese and Beach City Manager Clifford Key as a local task force for support services, to be augmented by anyone else designated by Goode.

● Pomerance, Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy and Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire as a local task force for public safety, plus anyone else appointed by Goode.

IN ADDITION, Askew spelled out the duties of his fledgling community coordinating task force, an 18-member citizens group headed by Orange Bowl chief Ernie Seiler.

Dear Col [redacted]

As I'm sure you are aware, for the last two years the Gay people of this country have been organizing and fighting to bring about first class citizenship for homosexuals in all facets of our lives, economically, socially, and politically. The Gay Liberation movement has grown and continues to grow at a rapid pace with a militant, though non-violent posture. It is only logical, therefore, to realize that the Gay movement will be present in Miami Beach during the Democratic (and possibly the Republican) National Convention in July.

In order to bring order to the movement on a national scale, a Gay convention was held in Chicago in February and the National Coalition of Gay Organizations was formed. The major business to come out of that convention were plans and strategies for the upcoming political conventions. During the weekend of May 5,6,7 there will be another national conference of Gays in Washington, D.C. where final plans for the Gay presence in Miami Beach will be made. As coordinator for this conference I am responsible for making available to the Gays of this nation as much information as possible regarding the local Miami scene so that we may form an integrated, non-violent, coordinated program for our presence in Miami Beach. To this end I shall outline some of our anticipated needs and questions which we need answered by the Police Dept. and/or the city of Miami Beach.

HOUSING

The local Miami Gay Activists Alliance will be arranging for as many people as possible. This, however, will be inadequate since we expect 6,000-plus Gay people. That figure is based on one bus from each of the organizations which participated in the last NCGO convention in Chicago. The nightmare of providing for and controling that size of a crowd for a week is instantly recognizable. The answer is, of course, to keep them all in one place where communication will be possible and where our own marshalls and leaders will be able to deal with problems as they arise and take some of the burden off the local police. For this reason we are requesting a campsite. Because of the misunderstanding, and prejudice against Gays, it would seem that a potentially explosive situation could be avoided if such a site were separate from other groups of demonstrators. We have looked over the public parks within a reasonable distance of the convention center and feel that the 21st St. Beach Park, from the water to Collins Ave. is most desireable. It is separated from other potential campsites, it has bathroom facilities, it is known locally as a Gay beach area already, it has a degree of visibility which Gay groups feel is essential for political reasons, it has space enough for sleeping bags on the grass and support services (like first Aid) and staging areas on the paved areas. Flamingo Park, while providing certain facilities, has the disadvantage of allowing encampment with other groups which might cause trouble as well as high fences obliterating visibility which the Gay movement insists upon.

PERMITS

We anticipate a march during the day of the adoption of the party platform, climaxing in a Gay demonstration outside convention hall. The route we see as most viable is: From 21st St. South on Collins Ave. to Lincoln Rd., West to Washington Ave., North to the convention center.

What parade and/or demonstration permits are required and where do we apply for them? What information must we be ready to give and how long in advance must the application be made?

We anticipate a certain amount of leafleting on the sidewalks in front of or near the hotels of the Delegates. Are permits required for leafleting on public sidewalks? Where do we apply and what information is required?

It is likely that buttons will be sold among the Gay demonstrators by other Gay demonstrators. Where do we apply for solicitation permits?

DRESS

It must be clearly understood that many Gay demonstrators will be attired in the clothing of the opposite sex in varying degrees. Some of these will be in "full drag" or completely dressed as the opposite sex. Others will be in "Scag Drag" or only partially dressed in clothing of the opposite sex. (A male in a dress but with a full beard for example) This is a political-philosophical action protesting sexism or role-playing by our society in the latter case or an assertion of our civil and human rights to dress as we choose in the former. While the bulk of the demonstrators will not be engaged in this matter of crossdressing, many will and you should be aware of it. Legal action taken against these people will be considered discriminatory by the rest of the Gay contingent, in all likihood.

IN CASE OF ARRESTS

If arrests are made: Where will the arraignment and detention centers be located?

WOMEN

There will be a fairly large number of Gay women included in the contingent. They will be used to going and coming as they please at any hour and will most likely protest existing "escort" laws. We feel you should be aware of this.

We hope you can respond to these questions very soon. It is to the advantage of everyone if I can present the answers to the assembled representatives of the Gay organizations from across the country at the strategy planning conference in Washington on May 5,6,7. I would request that your written response be directed to me at my home in Washington, D.C. to avoid possible loss at the P.O. Box as well as to the local Gay Activists Alliance. The addresses are:

RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE;
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS

A confidential source advised on [redacted] that at a rally at Columbus, Ohio, on [redacted] sponsored by the GAA, a recognized student group on the campus of Ohio State University, an announcement was made urging everyone to go to the national political conventions in Miami and stating if they could not be at both conventions, they should plan to be at the Democratic National Convention. The announcement stated arrangements should be made through the GAA office in Miami. b6 b7C b7D

A second confidential source advised on [redacted] that [redacted] of the Chicago chapter of GAA and a spokesman for the NCGO has recently been in Miami organizing for protest activity by these organizations at the Democratic National Convention.

The May 31, 1972, issue of the "Miami Herald", a daily Miami newspaper, contained an article stating that [redacted] for the NCGO, had advised that his group has requested the City of Miami Beach furnish a camp site on the 21st Street Beach, Miami Beach, for use of the gay demonstrators. [redacted] said this beach is already known as a "gay beach" and he added that a separate gay camp site is needed from camp sites utilized by other demonstrators because of possible animosities of these other demonstrators who may harbor "anti-gay feelings". b6 b7C

On June 1, 1972, on the program "The Informer", a daily talk show on Miami Beach radio station WKAT, talkmaster [redacted] talked by telephone with [redacted] who identified himself as [redacted] He related as follows:

The GAA has made plans for peaceful demonstrations at the site of the Democratic National Convention in support of the delegates within the convention committed to the support of "gay rights". Some 50 such delegates are already committed.

RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE;
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS

The expected number of gay demonstrators was estimated at over 6,000 based upon the number who attended a recent national convention in Chicago sponsored by the NCGO. Some of the demonstrators will be dressed in "full drag", complete attire of the opposite sex, and others will be dressed in "skag drag", partial female attire or full female attire with beards. GAA considers this a political action and the demonstrations will be in support of full civil rights for all homosexuals in every field.

CONVENTION PLANS - STAFF MEETING, 6/2/72

For the Bureau's information, on 6/2/72, a staff meeting was held in the training classroom adjacent to the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. Following pertinent subjects were discussed:

Security of Convention Complex

[redacted] Andy Frain Service, in charge of security for the Democratic National Convention (DNC), informed [redacted] of the DNC had suggested consideration be given to providing security for the convention complex in the immediate future in order that unauthorized persons will not have relatively free access as is now the case.

Colonel [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department, on 6/5/72, informed rendering the convention complex secure at all times between this early date and the start of the DNC, in his opinion, would be a practical impossibility. He pointed out several other convention complex functions are scheduled between now and then. In addition, construction, electrical, and telephone workers are constantly moving in and out in connection with their work at the convention hall and in connection with numerous media accommodations. He stated as a practical matter they would probably have to rely upon the procedure which they used in 1968; that is, sanitizing the convention complex several days prior to the opening of the convention, and institute strict security measures thereafter.

Small Police Departments Adjacent to Miami Beach

[redacted] in charge of Secret Service operations, advised Secret Service is now in the process of making surveys of the routes likely to be traveled by the candidates for which they have protective responsibility, and the hotels where they will be staying. During the course of this they have contacted adjacent small police departments, such as Surfside, Bal Harbour, and North Bay Village, which have very small forces. The chiefs of several of these departments have expressed interest in what they may be called upon to do in connection with the conventions. b6 b7C

Major [redacted] Metropolitan Department of Public Safety, informed all of the chiefs of the smaller departments during the last several days had conferred with the Director of Public Safety. The smaller police departments have been requested to cooperate by handling their own problems during the course of the convention weeks without expecting immediate response from Metro for assistance.

Arrest Forms and Procedures

Major [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department, advised a universal field arrest form, similar to that used in Washington, has been prepared. 17,000 will be printed. This form will be used only in connection with arrests made during the course of the conventions. After an arrested person is taken to an arrest staging area, he will be searched, the form executed, a poloroid photograph taken showing the arrested person and the arresting officer. The arrested person's right thumbprint will be placed on the back of the photograph.

All arrests will be made under state statutes.

Criminal Justice

Circuit Judge THOMAS E. LEE, JR. is coordinating arrangements looking towards expeditious handling of arrested persons during the course of the conventions.

Judges, prosecutors, voluntary defense attorneys, and detention officers will be prepared to operate a streamlined round-the-clock court system.

Court clerks will be assigned to the arrest staging areas, when these areas are finally selected. After swearing out the short arrest and complaint form before the clerk, the arresting officer will be free to return to duty.

Public defenders and voluntary defense attorneys will be present through each stage of the proceedings.

A juvenile, if the offense is minor, and his parents can be contacted, will probably be released to their custody without bond, and scheduled to stand trial after the convention. If not released by the magistrate, the youth will be taken to the Youth Hall at Kendall.

Adult persons will be taken to the Metropolitan Department of Public Safety Jail from the arrest staging area.

Female adult prisoners will be taken to the Miami City Jail from the arrest staging area.

The Metro Justice Building will be the court center; however, teams of judges and lawyers will be supplied with special identification to enable them to cross police lines if necessary and hold court at other locations as needed.

Judges will be briefed in advance to insure uniform bonding policies. The general philosophy will be to use alternative methods to bond whenever possible on lesser offenses and not to use the amount of bond as a punitive measure.

Accused persons, unless indigent, will be required to hire their own lawyers for the actual trials, trials will be scheduled subsequent to the conclusion of any disturbance.

Mental Subjects

[redacted] Secret Service, advised copies of new state laws relative to handling mental subjects, which go into effect 7/1/72, have been obtained. Liaison has been established with the Psychiatric Center of the Jackson Memorial Hospital in order that such subjects may be handled promptly during the course of the conventions, with a 15-day observation period.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTION COALITION

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on [redacted] b7D that representatives of the Florida Peoples Coalition (FPC) and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC) attended a planning meeting held in Washington, D.C., May 17 through 19, 1972. Representatives from San Diego, Washington, D.C., New York, and Florida were among the twenty persons present.

As a result of these meetings the Miami Convention Coalition (MCC) was formed, which will encompass the SDCC, the FPC, the Miami Liberation Front (MLF), the Anti-War Union and the Indochina Information Center. The Yippies, while not a part, would be associated with the MCC. Efforts would be made to establish regional offices in other cities.

The SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical organizations in San Diego which was formed for active opposition to the U. S. Government through "serious, determined, and long-term social upheaval".

The FPC, also known as the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention on Miami Beach during July, 1972.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTION COALITION

The MLF is a local coalition of students, women and young workers who share a common opposition to racism, sexism and imperialism. This coalition was organized around the concensus that there must be coordinated non-violent opposition and confrontation at the Democratic National Convention to be held at Miami Beach in July, 1972.

The Indochina Information Center and the Anti-War Union were formed by Youth International Party (YIP) members.

The following is a copy of the "Working Paper of the Miami Conventions Coalition", dated May 20, 1972, which was drawn up as a result of the Washington, D.C. meeting.

WORKING PAPER OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION

May 20, 1972

On May 19 and 20, 45-50 people met in Washington to discuss what actions the movement should take at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami this July and August. The meeting was called by members of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida Peoples' Coalition.

One third of the people at the meeting were from New York and D.C., the rest were from areas including Boston, Philadelphia, Texas, Ohio, Vermont, and upstate New York. Many of the people at the meeting had already decided to work in Miami as organizers for the Miami Conventions Coalition. Others plan to return to their cities/towns and report on the meeting, and begin discussions about the actions. After a day and a half of good pointed discussion, the group came to the following consensus:

1. THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SHOULD BE THE MAJOR FOCUS OF ANTI-WAR ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER. (August 21-24) There will be a call for a three day national action including massive and dramatic demonstrations. The short term goal is to expose the criminal acts of the Nixon administration, particularly the continued escalation of the war in Indochina; and to demonstrate with marches and civil disobedience that the re-election of Nixon will cause continued resistance and confrontation in this country. We support the national liberation struggles of the Indochinese peoples. Our actions at the Republican Convention will be in full support of the 7-point peace proposal of the P.R.G.

2. WE FEEL THAT THE TONE SHOULD BE ONE OF CONFRONTATION, SERIOUS RESISTANCE, AND NON-VIOLENT CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE. Because of the present situation in the U.S. we know that the convention and the demonstrations may take place in the atmosphere of an armed camp. We will not use inflated rhetoric designed to provoke an overreaction by the repressive forces in Miami. However, what Nixon stands for is so oppressive to the American people and the people of the world that we must actively oppose Nixon's domestic and foreign policies.

3. OUR ORGANIZING FOR THE CONVENTION WILL ATTEMPT TO BUILD ALLIANCES WITH DIFFERENT GROUPS (e.g. THIRD WORLD PEOPLE, WOMEN, GAY PEOPLE, STUDENTS AND YOUTH, VETS, LABOR, AND THE ELDERLY). At the least, we will develop a program and scenario for the convention that will speak to the needs of a broad cross-section of people.

4. OUR STRENGTH DEPENDS ON PEOPLE COMING WELL-ORGANIZED TO THE CONVENTION ACTIONS FROM DIFFERENT REGIONS AND CITIES. Local organizations will develop program, do their own propaganda, and bring people in groups/brigades to the Convention. Beginning this week about 20 people in Miami are laying the groundwork for the convention actions--setting up an office and media center, raising money, talking with organized groups in the Miami area, and developing in more detail the scenario and tactics.

5- FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION (JULY 12-15) WE WILL EMPHASIZE SUPPORT FOR CONSTITUENCY ACTIONS, SPIRITED, BUT LOW-KEY ANTI-WAR STREET PRESENCE, LOBBYING AND PROPAGANDA AND EXPOSE.

The Miami Conventions Coalition will not, however, put out a call for massive street demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. We agreed to wage an intensive propaganda campaign at the Dem. National Convention around the war, with at least a partial focus on lobbying the delegates to the convention. The seven point peace proposal of the PRG would be key education tool in terms of talking both to McGovern supporters and to people in general. However, care would be taken to respect the attempts to make the 3-point peace plan a floor fight inside, and the PRG proposal would not be used to undermine that attempt.

6- IT WAS EXPRESSLY STATED AND AGREED THAT THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION WOULD NOT PUBLICLY SUPPORT ANYONE FOR THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT.

OUR DISCUSSION

We felt that we participated in a fruitful discussion about the role of the left at the Republican and Democratic Conventions, and the direction that the movement could take. This section is an attempt to give a sense of the flow of those discussions.

1. Many people felt that the primary objective in this period was to defeat Richard Nixon and the forces he represents within the ruling class. Other people wanted to concentrate more on issues than on Nixon himself. We all felt that the combination of the continuing Vietnamese offensive and the political climate in America makes the defeat of Nixon possible. There was a general feeling that our actions around the conventions could significantly affect the course of the war. We discussed how an anti-imperialist movement could relate to the issue of defeating Nixon, and specifically how other issues (racism, sexism, corporate capitalism) related to that.

2. We felt that any national demonstration or action is where the left states its politics, and has an opportunity to say things which relate to people's anger or disillusionment. That is why we felt that our call must be more than just to defeat Nixon. The demonstrations themselves are not a substitute for politics. We do not want to allow our presence to become the issue at the Republican convention; our demonstrations must dramatize the real issues.

3. We discussed the militancy of the demonstrations, the use of civil disobedience as a tactic and specifically the problem of the large Cuban population in Miami. Since the Miami police force has only 650 officers, the federal government will be responsible for protection, and the national guard will probably be present. People felt that the convention atmosphere could turn into that of an armed camp. Some people felt that the portions of the Cuban community which are right-wing were not that menacing, and that the policing forces would be relatively well disciplined. We felt that the seriousness of the world situation meant that we could not compromise the necessity to be there. Some people felt that it would be best if the onus of confrontation was placed on Nixon; others felt that Nixon might try to cool the situation out and that meant that the responsibility would be placed on us to remain militant.

4. We had long discussions about McGovern and his possible role, if he were nominated and if he were not. Some people felt that for the first time since the beginning of the war we had indeed a possible candidate whose election could affect the end of the war. Some people felt that all should be done to insure McGovern's nomination, with the exception of outright endorsement. Others felt that we should primarily be trying to push the Democrats and the country to the left. We discussed how the result inside of the Democratic convention might affect the tactics and militancy of the people on the street outside, and vice versa. Because of the possibility of McGovern as a real alternative for ending the war, we felt it was important for the outside demonstrations to be low key. Some people felt that demonstrations might have an adverse effect, and this was especially felt by most people if the demonstrations were in any way violent.

We discussed our strategy in case HHH got elected, and what our position should be if in fact McGovern won. We discussed tactics such as a march against death, or a candlelight march calling out the names of dead Vietnamese. A quiet anger. We all felt the need of strong support of activities already planned -- MARO, SCLC, Gay groups, and other constituency demonstrations.

We realized that whoever would be nominated at the Democratic Convention would have a significant effect on the tone of the Republican Convention. We discussed whether an overt anti-imperialist, pro-PRG demonstration would be appropriate at the Democratic convention. We concluded that we should have an educational presence at the Democratic Convention which would press delegates to understand the real origins of the war.

We realized that all Democratic Convention organizing would be hampered by lack of time.

5. We had intensive discussions of the 3 point and 7 point peace proposals. We felt that lobbying around the 3 point proposal inside the Democratic Convention was very important, and had the possibility of producing floor fights. Most people concluded that the 3 point proposal was appropriate for organizing internally inside the Democratic convention, but that the mass propaganda line, especially for the Republican Convention, should be support of the 7 points.

We felt that a strong, independent women's presence would be a crucial part of the convention activities and the Miami Conventions Coalition.

We discussed the question of coalitions and united fronts, and agreed that we should try to make the demonstrations more broad-based than in the past.

We will emphasize the seriousness of these demonstrations, and our serious committment.

6. In terms of relations between local and national activities, we felt strongly that well organized local regions should define their own activities for the Republican Convention. We felt that the Conventions Coalition in Miami would probably be defining the scenario, but would do so in a way which was responsive to, and depended on, the participation and existence of local groups. We urged people to go back to where they lived and organize Conventions Coalition offices or centers which would distribute propaganda, discuss and organize among themselves, so that at the Republican Convention itself people would be able to participate in regional or city groups.

7. We felt that convention organizing would be very important this summer, because the offensive in Vietnam would continue, and because Nixon would continue to escalate. We felt that the major contradictions would intensify over the summer, and that the left could play a very significant role at both conventions; at the Republican in militant, strong, confrontational demonstrations of all forms, and at the Democratic by expressing strong anti-war sentiment.

EXPOSE '72

Expose '72 was only discussed briefly at the meeting, but we all felt it would be a very important part of convention organizing. The following is a synopsis of the Expose '72 proposal put forward by the San Diego Convention Coalition:

We want to create an atmosphere where people can come to understand more about the specific nature of the country, and the world we live in, and have some fun. Expose '72 would be a large exposition, and also a base for organizing brigades and other actions.

Exhibits: (a partial list)

--people's art
--the economy
--Chicano and Black movements
--Women
--China, Vietnam, Cuba, Africa, Latin America

Continuous showing of movies, i.e. Milhous, Burn, Inside North Vietnam, Etc.

We are hoping that regions will organize Expose 72 groups and exhibits in their regions and bring them to Miami. Expose is seen as one more tool in being able to organize nationally and internationally. It is a creative and new way that even more organizations, groups, constituencies and nationalities might be persuaded to participate in the Convention actions.

PRINCIPLES OF UNITY

THE FOLLOWING SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF UNITY WERE BROUGHT TO THE MEETING BY THE PEOPLE FROM FLORIDA AND SAN DIEGO. THEY WERE NEITHER ACCEPTED NOR REJECTED BY THOSE AT THE MEETING FOR A VARIETY OF GOOD REASONS. THEY ARE INCLUDED HERE TO PROVOKE DISCUSSION:

1. We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine. e.g. NEP, Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft-Hartly Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, FAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the bussing issue.

2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating the following relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Conventions Coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of Third World communities; technical and economic assistance to groups organizing around the conventions in Third World communities; emphasis by white organizers on the issu of racism; and the probelms of working people in their own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism, and imperialism.

3. We oppose all social, political, and economic forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation based on sex roles. We support the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and societal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all US aggression and involvement in Indochina, and support the PRG 7 point plan for peace in Vietnam. The major points of which are:

   a. The US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all US troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.
   b. The US must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam, and end its support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the US government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

5. We oppose all US interference in the internal affairs of other nations; and we support struggles of national liberation.

6. The demonstrations we are planning should not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be pushed thrugh the use of slogans or the speakers' platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

ON TO MIAMI!

THIS PAPER IS NOT FOR PUBLICATION.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTION COALITION

During the May 19, 1972, meeting there was a discussion as to how they could best assist Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN so as not to alienate people from him. It was mentioned that on the night of nomination at the Democratic National Convention a vigil would be staged and it was implied if MC GOVERN was not nominated heavy action or civil disobedience could occur.

The June 1, 1972, edition of the "Miami News", a Miami, Florida daily newspaper, contained an article which reported activists from San Diego and Miami called a press conference in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall on May 31, 1972, to announce plans to set up a coalition of organizations that would demonstrate during the Democratic National Convention and the Republican National Convention. Representatives of the SDCC, FPC and MLF announced the formation of the MCC and said they hoped dissident groups planning to protest during the conventions would join the coalition. They said they would stage peaceful protests in an attempt "to confront and expose the corrupt policies of the U. S. Government".

Representatives of the three groups said their organizations would merge and they will urge other groups to work with them to form a "United Front". They said the coalition would be made up of groups "bonding together in a united front to oppose a common enemy -- the forces of racism, sexism and imperialism".

RE: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anti-establishment revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

On June 8, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that YIP has mimeographed approximately 3,000 copies of a three-page flier captioned, "Ten Days to Change the World". These fliers are being distributed in packages of approximately 100 throughout the United States, principally to underground type newspapers. The source said these fliers were prepared and printed at the YIP office on Miami Beach which has been set up as their headquarters during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions to be held on Miami Beach during the Summer of 1972.

The source further advised that copies of this flier are being distributed on the street in the Miami and Miami Beach area.

The following is a copy of this flier.

ten days to change the world

The Youth International Party invites everyone in the United States to come to Miami Beach for a Celebration of Change, to occur from July 10 to July 14 and August 20 to August 24. We will create, in Miami Beach, a political-cultural demonstration of benign and peaceful magnitude--- a zone of sanity and sharing for inspired Americans of many persuasions. Together in this joyous unity we will lay plans to disturb the coming machine-like tread of the Republican kingmakers.

The United States is rapidly becoming a nation doomed by its own monied corruption, violence, racism, pollution and amoral materialism. Congress's strength is ripped off by arrogant, macho power-brokers in the Executive Branch promising no future for us but a decadent Roman Imperium.

The Youth International Party strongly suspects that Richard Nixon is possessed by such an intense personal need for the nations of the world to grovel before his war-room throne, that the convolutions and revolutions of the world, in the months to come, may cause him to join the society of foamy-mouths.

Baleful winds of repression wait to be unleashed from the dark caves of the Republican Party. Everywhere bitter crowds of American citizens view the corruption and illicit wars of the government with total revulsion. War, social slavery, sexism, racism are peddled and packaged by monster capitalist conglomerates as the true America. If that is America, there is nothing for an American citizen to look foreward to but a long life of pain in a fearsome valley of robot violence.

The Youth International Party gathers for resistance and change. We are the direct descendants of a freedom and justice seeking people which links us with every century, with every decent cause, with every plant and mammal that ever lived.

We are freedom and sharing

We are women and men reborn in change

We are socialism

We are the grain

We are the sunflowers reaching to the sun

We will change our country by any means necessary

We are freeshare

There is nothing for America but floating platforms of war over dead jungles unless we rise up in a wave of change. We have an inalienable right to cross state lines to share, to seek peace, to speak against war, to demand honesty in our government and to command ourselves in our own ways of freedom. We will not let our country be taken over by a fierce, elite, jaded caste of bloodmoney-hurgry power-brokers living the life of the damned. We stand atop the seawall of ecology, freeshare and change. We stand at the barricades of decency and beauty.

We want change !

We want to change the environment !

We want to change the economy !

Change the government !

Change the culture ! Change your spirit !

Change your diet ! Change your sex !

Ex-change everything !

We will gather near the convention site to point toward the deep change American civilization must undergo in order to create peace in the world. We seek the immediate goal of freeing all political prisoners. We demand that women have complete control of their own minds and bodies. People will be free to express their sexuality in peace and joy. Restrictive laws against marijuana will end, and the military economy will be dismantled.

e will continue changes with unconditional amnesty for aft refusers and from those who managed to escape from ie grasp of the armed forces. We will demand a total end all racism, to all sexism, and to the class system which aves one of every four Americans impoverished in resources id spirit. We will seek to end the American tax system hich spares the rich while burying the working person eneath a mountain of cruel and evil taxation.

We are taking every step to create ten days of peaceful penness and positive action, not to mention music, water id fun in the sun. We will only have peace. With great energy, id federal officials as well as the two political parties.

Expert tells of experiences

D.C. official stresses preparation

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

The head of the Washington, D.C. Civil Defense Center is in Miami this week to advise County Manager Ray Goode on Convention preparations.

George H. Rodericks told The Miami News today he came to Miami on the recommendation of "movement people — I think you call them non-delegates," to share his 13 years of experience with demonstration preparations in the nation's capital.

The 56-year-old father of 4 said that he has learned from the average 400 demonstrations that take place each year in Washington that adequate preparations cannot be stressed enough.

"It is much better to remove the doubt and remove the fear and set a precedent for cooperation than to go into these things uninformed and unprepared," he said.

He said that the Nixon administration and previous administrations had evolved a policy that all people have the basic right to assemble peaceably and express dissent.

"The present administration and the past administrations recognized that if the Boy Scouts or the American Legion wanted to assemble in Washington we would all want to help. We no longer discriminate between groups. Any group in lawful pursuit of First Amendment (freedom of speech and assembly) rights receives the same treatment," he said.

Washington puts him in the middle between police and demonstrators. He must deal with seven different city and federal police departments as well as military commands and diverse federal agencies.

The Mayor's Command Center in Washington provides a central emergency action control facility where:

● Threats to the well-being of citizens are forecast and anticipated.

● Key government officials and others communicate quickly with each other based on facts fed to the center from the affected area.

● Uniform policy is formulated and implemented.

The key to making things run smoothly is communication, unified leadership and a uniform policy relating to what will be done by whom and when, he said.

Rodericks expressed confidence in the ability of demonstrators to organize themselves and get along within guidlines negotiated with authorities.

"Most of the demonstrators you have coming here are professionals," he said. "They have done their thing before. They are not freaked out, wild-eyed dangerous animals as I have heard from some talk shows.

"They are very politically minded and want to do for themselves whenever possible and we try to help them take care of themselves."

Rodericks said he did not wish to draw a parallel between Washington and the situation Miami Beach faces with two national conventions this summer.

He did offer some general principles followed in Washington. They, are:

● Camping areas are requested and permitted only on rare occasions. However, Rodericks said the private sector such as the Anglican Cathedral and universities in the area have provided camping facilities. It all depends on the plans worked out between the government and the demonstrators, he said.

● The government cooperates only with groups who are willing to get the required permits and carry their share of the load.

● Most groups are cooperative. In return for their help the city has provided, on different occasions, trip tents for drug overdoses manned by movement people who were trained by the city; public toilet facilities, radio communications equipment to be used by movement marshals policing the crowds, salt tablets and water.

● Long before a demonstration is planned the government conducts an "out reach" program to learn who will be attending, what they want and how a compromise can be struck.

● Rhetoric on both sides is kept to a minimum.

● Businessmen and other private citizens are involved in the preparations and planning for major demonstrations.

● Representatives of "movement people" are always allowed access to the mayor's command post and to the non-security plans that have been set up.

● Surplus material such as Civil Defense supplies removed from razed buildings is used whenever possible to cut down the bite on the taxpayer.

Rodericks said that his purpose in Miami is to advise Goode on the role of the executive. Goode said he is glad to have him.

"Everyone from the White House to Woodstock says that Rodericks is the man to have when you are planning for a crowd," Goode said.

"I feel an obligation to both sides, to the movement people and to government people to get them to level with each other," he said. "If that's the only help I can be, it will be enough."

Non-delegate campsite question is deferred

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The Miami Beach City Council today defered action on a campsite for convention followers this summer.

In a 5-1 vote taken during an unusually tumultuous session attended by about 300 people, the Beach Council moved to refer the question of campsites for protestors and other non-delegates to Beach Manager Clifford O'Key for further study. No date was set for his report.

Neither did the council set a date for consideration of the controversial issue.

Voting for deferral were Councilmen Herbert Magnes, Jerome Greene, Leonard Weinstein, Robert Goodman and Harold Rosen.

Councilman Leonard Haber voted against the motion, offered by Magnes, saying he thought the council should at least hear discussion on the matter. Mayor Chuck Hall, who is ill with a case of food poisoning, was not present at the meeting.

In voting to defer discussion of accommodations for the expected crowds of non-delegates, the council specifically barred discussion of three separate items on the agenda:

● A REQUEST by Beach attorney Ellis Rubin that the council pass a resolution barring public display of the National Liberation Front and North Vietnamese flag during the conventions.

● A REQUEST by the Miami Sunshine Committee, a new group formed to help arrange accommodations for non-delegates, that the Beach set aside Bayshore Municipal Golf Course as a site for the expected crowds.

● A REQUEST by Richard Selderman, a Miami Beach stockbroker, to discuss certain aspects of preparations being made for the convention.

The deferral touched off an angry reaction from a crowd of nearly 300 which attended the meeting.

Campsite Proponents, Foes To Keep Issue Churning

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

After the Miami Beach City Council deferred action Wednesday on campsites for convention demonstrators, groups fighting for and against such provisions pledged to continue their conflicting campaigns.

Ellis Rubin, an attorney opposing any accommodations for demonstrators, said he will file court action if public lands are designated as campsites.

Heading a citizen's group called "Operation Backbone," Rubin contended the delay on a decision by the council "greatly magnifies the danger" of disorders.

ON THE OPPOSITE side of the issue, a group calling itself the Sunshine Committee said it will keep seeking an $189,000 appropriation to equip campsites for non-delegates.

"We're going to press for a meeting next week," said Sunshine's chairman, Gerald Engel, 20, a student at the University of Miami.

Neither Operation Backbone nor the Sunshine Committee have any formal membership, but both groups claim broad community support.

Asking for campsites is a "Conventions Coordinating Committee" of seven protest groups planning actions during the conventions.

A spokesman for one of those groups, the Youth International Party, said Wednesday that demonstrators plan to camp during the conventions regardless of the council's ultimate decision.

"WE'RE GOING right ahead as if the City Council didn't exist. . . It's really up to the authorities whether this happens peacefully," said Yippie spokesman Stew Albert.

Other groups joining in the demand for campsites include the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Vietnam Veterans Against the War, National Welfare Rights Organization, Miami Conventions Coalition, National Coalition of Gay Organizations and the People's Party.

In a joint statement, the groups collectively have asked for Bayshore and Par Three golf courses on Miami Beach.

Individually, SCLC has proposed a "Resurrection City" in Flamingo Park between 14th and 15th streets, and the Gay Coalition has asked to camp on 21st Street Beach.

The NWRO, whose members primarily include welfare mothers, has reserved hotel rooms — but supports the campsite demands of the other groups.

The People's Party has requested Miami Beach Convention Hall for a "movement response" during the three days following the Democratic Convention.

The Miami Beach City Council voted Police Chief Rocky Pomerance sweeping authority Wednesday to issue or deny permits for demonstrations during the two national conventions.

But the council deferred a decision on the controversial question of whether the city should designate public areas as campsites requested by demonstrators and other non-delegates.

Passed unanimously as an emergency ordinance, the parade permit measure takes effect immediately. Under its provisions, protestors who march or demonstrate on city streets without advance permission of the police chief can be jailed for 90 days and fined $1,000.

In other convention-related action:

● Presiding Circuit Judge Marshall Wiseheart suspended criminal court proceedings during the weeks of the Democratic and Republican conventions to free the courts to handle cases from possible disturbances.

Wiseheart's order, effective during the periods July 9-15 and August 21-25, affects all regular criminal trials in Circuit, Criminal, Metro and Juvenile courts except actions involving defendants under a 60-day speedy trial rule.

● Miami International Airport officials said they'll spend as much as $15,000 for a secured arrival area for candidates and other convention VIPs. (See story, page 4B.)

● Hallandale's city council outlawed sleeping on that city's beaches in anticipation of an influx of convention demonstrators.

● Groups and individuals on both sides of the Miami Beach campsite controversy said they'll continue their conflicting campaigns, and a spokesman for one protest group said its members will

camp in parks whether or not the city provides permission. (See story, page 4B.)

Beach Police officials described the parade permit law as part of a package of ordinances modeled on demonstration-control laws in Washington, D.C.

Other parts of the package, backed by Pomerance as convention security chief, will be sent to the City Council later, they said.

The permit law requires application for police permission, 15 to 90 days in advance, for "any march or procession consisting of persons, animals (or) vehicles . . . traveling upon any public way."

ALTHOUGH THE police chief has authority to shorten the application period if "good cause" is shown, the law sets other limitations.

One requirement is that the demonstration "not divert such a large number of police officers from their normal duties so that the city would thereby be deprived of reasonable police protection."

Under the law, refusal of a permit can be appealed to the city manager, who has 10 days to act.

Although later joining in a unanimous vote to pass the law, Councilman Leonard Haber questioned whether the definition of "parade" might be so broad as to be unconstitutional.

The council delayed a decision on campsites until a special meeting at a yet-to-be specified date, after it receives a report from City Manager Clifford O'Key.

BEACH MAYOR Chuck Hall, who previously proposed use of Miami Beach Senior High School athletic field and city-owned Par Three golf course as encampment areas, was reported ill and did not attend Wednesday's meeting.

Meanwhile, the School Board referred a request to use Miami Beach High as an official convention station back to County Manager Ray Goode, asking him to "spell out" specific use of the school during the convention weeks.

Goode had sent a letter to Fred Kline, assistant superintendent for physical plants, requesting that Miami Beach High be utilized during the two convention weeks as a security agency staging area; a first aid station; an information center; a headquarters for key Dade County personnel.

The letter pointed out that at no time would the school be used to house or provide living quarters for the general public, to dispense food or operate a feeding program or to provide sanitary facilities for the general public.

Board members approved the use of the school saying that the summer school and quinmester programs could be moved to Nautilus Junior High for those weeks.

Superintendent Whigham said the board would have to look into how the convention would affect the community school which meets at night.

CITIZENS GROUPS opposing and supporting Hall's recommendation did attend the meeting — and interrupted the session with angry protest when the council refused to hear them until the special meeting is held.

"You've passed the buck to the city manager," shouted former councilman Paul Seiderman, who attempted to speak against the campsite proposal on behalf of the Miami Beach Taxpayer's Association.

"You have no right to do that! It's up to you to make this political decision and you're afraid to do it."

An unidentified man in shirtsleeves was ejected from the council chamber when he shouted from the floor, "There's a bunch of damn hippies coming to town and let's get it (a decision) over with!"

Presiding in Hall's absence, Vice Mayor Robert Goodman recessed the meeting after other members of the public flocked to the front of the chamber, demanding a right to be heard immediately.

ONLY AFTER A 20-minute uproar was Goodman able to persuade the approximately 130 persons present to either take their seats or leave the chamber.

The motion to defer a decision — and public debate — was made by Councilman Herbert Magnes. Joining him in voting for it were Goodman and Councilmen Jerome Greene, Leonard Weinstein and Harold Rosen.

The lone negative vote was cast by Councilman Haber, who explained he also wanted to delay action by the council, but felt the citizens' groups should be allowed five minutes each to make their statements.

Also attempting unsuccessfully to address the council were spokesmen for two other groups on opposite sides of the campsite issue.

Ellis Rubin, an attorney who has formed a group called Operation Backbone to oppose accommodations for demonstrations at the conventions, had requested permission to urge the council to "strictly" enforce all laws during the convention periods — and to outlaw display of the Viet Cong flag, a symbol of some anti-war protest groups.

On the opposite side of the issue, a group called the Sunshine Committee had asked permission to urge the council to appropriate $189,000 for non-delegate facilities including campsite sanitation and medical care.

ALONG WITH OTHERS both groups were refused an opportunity to speak when the council voted to defer action.

However, the council did take action on two other matters related to the convention.

The council approved a 7.5 per cent salary increase for Beach patrolmen and 5 per cent for the remaining police and all firemen, which will be retroactive to May 1.

The wage boost, which will cost about $100,000 for the rest of the fiscal year, was designed to boost morale during the conventions. Requests by representatives of three employe organizations that other city employes be included were deferred. The change brings the salary for patrolmen from a range of $356.25 to $425.52 every other week to between $379.73 and $454.86.

The council also waived the city's requirement of bids for all items over $3,000 specifically to take care of last minute purchases needed for the Democratic Convention.

The following comments are submitted with regard to the overall assessment of possible disruptive activity planned by various groups and individuals at the Democratic National Convention (DNC) and the Republican National Convention (RNC):

Indications are increasing that the RNC will be the major focus of mass protest activity, and that demonstrations at the DNC will be tightly controlled by protest leaders to avoid any serious confrontation which might bring counter action by police and detract from RNC plans.

Activity at the DNC will be confined to constituency activities by independent groups hoping to gain publicity and support for their own causes, low-key anti-war street presence, lobbying, and propaganda. The major organizations, maintaining a low profile, will attempt to influence those within the convention hall to support various peace proposals of the groups and will attempt to involve the constituency groups, i.e., Women's Lib, Gays, etc., in supporting their demands.

The major mass organizations, gearing up for massive demonstrations at the RNC, will undoubtedly exercise considerable influence in maintaining order at the DNC, and no serious difficulties are anticipated with the demonstrators during this period.

At this point in time there have been no indications of a large scale propaganda effort by any major group to move people to Miami for DNC demonstrations. The principal group planning such activity is the Youth International Party (Yippies). Those whom the Yippies are able to attract on the basis of political philosophy are minimal, and in the absence of this large scale propaganda effort, it is apparent that in order to attract the vast numbers they proclaim as being their constituency, the Yippies must employ some device such as a "rock concert" or "Woodstock festival". To date, no such activity has been planned.

Indications are thus that with exception of members of constituency groups motivated by individual causes, there will be no mass movement of people to Miami for political demonstrations at the DNC.

With respect to the RNC, the Vietnam situation continues to be the principal rallying point for support of massive demonstrations planned by the larger coordinating groups, such as the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice and the Antiwar Union. With exception of the widespread but short-lived student flare-up following the Administration's decision to bomb North Vietnamese targets, there have been no large scale anti-Administration rallies or peace gatherings throughout the country, and support for the planned RNC anti-war demonstrations is at low ebb at this time. Barring some unforeseen event in the Vietnam War which may trigger a massive anti-Administration effort, it would appear the anti-war issue will not attract the numbers anticipated by protest leaders. These leaders are attempting to weave Administration's domestic policy problems into their propaganda, in an effort to attract additional participants, but these issues appear to be non-motivational.

At this point, although national protest leaders such as [redacted] have called for massive civil disobedience and street demonstrations designed to provoke police confrontations, particularly on the last day of the RNC, strong public support for such activity may fail to materialize. It would thus appear that the success of these major groups in attracting demonstrators to the Miami area during the RNC will depend upon the progress of the Administration in winding down the war and the effectiveness of the propaganda efforts of the major groups from now until the time of the RNC.

potential. As second referenced Chicago letter reflected, however, before she could be contacted for interview, the information regarding her involvement in the 4/26/72 escapade at Chicago Circle Campus was developed and until late 5/2/72, when she surrendered herself at Chicago Police Department headquarters, she was a fugitive, and could not be located at her residence by the Police Department. As the subject is now on bond, trial date set for 5/31/72, no interview is contemplated at present and it would appear she has little or no informant potential.

Subject's activities as known have been carefully considered regarding possible ADEX inclusion; however, Chicago does not feel that available information would warrant an ADEX recommendation at present. Her activities appear to have been sporadic in nature and although she appears to be a militant woman's liberation advocate, has no apparent continuing organizational affiliation. Her only YIP activity was in 1/72; she did not participate in the 2/72 picketing by YIP of the local ABC TV affiliate, and no Chicago informant can provide any information regarding her, other than in connection with YIP in 1/72. This report is being provided for the information of the Bureau and Miami, the latter in view of stated YIP plans for action surrounding the national Democratic Convention and a photograph of subject is being provided Miami as an enclosure also.

The May Day Collective (MDC), also known as Mayday and Mayday Tribe, consisted of a variety of loosely associated, nation-wide collectives and persons who generally espoused civil disobediance as a primary tactic in accomplishing their aims in revolting against the so-called "establishment". MDC was instrumental in the organizing of the massive demonstrations in Washington, D.C., in early May, 1971, directed at disrupting and paralyzing the Government.

Regarding the above incident, the "Chicago Daily News", a local newspaper, carried an article entitled

"Co-ed is accused in attack threat", in its edition of April 26, 1972. The article reflected that three University of Illinois Circle Campus co-eds had allegedly attacked and [redacted] Oak Park, Illinois, a former student and frequent contributor to the school paper. He had recently satirized women's liberation in the newspaper's April Fool edition and had since been getting obscene notes. On the day of the assault [redacted] had received a note saying "Come see us, we are going to rape you", signed "Three Women's Libbers." The note had directed [redacted] to a fifth floor campus office, headquarters for women's lib, however, since so many persons were present here, no meeting could take place regarding his male chauvinist attitude. He had accepted a suggestion to meet in a hallway of the floor above; however, once upstairs, the women attacked him; one described as 5'6" and weighing some 200 pounds, holding him while the other two began tearing off his clothes. According to [redacted] he was rescued by two males who happened on the scene, at which point his attackers fled. (CG T-1 on [redacted]

[redacted] was present at sessions of the [redacted] MDC conference in Atlanta, Georgia. Activities at this conference were somewhat chaotic and confused, with considerable friction between various groups represented here, to the extent that an organized agenda for the affair never was followed.

Some discussion did take place, however, regarding plans for a fall offensive, or demonstrations aimed at a disruption of Wall Street in New York City, the action referred to as "Give the Man a Heart Attack".

The below source provided no information reflecting [redacted] played a prominent or leadership role at this affair. b6 b7C b7D

New American Movement (NAM) (Also Known As New American Community Party)

In a leaflet disseminated in 9/71, NAM described itself as follows:

> NAM is an attempt to "start a new national organization composed of radicals and revolutionarys who desire to create a grouping that will present a viable alternative to the failure of groups such as Mayday.... ...NAM is pushing the standard Communist line of anti-capitalism, and calling for the undermining of the military and economic power of what it terms the established order. NAM states it wishes to set up People's Councils to launch struggles against the U.S. ruling class." It also claims that it will use illegal resistances and civil disobediance to reach its aims and goals.

Other Information Concerning BAER

The April 3, 1972 edition of the "Chicago Illini", Circle Campus student newspaper, page 16, contained a letter to the editor signed by [redacted] and another female. The letter was as follows:

> "Hey, you fellas aren't getting your facts straight. For example, in Ed Mc Cauley's article on the Center Board meeting on March ninth, he reported my cronies and I as members of Circle Women's Liberation. This is false; although we consider ourselves affiliated with them through common goals and gender, and we showed the puzzles with the knowledge of the Union, we are a group of feminist libertarians. We are not bothered by the fact that Playboy puzzles and greeting cards are being sold; however, the lack of puzzles and cards for women bothers us. (That Cosmopolitan with Burt Reynolds is a travesty; besides, it doesn't show anything.)
> "Equal opportunity masturbation for all! Why, the Bookstore could even stock puzzles of various couplings instead of singular models. In fact, boys, why doesn't the Center stock dildos. french ticklers and other erotic paraphernalia!
> "We're sure the Bookstore will want to join the money-making market of pornography. However, we don't feel that we have to contact them; did Playboy? We can give them some addresses on State and Van Buren.

5 activist groups seek Beach campsites

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

A spokesman for the Miami Beach police disclosed today that five national activist organizations have requested permission to camp on sites at the Beach during the Democratic and Republican National Conventions this summer.

Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier, one of the key police coordinators for the conventions, said representatives of the groups met with Beach police officials in recent weeks to submit requests.

Kruidenier said one of the groups — the Zippie faction of the Youth International Party — asked for a permit to camp on Bayshore Municipal Golf Course, a sprawling, 18-hole facility located a few blocks north of Miami Beach Convention Hall.

The other four groups — the Yippie faction of the Youth International Party, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, the Gay Activist Alliance and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference — asked for other sites in the city but requested that their negotiations be kept private.

Kruidenier said that the police and city officials are considering the requests.

"We haven't guaranteed any place at all let alone a specific place," Kruidenier told The Miami News, "but a decision should come by the first of the month. If there is to be a campsite, I am sure it will be determined by then."

Kruidenier explained that, although Beach police have been carrying on most of the negotiations with protest groups expected here this summer, Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key will have the final word on where — and if — the protesters will be permitted to stay.

O'Key said that he has not yet received any formal requests for campsites during the conventions, beginning July 10 with the Democratic parley, but noted that "so far we haven't ruled anything out and we haven't ruled anything in."

In talks with protest leaders, Kruidenier said he has found "many of the groups seem to want to be separated from the other groups coming down."

The police official said that, because the groups may each want to have separate campsites, several different encampments might be made available in the Beach for the protesters.

It is also possible, he said, that one large encampment may be set up with several separate areas designated for various protest groups.

Besides Bayshore Golf Course, several other sites have been mentioned by police officials and activist leaders in recent weeks as possible sites for the protesters.

Those sites include: Flamingo Park in Miami Beach; Hummus Park in Miami Beach; Haulover Beach Park, north of Bal Harbour; Bayfront Park in downtown Miami; and Watson Island.

Protest Leader Eyes Golf Course Camping

They may be pitching tents instead of pitching and putting on Miami Beach's Par Three Golf Course during the national conventions this summer.

Self-proclaimed protest leader Abbie Hoffman told students at the University of Miami Friday that Yippies will request a golf course for a camp site.

Informed of Hoffman's statement, Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key responded: "I haven't heard what they have in mind. I'd be more than pleased to discuss it with them."

Another public official said privately it's more likely that camping will be allowed on the Par Three nine-hole course than on the larger Bayshore course. The Bayshore course extends just across Dade Boulevard from the Convention Hall, while the Par Three course is a half-mile away.

City and county officials have previously confirmed that they have several public properties under consideration as possible camp sites for youths who come to the Democratic and Republican conventions.

Cities giving protestors runaround, Yippie says

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

Abbie Hoffman of the Youth International Party charged today that local city and county officials have refused to negotiate seriously with his group. The party is planning mass protests here for the Democratic and Republican conventions this summer.

Speaking at a morning press conference and later at a meeting of the Dade County Alliance for Safer Cities," Hoffman said Yippie organizers have met with Miami Beach, Miami and county officials in recent weeks, but "have been getting the runaround."

"The situation here is incredible," Hoffman told the Safer Cities meeting. "We've passed around from office to office. Everybody says to us: 'It's not our department.'"

After Hoffman addressed the Safer Cities meeting and spoke of the "lack of cooperation" he has received from officials, Beach Vice Mayor Robert Goodman, who was present at the meeting, denied the allegations, saying the Beach has "pledged to cooperate with these groups.

"These groups are hopeful for an alliance with us and we are hopeful for an alliance with them," Goodman said. "These problems are being worked on. We will be working with several people on this."

Hoffman, who has been in Miami several times during the past two weeks along with 10 other Yippie organizers, said his group has been most concerned about the "intransigence" of Miami Beach officials during negotiations over a site for the expected crowds of non-delegates.

Fun and games in convention readiness

We have some long faces around town anent the forthcoming political conventions and, of course, there are some serious problems that must be faced seriously by serious people.

There's some funning and gaming rampant, too, along with a series of dog and pony shows, the scenarios for which you wouldn't believe. So don't.

Officialdom now concedes, as a case in point, that no one ever gave serious thought to raising the bridges and isolating Miami Beach from the world. Biscayne Bay isn't a moat and there's no way to raise either the Haulover bridge or the Julia Tuttle causeway. Besides, rather than keeping people from coming to the Beach, raising the bridges would keep them from getting off the Beach. And when when they want to get off, don't hinder them, is the Beach's motto.

Neither does anyone really know what the number of unofficial guests may be at either convention. Would you guess 25,000? Fort Lauderdale handles that many unattached youngsters every spring holiday season. Visions of hordes of unwashed longhairs toting little round bombs with burning wicks sticking out the top amount to just about that — visions.

One thing that's funny is the outrageous demands being posted by representatives of assorted coalitions and movements. A few of these people possess genuine constituencies, it's true. But many expect to rally their forces only from among whoever happens to be handy.

They demand food and shelter. "Um Hmm," says an official, making notes. If the public actually provided food and shelter, other than on an emergency basis of some sort, the demanders would be amazed.

They say they will walk naked down the street by the thousands. "Isn't that terrible?" comment our gullible locals. Hordes of sensible, modest people walk about practically naked on Miami Beach every day the sun shines, and we think nothing of it. Why get excited over a meaningless threat the maker has no intention of carrying out, in the first place, and that the public would ignore if they did carry it out, in the second place?

Distinctions must be made between the outlandish requests posted for the sake of publicity and the reasonable ones made by people genuinely motivated toward expressing a political ideal. It won't hurt the country if there's some unorthodox protest against people or policies involved in the standard and allegedly respectable procedures of the conventions.

And please don't blame the press for printing and broadcasting some of the more hilarious barbs tossed by protest leaders. In their innocence, reporters think the public will recognize the ridiculous for what it is and are refreshingly astounded when the public takes such items at face value.

Indeed, by failing to winnow out the farcical from the serious the whole community may be making too much of such details as a few camping spots and other emergency preparations and not enough of its basic strategic approach to counter the handful of genuine, hardcore anarchists who will come here.

A lot of talk, planning, training and anxious thinking is going on, but this is a place of diverse jurisdictions. The convention planners see with new clarity the problems caused by those city limit signs and the posts marking unincorporated areas. They restrain cooperation and coordination. And that's not funny.

There are preventive measures possible, counter-strategies available, to outwit that small cadre of purposeful guerrilla leaders who have every intention of making trouble in August if they can rally enough of the casual hangers-on to do so.

Meanwhile, keep several of grains of salt on hand to take with the news of the day. Even columnists.

Board defers plea by Goode on school

A decision on whether to let Miami Beach Senior High be used as a Metro security staging area during the National political conventions here was deferred by the Dade School Board.

The board says it wants to know what Metro officials will be doing before they make a final decision.

County Manager Ray Goode, in a letter Tuesday to Fred Kline, assistant school superintendent for physical plant, requested use of the school for security staging, a first aid station, information center or headquarters for Metro personnel.

"We believe this request is timely in order that the schools will have an opportunity to adjust their schedules early enough in advance to minimize the presence of youth in areas of potential mass demonstrations," Goode wrote.

School board member Crutcher Harrison, saying she thought Goode's request was not specific enough, called yesterday for deferment of a decision until June 21, the next board meeting. That's less than three weeks before the start of the Democratic convention July 16.

Kline said it was agreed in a discussion with Goode that the facilities would not be used: to house or provide living quarters for the public; to dispense food or operate a feeding program, to provide sanitary facilities for the public.

Goode asked for use of the school 24 hours a day during the weeks of the Democratic and Republican conventions.

The school is scheduled to operate on the year-round quinmester program this summer, but will not have classes during the GOP convention Aug. 21-23.

Goode: Inaction on tentsites will hinder plans

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

County Manager Ray Goode said today that the failure of the Miami Beach Council to take action on campsites for convention followers will cause planning difficulties.

Goode said that he backed the concept of giving demonstrators and other non-delegates a place for camping and added, "Any loss of planning time will increase the problems in evolving a comprehensive and workable procedure for handling the non-delegates."

Goode said that the county "still has a lot of planning and programming it can do until the decision is made but — and this relates specifically in terms of commitments for supplies — we can only wait so long without getting down to specific geographic locations."

Yesterday, the Beach council voted to defer any consideration of campsites until City Manager Clifford O'Key reported back on the matter.

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall had recommended that a campsite be set up on the Miami Beach High School athletic field and on an adjoining par-three golf course. (Hall did not attend the meeting yesterday because of illness.)

O'Key was asked when he would report.

"I don't want to discuss anything related to this matter," he replied.

Supporters and opponents of providing campsites blasted the council for stalling the decision, and the meeting was briefly interrupted by people on both sides who wanted to speak.

After the meeting yesterday, Councilman Leonard Haber, who also serves on the Governor's Coordinating Task Force, stated "It would be folly to make a decision today without more information."

Haber said that he wanted to hear representatives of the federal government before making a decision. But he added that "If the governor were to decide in favor of a campsite it would influence the council to a certain degree."

Don Pride, Gov. Askew's press secretary, said that the governor had a representative at the meeting and would make no comment on the deferral until after he had consulted with him.

Councilman Herbert Magnes, who made the motion for a deferral, said he thought Askew would not get involved in the decision. He said he expected O'Key to report back within two weeks.

"When O'Key reports we can vote in five minutes," he said.

Metro Commissioner Jim McKillups, who is also a member of the task force, called the deferral "a setback."

McKillups said he was not willing to take a stand on the campsite question because

Campsites needed, Seiler declares

The chairman of Gov. Reubin Askew's Dade County Community Coordinating Task force for the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, today endorsed the idea of providing campsites for convention-related visitors.

Earnie Seiler, executive director of the Orange Bowl Committee told The Miami News, "I personally feel that we have got to make some provisions for non-delegates including a place for them to camp.

"Giving them a place to camp is better than having them come in and trying to take over."

The 19-member committee, respresenting diverse religious, business, civic, governmental, and minority groups is scheduled to meet late today to consider what role it will play in convention preparations.

In setting the agenda for the meeting, Seiler appears to assume that a substantial number of other committee members agree with him.

First order of business is the decision — requested last week by County Manager Ray Goode — on the idea of granting camping facilities and other services to non-delegates.

In addition to Seiler, Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce Executive Vice-President Lester Freeman, Miami News Editor Sylvan Meyer and and Dade Jr. College student Herbert Cunningham have endorsed the policy of granting camping facilities.

"I believe that there might be a real value in identifying locations in advance as part of the over-all planning process," Freeman said. "It may make crowd control easier because we would know where the demonstrators are and what they are doing."

"I would favor campsites as long as effective controls are set up," Meyer said.

Cunningham said, "Knowing that all these people are coming down, there should be someplace for these people to dwell for a while. There should be some provision for non-delegates, but it shouldn't be widely publicized."

A substantial part of the rest of the agenda deals with implementing a decision to provide accommodations.

Items included are:

● Cost: What can taxpayers be expected to pay? What should the federal government pay? Seiler and Goode feel that the federal government should bear most of the cost.

● Provisions: Toilets, lights, first aid, child care, food, transportation. Seiler said "our discussing these things does not mean that we will supply any of this stuff. This is what we will decide."

● Committees: Members will be appointed to work with each of the cities involved in preparations.

● Community education: Plans for a speakers bureau to provide informed spokesmen to civic, business and religious groups will be set up.

● Problems: Seiler said that "a committee to keep everybody calm" will also be set up.

Trial halt 'an act of cooperation'

"We wanted to cooperate with the committees making the plans," Chief Circuit Court Judge Marshall Wiseheart said after issuing orders to suspend trials and other proceedings during the political conventions this summer.

Wiseheart yesterday ordered all trials and other proceedings in the Criminal and Metro courts suspended during the week of the Democratic convention July 9-15 and the Republican convention Aug. 21-25.

MARSHALL WISEHEART

He further ordered that all proceedings involving any police personnel and jury trials in all other trial courts be suspended during those two weeks.

That portion covers the Circuit Court, Civil Court of Record, Juvenile and County Judges' Court.

Wiseheart acted under his powers as administrator for the trial courts in Dade, which were given him by the Florida Supreme Court.

His jurisdiction does not cover the municipal courts, where police frequently have to be.

But Wiseheart said he expects that the cities, particularly Miami and Miami Beach, will make their own arrangements and just won't cause cases to be set for trial during those weeks.

He said he expects things to be peaceful and his order is aimed at primarily freeing police "just by way of cooperation with those making plans."

Wiseheart said that except for the Criminal and Metro courts, the judges in the other courts will continue with hearings in chambers those two weeks, except for those needing police as witnesses.

His order, he said, will yield to any cases in Criminal Court that might be affected by the 60-day speedy trial rule.

Wiseheart added that he had conferred with Public Defender Phillip Hubbart and said Hubbart had promised complete cooperation.

Parade law zipped past 'Sunshiners'

By ED TAYLOR
Miami News Reporter

Members of the Miami Sunshine Committee went to the Miami Beach City Council meeting to talk about campsites but when they left parades were uppermost in their thoughts.

The group, composed of youthful volunteers, wanted to convince the council to provide campsites for non-delegates coming to town.

But the council voted yesterday to put off a discussion of the controversial issue until it has more facts.

Then the council moved on to consider a proposed ordinance requiring parade permits for any groups wishing to march down city streets. Those without a permit could be fined $1,000 and spend 90 days in jail.

When the issue came up, Gerald Engel, chairman of the Sunshine group, asked the council to read the ordinance.

Councilman Robert Goodman assured Engel he could have a copy of the ordinance — right after the meeting.

"You can read it and come back this afternoon to discuss it," Goodman said.

"It will be published in the papers," he added reassuringly.

Engel returned to his seat and the council quickly passed the ordinance. What Goodman did not mention to Engel was that, since the ordinance was an emergency measure, it immediately became law when passed on first reading.

Under ordinary circumstances, an ordinance requires three separate readings for passage.

Later, a disgruntled member of the Sunshine Committee charged that the council "passed it on emergency basis to avoid debate."

City attorney Joseph Wanick said he submitted the emergency ordinance at the request of Police Chief Rocky Pomerance. He said the procedure the council followed was normal and proper.

A permit to walk Fido?

If you are a Miami Beach resident who is used to walking one or more dogs on the city's "public way" you might consider making an application to the chief of police no less than 15 days before your next jaunt.

Yesterday the Miami Beach City Council unanimously approved an ordinance banning parades without permits. If you violate that law it could cost you $1,000 and-or 90 days in jail.

According to the ordinance, a parade is "any march or procession consisting of persons, animals, vehicles, or any combination thereof, traveling upon any public way, within the territorial jurisdiction of the city."

The law does not mention, however, how many dogs you would have to be walking in order to be a parade nor does it state how many "persons, animals, vehicles, or any combination thereof" would be a parade.

THE WEAPON IS A STEEL PADDED RECURVE, WHICH FITS ON WRIST AND IS POWERED WITH SURGICAL RUBBER STRIPS. CAMIL DEMONSTRATED WEAPON AND CALIMED COULD PUT A MARBLE INTO A MAN AT FIFTY FEET. CLAIMED SLINGSHOTS EQUALLY EFFECTIVE WITH OTHER TYPES OF PROJECTILES.

VVAW PLANS TO SET UP ITS HEADQUARTERS AT THE "PAR THREE" GOLF COURSE IN MIAMI BEACH. HEADQUARTERS WILL BE IN CENTER SURROUNDED BY "FIRE BASES" IN ORDER TO ESTABLISH UNIT INTEGRITY.

END PAGE THREE

VVAW HAD ALSO BEEN OFFERED USE OF HIGH SCHOOL IN MIAMI BEACH. THE GAY LIBERATION MOVEMENT WILL ESTABLISH ITS BASE AT LUMAS PARK, MIAMI BEACH.

THE MEETING DID NOT TAKE PLACE AT CAMIL'S FARM AS ORGINALLY PLANNED; HOWEVER, CAMIL HAS SEVERAL FARMS IN THE GAINSVILLE, FLORIDA, AREA TO WHICH HE HAS ACCESS.

CAMIL ALSO HAS ACCESS TO CUBAN CARBINES WHICH HAVE WELDED OR SOLDERED PARTS. "CAMIL'S PEOPLE" HAVE BEEN LEARNING HOW TO MAKE GRENADES AND LEARNED SOME TECHNIQUES FROM BOB MC LAIN (PH) FORMERLY OF SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION, WHO USED "UNDERGROUND MANUAL NUMBER THREE" AS INSTRUCTIONAL GUIDE. CAMIL'S PEOPLE HAVE EXPERIMENTED WITH SOME GRENADES BY TAKING A CHERRY BOMB OR SMALL PORTION OR STICK OF DYNAMITE, COVERING IT WITH EXPOXY, ROLLING IT IN B.B. PELLETS OR OTHER SMALL STEEL OBJECTS AND REPEATING PROCESS UNTIL SOFTBALL SIZE POTENT GRENADE IS MADE.

PART OF CAMIL'S STRATEGY IS TO PLANT INFORMATION WITH SEVERAL DIFFERENT SOURCES AND AWAIT THE REACTION OF AUTHORITIES.

END PAGE FOUR

THE REACTION EITHER AFFIRMS OR NEGATES HIS SUSPICIONS AND/OR ACTIONS.

CAMIL BRAGGED ABOUT "HIS" FIRE TEAMS, NUMBER NOT SPECIFIED, WHICH CONSISTS OF FOUR OR FIVE INDIVIDUALS EACH TEAM. CAMIL HAS A FILE ON EACH VVAW MEMBER IN FLORIDA AND A SEPARATE CARD ON EACH FIRE TEAM. FIRE TEAM MEMBERS DO NOT KNOW WHICH INDIVIDUALS ARE MEMBERS OF OTHER FIRE TEAMS AND CAMIL HAS INSISTED ON TIGHT SECURITY, BEING ADVISED BY HIS "TROOPS" OF ANY SECURITY BREACH. THE LOCATIONS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE FIRE TEAMS ARE UNKNOWN TO OTHER FIRE TEAMS.

AT THE MEETING IT WAS LEARNED THERE HAS BEEN AN AGREEMENT AMONG "MOVEMENT PEOPLE" TO BAN FIREARMS FROM MIAMI BEACH PROPER. THAT IS WHY CAMIL HAS DESIGNATED SLING-SHOT AS BASIC WEAPON FOR MIAMI BEACH AND THE REASON FOR PRACTICE IN USE OF CROSS BOWS. THERE WILL BE WEAPONS AND FIRE TEAMS IN THE MIAMI METROPOLITAN AREA.

CAMIL HAS LEARNED OF PLANS FOR POLICE ASSISTANCE IN THE MIAMI BEACH AREA. CLAIMS THERE ARE ONE HUNDRED FIFTY POLICE SUBSTATIONS IN THE METROPOLITAN AREA THAT PLAN TO SEND OFFICERS

END PAGE FIVE

TO MIAMI BEACH TO HELP. IF THERE ARE MASS ARRESTS OR SERIOUS CONFRONTATIONS IN MIAMI BEACH, THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTY POLICE SUBSTATIONS WILL BE HIT WITH GRENADES AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE TO DIVERT POLICE ATTENTION.

SOME OF THOSE ATTENDING MEETING LEFT ON SUNDAY, MAY TWENTYEIGHT, LAST, WHILE OTHERS STAYED ONE MORE DAY.

MAHONEY, LEMMER, AND CAMIL TRAVELLED TO MIAMI BEACH TO CONFER WITH OTHER "MOVEMENT" PEOPLE. THEY WERE JOINED BY MIAMI VVAW COORDINATOR, NAME UNKNOWN, AND THEN ON EITHER MAY THIRTY OR THIRTYONE, LAST, CONFERRED WITH JERRY RUBIN AND ABBIE HOFFMAN, YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP), AT THEIR OFFICE ON WASHINGTON AVENUE, MIAMI BEACH. ANOTHER GROUP CALLED FLORIDA'S PEOPLE COALITION WAS REPRESENTED BY UNNAMED PERSONS. THE GROUPS ARE NOT WELL-ORGANIZED AND RUBIN AND HOFFMAN HAVE DIFFERENT OPINIONS ABOUT NUMBER OF PERSONS TO EXPECT IN MIAMI BEACH. TOM FACADE(PH) WHO BROKE OFF WITH YIP TO FORM ZIP, NAME UNKOWN, BECAUSE OF EGO DIFFERENCE WITH RUBIN AND HOFFMAN, ARRIVED IN HIS CADILLAC LIMOUSINE, THE HORN OF WHICH PLAYS "HERE COMES THE BRIDE". FACADE CALLED RUBIN AND HOFFMAN FASCISTS AND DISRUPTED THE MEETING. NO PLANS WERE MADE

AT THE MEETING. LATER ON MAY THIRTY OR THIRTYONE, LAST, CONTACT WAS MADE BY VVAW REPRESENTATIVES WITH SOME CUBAN NATIONAL GROUPS. "ABDULLA" AND "ALPHA SIX SIX". CUBANS INDICATED AN ALLIANCE WAS POSSIBLE BETWEEN VVAW AND THEM AND THAT VVAW COULD COUNT ON THEIR ASSISTANCE IF CONFRONTATION WITH POLICE OCCURRED. [redacted] (LUN) FROM "ABDULLA" BRAGGED OF HAVING ACCESS TO ONE ONE ZERO SIX MILLIMETER RECOILLESS RIFLE, ONE EIGHT ONE MILLIMETER MORTAR AND SOME "UZ" SUBMACHINE GUNS AS WELL AS MANY M DASH TWO SIX AND M DASH THREE THREE BASEBALL-SIZE FRAGMENTATION HAND GRENADES AND CLAYMORE MINES. THE POLICE IN METROPOLITAN MIAMI HAVE MADE ENEMIES OF THE CUBANS WHO NOW IDENTIFY WITH VVAW BUT NOT WITH OTHER "MOVEMENTS" GROUPS.

IT WAS ALSO LEARNED THAT [redacted]

PETER MAHONEY IS REMAINING IN MIAMI AND WILL BE JOINED BY JACK BRONAUGH, AKA RUSTY, AS VVAW NATIONAL OFFICE REPRESENTATIVE TO COORDINATE VVAW ACTIVITIES WITH FLORIDA'S PEOPLE COALITION AND YIP.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION
(NWRO)
ANNUAL CONFERENCE,
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTER - NWRO

It has previously been reported that the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) is planning an annual conference to take place on Miami Beach, Florida, July 5 through 9, 1972.

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D.C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

On March 14, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past provided information which is being distributed by the National Office of the NWRO, Washington, D.C., setting forth the NWRO Poor People's Platform. This information is quoted as follows:

"Dear Friends;

"Enclosed you will find a copy of the NWRO Poor People's Platform. The Platform has been developed by the leadership of NWRO as an organizing device for the 1972 elections in order to clearly define the issues of concern to poor people.

"It is our intent that this platform be used in all communities and campuses as candidates' campaign. Its purpose is to provide a common focus and atriculation so that each of the candidates will be forced to take one single position on poor people's issues "and to make that one position known.

"The Poor People's Platform and the first stage of the NWRO election year strategy is an integral part of the National Welfare Rights overall spring program. This spring NWRO has joined with a broad range of other groups and individuals to call for a Children's March in Washington, D.C. On March 25 the demonstration is being called to focus attention on the repression of children, particularly the repression of Nixon's so-called Family Assistance Plan that the administration is trying to run through Congress.

"The campaign for the Poor People's Platform is intended to bring the issue of poverty to public attention during the primaries, to give organizers a common tool with which to meet candidates that hop from community to community, and to build for the national conventions. These goals are dependent upon our ability to organize ourselves and our communities in an effective way to give the Poor People's Platform maximum circulation and public visibility. We should attempt to have as many public officials as possible publicly commit themselves to its realization. We should see that it is reproduced and distributed through leaflets, newspapers and other media. Meetings and rallies with welfare rights and other speakers should organize around the platform, especially prior to campaign visits. Campaign crowds for speeches, visits to shopping centers, etc. should be leaflected and candidates questioned as to their position on the platform. Other organizing ideas can be developed by local communities.

RE: NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)
ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA,
JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTER - NWRO

"NWRO will have a full time election year project through the fall. It will be coordinated by DAVID IFSHIN, the immediate past president of the National Student Association. Inquiries and problems as well as assistance in organizing rallies and other actions can be handled through the election year strategy project.

"As you are aware, the Nixon administration and its 'liberal' allies headed by Senator RIBICOFF are currently planning to push through the Family Destruction Plan, HR-1. Its passage will have a devastating effect upon poor people, freezing the present economic structure and contributing to the perpetuation of a permanent slave class of poor people and establishing an inhuman precedent for child care. It is vital that poor people be heard at this crucial period, and those committed to economic justice commit themselves to assisting in this vital effort. We appreciate your support and help.

"HOW TO USE THE POOR PEOPLE'S PLATFORM

"I. EVERY CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT WHO COMES TO YOUR COMMUNITY MUST STATE OR BE FORCED TO STATE A CLEAR AND PUBLIC POSITION ON THE POOR PEOPLE'S PLATFORM

"a. Find out when the candidates are coming to your community. You can do this by checking posters announcing appearances,

"calling the campaign offices of various candidates, keeping your eye out for newspaper announcements, etc.

"b. Decide which approach to the candidate will be most effective. You may wish to openly confront the candidate, to leaflett his crowd, to ask questions, to demand to meet with him before the speech, to organize a demonstration at his speech, or whatever other tactic you decide will be most effective. The important thing is that there is constant repeated activity around the platform in many communities towards all the candidates. WE WANT TOTAL ENDORSEMENT, NOT RHETORIC. Don't be satisfied by a lot of talk about their great concern or their great accord. Ask them to sign and campaign the platform.

"c. You may wish to organize a rally or meeting prior to a candidate's speech or appearance to build support. The national office of NWRO can help arrange Welfare Rights speakers or other support activities. The meetings before the appearance can help build support for the platform, strategies for the appearance and generally educate people on the issues.

"II. AT ANY EVENT RELATING TO THE 1972 ELECTION, THE POOR PEOPLE'S PLATFORM SHOULD BE USED.

"a. This includes meetings of reform liberal Democrats, women's or black political caucuses, etc. Do not settle for having our platform simply added to some other group's platform. WE WANT OUR PLATFORM ENDORSED AS IT STANDS BY ALL GROUPS RELATING TO THE ELECTION, AND THEIR COMMITMENT TO ACTIVELY WORK FOR ITS ADOPTION AT THE CONVENTIONS.

"b. If there is a meeting of some groups in your city, community or state that is related to the election, please notify the national office. We may wish to discuss general strategy, etc. The important thing, however, is to go to it and move the platform.

"c. Our goal is to build support for the issues of the platform, to force the candidates to adopt it as their own position and to campaign on it, and to ultimately carry it to the National Conventions in Miami and San Diego and demand its adoption as official policy of the two parties.

"NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION POOR PEOPLE'S PLATFORM

"I. The Family Assistance Plan as proposed in HR-1 must be defeated. No patchwork amendments can change its repressive character and anti-poor intent. HR-1 and its accompanying amendments constitute a brutal attack upon the children of this country and must be stopped.

"II. All Americans must be guaranteed the right to an adequate income (calculated by the Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics at $6,500 for a family of four) as proposed in the NWRO adequate income plan. Every child must have the right to "a decent home, an adequate diet, clothing, health care and the other basic necessities of life. Every child must be assured at least the minimal protections of a guaranteed adequate income.

"III. Poor people must be represented in the national nominating conventions in proportion to their number in the general population.

"All candidates must be committed to taking every affirmative action possible to insure that their delegate slates are so balanced. The Democratic Party must extend the new guidelines guaranteeing 'previously discriminated against groups' (enimerated therein as 'women, young people, and minorities') proportional representation to specifically include poor people.

"IV. All Americans should have their economic security assured through a comprehensive program which includes broadening of the minimum wage requirements, creation of meaningful public service jobs, institution of a system of supplementary payments for those whose wages do not provide an adequate income and provision for payment of an adequate income for all those unable to work.

"V. All American children must be assured creative and continuing child welfare programs designed to support and supplement every aspect of a child's life: a nutrituious diet, a decent home, adequate clothing, quality medical treatment, preventative health care, dental care and the benefits of life within a family structure.

"VI. Cooperation with organized groups of poor people must be recognized as the legitimate means of involving poor communities. Political parties, candidates, and the government institutions at all levels must be committed to working with and supporting poor people's organizations and end the tokenism and co-optation that has characterized past dealings.

"VII. The myths about poor people and welfare must actively be exposed and combatted. Those who wish the support of poor people and their friends must begin leading the fight against such slanders as that the reason for welfare is that some people simply do not wish to work; that most welfare recipients are black people who have moved to urban areas in order to draw welfare; that all welfare mothers do is have illegitimate children; that welfare is the good life of color TVs and Cadillacs; that most welfare recipients are cheaters; or that most of the tax revenues go to welfare. These lies must be shown for what they are, and the truth told: that the welfare system is a cruel hoax that helps perpetuate the misery of poor people and guarantees that the children forced to rely on it will never have a chance in life.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on [redacted] b7D that approximately 2,000 delegates, with more expected, had been registered to attend the NWRO convention on Miami Beach. Hotels to be utilized during this convention include the Coronet Hotel, 2001 Collins Avenue and the Crest Hotel and Apartments, 1670 James Avenue, both located on Miami Beach, Florida.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA,
JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972
EXTREMIST MATTER - NWRO

This source also reported that a tentative commitment has been obtained from ANGELA DAVIS to address the NWRO convention on opening day July 5, 1972. Details regarding DAVIS' appearance have not been worked out as of this date.

ANGELA YVONNE DAVIS is a self-admitted member of the Communist Party (CP) and was dismissed as a faculty member from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). The Board of Regents at UCLA terminated her membership based on the policy of the Regents not to employ members of the CP.

DAVIS was arrested October 13, 1970 at New York City, New York for Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for murder and kidnaping. In June, 1972 DAVIS was found innocent of these charges.

The second source also advised that the NWRO will stage a major demonstration on opening night of the Democratic National Convention. They will be protesting the exclusion of poor people from the two-party system and push for the passage of Poor People's Platform. Members of the NWRO will lead a march to the Convention Hall and try to gain entry to raise the issue of the protest and the passage of the Poor People's Platform. In addition, this source noted that the NWRO is now using the slogan "People Before Politics" saying the poor people must be heard and July 10 is the time to act and Miami is the place to act.

Dear Friend,

The National Welfare Rights Organization will hold its 6th Annual Conference in Miami Beach, Florida, July 5th - 9th. The conference will be attended by poor people, their advocates and supporters from the fifty states. They will come representing groups and organizations working in fields, such as, law, economics, welfare, health, politics, religion and education.

The program will be addressed to such vital issues as child care, problems in aging, hunger and nutrition, housing, legal concerns, voter education, and welfare reform.

An important part of the conference is the Conference Program Book. This book will contain an illustrated history of the welfare rights movement, a statement on its policies and programs, and action highlights from past years.

With an anticipated publication of over 5,000 copies, the book will be distributed to all who attend the conference and used later by NWRO as a part of its organizational literature. It will have a circulation among a large cross section of interests and people throughout the United States.

We ask you to support this united effort to act on the problems of poor people by placing a greeting in the book. The greeting will be in the form of listing your name as a patron (or anonymous if you desire). The cost is just $15.00 per listing, and, as a contribution, it is tax deductible.

Please complete the enclosed form and let us hear from you! Deadline for the return of greeting is June 9th.

Thank you for your interest and support.

ELECTION YEAR '72

'People Before Politics'

National Welfare Rights will stage a major demonstration on the opening night of the Democratic National Convention to protest the exclusion of poor people from the two party system and to push for the passage of the Poor People's Platform.

NWRO will lead a march through the streets of Miami Beach to the Convention Hall to express their protest. While this protest is being demonstrated outside, the NWRO members and supporters who have been elected to the convention, will raise the issues of the protest inside the Convention Hall and push for the passage of the Poor People's Platform.

The NCC voted this past weekend to organize the demonstration because:

1. Although the Fraser-McGovern Commission opened the convention to "previously excluded groups, youth, women and minority groups", no consideration was made for those under the adequate income level.
2. The needs of America's poor must be raised as a national issue in this election year.

Preceeding the National Convention the Democrats will hold regional hearings around to help in their formulation of the party platform. Plans are now made on the national level to have a Welfare Rights member testify at eight of these hearings, but the more poor people who testify the greater our voice will be influencing the Democratic platform.

Poor people must be heard in 1972. We must move. The regional hearings are the place to speak out. July 10th is the time to act. Miami is the place to act. We must move to put People before Politics in 1972.

Re: Leadership Development Workshop at the National Conference

For some time now, many groups have asked for a leadership development workshop. We have designed a series of Leadership Development workshops for the National Conference which will be offered to all N.C.C.'s and Alternates, State, City-wide and County-wide group chairmen. It is hoped that the workshops will help the existing leadership to develop new and better skills. The following are some of the topics to be discussed:

a. History & Structure of NWRO
b. Accountability of leadership to groups
c. Accountability of groups to leadership
d. Mechanisms to handle complaints
e. Political orientation
f. Functions of the National office

I am urging all leadership to sign up for the workshops. Vital information will be given to you which will strengthen your groups.

If you plan to attend the workshops, please contact Joanne Williams in the National office.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)
IS - REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

Re Miairtel 6/1/72.

Your request to interview on SAC authority local and "visitor" VVAW members, including students, who will be in Miami during period up to and including completion of Republican National Convention is denied. Bureau has carefully considered your request and appreciates your interest in interviewing persons who might be in position to furnish reliable information concerning possible violations of Federal laws during the political conventions. However, Bureau considers it unlikely that militant VVAW members who will participate in demonstrations in Miami would cooperate with FBI. Further, when weighing the potential disadvantages of adverse publicity against the FBI should several VVAW members complain of harassment, it is not considered in Bureau's best interest to grant authority for large-scale interview program of VVAW members despite the fact it would be done on a selective basis.

As you are aware, our missions during forthcoming political conventions and during all other demonstrations are to provide advance intelligence information and to conduct investigations when Federal laws are violated. Numerous contacts with VVAW members prior to any violation of Federal laws or outbreak of violence as indicated in referenced airtel for purpose of obtaining the cooperation of VVAW members concerning possible violations of Federal antiriot statutes, bombings and related matters could conceivably be misconstrued or purposely twisted by VVAW resulting in contacts with news media alleging that Government expects riots, bombings and other violations during the conventions and has already focused on the VVAW as instigator. On basis of all information furnished to date concerning situation during conventions, Bureau sees no urgent or compelling reason why contemplated interviews of selected VVAW members who might possibly be in position to cooperate or have information regarding possible violations of Federal laws cannot be handled under current procedures. If urgent situation exists, background regarding individuals with whom interview desired can be obtained telephonically or by teletype from field office covering individual's residence and then Bureau authority requested by most expeditious means warranted.

In event there are additional factors which Bureau should consider relating to your request, promptly advise and additional consideration will be given.

Re: [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] - VICTIM
ANTI-RACKETEERING - HOBBS ACT

Information regarding this matter was originally received by an Agent of the Miami Office from [redacted] which will supply ushers and security guards for the Miami Beach Convention Hall during the Democratic National Convention.

[redacted] advised that he had been told by [redacted] Convention Manager of the Democratic National Convention, that he had been approached by two black men, [redacted] and [redacted] who told him that he needed a public relations individual to handle black public relations during the convention. They suggested one [redacted] and told him that he should pay [redacted] $55,000. [redacted] allegedly told them that all the public relations people had been hired and one of the men reportedly stated that he would hire [redacted] unless he wanted the [redacted] blown up. b6 b7C

On June 7, 1972, [redacted] was interviewed at [redacted] in the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Building, 17th Street and Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach. [redacted] stated that he had met with [redacted] and [redacted] but not in the manner described by [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that several weeks ago he met with a group of black people in [redacted] This group presented him with a list of suggestions for involvement of black people in the activities of the Democratic Convention. He went over this list with the group, pointing out what could be done in some areas and some things that could not be done. At one point one of the group who had been introduced to him as [redacted] became angry and stated in effect, "you aren't giving the right answer. If you don't come up with the right answers I could have the place blown up." [redacted] did not indicate exactly what would be "blown up." [redacted] stated that he did not consider this a serious threat but is of the opinion that [redacted] was trying to impress the other members of the group. [redacted] advised that [redacted] and [redacted] were not present at this meeting. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that at a later date he met with [redacted] and [redacted] in his office. [redacted] was not present at this meeting. [redacted] and [redacted] wanted [redacted] to hire a public relations firm headed by [redacted] to do public relations work at the Democratic Convention for a fee of $55,000. [redacted] told them that this was out of the question. [redacted] and [redacted] were insistent in this matter but neither of them made any threats of violence. [redacted] stated that [redacted] firm was not hired to do any work for the convention. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that since the above meetings occurred he has met with the Miami Beach Hotel Association and the Association has been active in attempting to get jobs for members of minority groups during the convention. He stated that he has not seen or heard from [redacted] since the meeting in his apartment.

[redacted] stated that at no time did he feel actually threatened or intimidated but that he furnished this information to [redacted] and Miami Beach Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE for intelligence purposes because he felt that it was possible that [redacted] and others might cause disturbances during the convention.

MANPOWER

It is conservatively estimated we should have assigned to Miami on a temporary basis between July 1 and August 31, 1972, the following additional personnel, preferably from the Tampa and Jacksonville Offices:

10 Agents	Preferably those familiar with Miami territory and/or with protest groups coming from the territories of their offices - these men will be used generally in assisting Miami Agents in observing and reporting the progress of numerous expected protest demonstrations
2 Stenographers 2 Clerks	The Miami Office will be operating on a 24-hour basis during the convention weeks, as indicated below - this clerical assistance would supplement our normal staff.

SUBJECT: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST

IS - REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

Re Bureau letter to Albany, 4/28/72.

Survey Results:

1. There are presently two VVAW chapters in the Miami Division, one for Greater Miami (Dade County) and the second covers Broward County (Hollywood, Ft. Lauderdale and environs). These chapters are autonomous but advise each other of public activities.

2. There are currently no more than eight active VVAW-Greater Miami members. There are about 15 currently active VVAW-Broward County members. Investigations are being conducted to identify all current area VVAW members. Pending and newly-opened investigations will include military backgrounds and determinations whether individual VVAW members are bona fide Vietnam veterans. Recommendations for or against ADEX inclusion will be made in each case.

3. Miami receives information concerning area VVAW activities from [redacted] of SCOTT CAMIL, VVAW Southeast Regional Coordinator (Key Activist), presently a student at the University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida, where he heads a militant VVAW chapter. [redacted]

b7D

Miami also receives information regarding VVAW-Greater Miami activities from the Intelligence Unit, Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), Miami, which has two undercover officers in this chapter.

Miami expects greatly increased VVAW activity in this area due to the upcoming political conventions. VVAW members from outside South Florida reportedly will be here in large numbers, particularly, for the Republican Convention in August. The charged atmosphere is certain to stimulate local VVAW activities and probably will inspire joint actions by local and visiting VVAW members. Miami recommendation to meet this potential problem is set out in below request of Bureau.

Miami is preparing an LHM setting out results of VVAW investigation in this area. For the immediate information of the Bureau, VVAW activity in South Florida has been limited. Poor leadership and general apathy have combined to render local chapters virtually impotent. They have no office space; no fixed meeting place; irregular meetings; no funds and no prospects for funds. There few and intermittent activities, such as anti-Vietnam war leaflets distributions, have been poorly coordinated. They generally align themselves with several other local peace groups to ensure at least a modest turnout for a planned activity. It is further noted that none of their activities have resulted in arrests.

There has been no violence, nor intimations of same in local VVAW public activities. It is felt, however, that SCOTT CAMIL, above, who will return to the Miami area (where his family resides) prior to the Democratic Convention, could effect a radical change in the South Florida VVAW outlook. He reportedly will be accompanied to Miami by Gainesville, Florida, VVAW hardliners. Additionally, there is no doubt that the local VVAW reins are his for the asking, and little doubt that he will take these reins. His leadership could galvanize the local chapters. An immediate drive to recruit militant VVAW members could be expected. To counteract this eventuality, the following is submitted:

REQUEST OF BUREAU

The Bureau is requested to authorize Miami to interview, on SAC authority, local and "visitor" VVAW members, including students, this authorization to extend until the completion of the Republican Convention. Those interviewed will be advised that the basis for contact is to obtain their cooperation concerning possible violations of Federal anti-riot statutes, bombings, and related matters in connection with the political conventions. Such interviews are expected to produce individuals with potential for furnishing pertinent information during the upcoming conventions. Interviews could also be expected to have a deterrent effect on individuals who might otherwise engage in unlawful activities during these conventions. Authorization to conduct these interviews under SAC authority would enable Miami to conduct selective interviews promptly in a compressed time situation, the period ending with the Republican Convention.

SUBJECT: Telephone Information Fro [redacted] NCGO

Received a long distance telephone call from Washington, D. C. at approximately 2:45 p.m., this date. [redacted] related his having to give up his post in NCGO but is coming down to the Convention as reporter for the ADVOCATE. He related much concern on the part of the Gays about the violence-bent group among them known as the RAINBOW TRIBE, a growing group which reportedly are formed from the PURPLE STAR TRIBE. This growing group within the Gays is reported as being anarchistic and dangerous. They have recently been attacking foot police in Detroit and engaging in "trashing" and setting fires. They are spreading out and thus far reported as active in Michigan, San Francisco, San Diego, Boston, and New York. [redacted] reported he had to be moved from one hospital room to another recently when a threat was made on his life by members of this group after having learned of his phone call to the FBI regarding this group's activities.

b7C

[redacted] also reported that [redacted], NCGO, has not received any word back from [redacted] and has directed another letter to the City Manager regarding his earlier set of questions. They are particularly interested in getting 21st Street "Gay" beach as their campsite. [redacted] stated he hopes their is no truth in the rumor he has heard about Walter Fauntroy (non-voting delegate to the Convention) that he has secured that beach for the black youth. [redacted] further stated that their committee is much concerned about being placed on a site with any other group. He reiterated that the numbers they will have in the Miami Beach-Miami area will be 6,000. He assured this writer that arrangements as to leg al, medical, food servicing, and marshalling have been accomplished for their group, and the site remains of the utmost importance at this time. He would like to be notified as soon as possible about the availability as to the 21st Street area. (This writer also wished to add that [redacted] reported that [redacted] and [redacted] are very bad news and their leadership of the Miami Convention Coalition should be carefully scrutinized.) RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION (80-1353)
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION (80-1374)

CONVENTION PLANS - STAFF MEETING, 6/9/72

For the Bureau's information, on 6/9/72, a staff meeting was held in the training classroom adjacent to the Miami Beach Police Department headquarters. The following pertinent subjects were discussed:

A report on current intelligence developments was given by the FBI representative.

Intelligence Center

Colonel [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department, who presided at the meeting, advised that the Intelligence Center for the convention, being supervised by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) is to commence operation on Monday, June 12, 1972. [redacted] Director of the FDLE, will maintain headquarters at this Center. b6 b7C

Credentials for News Media

Colonel [redacted] advised that many members of the news media were being denied access to the convention floor. [redacted] in charge of security for the Democratic National Committee, advised that only a limited number of credentials can be given to the press for access to the convention hall; b6 b7C however, additional credentials will be furnished members of the media for reporting activities outside the hall. A list will be prepared of those members of the media receiving such press credentials, and will be furnished to interested local police agencies.

Representative of the U. S. Attorney General

Colonel [redacted] stated [redacted] representing the Attorney General and the President of the United States, will shortly be taking up headquarters in Miami. He will be reporting directly to the President and the Attorney General regarding developments with respect to the convention. b6 b7C

Bodyguards for Delegates

Major WALTER PHILBIN, Chief of Detectives, Miami Beach Police Department, advised that any of the delegates at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions, such as congressmen, governors, etc., who have personal bodyguards, must have these bodyguards cleared with his office before given access to the convention complex.

Credentials Issued by Secret Service

Secret Service Agent [redacted] in charge of the Secret Service planning for the conventions, advised that only non-uniformed police personnel with specific assignments within the convention complex will be issued credentials by Secret Service. He emphasized these individuals must be police or law enforcement personnel. Non-law enforcement personnel who desire credentials must contact the Miami Beach Police Department, who may then obtain credentials for them from the Democratic National Committee. b6 b7C

The planning meeting was brief, and was adjourned, but subsequent to this meeting, another was held regarding arresting persons and staging areas in connection with these conventions.

This meeting was addressed by Chief TED ZANDER, of the Washington, D. C. Police Department, who discussed mass arrest procedures in his area. He pointed out the undesirability of the current Miami Beach plan of arresting a person and then taking him to an arrest staging area for charging, photographing, etc. He pointed out this ties up the arresting officer for an undesirable length of time and takes him from his main objective, which is to maintain order on the streets. He pointed out the procedures in Washington, D. C. for mass arrests is generally to have police busses circulating throughout the area to pick up individuals arrested. These busses are manned by a driver, a police sergeant, and two cameramen. The police officer makes his arrest, fills out a field arrest form, has the subject photographed by a cameraman, and the subject is then turned over to bus personnel for transportation. When the busses, which have a capacity of approximately fifty individuals, are filled, they will travel to the jail, where subjects will be further processed and subsequently arraigned in court.

After a lengthy discussion, it was tentatively agreed that Miami Beach would eliminate an arrest staging area, and would adopt the same procedure as has been used by the Washington, D. C. Metropolitan Police Department. All agreed this procedure would make considerable more law enforcement personnel available on the streets to maintain the peace.

It was further decided at this meeting that persons arrested in Dade County and the City of Miami will be taken to predetermined staging areas, processed at these staging areas, and then taken to jail.

A copy of the field arrest form which will be utilized by all police personnel during the convention is being enclosed with this communication.

The Bureau will be kept advised of any further developments in this matter.

Each form will be numbered

[redacted] advised that the guns in this case were taken by him and subject [redacted] to a house in a remote area in the southwest section of Miami. He said he did not know the address of the house, however, he described it as a shingled house, possibly one story with a limestone driveway. He said the area surrounding the house was undeveloped and grown-up with underbrush. The guns were taken to Miami in a 1961 Ford that is the property of [redacted]. They received $500 each for the four machine guns, $100 each for the M-16 rifles. [redacted] acknowledged he personally received three $500 bills for his participation in this matter.

[redacted] examined a photocopy photograph of [redacted] however, he stated he could not definitely say whether this was the [redacted] that he had previously referred to as having received instant weapons. He did state, however, that [redacted] fits the general description of this man.

[redacted] further related that the guns were placed in a wooden packing crate in the backyard of the above-mentioned house. It was his opinion that they were to be removed immediately thereafter to an unknown location.

Regarding the actual breakin at the armory, [redacted] stated that their information was that there were approximately 50 guns kept at the armory and that the door to the armory was constructed with steel bars similar to those of a jail door. For this reason, they were not equipped to haul away the additional guns located in the vault. He continued to deny having any knowledge of the current whereabouts of [redacted] but again stated that [redacted] told him he could be contacted at the Danny Boy Bar in Phoenix, Arizona. b6 b7C b7D

THEFT OF VARIOUS WEAPONS,
FLORIDA NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY,
LAKE CITY, FLORIDA,
April 23 - 24, 1972
THEFT OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY; EXTREMIST MATTERS - POSSIBLE URBAN GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES

On the night of April 23 - 24, 1972, captioned National Guard Armory was burglarized by unknown subjects.

Entry into the building was made by forcing a metal sliding door at the rear of the building, by using a long metal bar of the type used as railroad jack handles. They first tried to gain entry to the gun vault by cutting through the cement wall from the Supply Room side, with a pick ax without success.

They then proceeded to the Armory Motor Pool where with the use of crow bars, obtained from the Supply Room, they broke in the rear door of the Motor Pool and obtained an Acetylene torch. They then gained entry to the gun vault by cutting and peeling the vault door.

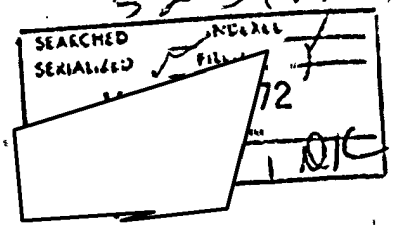
An inventory of the vault determined that the following weapons and ammunition were missing:

40 - M16 rifles
5.56 caliber

4 - M60 machine guns
7.62 caliber

13 - .45 caliber pistols

52-5477-1



b6
b7C

9000 - rounds of .22 caliber ammunition

350 - rounds of .45 caliber ammunition

The above weapons have been entered in National Crime Information Center.

In addition to the above, Unknown Subjects also took 47 pairs of welding gloves and three clear plastic protective face masks.

According to National Guard personnel, there is no protective devices on the outer doors of the armory or on the door itself. Also there is no one assigned to guard duty at the armory. One member of the guard was working at the armory until 4:30 PM on April 23, 1972, when he left and did not return until 7:00 AM the following morning when the burglary was discovered.

The armory is located on the outskirts of Lake City immediately across the street from a large cemetery. Investigation has established that Unknown Subjects apparently parked their car in the cemetery and left it there while they gained entrance to the vault. The vehicle was then pulled around to the back door of the armory, where it was loaded with the weapons.

On 2/3/72, Detective [redacted] Covert Unit, Intelligence Division, Chicago Police Department, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA [redacted] that while there is no adult arrest record on [redacted] there is a juvenile record reflecting seven arrests up to 9/70. He stated that these records are confidential and are not readily assessable. He reported that five of the arrests were for minor criminal violations and that a sixth arrest was for possession of dangerous drugs. The sixth arrest was discharged in court. [redacted] stated that the seventh arrest was for mob action during the Weatherman National Action, 10/11/69. This charge was subsequently dismissed in court. [redacted] reviewed the actual arrest sheet made on 10/11, and stated that it would appear that [redacted] was more of an observer than a participant in the disorders. He stated that the main reason that he was arrested was that he was unable to display identification when questioned by a police officer. [redacted] stated that his unit never developed any information whatsoever to indicate that [redacted] was ever a Weatherman. b6 b7C

The Chicago Division and the Chicago Police Department have failed to develop any information to indicate that [redacted] has participated in any radical activities of any kind since his attendance at the YIP convention 1/7 - 9/72.

CG 100-51382

ADMINISTRATIVE (Con'd)

Despite seven arrests prior to 9/70, he has apparently had none since that date. Because of [redacted] lack of activity, his relatively minor activity prior to 1/72, and his age (17 years), no recommendation is being made to place him on the ADEX. The Chicago Division is placing this matter in a closed status. Should information be developed that [redacted] is planning to travel to Miami for the conventions, the Miami Office will be immediately notified.

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969 until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with the name SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

On June 7, 1971, a Special Agent of the FBI caused the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C. computerized list of persons arrested during the demonstrations April 24, 1971 to May 5, 1971, to be reviewed, however, was unable to locate any record of [redacted] being arrested. Another employee of the FBI caused the general arrest records section of the police department to be reviewed and ascertained that there is no record of [redacted] ever having been arrested in Washington, D.C. for any type of violation.

On July 15, 1971, a representative of another governmental agency conducting security type investigations in the Chicago area reported that following a demonstration staged by the Fire Tribe at Chicago's Morse Avenue Beach on June 4, 1971, the group dissolved. The reasons for the breakup centering mainly around the fact that members came to realize that the leader of the organization had created it mainly for the purpose of bolstering his ego by having a group of followers surrounding him. This source was not able to place [redacted] at the Morse Avenue demonstration which was the only activity ever organized by the Fire Tribe during its three month existence. b6 b7C

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1969 O - 351-076

The YLO began its organizing operations in New York City in July, 1969, as the New York State Chapter and later the East Coast Region of the Chicago based YLO National. The YLO was composed of revolutionaries desiring a socialist society and independence for Puerto Rico. In May, 1970, the East Coast Region declared itself autonomous from YLO Nationals the Young Lords Party (YLP).

The YLP headquartered in New York City, according to its 13 Point Program and Platform, is a revolutionary political party fighting for the liberation of all oppressed people, seeking self-determination for Puerto Ricans' liberation and who believe armed self-defense and armed struggle are the only means to liberation.

I. ORGANIZATION

A. Origin and Scope

The AB was formed in the fall of 1971, by members of New York May Day Collective (MDC) and Revolutionary Union (RU) to march as a contingent in a demonstration in New York City to protest the Attica Prison incident. Since then the group has expanded by incorporating others into the contingent.

[redacted]

The MDC in New York City is publicly known as an organization that participated in demonstrations in Washington, D.C. during the first week in May, 1971, sponsored by the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ).

The RU was founded in 1968 and is a militant, semi-clandestine organization. Its objectives, as set out in its publication, are the development of a united front against imperialism, the fostering of revolutionary working-class unity and leadership in struggle and the formation of a communist party based on Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tse-tung thoughts, leading to the overthrow of the United States Government by force and violence.

B. Aims and Purposes

The AB consists of individuals with a past history of membership in groups that engage sporadically in street fighting, trashing actions and similar forms of paramilitary activity. The core of the AB appears to be Youths Against War and Fascism (YAWF), with a sprinkling of individuals from the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

NY T-3

[redacted] b7D

YAWF is the yough group of the Workers World Party (WWP)

The WWP was founded in 1959 by individuals who disagreed with policies of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The WWP dissidents advocated unconditional support of the Soviet Union and the building of a revolutionary party geared to the overthrow of capitalism. More recently the WWP has called for peaceful solutions to Sino-Soviet disputes, however, the WWP generally supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological differences with the Soviet Union.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Yough Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

A leaflet entitled "Build An Anti-Imperialist Movement", was distributed by the AB. The leaflet stated that "the Vietnamese 7-point peace plan is the only plan that will end the war. The Vietnamese have said that our anti-war movement is helping them defeat U.S. imperialism. We believe them. We have had many victories." The leaflet asked for "Endorsement of the role of the AB and support of the building of the AB as an anti-imperialist contingent on April 22."

NY T-4 [redacted] b7D

The AB was initially formed to support inmates by organizing demonstrations and to expose the prison and U.S. imperialist system. With increased experience in organizing demonstrations, the group has come to view itself as a vanguard anti-imperialist action organization. It practices rather tight security and control in the planning and execution of its actions.

NY T-5 [redacted]

C. Headquarters

The AB has no office, but meets periodically as a collective at the Washington Square Methodist Church, 135 West Fourth Street, New York City. There are AB contingents in Boston and Philadelphia, but they are not strong movement groups.

NY T-2 [redacted]

'Cool' conventions aim of YMCA plan

By PATRICIA BURSTEIN
Miami News Reporter

The YMCA of Greater Miami is bringing 100 professional human relations specialists from cities across the country to help cool tempers here during the national political conventions.

"We will be working with individual confrontations," said Ron Kinnamon, director of the YMCA's Crisis Prevention project this summer. "Small things develop into crises."

The project, co-sponsored by the National YMCA, is being funded through personal contributions from concerned persons all over the country. The local United Fund is being solicited solely for volunteer workers.

George Abott, general director of the Miami YMCA, said the human relations specialists will be concerned with persons not aligned with protest groups. "There will be a lot of people who are not connected with any group," he said. "We want to reach them, too."

The corps of workers, he said, are the top 100 selected from the YMCA's National Center for Outreach Workers in Chicago. They are trained to function as "third parties" in street disputes, without taking sides.

GEORGE A. ABBOTT

RON KINNAMON

The Outreach Workers are expected to arrive here July 5, five days before the Democratic National Convention starts, and remain through the GOP convention Aug. 21-23.

"We're not here for headline grabbing and upstaging," said David Hume, president of the local YMCA. "The Y has uniquely trained Outreach Workers who could contribute to the community. This type of personnel is sorely needed. We want to do our job quietly."

The professional workers will be backed up by 100 volunteer workers from the Miami area, plus 25 other youth specialists. They will work in teams of two around the clock during both conventions.

To keep workers on the street up to date on area activities, 10 mobile units will be hooked up to a communications center at the YMCA building downtown.

If, for example, there is a drug problem, the worker could call the communications center and get immediate attention for the person.

The center will be in contact at all times with police and officials about ongoing developments.

Task force: Aid convention campers

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

Gov. Reubin Askew's task force yesterday backed the idea of providing "a land area" for limited-duration use by non-delegates camping here during the upcoming national conventions.

The task force also voted unanimously yesterday to encourage Dade County to provide sanitation, water and medical facilities for non-delegates.

Miami City Commissioner Theodore Gibson made a motion that "campsites" be provided. A two-hour debate followed.

Among the questions raised were:

● How many sites would be set aside? Where would they be located? How many people could be accommodated?

● Miami Beach Councilman Leonard Haber asked what the demonstrators wanted in terms of cooking facilities and medical care.

● Haber also asked if demonstrators would be willing to post bonds to repair wear and tear on facilities, such as a golf course.

● Miami Herald President Alvah Chapman Jr. asked if the task force had the authority to recommend any course of action.

● Athalie Range, secretary of the state Department of Community Affairs, asked if campsites should be provided only for organized groups and not for individuals or "people who would pick up their families and use the convention for something else than to demonstrate."

● Miami News Editor Sylvan Meyer asked if the task force might also direct its attention to making contingency plans for setting up a diversion, such as a rock concert "to drain off the excitement seekers" who could be used by "deliberate trouble makers."

Only a few of the questions were resolved.

What was resolved though was that at least 11 of the 19 members of the task force favored providing campsites, in some form, with some restrictions, at some time.

In deferance to the other members, and realizing that the Miami Beach City Council — which Wednesday deferred action on the same question — would be put in a difficult position, the group decided to modify Gibson's original motion.

On Haber's recommendation, the word "campsite" was replaced by the words "land area."

On Mrs. Range's recommendation, the motion was amended to include a land area for organizations and another area for non-delegates who did not belong to a bona fide protest group.

On the recommendation of Hal Spaet, the motion was amended to say that land area should be provided only for the period immediately before, during and after the Democration convention, July 10-14, and the Republican convention, Aug. 21-24, or approximately a week for each convention.

The task force also reached a consensus that minimum services such as sanitation, medical facilities and water should be provided.

Members also agreed unanimously that providing food and shelter would be out of the question. They added that no demonstration group had asked for food or shelter.

The group decided to meet again next week to try and get answers to a number of questions left hanging at yesterday's meeting.

They decided, also, to try to bring in people who could answer the questions.

Campsite idea draws support

Metro Commissioner S.A. Dansyear and Miami Beach Tourist Development Authority Chairman Jack Gordon have added their names to the list of those who approve the idea of allocating protesters a campsite during the upcoming political conventions.

The Metro commissioner gave his opinion in a letter addressed to the Miami Beach City Council and released last night.

Gordon made a similar recommendation in informal remarks after a regularly scheduled TDA meeting, held yesterday in TDA headquarters, 1700 Washington Ave., Miami Beach.

Dansyear said that he endorses the idea of giving protesters at the Democratic and Republican Conventions a campsite because "it looks like they're coming whether we want them or not, and we might as well do everything necessary to keep the disruption to a minimum."

He said he specifically approves a proposal backed by Beach Mayor Chuck Hall and County Manager Ray Goode that the protesters be given the Miami Beach High School Athletic Field as a primary site and the adjoining municipal par-three golf course as an overflow site.

A coordinating committee representing eight activist organizations planning demonstrations during the conventions has requested four city-owned campsites in Miami Beach for use from the first week in July to the last week in August.

At its last meeting, the Miami Beach City Council deferred discussion of the entire matter. The council directed City Manager Clifford O'Key to study the matter, but set no deadline for his report.

Gordon spoke out strongly in favor of the idea of granting a campsite to the protesters, but did not back the specific recommendation made by Hall and Goode.

He suggested that the demonstrators be allowed to stay in the open areas on the tip of South Beach — such as the parking lots for the dog track and for the city's sanitation trucks, and Government Cut Park.

"We're going to have to do something about providing campsites," Gordon said, "and I know we can provide sites without interfering with existing public facilities.

"I think the Beach Council is trying to hold off making a decision on this because they feel the longer they wait, the less people will come down, but I don't think that is true. The longer they wait, the less time the people planning the protests will have to get it under control."

Gordon, who opposed the idea of inviting the Republican Convention to Miami Beach, warned that if the Beach Council does not move quickly to cooperate with the protest leaders, confrontations between police and demonstrators could result at both conventions.

And he noted that if confrontations occur, one of the results would be that the Beach would receive unfavorable publicity and possibly suffer a loss of convention business in the future.

Clark wants mayors' convention meeting

Mayor Steve Clark said he will instruct County Manager Ray Goode today to invite all mayors and commissioners of Dade municipalities to attend a special meeting to discuss planning for the political conventions.

"I hope to have the meeting as soon as possible," Clark said.

He said this meeting with the Metro Commission would be held in its chambers in the County Courthouse.

Clark had requested such a meeting about two weeks ago and had hoped Gov. Reubin Askew would come here to preside over the meeting.

But Clark said Askew is unwilling to come to such a meeting and so he is now asking Goode to set it up on behalf of Metro.

"I'd like Goode to explain what plans he has for the convention and for us to ask the mayors and the commissioners of the cities what they plan to contribute."

These individuals will formulate the plans for the SCLC to participate in the National Democratic Convention. According to the source, the unconfirmed plans at present are for a "Resurrection City, II" and possibly a "Mule Train March."

On [redacted] Captain [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department, advised that on May 23, 1972, SCLC Coordinator [redacted] together with [redacted], an advance team from [redacted] of the SCLC, met with officials of the Miami Police Department and requested a camp site for an estimated 1500 to 2000 SCLC followers. They requested that the location be announced as soon as possible and authorization be given for occupancy by the SCLC by July 1, 1972. [redacted] explained that the SCLC intended to erect "tents and shanties" and requested the City to furnish "toilet facilities, water for drinking and a large tent to be used for shelter in the event of inclement weather" [redacted] further explained that the SCLC was planning a second camp site to be located somewhere in the City of Miami and they intended to use charter busses for transportation between the camp sites. The SCLC representatives stated that their purpose here during the Convention was definitely not to disrupt the Convention and further that the SCLC plans a convention of their own in Dallas, Texas, during the second week of August, 1972.

The June 1, 1972 edition of the Miami Herald, an English language newspaper published daily in Miami, Florida, contained the following information: "A spokesman for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference announced plans Wednesday for a 'Resurrection City, II' encampment on Miami Beach during the Democratic National Convention from July 10 to July 14, 1972. SCLC headquarters in Atlanta stated that about 300 persons, mostly poor blacks recruited from rural Alabama, will occupy Resurrection City, II, to focus attention on the problems of the poor and challenge the Democratic Party to take a position." The original Resurrection City encampment was held in Washington in 1968. The Reverend RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY said the demonstration, which will include a Mule Train March, will be strictly non-violent, explaining that there is no plan to be any kind of disruptive force. The spokesman said, "The people will live on a camp site on Miami Beach which has not yet been worked out."

Secret Service announced that they would issue convention credentials to plainclothes police personnel only. A restricted number of security related credentials will be obtainable through Chief Pomerance's office.

Secret Service engineers are still researching methods of filtering tear gas, etc. from Convention Hall air conditioning intakes.

Colonel Cotzin advised that a recent meeting with City of Miami Beach Department heads indicated that their convention planning was progressing very favorably.

At the conclusion of this meeting, affected members remained and finalized mass arrest procedures.

Documents concerning potential disruptions at the Democratic and Republican Conventions prepared by the Intelligence Evaluation Committee of the Department of Justice have been received by the Bureau. These documents contain information concerning the following:

A leader of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War has indicated he has approximately $30,000 worth of radio equipment, including monitoring and citizen band radios for use during the conventions in directing demonstrators to evade or counter tactics used by police.

"Miami Media Center" has been set up in the office of the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, 805 Fifth Street, Miami Beach, to serve as an information center in releasing material and logistical information and acting as a "rumor control" during the conventions. This center also reportedly will provide office and studio space and serve as a clearing house for sympathetic news groups.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Gay Liberation Front and International Welfare Rights Organization will hold massive demonstrations on July 10, 1972.

Demonstrations will be held at the Miami offices of International Telephone and Telegraph and Minneapolis Honeywell corporations on July 12, 1972.

Bureau files fail to indicate this information has previously been furnished the Bureau.

Information concerning this significant development has not yet been furnished by you to the Bureau. It should be obvious that information of this nature should have been forwarded to the Bureau by teletype no later than the evening of 6/7/72. From your lack of action, it must be assumed:

1. that your office, through lack of informant coverage, is not in a position to develop information concerning those groups now in the Miami area planning demonstrations during the conventions, or

2. if you had obtained this information, you fail to realize the importance of promptly furnishing the Bureau significant developments with regard to those organizations planning demonstrations during the conventions.

It has been reiterated in numerous communications to you in recent months, the need for promptly advising the Bureau of information concerning important and significant developments regarding demonstrations at the conventions. It is expected there will be no occasion to again call this to your attention.

The MCC, while political in nature and not interested per se in individual causes of the constituency groups, i.e. gay rights, women's liberation, etc., issued a call to all interested groups to join the MCC for negotiating purposes. Various representatives of these groups met informally at the Center for Dialogue on Friday night, June 2, 1972, when they agreed to cooperate in their negotiations. While no definite name was chosen for this loose confederation, a representative of one of the groups, as reported in the UPI press release, mentioned in referenced communication, referred to this loose association as the MCC Coordinating Committee, also misquoted by some press representatives as the "conventions coordinating committee". Despite the misuse of the word coordinating, this is not a coordinating group, either regarding demonstrations or negotiations with the city for services. Indeed, according to MM 1371-S, the MCC leadership recognized the misleading nature of this statement and at a closed MCC meeting on June 11, 1972, decided this loose cooperative effort should be referred to in the future as the MCC "communications committee", since its purpose is only to maintain communication between these groups negotiating with the city for camp sites.

It is noted that various constituency groups have plans for individual group actions at the Democratic National Convention but the overall scenario for convention activity is being formed by the MCC in close cooperation with the Youth International Party (YIP), the only other major political group. The constituency groups have no representation at the MCC policy meetings and are not connected with the MCC except only as noted above.

The above information was furnished by the informant over an extended period of time. In light of our overall knowledge of this situation, the loose association of these groups merely for negotiating purposes was not considered a significant development, and was thus not considered sufficiently important to furnish to the Bureau by teletype. Miami feels our coverage is such that we would have been immediately aware of any firm coalition of these groups for future demonstration purposes and, of course, would have appropriately reported this fact.

With regard to the groups mentioned, with the exception of the People's Party, detailed information has previously been reported to the Bureau in LHM form regarding their individual plans for convention activities. With regard to the People's Party, previously known as the New Party, as Bureau is aware, this is a legally constituted political party concerning which no active investigation has been conducted or is contemplated.

Regarding the distinction between the Yippie and Zippie groups, Bureau is requested to refer to Miami teletype to the Bureau dated May 28, 1972, captioned YIP, and Miami summary LHM regarding Midem and Mirep dated June 2, 1972, reporting in detail the split with the YIP organization. The YIP, or Yippies, headed by a YIP collective, including ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, continues to be the major group, while TOM FORCADE, who was expelled from the YIP and who has no following, continues to refer to himself in the underground press as the Zippies. Thus, this is an organization in name only. Miami has a pending investigation of FORCADE and his activities are being closely followed.

Further, regarding the People's Party, headed locally by [redacted] this group has been active in recent years in attempts to bring political pressure against the current administration by peaceful rallies, pickets, and demonstrations in protest to domestic and foreign policies of the administration. These demonstrations, all peaceful in nature, have been conducted at President NIXON's compound, Key Biscayne, and at other localities having some Governmental connection.

b7C

In view of its history of protest activity, it has been anticipated this political party would conduct some type of protest at the conventions, but no information has previously been received from public sources to this effect. Any information received will be appropriately reported under the Midem and Mirep caption. Further, [redacted] advised on [redacted]

b6
b7D

Finally, Bureau is advised that with the exception of the People's Party, Miami considers its informant coverage of these groups as excellent. Our sources are among the "inner circle" of the major coordinating group and in the policy making collective of the YIP, the only other organizing group of major significance. Miami will continue to furnish to the Bureau pertinent information on a timely basis.

Police Begin Mob Training

Preparing for the Democratic and Republican National conventions, some 399 state law enforcement officers began special demonstration training Monday in a week long program at Florida State University.

Army, Federal Bureau of Investigation, state and local personnel are conducting the "Civil Disorder Prevention and Control" courses. A $30,000 grant from the Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration finances the program.

During the political assemblies, 250 Highway Patrolmen, 31 of the Marine Patrol, 48 wardens from the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, and 50 Beverage Division agents are assigned to convention duty.

War Protesters Offer 4-Point Peace Plank

By GAYLE POLLARD
Herald Staff Writer

Anti-war groups asked local delegates to the Democratic convention to push a peace plank ending this nation's Indochina involvement into national platforms Monday.

Some 150 participants attended the open hearing on Indochina at the Dade County Public Library sponsored by the South Florida Peace Action Group — a Miami-based organization.

A RESOLUTION made by Vietnam Veterans Against the War advocates four peace points for the national platform:

- Total withdrawal of all U.S. ground and air forces.
- Redistribution of war funds with a tax reduction.
- Repatriation of those who left the country avoiding Vietnam duty.
- An end to the draft.

A migrant worker brought one of her six children, Jesse, 3, to the hearing. "What people eat is what we pick," Mrs. Marcella Longoria explained. "Why spend all of this money on war when people don't even have a place to stay?"

During the discussions, delegate Mike Thompson represented the Republicans, while Stephen P. Ross, George L. DePontis, Marwin Cassel, all 11th district delegates, and Stuart Rado, an alternate, appeared for the Democrats.

A short slide show illustrated ecological damage to Viet Nam as a result of the war, and Dr. Ruth Weiner, chairman of Florida International University's Chemistry department said, "We have simply engaged in the wholesale destruction of that entire land."

SCHOOL TEACHERS, the former chairman of the American Civil Liberties Union — Judge Raymond Wise — Wilbur Colom of National Welfare Rights Organization, and others testified for peace and against the war.

Most witnesses stressed that defense money should be redirected for social services such as adequate child care, educational resources, welfare reform, creation of jobs and medical care.

A member of the National Welfare Rights Organization, Gladys Taylor, called for peace saying, "The rich are getting richer making ammunition — and if you're a stockholder I'm talking to you.

On 6/9/72, [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, City Councilman, was personally interviewed pursuant to a telephone call [redacted] had made earlier in the week to SAC KENNETH W. WHITTAKER. b6 b7B [redacted] said that in his opinion [redacted] is a trained and dedicated communist who was using the cafeteria as a front for his operations. [redacted] said it was inconceivable that [redacted] would have operated the cafeteria for a number of years merely to allow little old ladies to come in there and spend several hours drinking coffee.

[redacted] also based his charge on a telephone call he had received in the past from an individual whom he did not name who said that [redacted] had a "roommate" who was a communist in New York City when [redacted] resided there. b6 b7C

In addition, [redacted] is constantly agitating against actions of the Miami Beach City Council. He is a close friend and the driving force behind the candidacies of [redacted] who ran on two occasions for the Miami Beach City Council. According to [redacted] it is common knowledge on the Beach that [redacted] is a communist.

[redacted] is also the President of the American Society of Senior Citizens and uses this organization to push any issues [redacted] is then advocating.

[redacted] was also allegedly involved in the meeting several nights ago at which JERRY RUBIN talked to some people at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Association Building on Miami Beach.

He could furnish no other specifics about [redacted] alleged involvement with the Communist Party. b6 b7C

In view of the non-specific nature of these allegations, it is recommended a dead file be opened on [redacted] in the event additional pertinent information is received from other sources concerning his involvement with the Communist Party.

It is noted that Miami CP informants have not reported [redacted] as a member of the Miami CP or as even being sympathetic to the Miami CP.

Miami coverage is such that any activity by [redacted] in local CP activities should be made known to that office.

During this interview, [redacted] also related the following concerning the June 7, 1972, Miami Beach City Council meeting. He stated that at this meeting CHUCK HALL, Mayor, was putting pressure on the Councilmen to approve various campsites for the non-delegates at the forthcoming political convention. According to [redacted] the only Councilman who would support HALL in this meeting is [redacted], whom he described as HALL [redacted] He said that in order to save face for the Mayor the remaining Councilmen decided not to allow this matter to be brought to a vote and proposed that it be decided at the June 21, 1972, meeting. [redacted] said that those Councilmen who do not want the non-delegates to have approved and designated campsites are doing so on the basis of advice of the Captain of the Washington, D.C. Police Department and another individual in the Justice Department. [redacted] said that what the press does not know at this time is that he, and,he believes, other Councilmen will again vote to stall the approval of campsites at the June 21, 1972, meeting and push for a decision at a meeting to be held on June 28, 1972. According to [redacted] Mayor HALL has ruined himself politically with the people on Miami Beach on this issue in wanting campsites for the non-delegates.

FLORIDA PEOPLES COALITION

The Florida Peoples' Coalition (FPC) also known as the Florida Peoples' Platform Coalition (FPPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami Beach, Florida, July and August, 1972. Its overall purpose is to seek an end to the Vietnam war and the adoption by the national candidates of the Peoples' Platform.

All sources mentioned herein have furnished reliable information in the past.

A first source advised on [redacted] that representatives from the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC), the Miami area, and the Washington, D.C. (WDC) area were [redacted] b7D

The SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical groups in San Diego, California, which was formed for active opposition to the U.S. Government through "serious, determined, and long term social upheaval."

This same group met the following day again in preparation for the meeting of May 19-20, 1972.

On [redacted] a second source provided a position paper, entitled "MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION" (MCC) and dated May 19, 1972. This paper, in which the Principles of Unity are proposed, consists of seven principles. A copy of this paper is attachment number one to this report.

The second source related that the MCC was formed in secret meetings [redacted] in WDC between the SDCC and Miami Liberation Front (MLF); it was from these two meetings of accommodation that the MCC and Seven Principles of Unity evolved. b7D

On [redacted] a third source advised of the meeting that took place [redacted] Source [redacted] convention, implying that if McGovern was not nominated, "heavy" action or civil disobedience could occur. Rennie Davis, a convicted Chicago conspiracy defendant, only generalized concerning the vigil. However, during this generalization, a chain of laughter broke out among the representatives indicating that the "vigil" was somewhat of a code word for a "trashing action." Everyone seemed to understand; no one would need to say there would be "heavy" action; it would just happen.

Source recalled that [redacted]

At this meeting and the two preliminary meetings (May 17-18, 1972), the Miami Conventions Coalition evolved according to this third source. The MCC would encompass the SDCC, the FPC, the Miami Liberation Front, the Anti-War Union. The Yippies, it was decided, would not be a part of the MCC but could be associated with the MCC.

> The Anti-War Union was formed by Rennie Davis, convicted Chicago conspiracy defendant, to continue massive public protests against United States military policy in Southeast Asia and for implementation of places to disrupt the National Political Conventions in Miami, Florida.
> The Yippies or YIP is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

The third source furnished a copy of the "Working Paper of the Miami Conventions Coalition" dated May 20, 1972, which is attachment number two. This six page paper represents a synopsis of the decisions made at the May 19-20, 1972 meetings held in WDC and sets forth their goals as regards the two National Conventions. According to a fourth source, this paper was authored by Judy Lee Hemblen, also known as Judy Gumbo and George Katsiaficas.

As a result of the meetings held May 19 - 20, 1972, the second source related the following:

(1) Democratic National Convention. All were in agreement there would be no massing of people, but rather they would work through the various constituency groups such as the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), farm workers, labor, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) and others.

> The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national office located in New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."
> SCLC has been publicly identified as a legitimate civil rights organization headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.
> The NWRO is the nationwide grassroots organization of welfare recipients and other poor people. The NWRO claims to have 400 local affiliates in 48 states and in more than 150 cities. The NWRO claims to be fighting for the goals of adequate welfare recipients. In the conduct of demonstrations surrounding their programs, NWRO members and supporters have frequently caused disturbances which have resulted in mass arrests and property damage.

Additionally, due to efforts of [redacted] and [redacted] a well known WDC based anti-war activist and paramour of [redacted] one of the major goals of the MCC will be to have the three point peace plan of the Anti-War Union included in the Democratic Party Platform. A copy of the AWU three point peace plan is attachment three. b6 b7C

The main emphasis of the MCC will be to "educate" the convention and its delegates to the three point peace plan and in so doing, to utilize "Expo 72" with its focus on the war (and especially the air war over Vietnam) through exhibits, displays, guerrilla threats, films and the like.

(2) Republican National Convention. The purpose here of demonstrations will be to directly confront President Nixon everywhere and to limit his mobility so as to demonstrate that there is no domestic tranquility. Basically, the efforts will be broken down into three days of action as follows:

First:	Large peaceful demonstrations.
Second:	Separate and mobile civil disobedience actions by various groups.
Third:	Large civil disobedience at the convention center itself.

The second source continued that no plans were made to keep demonstrators in Miami for the six week period between the two conventions. However, it was generally accepted that many people would probably remain during the interim.

The second source added that while most of the representatives at the meetings supported the candidacy of Senator McGovern, they were fearful of supporting him openingly as it would probably hurt him.

Generally, source went on, the MCC will work to demonstrate that should President Nixon be re-elected, domestic holocaust would be the result.

As regards actual organizational work, the second source related that little was done in this area during the meetings; however, source added that fifteen San Diego people will go to Miami and that presently there is one house (the MLF House) available in Miami and they are looking to rent others as well as offices. Presently there is little or no money available.

Finally the second source estimated that there were about 45 people in attendance at each meeting (May 19-20, 1972).

As regards the May 19-20, 1972 meetings held at the Friends Meeting House, the first source on June 7, 1972, furnished the following as a composite of both meetings:

The meetings were chaired by Ed Deaton of Miami and Sheri Whitehead of the SDCC. The meetings were marked by long drawn out political discussions.

The "Principles of Unity" were read to the representatives by Helen Horn of Florida and the seven principles were discussed. The seventh point, which states that no individual candidate will be supported, caused the most discussion. While the majority favored the candidacy of McGovern, it was decided that such open support would be harmful for McGovern.

According to this first source, the following was agreed upon in regards to the two conventions:

(1) Democratic National Convention (DNC). The approach will be low key. The demonstrators plan only to "have a presence" at the DNC with no mobilization of masses of people as it was felt this could detract from future efforts at the Republican Convention. The major effort will be to "sell" the three point peace plan of the AWU to convention delegates and the candidates. Source was of the opinion that there would possibly be trouble if McGovern loses.

Further, source reported there will be a demonstration in Miami by NWRO on July 10, two days before the actual start of the convention.

(2) Republican National Convention. The intent will be to gather people to the RNC in such numbers so as to force the authorities to react, giving the impression that the Convention could be held only in an "armed camp." Further, it was felt that since Nixon's re-nomination is a foregone conclusion, there will be little of interest for the media at the convention, with the result of the media turning to the demonstrations for "news", thereby furnishing the demonstrators with considerable coverage and as a result, media access. The planners hope to have confrontations take place in such a manner that the media would report the confrontations in a favorable or sympathetic fashion.

The representatives at the meetings were desirous of a confrontation, feeling assured that since the Miami Police and State Police number only 600, federal troops will be an embarrassing necessity.

Currently plans for the three days convention calls for "massive legal demonstrations" on the first day, civil disobedience on a small scale by various affinity groups on the second day, followed by massive civil disobedience to "shut things down" on the third day.

The first source continued that currently the Yippies are talking of having a rock concert at the DNC; however, Stewart Albert is going to talk to Abby Hoffman and Jerry Rubin to try to get them to change the concert to the RNC.

Most of the meeting had little regard for the involvement of Yippies as they consider Hoffman and Rubin opportunists and performers.

Further, source added that aside from the police, problems with resident right wing Cubans are expected by the demonstrators.

Finally, this first source emphasized the extensive security measures employed at the meetings pointing out that ~~eve~~ Steve Sacks, also known as Steven Franklin Sacks, and others were denied entrance to the meetings. Source added that Sacks and David Beals will go to Miami (date unknown) to set up a communication net.

The following is a list of 38 of the estimated 45 people present at the May 19-20, 1972 meetings.

WORKING PAPER OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION

May 20, 1972

On May 19 and 20, 45-50 people met in Washington to discuss what actions the movement should take at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami this July and August. The meeting was called by members of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida Peoples' Coalition.

One third of the people at the meeting were from New York and D.C., the rest were from areas including Boston, Philadelphia, Texas, Ohio, Vermont, and upstate New York. Many of the people at the meeting had already decided to work in Miami as organizers for the Miami Conventions Coalition. Others plan to return to their cities/towns and report on the meeting, and begin discussions about the actions. After a day and a half of good pointed discussion, the group came to the following consensus:

1. THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SHOULD BE THE MAJOR FOCUS OF ANTI-WAR ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER. (August 21-24) There will be a call for a three day national action including massive and dramatic demonstrations. The short term goal is to expose the criminal acts of the Nixon administration, particularly the continued escalation of the war in Indochina; and to demonstrate with marches and civil disobedience that the re-election of Nixon will cause continued resistance and confrontation in this country. We support the national liberation struggles of the Indochinese peoples. Our actions at the Republican Convention will be in full support of the 7-point peace proposal of the P.R.G.

2. WE FEEL THAT THE TONE SHOULD BE ONE OF CONFRONTATION, SERIOUS RESISTANCE, AND NON-VIOLENT CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE. Because of the present situation in the U.S., we know that the convention and the demonstrations may take place in the atmosphere of an armed camp. We will not use inflated rhetoric designed to provoke an overreaction by the repressive forces in Miami. However, what Nixon stands for is so oppressive to the American people and the people of the world that we must actively oppose Nixon's domestic and foreign policies.

3. OUR ORGANIZING FOR THE CONVENTION WILL ATTEMPT TO BUILD ALLIANCES WITH DIFFERENT GROUPS (e.g. THIRD WORLD PEOPLE, WOMEN, GAY PEOPLE, STUDENTS AND YOUTH, VETS, LABOR, AND THE ELDERLY). At the least, we will develop a program and scenario for the convention that will speak to the needs of a broad cross-section of people.

4. OUR STRENGTH DEPENDS ON PEOPLE COMING WELL-ORGANIZED TO THE CONVENTION ACTIONS FROM DIFFERENT REGIONS AND CITIES. Local organizations will develop program, do their own propaganda, and bring people in groups/brigades to the Convention. Beginning this week about 20 people in Miami are laying the groundwork for the convention actions--setting up an office and media center, raising money, talking with organized groups in the Miami area, and developing in more detail the scenario and tactics.

5- FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION (JULY 12-15) WE WILL EMPHASIZE SUPPORT FOR CONSTITUENCY ACTIONS, SPIRITED, BUT LOW-KEY ANTI-WAR STREET PRESENCE, LOBBYING AND PROPAGANDA AND EXPOSE.

The Miami Conventions Coalition will not, however, put out a call for massive street demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. We agreed to wage an intensive propaganda campaign at the Dem. National Convention around the war, with at least a partial focus on lobbying the delegates to the convention. The seven point peace propcsal of the PRG would be key education tool in terms of talking both to McGovern supporters and to people in general. However, care would be taken to respect the attempts to make the 3-point peace plan a floor fight inside, and the PRG proposal would not be used to undermine that attempt.

OUR DISCUSSION

We felt that we participated in a fruitful discussion about the role of the left at the Republican and Democratic Conventions, and the direction that the movement could take. This section is an attempt to give a sense of the flow of those discussions.

1. Many people felt that the primary objective in this period was to defeat Richard Nixon and the forces he represents within the ruling class. Other people wanted to concentrate more on issues than on Nixon himself. We all felt that the combination of the continuing Vietnamese offensive and the political climate in America makes the defeat of Nixon possible. There was a general feeling that our actions around the conventions could significantly affect the course of the war. We discussed how an anti-imperialist movement could relate to the issue of defeating Nixon, and specifically how other issues (racism, sexism, corporate capitalism) related to that.

2. We felt that any national demonstration or action is where the left states its politics, and has an opportunity to say things which relate to people's anger or disillusionment. That is why we felt that our call must be more than just to defeat Nixon. The demonstrations themselves are not a substitute for politics. We do not want to allow our presence to become the issue at the Republican convention; our demonstrations must dramatize the real issues.

3. We discussed the militancy of the demonstrations, the use of civil disobediance as a tactic and specifically the problem of the large Cuban population in Miami. Since the Miami police force has only 650 officers, the federal government will be responsible for protection, and the national guard will probably be present. People felt that the convention atmosphere could turn into that of an armed camp. Some people felt that the portions of the Cuban community which are right-wing were not that menacing, and that the policing forces would be relatively well disciplined. We felt that the seriousness of the world situation meant that we could not compromise the necessity to be there. Some people felt that it would be best if the onus of confrontation was placed on Nixon; others felt that Nixon might try to cool the situation out and that meant that the responsibility would be placed on us to remain militant.

4. We had long discussions about McGovern and his possible role, if he were nominated and if he were not. Some people felt that for the first time since the beginning of the war we had indeed a possible candidate whose election could affect the end of the war. Some people felt that all should be done to insure McGovern's nomination, with the exception of outright endorsement. Others felt that we should primarily be trying to push the Democrats and the country to the left. We discussed how the result inside of the Democratic convention might affect the tactics and militancy of the people on the street outside, and vice versa. Because of the possibility of McGovern as a real alternative for ending the war, we felt it was important for the outside demonstrations to be low key. Some people felt that demonstrations might have an adverse effect, and this was especially felt by most people if the demonstrations were in any way violent.

We discussed our strategy in case HHH got elected, and what our position should be if in fact McGovern won. We discussed tactics such as a march against death, or a candlelight march calling out the names of dead Vietnamese. A quiet anger. We all felt the need of strong support of activities already planned -- NWRO, SCLC, Gay groups, and other constituency demonstrations.

We realized that whoever would be nominated at the Democratic Convention would have a significant effect on the tone of the Republican Convention. We discussed whether an overt anti-imperialist, pro-PRG demonstration would be appropriate at the Democratic convention. We concluded that we should have an educational presence at the Democratic Convention which would press delegates to understand the real dangers of the war.

We realized that all Democratic Convention organizing would be hampered by lack of time.

5. We had intensive discussions of the 3 point and 7 point peace proposals. We felt that lobbying around the 3 point proposal inside the Democratic Convention was very important, and had the possibility of producing floor fights. Most people concluded that the 3 point proposal was appropriate for organizing internally inside the Democratic convention, but that the mass propaganda line, especially for the Republican Convention, should be support of the 7 points.

We felt that a strong, independent women's presence would be a crucial part of the convention activities and the Miami Conventions Coalition.

We discussed the question of coalitions and united fronts, and agreed that we should try to make the demonstrations more broad-based than in the past.

We will emphasize the seriousness of these demonstrations, and our serious committment.

6. In terms of relations between local and national activities, we felt strongly that well organized local regions should define their own activities for the Republican Convention. We felt that the Conventions Coalition in Miami would probably be defining the scenario, but would do so in a way which was responsive to, and depended on, the participation and existence of local groups. We urged people to go back to where they lived and organize Conventions Coalition offices or centers which would distribute propaganda, discuss and organize among themselves, so that at the Republican Convention itself people would be able to participate in regional or city groups.

7. We felt that convention organizing would be very important this summer, because the offensive in Vietnam would continue, and because Nixon would continue to escalate. We felt that the major contradictions would intensify over the summer, and that the left could play a very significant role at both conventions; at the Republican in militant, strong, confrontational demonstrations of all forms, and at the Democratic by expressing strong anti-war sentiment.

EXPOSE '72

Expose '72 was only discussed briefly at the meeting, but we all felt it would be a very important part of convention organizing. The following is a synopsis of the Expose '72 proposal put forward by the San Diego Convention Coalition:

We want to create an atmosphere where people can come to understand more about the specific nature of the country, and the world we live in, and have some fun. Expose '72 would be a large exposition, and also a base for organizing brigades and other actions

We are hoping that regions will organize Expose 72 groups and exhibits in their regions and bring them to Miami. It is a creative and new way that even more organizations, groups, constituencies and nationalities might be persuaded to participate in the Convention actions.

PRINCIPLES OF UNITY

THE FOLLOWING SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF UNITY WERE BROUGHT TO THE MEETING BY THE PEOPLE FROM FLORIDA AND SAN DIEGO. THEY WERE NEITHER ACCEPTED NOR REJECTED BY THOSE AT THE MEETING FOR A VARIETY OF GOOD REASONS." THEY ARE INCLUDED HERE TO PROVOKE DISCUSSION:

1. We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine. e.g. NEP, Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft-Hartly Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, FAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the bussing issue.
2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating the following relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Conventions Coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of Third World communities; technical and economic assistance to groups organizing around the conventions in Third World communities; emphasis by white organizers on the issues of racism; and the probelms of working people in their own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism, and imperialism.

3. We oppose all social, political, and economic forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation based on sex roles. We support the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and societal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all US aggression and involvement in Indochina, and support the PRG 7 point plan for peace in Vietnam. The major points of which are:

   a. The US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all US troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.

   b. The US must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam, and end its support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the US government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

5. We oppose all US interference in the internal affairs of other nations, and we support struggles of national liberation.

6. The demonstrations we are planning should not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be pushed through the use of slogans or the speakers' platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

ON TO MIAMI!

THIS PAPER IS NOT FOR PUBLICATION.

THE THREE POINT PROGRAM FOR PEACE IN INDOCHINA

1972 is the twenty-seventh year of the Indochina War and the eleventh anniversary of the first American killed in that war. It is also an election year in the United States. In the last two elections the American people voted overwhelmingly for peace and got only talk of peace and endless war.

In 1972 the American people refuse to be fooled again. Full-scale air war in Indochina and backing of the unpopular Thieu regime cannot bring peace. Any candidate for public office in 1972 has a responsibility to the children, women, and men of Indochina, as well as to the American people – particularly to the soldiers who have been sent to die in Indochina, to the veterans, and to the prisoners of war and their families – to pledge him or herself to policies that will in fact end the war. The American tragedy in Vietnam cannot be resolved by slick advertising or propaganda circuses.

The following program is both just and practical. It will end the war. It will bring American prisoners of war home. It will permit the people of Indochina to settle their own affairs in peace. It can be implemented now. No candidate who refuses to pledge him or herself to such a program for peace deserves support.

1. Within twenty-four hours of the Inauguration the next President will end all air, ground and naval operations in Indochina.

The way to stop the killing is to cease all military operations.

2. Upon taking office, the next President will announce a date not later than April 20, 1973 by which the withdrawal from Indochina of all remaining U.S. personnel will be completed. The process of withdrawal will begin immediately, will be phased with the return of U.S. prisoners, and will be subject only to the reaffirmation by the other side of their commitment to safe conduct for withdrawing U.S. personnel.

The way to free our prisoners is to convince those who hold them that the U.S. no longer intends to impose governments on Indochina.

3. The next President will announce on Inauguration Day that the United States will no longer finance the Thieu government or any government in Saigon that keeps tens of thousands of political prisoners in jail, suppresses opposition newspapers, harasses political meetings or engages in other forms of repression which makes a peaceful political accomodation in South Vietnam impossible. All aid to the regimes of South Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia which enables them to carry on the war will be terminated on February 20, 1973.

There can be no political accomodation in Indochina as long as the U.S. finances war and props up dictators.

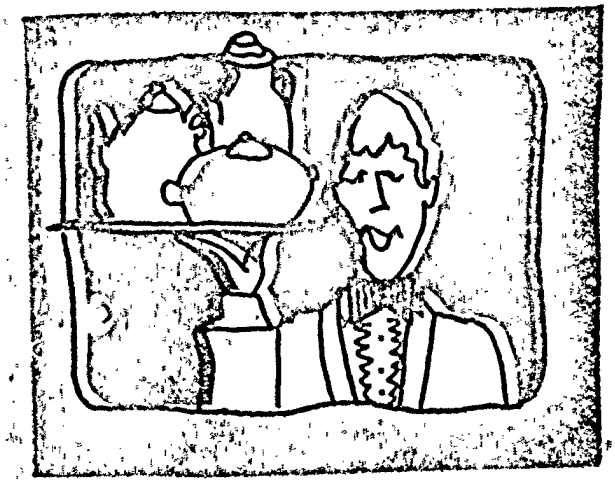
ON TO MIAMI!



DISSIDENT POSITION AND ACTIVITIES DIRECTED TO NATIONAL POLITICAL CONVENTIONS DURING SUMMER, 1972, ETC.

On May 19th and 20th, people from many areas in the country met in conference in Washington D.C., a meeting called by the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida People's Coalition to discuss what actions the movement should take at the Democratic and Republican conventions in Miami this July and August. After a day and a half of good pointed discussion, the group came to the following concensus:

1). The Republican Convention should be the major focus of anti-war activity this summer. (August 21-24). There will be a call for a three day national action including massive and dramatic demonstrations. The short term goal is to expose the criminal acts of the Nixon administration, particularly the continued escalation of the war in Indochina, and to demonstrate with marches and civil disobedience that the re-election of Nixon will cause continued resistance and confrontation in this country. We support the national liberation struggles of the Indochinese peoples. Our actions at the Republican convention will be in full support of the 7 point peace proposal of the People's Revolutionary Government (PRG).

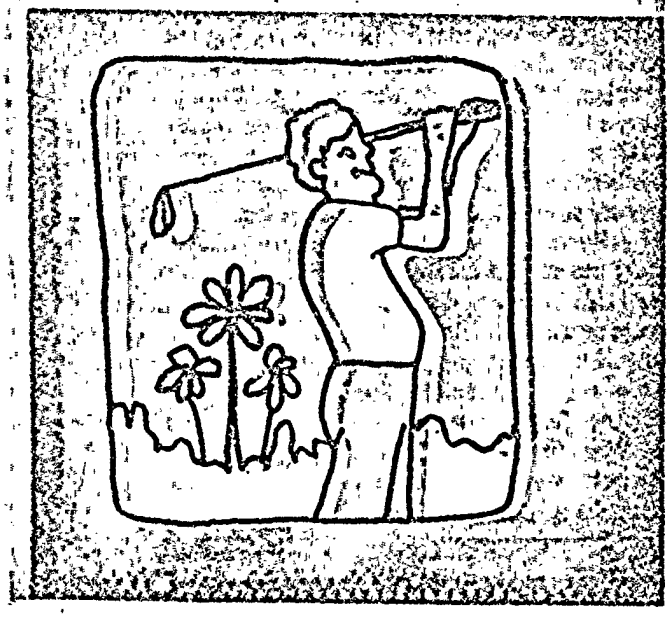
2). We feel that the tone should be one of confrontation, serious resistance and non-violent civil disobedience. Because of the present situation in the U.S. we know that the convention and the demonstrations may take place in the atmosphere of an armed camp. We will not use inflated rhetoric designed to provoke an overreaction by the repressive forces in Miami. However, what Nixon stands for is so oppressive to the American people and the people of the world that we must actively oppose Nixon's domestic and foreign policies.

3). Our organizing for the convention will attempt to build alliances with different groups (e.g. Third World people, women, gay people, students and youth, vets, labor and the elderly). At the least, we will develop a program and a scenario for the convention that will speak to the needs of a broad cross-section of people.

4). Our strength depends on people coming well-organized to the conventions actions from different regions and cities. Local organizations will develop a program, do their own propaganda, and bring people in groups/brigades to the convention. Beginning this week, about 20 people in Miami are laying the groundwork for the convention actions-setting up an office and media center, raising money, talking with organized groups in the Miami area, and developing in more detail the scenario and tactics.

DISSIDENT POSITION AND ACTIVITIES DIRECTED TO NATIONAL POLITICAL CONVENTIONS DURING SUMMER, 1972, ETC.

5). For the Democratic Convention (July 12-15) we will emphasise support for constituency actions, spirited, but low-key anti-war street presence, lobbying & propaganda expose. The Miami Conventions Coalition will not, however, put out a call for a massive street demonstration at the Democratic Convention. We agreed to wage an intensive propaganda campaign at the Democratic National Convention around the war, with at least a partial focus on lobbying the delegates to the convention. The seven point peace proposal of the PRG would be a key educational tool in terms of talking to both McGovern supporters and to people in general. However, care would be taken to respect the attempts to make the 3 point peace plan a floor fight inside, and the PRG proposal would not be used to undermine that attempt. (The 3 point peace plan calls for the complete withdrawal of all U.S. military presence in Indochina, the ending of the air war and an end to support of the Thieu government shortly after inauguration day, 1973.)



6). It was expressedly stated and agreed that the Miami Conventions Coalition would not publically support anyone for the office of president.

A discussion followed in which people agreed to support and work with planned actions at the conventions by the National Welfare Rights Organization, SCLC and various gay groups. A strong, independent women's presence was seen as a crucial part of the convention activities.

People also talked about staging an exposition in Miami "Expose '72" which would include:

--the air war, with weapons display
--people's art
--the economy
--Chicano and Black and Puerto Rican movements
--Women
--China, Vietnam, Cuba, African, Latin America.

Continuous showings of movies, i.e. "Milhous," "Burn", "Inside North Vietnam," etc.

--Workshops
--Video--messages from other countries., The findings of the People's Panel of inquiry on the Nixon administration. People's new broadcasts of the days events and reactions from around the country and world.

Entertainment--music, guerrilla theatre, etc.

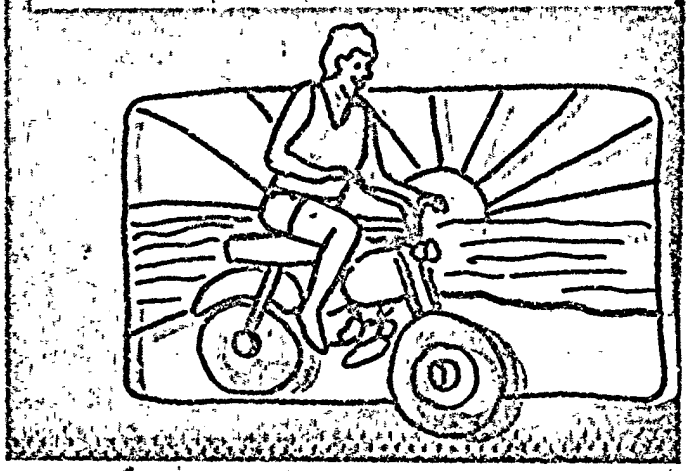
Publishing a daily newspaper or street wall journal.

PRINCIPLES OF UNITY

The following seven principles of unity were brought to the meeting by the people from Florida and San Diego. They were neither accepted nor rejected by those at the meeting for a variety of good reasons. They are included here to provoke discussion:

I). We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine, e.g. NEP, Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft Hartley Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, FAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the busing issue.

2). Building alliances with 3rd world communities by creating the following relationships between 3rd world communities and the Miami conventions coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of 3rd world communities, technical and economic assistance to groups organizing around the conventions in the 3rd world communities, emphasis by white organizers on the issues of racism, and the problems of working people in their own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism and imperialism.



3). We oppose all social, political and economic forces which perpetrate domination and expoloitation based on sex roles. We suppor the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and societal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all U.S. aggression and involvement in Indochina, and support the 7 point peace plan of the PRG. the major points of which are:

a. the US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all U.S. troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.

b. the U.S. must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam and end i'ts support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the U.S. government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

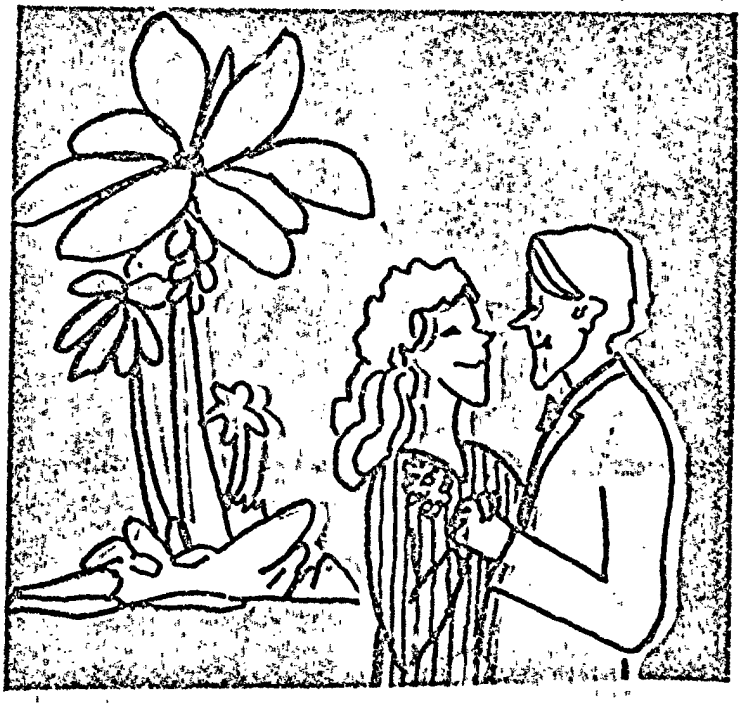
5). We oppose all U.S. interference in the internal affairs of other nations, and we support struggles of national liberation.

6). The demonstrations we are planning should not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be pushed through the use of slogans, or the speakers platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

Watchupcomingissues of the Seed for further details as they develop.

ON TO MIAMI!



On page 30 of volume eight, number eight, early June, 1972, issue of the "Chicago Seed", supra, the following is also set forth:

CHICAGO SEED PAGE 30

People Before Politics

National Welfare Rights will stage a major demonstration on the opening night of the Democratic National Convention to protest the exclusion of poor people from the two party system and to push for the passage of the Poor People's Platform.

NWRO will lead a march through the streets of Miami Beach to the Convention Hall to express their protest. While this protest is being demonstrated outside, the NWRO members and supporters who have been elected to the convention, will raise the issues of the protest inside the Convention Hall and push for the passage of the Poor People's Platform.

The NCC voted this past weekend to organize the demonstration because:

1) Although the Fraser-McGovern Commission opened the convention to "previously excluded groups, youth, women and minority groups", no consideration was made for those under the adequate income level.

2) The needs of America's poor must be raised as a national issue in this election year.

Preceeding the National Convention the Democrats will hold regional hearings around the country to help in their formulation of the party platform. Plans are now made on the national level to have a Welfare Rights member testify at eight of these hearings, but the more poor people who testify the greater our voice will be in influencing the Democratic Platform.

Poor people must be heard in 1972. We must move. The regional hearings are the place to speak out. July 10th is the time to act. Miami is the place to act. We must move to put People before Politics in 1972.

The Democratic National Convention will be held at Miami Beach, Florida, July 10-14, 1972. The Republican National Convention, originally scheduled at San Diego, California, August 21-24, 1972, has been relocated also at Miami Beach but the dates remain unchanged. This has caused a number of groups to reevaluate their plans regarding participating in protest actions at the Republican Convention.

This document is the second in a series which will summarize information developed by the FBI on the potential for disruptions at these Conventions. Current and continuing plans, activities and objectives of these groups will be reported on a regular basis until the Conventions.

ANTI-WAR UNION (AWU)

The AWU is the most recent organization formed by [redacted] to protest U. S. involvement in Southeast Asia. It is headquartered in Washington, D. C., and has also established Indochina Information Centers in Washington and Los Angeles, California, for the stated purpose of informing communities about developments in Southeast Asia by disseminating "more accurate information" than that presented by the legitimate news media. b6 b7C

Reportedly through the AWU [redacted] intends to continue antiwar protests and to implement his own personal plans for disrupting the Conventions. Davis has expressed the view that disruptions should be in the form of street demonstrations involving confrontation by demonstrators with law enforcement personnel in order to force police reprisals which would result in criticism of President Nixon's Administration and the Republican Party. [redacted] has indicated that the tactics of those accepting his leadership would be directed primarily against the Republican Convention. He has expressed disappointment that this Convention has been transferred to Miami since he believes the geographical factors in Miami Beach do not favor protest activities to the same degree as in San Diego.

At a recent meeting in Washington, originally under the sponsorship of the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition which was called to develop plans for "movement" activity during the conventions, [redacted] would not accept the philosophy of this umbrella-type organization and stated he would independently organize and conduct his own activities at the Conventions.

FLORIDA PEOPLES PLATFORM COALITION (FPPC)

FPPC, also known as the Florida Peoples Coalition, was originally established in February, 1972, as a statewide coalition to engage in nonviolent protest during the Democratic Convention. Since the Republican Convention was moved to Miami Beach, FPPC has expanded its activities to include both Conventions.

At a statewide meeting on May 6, 1972, held in the Student Union Building, University of South Florida campus, Tampa, Florida, it was decided that a three-point peace proposal would be presented to each Democratic presidential candidate to sign. This proposal demands that when inaugurated the next president will (1) immediately withdraw all military forces from Southeast Asia; (2) withdraw all U. S. personnel by April 23, 1973, from Southeast Asia, phased with return of prisoners of war; and (3) immediately cease all aid to the governments of South Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. The main form of activity planned was educational-type demonstrations and rallies which were to be legal and peaceful with no acts of civil disobedience. Concerning the Republican Convention, it was decided to have legal and peaceful demonstrations; however, it was felt that other individuals and organizations would be present and that it would be difficult to control these groups. A projected budget of $30,000 was adopted and it was hoped these funds could be raised through rallies, demonstrations, and benefits.

A meeting was tentatively scheduled to be held May 15, 1972, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the sponsorship of the FPPC with any organization interested in demonstrating invited to attend, with the hope that such groups would do so under the guidelines established by the FPPC.

This meeting was later rescheduled for May 19-20, 1972, at Washington, D. C. Since the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice and the National Peace Action Coalition, both antiwar groups, had jointly planned demonstrations in Washington during that time, it was felt most of the leading figures in the antiwar movement would be in Washington.

Prior to this meeting, preconference planning sessions were held May 17-18, 1972, in Washington to set ground rules. This conference was attended by representatives of the Anti-War Union, FPPC, and San Diego Convention Coalition.

On May 19-20, 1972, the conference was held at the Friends Meeting House, 2111 Florida Avenue, Northwest. Attendance was by invitation only and approximately 45 individuals were present. It was resolved there would be minimal action at the Democratic Convention, based on the belief that any violent action would result in counteraction by police which would negate the effectiveness of later efforts during the Republican Convention. It was agreed all protest activities would be tightly controlled and directed toward "turning the Democratic Party to the left."

At the Republican Convention, concerted attacks will be made on the foreign and domestic policies of the Nixon Administration. Massive displays and demonstrations will be held, but no details were finalized. It was felt that television coverage during the Democratic Convention would be directed towards the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination. But, since President Nixon was a certainty to be the Republican candidate, the television coverage during the Republican Convention would turn more to the protest action outside the Convention Hall rather than the activities within.

It was also agreed that local organizations should have the "largest input" as to overall planning of protest activity and that no national groups should attempt to direct all activities at the Conventions. Rennie Davis, representing the Anti-War Union, would not assent to these points and stated he would organize and direct his own protest demonstrations at the Conventions.

GAY ACTIVIST ALLIANCE (GAA)

At a recent meeting of the Miami Chapter of GAA, a homosexual liberation group, plans were discussed for a series of publicity stunts in the Miami area during the Democratic Convention. Possibilities discussed were a homosexual wedding and a dance of persons of the same sex. Such activities GAA believes to be illegal and thus will bring about a confrontation with authorities resulting in a situation that would create sympathy for the GAA.

MIAMI SNOWPLOW COMPANY

The Miami Snowplow Company, a coalition formed at Miami, Florida, in January, 1972, to provide food, housing, and other services to protesters and nondelegates in Miami Beach during the Conventions, is disbanding. [redacted] b6 b7C of the organization, announced at a press conference on [redacted] that "Snowplow" was terminating its operations because of lack of financial backing from municipal authorities.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

NWRO is a nationwide organization of welfare recipients formed for the purpose of seeking increased government support.

NWRO is planning its annual conference in Miami Beach, Florida, July 5-9, 1972. It expects 1,200 members to attend the conference which will end the day before the Democratic Convention begins. This meeting, which will be concerned with workshops on welfare problems, has an additional significance for NWRO. It is hoped by NWRO that the physical presence of the delegates will serve to challenge the leadership of the Democratic Party on the issue of not truly representing poor people even though the Party claims that it does. NWRO plans to urge that the Democratic Platform include adoption of a guaranteed annual income plan of $6,500 for a family of four.

An office has been opened by NWRO at the Salem Baptist Church, 151 NW 60th Street, Miami, and staff members have arrived to prepare for the conference.

SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION (SDCC)

SDCC was the primary organization involved in planning demonstrations at San Diego for the Republican Convention. The change in Convention sites has thoroughly disrupted SDCC and organizationally it has come to a standstill. Approximately ten SDCC members have indicated they will relocate near Miami Beach to continue their plans for demonstrations. Several of these individuals attended the recent meeting in Washington, D. C., sponsored by the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition to develop plans for "movement" activity during the conventions. There is indication the SDCC members in Florida will refer to their operation as the Miami Conventions Coalition.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)

SCLC, founded by the late Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., is headquartered at Atlanta, Georgia.

In early May, 1972, two members from the SCLC headquarters staff arrived in Miami to open a branch office for the duration of the Conventions. Reportedly, a Poor Peoples Convention is being planned at Miami Beach during the same period as the Democratic Convention and peaceful demonstrations are being formalized to be held during both Conventions.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

The SDS-Worker Students Alliance held a National Convention Against Racism at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, March 30-April 2, 1972. A proposal by the San Diego Chapter for demonstrations during the Republican Convention, then scheduled for San Diego, was accepted by the SDS General Assembly.

The change of Convention sites disappointed SDS leaders. They complained that there was a lack of youthful radical base in the Miami area and that the Convention Center was in an easily defendable location. Because of this, SDS hopes for a large turnout in Miami have dwindled; however, it has not yet ruled out participation in activities at the Republican Convention.

SDS has had no discussion regarding the Democratic Convention.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

VVAW is a national veterans organization opposed to U. S. involvement in Indochina.

Scot Camil, Southeast Regional Coordinator of VVAW, has indicated the VVAW will be in the Miami area in great numbers during the Conventions. VVAW has requested permission from the Miami Beach City Council to use Flamingo Park and Lummus Park for camp areas. It has also contacted the Hialeah and Miami Springs Police Departments in an effort to make arrangements for campgrounds.

Approximately 25 representatives from southern regions of the VVAW attended a meeting, May 27-28, 1972, at Gainesville, Florida. Discussion centered around actions to be taken during the Conventions. It was felt few VVAW members would be in the Miami area for the Democratic Convention, but that many would be present to protest during the Republican Convention and at that time efforts would be made to force confrontations with police. The staging of diversionary tactics within the city of Miami, to draw police away from Miami Beach, was also discussed.

The possibility of obtaining large quantities of "wrist rockets," devices similar to slingshots, and utilizing fishing weights, marbles, or ball bearings as ammunition, was discussed. John Kniffin, VVAW Regional Coordinator from Texas, displayed a crossbow which he claimed can be purchased in Texas for $20. The use of such weapons against police was also discussed.

Camil, who led most of the discussions, claimed to have four or five "fire groups" comprised of three to five individuals which would stage diversionary tactics such as throwing fire bombs, firing "wrist rockets" and crossbows at police and placing fireworks in police patrol cars.

It was decided that every effort should be made to convince VVAW state coordinators to change the location of the next National Steering Committee meeting from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to either Miami or Gainesville and to hold it a week before the Republican Convention.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

WAM was recently formed by the Progressive Labor Party to recruit members from the national labor force. It has as its major issue the establishment of a shorter workweek with higher pay--30 hours' work for 40 hours' pay. At its founding convention in February, 1972, three action proposals were ratified, one of which was to conduct demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican Conventions organized around the "30 for 40" issue.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

YIP is a loosely knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary, youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

On May 13, 1972, Jerry Clyde Rubin and Abbott Howard Hoffman, YIP activists and defendants in the so-called Chicago Seven trial who were convicted of violation of the Federal Antiriot Statute in connection with disruptions during the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago, visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall and surveyed local park and golf courses in the Miami Beach area to determine their suitability as camp sites. On May 15, 1972, they met with officials of the Miami Beach Police Department and expressed a desire for peaceful conventions and requested the use of Bayshore Golf Course in Miami Beach as a camp site. They indicated YIP will stage a ten-day festival from July 4 to 14, 1972, at Miami Beach to coincide with the Democratic Convention.

During the week of May 21, 1972, Hoffman and Rubin returned to Miami Beach with a group of YIP members and rented two penthouses at the Albion Hotel. They also obtained office space at the Meridian Medical Center, 1680 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, and opened an account at the First National Bank, Miami Beach. Thomas King Forcade, a New York City YIP activist and leader of an opposing YIP faction, also arrived in the Miami area the same week. Forcade rented a private home at 3113 May Street, in the Coconut Grove area of Miami and began preparations for a YIP publication to be entitled "Beach Blanket."

Because of the animosity between the Forcade and Hoffman-Rubin factions, a YIP "National Congress," which had been scheduled at Miami Beach, May 27-28, 1972, was cancelled. However, many YIP individuals had arrived for this purpose and on the afternoon of May 27, 1972, approximately 40 of them gathered at the home of Forcade to resolve the differences between the factions. Hoffman and his supporters staged a well-planned attack on Forcade blaming him for the problems and factionalism within YIP. Considerable time was devoted to Forcade's public claim that he was not paid sufficiently for collaborating with Hoffman in writing the book, "Steal this Book." At the conclusion of the meeting, a motion was passed by almost a unanimous vote of those present censuring Forcade for not privately resolving the issue concerning the book and expelling him from YIP as a "police provocateur and/or maniac." Forcade's supporters were encouraged to join with the others to consolidate YIP ranks. It was decided YIP activities will be directed by a collective of 12 or 13 members including Hoffman and Rubin, who will continue to act as YIP spokesmen due to their widespread popularity. Plans were made for publishing a "survival handbook" and various leaflets regarding YIP; however, no discussions were held at this meeting regarding activity during the Conventions.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN

(SCLC)

The June 8, 1972 issue of the "Chicago Daily News", a daily Chicago newspaper reflected an article captioned "Poor Plan Second Resurrection City". This article reflected Reverend Ralph Abernathy, National President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), appeared at an Operation Breadbasket fund raising dinner on June 7, 1972, held in Chicago, Illinois. During this dinner Abernathy announced that approximately 3,000 poor people will build Resurrection City Number Two at the forthcoming 1972 Democratic National Convention in Miami Beach, Florida. Reverend Abernathy further stated the poor will camp at Miami Beach "in the midst of the rich resort city" to highlight the need to quash poverty. Reverend Abernathy advised the plans to erect this poor people's camp were made approximately one week prior to June 7, 1972.

Operation Breadbasket is the economic arm of SCLC.

Hall defends proposal for Beach campsite

By ROBERT B. STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

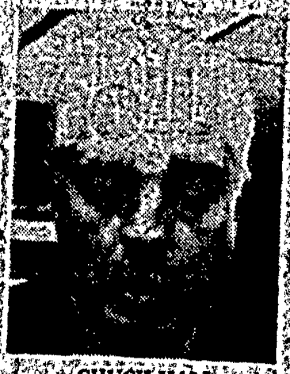
In the face of stiff opposition from his own city council, Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall today strongly defended his proposal to turn over a large campsite at Miami Beach to non-delegates expected here during the Democratic and Republican Conventions.

Hall told the Tiger Bay political club yesterday that he wants the non-delegates to be allowed to use the Miami Beach High School athletic field and an adjacent municipal par-3 golf course.

He reiterated today his contention that his proposal is a reasonable one and said it is absolutely essential that the council support his recommendation. A majority of the seven-member council came out in opposition to the proposal yesterday.

"I recognize that we're all subject to election and re-election and we all have a responsibility to the people," Hall said. "But our big responsibility is to protect the people from violence during the conventions.

"And there is no way to guarantee a completely peaceful convention except to plan in advance an emergency temporary encampment for those non-delegates who will not have a place to stay."



CHUCK HALL

At the Tiger Bay meeting, Hall proposed that the athletic field, located behind the high school, 2231 Prairie Ave., Miami Beach, be used as a primary site for the non-delegates.

The golf course, which borders the athletic field, would be used as an emergency site to handle any overflow, the mayor explained.

Hall said that under his plan, non-delegates would be allowed to use the campsite for a maximum of 10 days during the Democratic National Convention July 10-13.

and for another 10 days during the Republican National Convention Aug. 21-23.

In between the two conventions, Hall said, the non-delegates would not be given a campside. "It wouldn't be a summer-long thing," he said. "There would be no summer-long festival."

Within hours after his speech, a majority of the City Council voiced strong opposition to the proposals.

Three of the seven council members suggested that the city not provide any site for the non-delegates. Those three were Harold Rosen, Leonard Weinstein and Herbert Magnes.

Councilman Jerome Greene, said he opposed the mayor's plan, but would support an alternate site on the Beach.

He suggested that the non-delegates could camp out at the U.S. government reservation at the south end of the Beach, at the dog track parking lot if owners approved the move, at Watson Island, or at the old Port of Miami on the west side of Biscayne Bay.

The other two councilmen — Robert Goodman and Dr. Leonard Haber — said they thought Hall's suggestion was premature.

Hall told The Miami News today that he plans to speak with the councilmen soon to persuade them of the necessity of providing the sites he has suggested.

"I can only only hope that they will listen to me," Hall said. "I need my council to back me up. I wish it could be unanimous."

He said the council will probably consider the matter at its next regular meeting next Wednesday.

Last night, Jeff Nightbird, a member of the Youth International Party who met with Hall last week to negotiate a campsite for the expected crowds of non-delegates, said his group believes Hall's latest proposals are "a significant step forward" in the negotiations.

"On the surface, the mayor's proposal seems acceptable and suitable to our needs," Nightbird said. "The thrust of his proposal is basically sound."

Nightbird said that Yippie representatives, in negotiations with Hall and other city officials, have requested the use of Bayshore Municipal Golf Course during the conventions, and if possible would still like to secure that site for non-delegates.

However, Nightbird said that if negotiations stall on use of the golf course, his group would be willing to settle for the Beach High athletic field and the par three golf course, provided the city also includes Collins Park at 21st Street and Collins Avenue in its offer.

Thirteen organizers for the Youth International Party, including activists Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, have been in town for the past two weeks, working out of a three-room suite in the Milton Medical Building at 1674 Meridian Ave., Miami Beach.

RE: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "Participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant workingclass movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

RE: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP-NC, scheduled for May 26-28, 1972, at Miami, Florida, was canceled. TOM FORCADE (YIP factional leader) in its place scheduled a three-day conclave at his residence, 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. The conclave was to begin with a "banquet" at that address. A planning and stragedy session would be held the following day.

MM T-9
May 26, 1972

The YIP conclave commenced on the evening of May 26, 1972, at the residence of TOM FORCADE, 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Florida. Approximately 25, the majority from Madison, Wisconsin, were in attendance. Admission was restricted to individuals known to FORCADE. The conclave was totally disorganized. Nothing was accomplished. Discussions centered around previous YIP activities and previous arrests of those present. A number present indicated a displeasure at the cancellation of the YIP-NC. They stated they may leave Florida the following day.

MM T-9
May 27, 1972

The planning and stragedy session of the YIP conclave was held at the home of TOM FORCADE in Coconut Grove, Florida. It commenced at 2:00 P.M. with approximately 40 in attendance. RUBIN and HOFFMAN were expected to attend. Attempts were to be made to work out the differences between these two factions. HOFFMAN and his supporters arrived at the meeting and commenced to stage an obvious, well-planned attack against FORCADE. They blamed him for all the difficulties and factional divisions within the YIP. Considerable time was devoted to a discussion of FORCADE's public claim that he was not paid sufficiently for corroborating with HOFFMAN on the book entitled "Steal This Book". A decision was made to submit this controversy to a panel of "Movement" people rather than to a court of law. Virtually the entire meeting was devoted to the vicious attack on FORCADE. The arguments against him were well timed and effective. A motion was passed censuring FORCADE for not privately resolving the issue concerning the book. He was expelled from the YIP and was specifically named a "police provacateur and/or a maniac". This motion passed by a vote of 32 to 3 with four abstentions.

The "people's court" ruled against FORCADE but told HOFFMAN to pay him $1,500.00. HOFFMAN did but marked the check "paid in full". FORCADE, believing he would not have a claim any more against HOFFMAN under New York law if he accepted the check, turned it back to HOFFMAN's lawyer. Reportedly he is now suing HOFFMAN for $30,000.00 in a court of law.

FORCADE at times acted like a "wild man". At one point he picked up a pair of scissors and severely carved up the paneling of a wall in the house where the conclave was being held.

MM T-9
May 27, 1972

During the planning and stragedy session of the YIP conclave on May 27, 1972, a decision was made that YIP would be formed into a collective with 12 or so members, including HOFFMAN and RUBIN. All decisions would be made by the collective. HOFFMAN and RUBIN could continue to act publicly as YIP spokesmen due to their wide-spread popularity.

A decision was made also that during the coming weeks time would be devoted to preparing and publishing a "Survival Handbook" and various YIP leaflets. According to the source, it was doubtful any convention planning would occur during this period.

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

III. YIP ACTIVITY IN MIAMI, FLORIDA

ABBE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, members of the YIP collective, planned to attend a rock concert, Virginia Key, Miami, Florida, on the afternoon of May 28, 1972. Instead, however, they met with members of the San Diego Convention Coalition.

THE PEOPLE OF MIAMI BEACH FACE A DISASTEROUS SITUATION THIS SUMMER. AS YOU KNOW, SEVERAL HUNDRED THOUSAND YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN WILL COME TO MIAMI BEACH DURING THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS. THEY WILL COME TO SPEAK OUT AGAINST SUCH THINGS AS THE WAR IN VIETNAM, UNJUST TAXATION, DESTRUCTION OF THE LAND, AS WELL AS TO ENJOY THE FORMATION OF A NEW AND HAPPY COMMUNITY FOR YOUNG AND OLD ALIKE.

THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY HAS COME TO MIAMI BEACH TO FOCUS PROTESTS AND THE ENERGY OF YOUNG PEOPLE IN A POSITIVE AND PEACEFUL MANNER. WE HAVE BEGUN NEGOTIATING WITH THE CITY IN GOOD FAITH FOR SLEEPING FACILITIES WHICH WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH THE LIVES OF THE PEOPLE WHO LIVE HERE.

BUT WE EXPECT MORE THAN 100,000. THERE ARE NO ARRANGEMENTS AT THIS TIME FOR PLACES TO SLEEP, PLACES TO EAT, AREAS TO SING AND DANCE, SANITATION, SHADE, AND ROUTES AND LOCATIONS FOR DEMONSTRATIONS. WE WILL HAVE A PEACEFUL SUMMER IF THE CITY STOPS DRAGGING ITS FEET AND STARTS NEGOTIATING WITH US. BUT WITHOUT PLANNING, WE ARE HEADED FOR THE CHAOS OF CHICAGO.

YOU CAN HELP US CREATE A PEACEFUL SUMMER. BY URGING YOUR CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIALS TO STOP STALLING AND START PLANNING. WE OF THE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY RESPECT THE PEOPLE OF MIAMI BEACH AND ARE TOTALLY CONCERNED FOR THE WELFARE AND SAFETY OF YOU, THE GOLDEN RESIDENTS OF THIS AREA. SNOWPLOW, THE ONLY OTHER ORGANIZATION AIMED AT TAKING CARE OF PEOPLE'S NEEDS, HAS DISBANDED FOR LACK OF COOPERATION FROM GOVERNMENTAL OFFICIALS. WE ARE THE ONLY ORGANIZED GROUP WITH THE PEOPLE POWER, EXPERIENCE, AND GOOD INTENTIONS TO MAKE IT HAPPEN. HELP US CREATE A PEACEFUL AND POSITIVE EVENT BY URGING YOUR GOVERNMENTAL REPRESENTATIVES TO BEGIN PLANNING IMMEDIATLY. CALL YOUR MAYOR'S OFFICE AT 534-7511.

MIKE WALLACE, national news commentator, with a camera crew visited the YIP office at Miami Beach on May 29, 1972, and interviewed the YIP collective.

SUSI CREAMCHEESE, youth culture hero, formerly with FRANK ZAPPA's rock band, visited the YIP offices at Miami Beach, Florida.

Some YIPs, who formerly had been with the FORCADE faction, visited the YIP office on Miami Beach, then were placed in a villa in North Miami by that office.

The VVAW notified ABBE HOFFMAN they were with him rather than the FORCADE faction.

The Gray Panthers, elderly residents of Miami Beach, all of whom are over 65, visited the YIP office. They stated they did not want to be considered second-class citizens. They wanted to discuss with the YIPs their plans for the conventions at Miami Beach. It was decided a rally would be held with this "wheel chair brigade" on Saturday, June 3, 1972, at Lummus Park, Miami Beach, Florida.

ABBE HOFFMAN departed for New York City May 30, 1972.

RE: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

A fight occurred at the YIP headquarters, Miami Beach, on May 30, 1972. TOM FORCADE (YIP factional leader) and his people attempted to crash the office. Yippie rebel calls were sounded and those present, including ABBE HOFFMAN, formed a barricade and a fighting wedge and ejected FORCADE and his followers from the office. FORCADE was screaming and called for HOFFMAN to come out and fight. FORCADE's followers pulled him into the elevator but before the door had closed HOFFMAN spit in his face. Later the area was scouted by YIP members and it was reported FORCADE was walking around the building with a gasoline can.

A girl, who claims to work for the National Democratic Committee, visited the YIP offices on May 30, 1972. She stated politically her heart was with the YIPs. She furnished information such as what the VIPs at the National Democratic Committee were discussing. She advised she was for MC GOVERN and indicated she had participated in national campaigns, including Hawaii. She was described as a slightly stocky individual, good-looking, long dark hair, and tanned.

FD-350 (Rev. 7-16-63)

Scenes

NEARLY FOUR FULL YEARS have rolled by since the Festival of Life in Chicago erupted into a televised mass nightmare, and once again it's convention time. For over a year now, we've heard cries of "just wait until San Diego" from Movement leaders, but recent events have called for a change of strategy. This year's counter-convention will take place in Miami, and will play opposite the Democrats rather than the Republicans, with Hubie once again emerging as the most immediate threat.

Organizers for YIP (the word "yippie" has been abandoned for 1972) have set up headquarters there at 1674 Meridian Avenue, Room 201, to lay plans for "10 Days to Change the World." The collective, grouped loosely around old-time activists like Ed Sanders, Patty/ Oldenburg, Gabbie Chang, Jerry Rubin, and Abbie Hoffman, claims to be negotiating with Miami officials for a festival site and hopes to attract thousands of faithfuls to turn out between July 4 (Independence Day) and July 14 (Bastille Day). What makes a YIP think Miami will give them a site? "If we get the site, we'll make sure everybody's cleared out by the 14th, six weeks before the Republicans come. That way, the police will have one less convention to worry about. We're the only people who can prevent a riot down here this summer."

Preventing a riot is uppermost in the collective YIP brain. They figure another Chicago can only hurt McGovern's chances, and seeing him nominated is what they want most. But can violence possibly be avoided? The testimony of many a recent rock festival would certainly indicate otherwise. Even overlooking the inevitable problem of outside agitators (and Miami's population of right-wing Cubans will make this hard to overlook), what about the growing contingent of pushers, rip-off artists, and apolitical punks who are becoming permanent fixtures at counter-cultural events? Certainly the let's-back-McGovern rationale won't keep these losers in line. Does YIP think it can deal with this?

"I think we can," Abbie told me. "The philosophy of greed operates from the top down. At rock festivals, it's assumed that the promoters are in it to make as much money as they can and then clear out, so everyone just rips off whatever they can. But I think con artists will meet great hostility from the other people who came to Miami to celebrate and demonstrate. We'll have to police the pushers, muggers, and rapists that show up ourselves."

It remains to be seen if this kind of reasoning is hopelessly optimistic or not. But YIP has begun making strategy moves to discourage the development of a rip-off psychology. Collective members are pouring pre-convention energies into putting together a 120-page handbook on "How to Survive in Miami," which they plan to distribute nationally during June; the book is described as stressing "politics and morality." The co-op plans to sponsor free drug-analysis booths to discourage both indiscriminate users and money-mad peddlers of death. And they've made the wise decision not to advertise any specific rock groups ahead of time: if they show, they show.

Pepper says officials here should provide convention campsite

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

U.S. Rep. Claude Pepper says local officials should offer protesters and other non-delegates a campsite and sanitation facilities during the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

In an interview with The Miami News yesterday, Pepper said federal officials told him they will "provide or share in providing" sanitation facilities for non-delegates during the conventions.

"I think it's desirable that those who wish to express their opinions peacefully have a place to gather," the Florida Democrat said.

"If they come in peace as American citizens to gather and express their views in a peaceful way, I would be more than willing to have them come down here," he added.

Pepper, whose 11th Congressional District includes Miami Beach — site of the two conventions this summer — made the remarks after attending a meeting of the Inter-American Center Authority at the Marriott Motel in Miami.

The congressman is the highest ranking public official to endorse the idea of providing an encampment for non-delegates.

He said local officials should grant the visitors a campsite because if the non-delegates have a place to reside at Miami Beach "they will be less disposed to violence."

"I was in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention in 1968," Pepper said, "and we heard complaints from the demonstrators there that they were driven out of their campgrounds.

REP. CLAUDE PEPPER

"I think the riots we had in Chicago indicate that it is better to provide some public areas for people who want to demonstrate and protest during the convention."

Pepper said he does not believe that non-delegates should necessarily be provided with food and shelter, but that they should be provided at least with open space for camping and with sanitary facilities.

He declined to name specific sites but suggested that the non-delegates be given a site near the Beach Convention Hall on Washington Avenue at 17th Street, the conventions will be held at the hall.

A coordinating committee of representatives of nine protest groups planning demonstrations during the conventions has requested four sites on Miami Beach — Bayshore Municipal Golf Course, the Par Three Golf Course, Flamingo Park and the 21st Street Beach.

The Miami Beach City Council has deferred action until it receives a report from City Manager Clifford O'Key.

On 6/14/72 there were no definite plans as yet as far as the YIP was concerned in regard to the conventions. According to source a "cool" it attitude was now the thing in view of the fact that it appeared MC GOVERN was a cinch for the presidential nomination and the YIP did not want to do anything to jeopardize that. It was indicated JERRY RUBIN in New York had comtemplated more or less campaigning or supporting MC GOVERN actively but it had been decided this was inadvisable so he would not.

WAS [redacted] FROM NEW YORK NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED.

MOST OF THE TIME WAS TAKEN UP BY LENGTHLY DISCUSSIONS CONCERNING PLANS FOR THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION. THE GROUPS REPRESENTED HAVE NO INTENTION OF STAGING ACTIONS AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION. THESE DISCUSSIONS CENTERED AROUND THE CONFLICT OF INTEREST BETWEEN THE SUBSTANTIAL NUMBERS OF SENIOR CITIZENS IN DADE COUNTY ON THE ONE HAND, AND THE "MAY DAY GRADUATES" ON THE OTHER HAND. THE MAY DAY GRADUATES IS A TERM UNDERSTOOD TO MEAN THE VETERANS OF VIOLENT PROTEST ACTIONS IN OTHER PARTS OF THE NATION IN YEARS PAST.

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES EMPHASIZED TO THE GROUPS FROM OTHER AREAS THAT THE LARGE NUMBER OF SENIOR CITIZENS IN DADE COUNTY ARE A MINORITY GROUP OF SIGNIFICANCE BECAUSE OF THEIR SIZE AND POLITICAL STRENGTH. THEY NOTED THAT THE LOCAL NEWS MEDIA COULD BE EXPECTED TO SUPPORT THE SENIOR CITIZENS IN ANY DIFFERENCES WHICH MAY ARISE AND ONE INDIVIDUAL VOICES VERY STRONGLY HIS FEAR THAT THE MEDIA

WOULD "RIP THE MOVEMENT APART" IF ANYTHING HAPPENED WHICH WAS OPPOSED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE SENIOR CITIZENS.

THE PROBLEM OF HOW TO RESOLVE THE GREAT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE MOVEMENT PEOPLE AND THE SENIOR CITIZENS IS A VERY DIFFICULT ONE FOR WHICH THE MEETING WAS UNABLE TO FIND A SATISFACTORY SOLUTION. THE FAILURE TO RESOLVE THIS ISSUED PROMPTED SERIOUS LENGTHLY DISCUSSIONS AS TO THE ADVISABILITY OF HOLDING THE NATIONAL ACTIONS ELSEWHERE IN THE NATION AND NOT IN MIAMI BEACH. AS THIS DISCUSSION PROGRESSED, IT BECAME APPARENT THAT WHILE SOME PRESENT FAVORED DEMONSTRATIONS IN MIAMI BEACH BY LOCAL PEOPLE ONLY, THEY WERE OVERRULED BY THE MAJORITY WHICH FAVORED CONTINUING PLANS FOR NATIONAL ACTIONS IN MIAMI BEACH BY AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE.

THE DISCUSSIONS ALSO CONTINUED CONCERNING THE ADVISABILITY OF NOT CONDUCTING DISRUPTIVE AND CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE ACTIONS AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT ALL BECAUSE OF THE DESIRE OF THE MOVEMENT TO DO NOTHING WHICH MIGHT HURT THE CANDIDACY OF SENATOR GEORGE MC GOVERN WHO NOW APPEARS TO BE A LIKELY DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE. NO DECISION WAS REACHED ON THIS ISSUED.

SPECIFIC DETAILED PLANS WERE NOT FORMULATED BUT GENERALIZED PROPOSALS FINALLY EMERGED FROM THE DISCUSSIONS FOR ACTIONS DURING THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AS FOLLOWS:

THE FIRST DAY. A LONG PEACEFUL MARCH BY AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE IN THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY OF THE MIAMI BEACH CONVENTION HALL WITH A MAXIMUM NUMBER OF PLACARDS AND BANNERS BEARING APPROPRIATE SLOGANS.

THE SECOND DAY. MASS CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE REFERRED TO AS A "MORAL DEMONSTRATION" IN THE FORM OF A SITDOWN IMMEDIATELY IN FRONT OF THE CONVENTION HALL. THIS ENTAILS "HERDING PEOPLE LIKE CATTLE" INTO A SMALL AREA WHERE THEY ARE TO SIT DOWN AND REFUSE TO MOVE THEREBY IMMOBILIZING THE CONVENTION DELEGATES. THIS IS VISUALIZED AS A "HIGHLY STRUCTURED" ACTION WHICH MEANS IN THE LANGUAGE OF THE MOVEMENT A DISCIPLINED ACTION INVOLVING ONLY PASSIVE RESISTANCE AND

NO VIOLENCE WHATSOEVER. A FEW FAVORED MORE MILITANT ACTION IN THE FORM OF "UNSTRUCTURED MASS CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE" BUT THEY WERE OUTVOTED BY THE MAJORITY.

THE THIRD DAY. BECAUSE OF THE GEOGRAPHICAL CONSIDERATIONS WHICH MAKE IT POSSIBLE FOR THE FORCES OF LAW AND ORDER TO PROVIDE A HIGH DEGREE OF PROTECTION TO THE CONVENTION HALL IN MIAMI BEACH, IT IS CONTEMPLATED THAT ACTIONS WILL BE SHIFTED A FEW MILES NORTH ON THE THIRD DAY AND THEY WILL BE CENTERED IN SMALLER COMMUNITIES OF THE NORTHERN PARTS OF THE MIAMI BEACH AREA.

THE INFORMANT INDICATED THAT THESE HEAVY DISCUSSIONS HAVE BEEN CONCLUDED FOR THE TIME BEING EVEN THOUGH SOME ISSUES REMAIN UNRESOLVED. IT IS EXPECTED THAT INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS CONCERNING ABOVE MATTERS WILL CONTINUE RIGHT UP TO CONVENTION TIME.

Said file and record searches and police contacts also failed to develop any information concerning a GAA Chicago chapter, a National Coalition of Gay Organizations (NCGO), or the Rainbow Tribe, an alleged violence-prone element of the Purple Star Tribe, an alleged Gay Liberation organization.

It is noted Chicago previously advised by nitel to the Bureau (copy to Miami) dated 4/7/72 under Gay Liberation Front and MIDEM captions, that investigation, including indices search, failed to identify or develop any information concerning the Purple Star Tribe in the Chicago area.

Investigation to date at Chicago, including contacts with sources listed above, as well as with logical informants, has failed to develop any information to indicate any actual organizational activity has been undertaken by any element of the street movement, including Gay Liberation, for mass, group or organizational appearance for demonstration or any other activity at the Democratic or Republican national political conventions during the summer of 1972 at Miami Beach, Florida. Unquestionably, individuals and possibly even organized groups from Chicago will be present at Miami Beach. There is just no indication, at this time, that such activity is being seriously considered or organized by any element and no specific assertions by individuals or groups have been made that they will be in Miami Beach.

Chicago will continue to remain alert for such information. If developed, it will be immediately furnished to the Bureau, Miami and interested Offices by the most expeditious means followed in form suitable for dissemination with appropriate recommendations by Chicago.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

Information has been developed that several Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) activists are in possession of firearms and intend to engage in disruptions and violent acts during future demonstrations, including demonstrations during forthcoming political conventions in Miami. From 5/27-29/72 [redacted] violence-prone leader of VVAW in Southeast U. S., hosted a meeting of VVAW southern region. During meeting bizarre plans were laid for violent tactics during political conventions in Miami, including use of firearms and crossbows to fire on Miami police and also use of "wrist rockets," form of sling shot which uses fishing weights, marbles or ball bearings as ammunition. During meeting [redacted] also claimed he has four or five "fire groups" which will be used for tactical maneuvers during the conventions to create diversions, such as fire bombings and use of cherry bombs. Earlier in May, 1972, information was received from a source in Miami with whom there was insufficient contact to determine reliability, that a shipment of guns had been made to [redacted] in Gainesville, Florida, from Chicago and from another point in the Far West to be used during the Democratic National Convention. Information indicated that the weapons were stored in a trailer behind VVAW headquarters, Gainesville, and consisted of grenades, rifles, shotguns and possibly automatic weapons.

Department has referred to the gravity of this matter and requested that all FBI sources within VVAW be contacted for knowledge of any proposed VVAW terrorist activities planned for Miami during the political conventions, including the involvement of any other national leaders or regional VVAW groups. Department has also requested that all FBI sources within VVAW be contacted for knowledge of any shipments of weapons to the Gainesville, Florida, area from any points in the United States.

All recipients immediately contact VVAW sources and report positive information developed in response to Department request by most expeditious means warranted and in form suitable for dissemination. Negative responses will not be necessary. In view of increasing VVAW militancy and tendency to become involved in civil disobedience demonstrations, you are instructed to continue intensive efforts to insure adequate live informant coverage of VVAW is effected and plans of VVAW for engaging in violence and/or disorders are immediately furnished Bureau and other pertinent law enforcement agencies.

A meeting of the Miami Conventions Coalition, core group together with some Yippie influence, was held Monday evening, June 12, 1972, at Lummus Park across from the Victoria Hotel, Ocean Avenue, Miami Beach. The following were among those in attendance:

b7C

Those in attendance discussed the problems being encountered relating to both senior citizens and Mayday type activists at the same time. The activists have expressed dissatisfaction over the lack of planned activity and consideration is being given to targeting these activists to hotels on Miami Beach north of the convention center. In this way there would be no problems at the convention center but the activists could do their thing, such as attempting to block delegates from entering and exiting their hotels, during the convention. This would be more or less token activity.

The fear of too much discipline was expressed, which many feel would result in a loss of radical support and effectiveness of their efforts.

Official reassurance was given Wednesday for the 88,000 permanent residents of Miami Beach that their medical emergencies will not be neglected to take care of thousands of visitors during the two political conventions.

Frank Spence, assistant city manager of Miami Beach said, "Our obligation in operating our fire-rescue units is delivering services to our citizenry first. We intend to do that."

He told a meeting of the committee planning emergency services for 20,000 or more non-delegates expected to converge on Dade County that Miami Beach emergency rescue services will be enlarged, even though the committee's program is intended to cover the non-delegate emergencies separate from city services.

"INSTEAD OF having three fire-rescue units on the streets at any time, we will have five at all times and all of our fire units will be doubled in manpower during the conventions," Spence said. "The citizenry will be more than adequately covered as far as fire and medical services are concerned."

Spence explained that the extra manpower will come from canceled vacations and rearranged work schedules. The city has also recently bought three ambulances, doubling its present service which is the only city operation in the area to have doctors on board the ambulances. Of the six rescue vehicles five will be on duty at all times with one on standby, Spence said.

The committee, set up by County Manager Ray Goode under the auspices of the Health Planning Council of South Florida, figures it will need 330 people — mostly volunteers — for every 24-hour period during the peak two weeks of the Democratic and Republican conventions. Volunteers are also expected to be on standby for the five weeks in between the conventions, when the "non-delegate" group is expected to stay in the area.

Doctors, nurses, paramedics, medical students and people already involved with drug treatment programs are being recruited. So are interested laymen. The American Red Cross is the center for all offers of volunteer assistance.

DEPENDENT UPON their degree of medical expertise and the jobs they will be doing, volunteers will be put through a short course in first aid, recognition and treatment of drug overdoses, mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and the techniques of "street medicine."

Besides a main treatment center, planned for an as yet undesignated place on Miami Beach, plus five mobile units, the emergency program anticipates teams of four street medics fanning out into the crowds, armed with backpacks of first aid supplies and citizen band radios.

"Because they will be walking, these teams will have more mobility than other parts of the system," says the committee report.

Their function will be to accompany marches or be stationed along march routes, "crowd scanning," working on the fringes of active confrontations giving aid to anybody, police, demonstrators or bystanders, if needed.

THE ACCENT is on first aid — not major medical treatment. If cuts need to be sewn up, they will be sent to hospital emergency rooms, not stitched up by street medics or even in the first aid stations.

And when it comes to drugs, the Miamians will be trained to give aid on the spot — not to recruit more patients for Dade County's drug rehabilitation programs.

"Basically we need to provide whatever acute, supportive measures are necessary so the visitor returns back home alive and in good health," said Dr. Dan Seckinger of the group's drug subcommittee. "There is going to be no effort at rehabilitation of the chronic drug problem, though we are going to find out as rapidly as possible what the problem is."

Plans are under way to put doctors and paramedical personnel through a seminar on drug treatment June 23 to 25, Dr. Seckinger said. The site for this is not yet settled.

"We hope to bring in some of the top talent in the U.S. (to teach)," he added. Besides volunteers for the conventions, hospital emergency room staffs are likely to attend this briefing on drugs.

The list of the leaders and members contained in the bulletin appears to be a list written from memory of the New York JDL leaders and members who have been reported by the news media as having been involved in JDL demonstrations in the New York area during the past two years which has resulted in their arrests. It is noted that the names contained in the list are almost without exception badly misspelled.

State Police Told To Wear Badges While on Duty

TALLAHASSEE — (UPI) — Florida Highway Patrolmen assigned to convention duty will be wearing their numbered police badges at all times, but can take off their name tags when a superior officer decides that a tense situation warrants it, patrol officials said Wednesday.

Col. Lee Simmons, the deputy patrol commander, said there has been some discussion of enlarging the serial number tags to make identification easier in the confusion of a confrontation between officers and protestors.

Simmons said no final decision has been reached on that possibility, but that it appears doubtful because there is so little time to buy bigger numeral tags and get them distributed.

Ralph Davis, director of the Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles Department, said patrolmen often remove their name tags so that demonstrators cannot take names and later "harass" the officers and their families.

He said name tags are not removed unless a superior officer passes the word, and that police badges — bearing distinct numbers — are never removed.

"It won't be any different than any confrontation they go into," he said. "This came from incidents over the past six years, where there have been threats to the families of highway patrolmen."

Col. Simmons said any protestor who gets roughed up by the police and wants to file a complaint can note the offending officer's badge number, if he is not wearing his name tag.

"If he's close enough that he could read the name, he can read the number instead," said Simmons. "We hope it won't happen, though."

He said only lieutenants and higher-ranking officers have badges with no numbers, "and there's not enough of them that you couldn't remember them anyway."

DNC training ends for police

Special security training leading to the Democratic National Convention winds up this weekend for the 250-man Beach police force and other key Dade County and City of Miami personnel.

The three-month program, financed by a $400,000 grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, has concentrated primarily on behavorial and psychological workshops designed to instill an open-minded attitude in security officers toward handling demonstrations at the political conventions.

"I think the men are very knowledgeable of all contingencies which may arise during the convention," Beach police Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier pointed out.

Beach police will continue on a routine 8-hour, 5-day-a-week shift until the convention. But during convention week, police will work 12-hour shifts.

Kruidenier added any changes in security procedures for the Republican convention in August would be based on what transpired during the Democratic conclave.

He also held open the possibility that new ordinances designed to guarantee a peaceful summer may be recommended by police chief Rocky Pomerance.

Last week Council upon Pomerance's urging, passed an emergency ordinance leveling a stiff penalty on persons marching in Miami Beach without a parade permit.

Meanwhile in Tallahassee, special training in handling demonstrations at the two conventions began yesterday for 400 state law enforcement officers at Florida State University.

"This training will be tremendously helpful to our state law enforcement officers. Not only in preparing them for the conventions' assignment but in performing their regular duties and any future civil disorder assignments once the conventions are over," said Gov. Reubin Askew.

LEAA gave Florida a $30,000 grant for the week-long training program in "Civil disorder prevention and control." Courses are being conducted by officers of the Army, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and many state and local agencies.

The State Highway Patrol has assigned 250 officers and troopers to convention duty; the Marine Patrol, 51, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission has assigned 48 wardens, and the Beverage Division has assigned 50 of its agents.

Convention Newsmen Object To Secret Service Screening

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The U.S. Secret Service's power to screen the press credentials of all newsmen covering the Democratic National Convention might lead to "an unprecedented veto of who will cover the convention," a group of journalists, charged with assigning space to news organizations, said Wednesday.

The Democratic National committee Wednesday officially announced that all persons receiving any type of press credentials to the convention must provide personal information to the Secret Service.

Requested information includes full name, age, sex, date and place of birth, Social Security number, current state, city and street address, telephone number, employer and occupations.

The information is to be sent to Secret Service convention headquarters in Miami Beach and is to be received no later than June 26, the Democratic committee said.

THE STANDING Committee of Correspondents, the group charged with press arrangements for coverage of Congress, the conventions and presidential inaugurals, said it takes sharp exception to the plan.

Other than giving the Secret Service a possible veto on who covers the story, the move "undermines the traditional authority of accreditation so long held by this committee," the organization said.

In a statement, the organization added:

"Recognizing the need for security, we believe that this committee should be consulted on standards and procedures before any member of the press is summarily excluded from the convention."

'Concerned' group backs campsites

The Rev. Jack Cassidy, coordinator of Religious and Community Leaders Concerned, said yesterday the group backs the idea of providing at least one campsite to non-delegates for this summer's national political conventions.

Cassidy told the Tiger Bay political club that "practically all" of the churches represented by his group stand willing to provide emergency food and housing if the need arises.

But none of the demonstrator groups has expressed an interest in staying in a church. They want an open space," he said.

Included in the RCLC are the Archdiocese of Miami, the Rabbinical Association of Greater Miami, the Greater Miami Jewish Federation, the Southeast Diocese of the Episcopal Church, the United Church of Christ, the United Methodist Church, the United Presbyterian Church, the Lutheran Church in America, the Southern Baptist Church and the Florida Council of Churches.

The RCLC, Cassidy said, has made arrangements to:

- Set up an interfaith center in the convention hall.
- Participate in the rumor control center.
- Solicit services and facilities from churches and synagogues including meeting rooms, child care facilities and emergency food and shelter.
- Solicit housing in private homes for delegates and non-delegates who cannot afford hotel accommodations.

Delegation for demonstrators will talk with Task Force here

A representative of a coalition of nine organizations planning demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention July 10-13 will address the Governor's Convention Task Force tomorrow.

The task force will meet in a split session starting at 4 p.m. at the Dupont Plaza Hotel. The first hour will be a closed security meeting featuring George Rodericks, the director of the Mayor's Civil Defense Command Post in Washington D.C.

Rodericks has agreed to serve as a consultant to County Manager Ray Goode during the conventions.

Also slated for the security meeting are Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance, Miami Police Chief Bernard Garmire, Bill Reed, director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Miami City Manager Melvin Reese and Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key.

The second half of the meeting will be an open discussion of the 19 task force members and will include a presentation by a representative of the Convention Coalition, a group of nine demonstrator groups.

Also on the agenda for the second half will be discussion of a proposal made last week by Miami News Editor Sylvan Meyer that arrangements be made to provide some sort of entertainment as an effort to keep non-delegates occupied during the convention period.

Gov. Askew last night added two more members to the Task force — Mitchel Wolfson, chairman of Wometco Enterprises, and Sid Levin, general manager of radio station WKAT.

CONVENTION COUNTDOWN

TALLAHASSEE — (UPI) — Gov. Reubin Askew told state policemen Wednesday their handling of protesters at Miami Beach this summer will greatly influence the future of American political conventions.

Askew told the men they are being sent to the Beach as a back-up force to support the municipal and Dade County officers. He cautioned them against using force to stifle dissent, but added that they do not have to permit violence by the demonstrators.

"You stand at the crossroads," Askew said. "It's my feeling that how well we're able to handle back-to-back conventions, with a period in between, will determine whether other communities are ever willing to have them."

Reubin Askew
... 'crossroads'

Askew, the keynote speaker at the National Democratic Convention next month, addressed about 180 state highway patrolmen, beverage agents, game wardens, and marine patrolmen. They are among 400 attending a week-long seminar on civil disorders being held at Florida State University in preparation for the big conventions.

"I can't over-emphasize to you, without being overly dramatic, that you're going to play a part in history," said Askew. "Our whole system will be on trial — I don't think any group has the right to intimidate the process by which we choose our leaders."

The governor said there has been "excellent cooperation" between all state and federal agencies in piecing together a convention task force that he said might serve as a nucleus for an "additional unit of response in future emergencies."

In addition to the state law enforcement department and the police agencies sending officers to the convention, the seminar features lectures by the FBI and U.S. Army.

"All of us are in this together," said Askew. "No amount of training can anticipate every problem, this will be up to you."

"Certainly, violence is an unacceptable means of expressing dissent," Askew said. "But it is an equally unacceptable means of preventing the lawful expression of dissent."

The governor also told the officers not to get discouraged if their actions in times of stress are second-guessed after the conventions by critics who were not on the scene.

"I recognize that your job is not an easy one," he said. "I also recognize that in retrospect, it is easy, a week or two later, to assess a particular situation."

Undercover Agents Already Peeking Along the Beach

CLOAK AND SWAGGERSTICK: U.S. military intelligence, as it did in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention of 1968, already is operating extensively in Miami in preparation for the two conventions this summer. The Pentagon got burned by Congress for spying on such civilians as Adlai Stevenson III in 1968, so intelligence is more subtle this year. Agents are being "borrowed" by the Justice Department, the Secret Service and other federal agencies. "The Defense Department will be reimbursed by the other agencies for our manpower," said a Pentagon colonel.

The National Lawyers Guild is a communist front organization of lawyers and law students dedicated to Communist Party, USA, and New Left ideals for radical change of the social, economic, and judicial systems in the United States.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows on June 13, 1972:

An individual by the name of [redacted] phone [redacted], was in attendance as a delegate to the National Lawyers Guild National Executive Committee Meeting held at Wayne University, Detroit, Michigan, on June 3-4, 1972.

[redacted] made an announcement during the conference that he is the official National Lawyers Guild member who is in charge of setting up legal defense arrangements to handle any legal problems which may arise as a result of protest activity which takes place during the forthcoming Democratic and Republican Conventions to be held in Miami, Florida, during the summer of 1972. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised persons in attendance that he expects to have the assistance of approximately thirty other persons affiliated with the National Lawyers Guild Chapters throughout the United States who will assist him in handling the legal defense matters during these conventions. newspaper "Vietnam GI", and sent close to 500 veterans into the McCarthy campaign to beat down the red baiters. After getting gassed at the Democratic Convention in Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the fall of 1969. Members of the VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and battled Veterans Administration Hospital authorities over threats to throw amputee Vietnam veterans out for signing anti-war petitions. At present, membership of the VVAW nationally, consists of 8,500 members.

MIAMI CALLING--

To Change the World

"Ten Days to Change The World" —that's what they call it. And here's the official "Call".

******

The Youth International Party invites everyone in the United States to come to Miami Beach for a Celebration of Change, to occur from July 10 to July 14 and August 20 to August 24. We will create, in Miami Beach, a political-cultural demonstration of benign and peaceful magnitude—a zone of sanity and sharing for inspired Americans of many persuasions. Together in this joyous unity we will lay plans to disturb the coming machine-like tread of the Republican kingmakers.

The United States is rapidly becoming a nation doomed by its own monied corruption, violence, racism, pollution and amoral materialism. Congress's strength is ripped off by arrogant, macho power-brokers in the Executive Branch promising no future for us but a decadent Roman Imperium.

The Youth International Party strongly suspects that Richard Nixon is possessed by such an intense personal need for the nations of the world to grovel before his war-room throne, that the convolutions and revolutions of the world in the months to come, may cause him to join the society of foamy-mouths.

Baleful winds of repression wait to be unleashed from the dark caves of the Republican Party. Everywhere bitter crowds of American citizens view the corruption and illicit wars of the government with total revulsion. War, social slavery, sexism, racism are peddled and packaged by monster capitalist conglomerates as the true America. If that is America, there is nothing for an American citizen to look foreward to but a long life of pain in a fearsome valley of robot violence.

The Youth International Party gathers for resistance and change. We are the direct descendants of a freedom and justice seeking people which links us with every century, with every decent cause, with every plant and mammal that ever lived.

We are freedom and sharing

We are women and men reborn in change

We are socialism

We are the grain

We are the sunflowers reaching to the sun

We will change our country by any means necessary

We are freeshare

There is nothing for America but floating platforms of war over dead jungles unless we rise up in a wave of change. We have an inalienable right to cross state lines to share, to seek peace, to speak against war, to demand honesty in our government and to command ourselves in our own ways of freedom. We will not let our country be taken over by a fierce, elite, jaded caste of blood-money-hungry power-brokers living the life of the damned. We stand atop the seawall of ecology, freeshare and change. We stand at the barricades of decency and beauty.

We want change!

We want to change the environment!

We want to change the economy!

Change the government!

Change the culture! Change your spirit!

Change your diet! Change your sex!

Ex-change everything!

We ill gather near the convention site to point toward the deep change American civilization must undergo in order to create peace in the world. We seek the immediate goal of freeing all political prisoners. We demand that women have complete control of their own minds and bodies. People will be free to express their sexuality in peace and joy. Restrictive laws against marijuana will end, and the military economy will be dismantled.

We will continue changes with unconditional amnesty for draft refusers and from those who managed to escape from the grasp of the armed forces. We will demand a total end to all racism, to all sexism, and to the class system which leaves one of every four Americans impoverished in resources and spirit. We will seek to end the American tax system which spares the rich while burying the working person beneath a mountain of cruel and evil taxation.

We are taking every step to create ten days of peaceful openness and positive action, not to mention music, water and fun in the sun. We will only have peace. With great energy, the Youth International Party is negotiating with city, county and federal officials as well as the two political parties. Use of public facilities and parks has already been offered us.

STORMY WEATHER?

by Angela Keyes Douglas

People in Miami, Florida have told me that Jerry Rubin's hopes of a non-violent, loving gathering of hundreds of thousands of people at the July and August political conventions may be dashed by the Gleason et al will donate the Bayshore Country Club for hippies, yippies and zippies and freaking faggots, revolutionary blacks and militant feminists to use, some confrontation is likely.

Rent in Miami is rather high

Activist Alliance was "caching weapons."

GAA recently opened an office in the city. Police have promised not to increase harassment of gays during the conventions, saying that they are only interested more or less retired, but was used during the Cuban missile crisis. Opa-Locka is a small suburb of Miami's northern area.

Geographically, Miami is a bad place for a real confrontation in regards to the left. To the east cratic Convention turns out to be a very violent scene, with the Deauville, Fontainebleu and the cities of Miami and Miami Beach being trashed, the national guard getting in on it, et al, it would only give weight to his law and recent upsurge/backlash of right-wing elements in the area.

One person with whom I spoke by phone called Jerry Rubin "uninformed, an outsider". He said a lot is going on in Miami, underground.

"Rubin isn't the spokesman for us or anyone else but his groupies", another person told me. "Te Establishment is trying to buy us off, and it appears that they've done a good job with Jerry Rubin already", the first informant added. "The scene in Miami is going to be dynamite."

He might be right. Ellis Rubin (not related to Jerry Rubin, apparently) of the right-wing group calling itself "Operation Backbone" has announced that it would oppose any aid to "hippies, yippies, or zippies" and it doesn't want the lovely city of Miami turned into a cesspool by lax law enforcement.

"Operation Backbone" is calling for increased law enforcement, which, in the case of the demonstrators expected to come to the conventions, means enforcing anti-sleep[illegible] on the beaches and parks rules, among other things.

Good ol' Mayor Daley of Chicago has also gotten into the act, by saying that "another conspiracy exists" to disrupt the Miami conventions and another freak-out will happen.

At the present, attention is being focused on attempts to gain camp sites and food for the hundreds of thousands of radicals [illegible] expected to show up for the conventions.

(These are to be held: Democratic Republican and People's Party.

Jerry Rubin says that the city fathers of Miami Beach (where people go to die) are bending over backwards to make parks and other assistance available to the convention freaks.

[illegible] Steven Ramsen of the Miami Greater Jewish [illegible] committee says it would be better if the rich men's golf courses were used as campsites, instead [illegible] city parks as offered. Taking [illegible] away from the [illegible] them [illegible] contrary [illegible] Beach isn't [illegible] Thousands [illegible] people [illegible] about on a par with Honolulu.

With the exception of the freak ghetto in Coconut Grove and isolated pockets in the outlying reaches, the radical community of Miami isn't very visible.

Another bizarre aspect of the Miami problem is the presence of 500,000 or so Cuban refugees and their children, now going into second generations, who have done pretty well in the city all things considered and who generally view leftist-yippie style trips as on a par with Fidelismo.

Since a number of military groups, composed of Cuban exiles exist in the area also, and street demos are held by the exiles whenever Fidel seizes a fishing boat -- sometimes involving as many as 5000 people -- some hassles might come from this group, also.

They publish their own paper, Zig-Zag Libre, and freaks who read Spanish can get some idea of what's happening in that area by articles in it.

Another thing shaking up the area, especially the police, is the new dimension added to American politics by gay militance.

With McGovern, Chisholm and now Humphrey supporting gay rights (homosexual acts in Florida are now misdemeanors) it puts the police in something of a bind. At least ten thousand gay militants are expected to attend from all over the nation, many of them from the more radical groups.

With few exceptions, gay militants view Jerry Rubin as a "white straight male" and YIP as unrepresentative of them.

Some gays are demanding that an openly-gay candidate for President is needed, not a heterosexual who is simply sympathetic to gay issues (and gay votes).

"We're going to Miami with centuries of oppression behind us and we haven't got time to listen to or support liberals," said one gay militant. On the other hand, the less radical gays, including most of the ones who live in Miami, may find themselves aligned with the Status Quo forces in the area, and the nature of the class struggle within gay liberation becomes even more apparent.

Rev. Brad Wilson, homosexual minister of the Miami branch of the Metropolitan Community Church, has announced that the FBI [illegible] now if [illegible] in cooling "hard-core revolutionaries/radicals".

Although the State of Florida, under its new governor Reubin Askew, has continued to progress in some respects, it is also one of the richest and more repressive states in the nation. Filled with middle and upper class people, gigantic military complexes and proving grounds dot the state, including ones at Tampa, Orlando, Jacksonville, Key West, and, of course, Kennedy Spaceport.

At Miami, Homestead AFB is the largest military thing around. If troops should be brought into Miami, they'll probably be landed at Opa-Locka Marine Corps Naval Air Station, which has been nothing but the Atlantic Ocean. To the south, arid land all the way to Key West. To the west, the Everglades, and only one road -- Alligator Alley. To the north, more Florida suburbia and honkvilles.

If the right plays it right, it could rund up one hell of a lot of American radicals without much difficulty in Miami, to be utterly paranoid about the whole thing, and don't think for a minute that the right isn't praying it could do it.

Aside from hundreds of thousands of leftist-anarchist hippy yippy zippy faggy people going to Miami; one wonders how many of Wallace's supporters will show up as well.

Nixon can't lose. If the Demoorder trip.

It's hot during July and August in Miami, and unless you're used to the area, the change in barometric pressure alone, which is considerable, will knock most people on their asses, slow them down, stun them. If you live in an air-conditioned hotel, no problem. Who knows? Maybe a hurricane or two will drop in on the city as well. Hopefully, during the Nixon convention.

As a final note, when anti-war activists tried to shut down an interstate highway near the University of Florida, a large crowd of townspeople cheered the police as they beat and arrested the demonstrators.

Aloha...

War vets plan for peaceful protests here

Vietnam Veterans Against the War wants to keep peace in the streets during the national political conventions here "because violence would only help President Nixon," a spokesman for the protest groups says.

The group of ex-soldiers will hand out anti-war literature, show films and possibly start a "war crimes" investigation, said Scott Camil, overseer of plans here for the Vietnam Veterans Against the War.

Camil said he hopes to bring 15,000 veterans for the Republican convention here Aug. 21-23 and a smaller number for the Democratic convention here July 10-13.

Camil, a 26-year-old former Marine sergeant who was wounded three times in Vietnam, said, "Our medics are former corpsmen and they'll be wearing Red Cross armbands. If they see a policeman or anybody lying on the ground bleeding, they'll help him." He added:

"But if the cops start beating or arresting those medics, we'll definitely frown on that."

Camil criticized the Miami Beach City Council for failing, so far, to provide campsites for convention protesters. He said the city lacks the capacity to cope with the non-delegates expected here during the period between the two conventions.

Camil said the anti-war veterans group, which claims about 20,000 members across the country, will concentrate on the GOP gathering because the Democrats can be counted on to produce an anti-war war platform.

The veterans' organization has a representative on the Convention Coordinating Committee, a coalition of groups planning protests at the Miami Beach conventions.

Meanwhile, an organization calling itself Operation Backbone and headed by conservative Miami Beach lawyer Ellis Rubin, has pledged to thwart the camping plans of nondelegates.

Rubin promises that thousands of hardhats, Boy Scouts and high school students will claim any campsites the Beach council provide — and they'll do it before the protesters arrive in town.

Anti-War Vets Plan Army at Convention

Vietnam Veterans against the War will plan to send a 15,000-man army to the Republican National Convention, "and anybody who tries to get in our way will regret it," a leader of the antiwar group said Sunday.

The ex-servicemen will talk to GOP delegates, hand out antiwar literature, show films and possibly stage a "war crimes" investigation, said Scott Camil, overseer of VVAW plans here.

A smaller contingent of VVAW members is expected to carry on similar activities during the Democratic National Convention July 9-14, a month before the GOP delegates convene Aug. 21, he said.

"And we know how to deal with infiltrators and provocateurs," Camil said. "Anybody who starts to make a hassle will be grabbed by our people, and they might not like the way they'll be treated."

The 26-year-old former Marine sergeant who was wounded three times in Vietnam said "our medics are former corpsmen and they'll be wearing red cross armbands. If they see a policeman or anybody lying on the ground bleeding, they'll help him."

"But if the cops start beating or arresting those medics, we'll definitely frown on that," he added.

Camil said the antiwar veterans want to keep peace in the streets "because violence would only help President Nixon."

Camil criticized the Miami Beach City Council for failing, so far, to provide campsites for convention protesters. He said the city lacks the capacity to cope with an expected crowd of 100,000 persons during the period between the two conventions.

"We're getting ready to help out by lining up farms, houses and campsites all over Florida where our people can stay between conventions. We expect a lot of our people to arrive in Florida following the Democratic Convention."

The organization, Abdala in Miami, has no plans for any demonstrations to be held at or during the Republican or Democratic National Convention. However, if any New Left or hippie groups have a "Che Day" (day commemorating ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA) as they claim and march down the streets of Miami Beach carrying pictures or photographs of CHE or FIDEL CASTRO, Abdala members would attack these demonstrators.

Abdala considers it their right to demonstrate but has no intention of doing so. So far no plans and no discussions have been had concerning demonstrating at the National Conventions. Abdala does not want a confrontation with the police but if any group carries any pictures of CHE or FIDEL, Abdala will engage them.

Abdala has had no contact with [redacted] of the Veterans of Vietnam for Peace and certainly would not cooperate with such a liberal group.

The color significance of the credentials will be as follows:

Blue--Secret Service
Green -- Other federal agencies, including FBI
Yellow -- State and local officers
Pink -- VIP bodyguards.

Secret Service expects all persons with these credentials to be non-uniformed and to be armed.

Florida National Guard, Availability

Major General HENRY W. MC MILLAN advised two thousand National Guardsmen from 26 Florida cities will join a Miami contingent of one thousand, to be on standby duty in this area between July 7 - 15, 1972 and August 19-25, 1972, to assist civil authorities in the preservation of law and order and the protection of property.

The two thousand men coming from outside Dade County will be billeted in six high schools, to be designated by the Miami School Board. These schools will probably be Norland, Miami, North Miami, Coral Gables, Hialeah, and Miami Lakes. All are located on the mainland of Dade County, and not on Miami Beach.

It is anticipated the response time of these National Guardsmen will be between one and one and one-half hours. Liaison officers of the National Guard will be stationed at all times during the course of the convention at the police tactical command post, within the convention complex.

These 3,000 men, which number includes support elements, will be assembled in five battalion-size task forces, each of which will comprise between 400 and 600 men.

Mass Arrest Procedures

Colonel [redacted] Miami Beach Police Department, b6 b7C advised complete, practical, mass arrest procedures will be practiced for eight hours on July 6 and 7, 1972, at the Miami Stadium, at the request of the State of Florida, for 400 of its officers, as well as officers of the Miami Beach Police Department. Metro and Miami police will participate if they receive sufficient funds. This practical training will be under the direction of [redacted] who is on loan to the Miami Police Department.

Intelligence Center

[redacted] Supervisor, Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement, advised the combined intelligence center is now in operation, staffed by representatives of the Miami Beach, Miami, and Metro Police Departments, Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement, Florida Beverage Department, Attorney General/Internal Security representative, Secret Service and FBI.

b6

[redacted] furnished a summary of current intelligence developments.

Governor GEORGE WALLACE, Presence at Convention

[redacted] Secret Service, informed every indication is that unless there is some unforeseen medical problem which develops in the interim, Governor WALLACE will attend the convention. He will probably arrive at the convention hall in a mobile cart. Ramps are being built up to the podium in order that he can be properly accomodated. He may be able to stand to make his address. Every indication is that he intends to make himself considerably active.

Arrangements will be made in order that the various delegates may visit him, rather than he be required to visit the delegates.

Kennedy proposes campsite

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

City of Miami Mayor David Kennedy told The Miami News today that campsites should be provided non-delegates to the Democratic Convention July 10-13 and raised the possibility of offering demonstrators Watson Island as a site.

"Demonstrators should be provided a campsite," Kennedy said, "and various county and civic groups are working out the locations."

Kennedy also said that Watson Island (off MacArthur Causeway) might be available if the Miami Beach City Council decides not to provide a campsite inside Beach city limits.

Kennedy said that Miami City Manager Melvin Reese was exploring the possibility of using the Watson Island site — home of the Goodyear blimp and the Japanese Gardens.

Reese would not comment on the question of campsites.

The Miami Beach Council has delayed any consideration of campsites at least until its June 28 meeting.

Goode's setting up control center

County Manager Ray Goode is in the process of setting up a communications and control command center to handle preparations for the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach July 10-13.

The center is being set up at an unpublicized location. Six county aides and two secretaries have already been assigned to the center.

John Van Wezel, Goode's senior administrative assistant, is heading the team at the center.

He said his staff is involved with virtually all of the planning including health care, police security and negotiations with protest groups.

The concept of a governmental command center was brought to Miami by George Rodericks who heads the Mayor's Command Post in Washington, D.C. for Mayor Walter Washington.

Rodericks has subsequently agreed to serve as a consultant at the Dade County manager's command center during both political conventions.

Workers to be screened

By MARYLYN SPRINGER
Miami News Reporter

Everyone working in "restricted areas" of the Miami Beach Convention Center during the Democratic National Convention must submit to a security check, a U.S. Secret Service official said today.

John Warner, assistant to the director of the Secret Service, said the check "will give the Secret Service the opportunity to be aware of who's working at the convention for security purposes."

Everyone who will have access to a restricted area must go through the clearance check by providing their full name, sex, date of birth, place of birth, Social Security number, street address, city and state, telephone number, employer and occupation, he said.

The information must be supplied to the Secret Service by June 26, he said.

ACLU hits laws on visitors

By ANDY ROSENBLATT
Miami News Reporter

Ordinances passed this week by several Dade municipalities to limit public access to public areas are "ill-advised and probably unconstitutional," the chairman of the Miami chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union said today.

The ordinances and resolutions were adopted in anticipation of crowds of non-delegates expected here for the Democratic and Republican national conventions this summer.

"I doubt that U.S. citizens can be prevented from using public property," said Stanley Pred, ACLU chairman. "After all, the 1st Amendment protects the right to assembly."

In meetings this week the Hialeah, Miami Springs and Opa-locka city councils voted to prohibit use of public property as temporary living facilities.

The Hialeah resolution applies only during July and August, the months of the conventions. Councilman Dale Bennett said the purpose of the resolution is to avoid having non-delegates in the city because, he said, proper sanitary facilities cannot be provided.

"When the City of Miami Beach assumed the responsibility for hosting the conventions, it also undertook the responsibility for providing facilities to delegates and non-delegates alike," Pred said.

"Surrounding communities should be willing to share in this responsibility and go out of their way for these visitors," he added.

He said it is unlikely that demonstrators would want to camp far from the Miami Beach Convention Center, site of the two conventions.

The councils' actions were based on "unwarranted fears," Pred said.

"Another Chicago is possible only if municipal officials are going to engage in repressive actions designed to make non-delegates feel unwelcome in every way," he said, referring to riots at the Democratic convention in Chicago in 1968. He added:

"I would think that all Dade Countians would welcome the opportunity to show that democracy can work."

3,000 Guardsmen To Stand Ready For Beach Duty

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Gov. Reubin Askew is ordering 2,000 National Guardsmen from 26 Florida cities to join a Miami contingent of 1,000 on stand-by duty in Dade County for the two political conventions.

And the Dade School Board will be asked Wednesday to allow the 2,000 visiting Guardsmen to be billetted in seven high schools during their 14 days of convention duty.

"THESE MEN will be conducting summer training exercises in the area and will, of course, be available on short notice in the event they are needed to assist law enforcement personnel assigned to the conventions," Askew said.

Veteran National Guard Maj. Gen. Henry W. McMillan of St. Augustine, the state's adjutant general, who commands the Guard, said he was notifying the 2,000 troops in units outside Dade that they will be assigned to convention duty July 9-15 and Aug. 19-25.

The 1,000 Dade Guard members already had been notified of the training assignment.

"The Guardsmen will be prepared, if called upon, to perform their constitutional obligation as Guardsmen to the people of Florida by assisting the civil authorities in the preservation of law and order and the protection of property," said McMillan.

FRED KLINE, assistant Dade school superintendent for the physical plant, said five high schools are being recommended to the School Board to serve as quarters during the July 10-13 Democratic National Convention.

He identified them as Norland, Central, Coral Park, Coral Gables, and Hialeah-Miami Lakes Senior High schools.

For the Aug. 21-23 GOP convention, he said it is being recommended that Miami High be substituted for Coral Park and North Miami High for Central.

The troops would be staying inside the schools during the Dade duty, Kline said.

Besides the approximately 1,000 troops from Miami, North Miami and Homestead, units from St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Cocoa, Orlando, Clearwater, Dade City, Sanford, Leesburg, Eustis, Tampa, Sarasota, Arcadia, Fort Myers, Palmetto, Bradenton, Lakeland, Bartow, Avon Park, Winter Haven, Haines City, Fort Pierce, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, Belle Glade and West Palm Beach are being ordered to convention duty.

McMILLAN, named last week by Askew as the governor's top military adviser for the conventions, said he realized "that civilian employers of members of the Florida National Guard will suffer inconveniences and financial loss to some degree."

Convention Ushers: Brightly-Clad Army

CONVENTION COUNTDOWN

By JAMES SAVAGE
Herald Staff Writer

What's blue and gold, costs $75,000, talks softly to demonstrators but carries a big stick?

Three hundred and fifty uniformed Andy Frain ushers.

They may be dressed like leftovers from a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, but the army of Andy Frain ushers assigned to next month's Democratic National Convention have an important role in overall security strategy.

AT THE gates of the Convention Center and inside on the convention hall floor, the uniformed ushers hired by the Democratic National Committee will be the most visible symbols of order and authority.

In Chicago four years ago, Frain ushers became involved in several scuffles as the tension mounted and television men and delegates found some of their movements blocked by earnest young men in blue and gold uniforms.

THIS YEAR on Miami Beach, the Frain ushers have been trained to walk softly — but a supply of argument-stopping clubs will be available if needed.

They're not officially called clubs. They're "defensive equipment."

The ushers will carry no weapons. There will be defensive equipment available if necessary," according to Jim McDonnell, head of the Miami Beach Frain franchise.

McDonnell handled his first national political convention in the Miami Beach complex for the GOP in 1968 and his troops performed without an apparent hitch.

THIS YEAR McDonnell is so confident in his army that he has agreed to permit a voluntary group of clergymen and other community leaders to serve as impartial observers monitoring his ushers.

Approximately 50 religious and community leaders, members of Religious and Community Leaders Concerned, will serve as observers at the convention hall gates and inside during the convention.

"Our observers inside the convention facility will observe interpersonal and group relations between the delegates, security people and media with an eye toward problem situations," according to the Rev. Jack O. Cassidy, coordinator of the group.

The observers will report their observations to anyone who requests information, including McDonnell.

"SUPPOSE, for instance, one of their observers sees that one of our gate guards is beginning to respond and retaliate to insults from people at the gate," McDonnell said.

"If one of our ushers begins to answer the insults, you have all the makings of an incident. That's the thing I would want to know about immediately, and that's the function the observers can perform," McDonnell explained.

The volunteer observers have agreed to undergo the same rigid security check, complete with police fingerprint check, that all new Frain recruits must undergo, McDonnell said.

TO BOLSTER his ranks in preparation for the Democratic convention and the GOP convention in August, McDonnell has been recruiting with special emphasis on Dade teachers looking for an extra summer job.

Specifically, the Frain ushers will be responsible during the convention for checking tickets at all exterior and interior gates and barring gate crashers with phoney credentials.

On the convention floor, Frain ushers must control the seating of delegates, alternates, members of the press and gallery guests to insure the business of the convention proceeds properly.

WORKING with the Secret Service and other security forces, Frain ushers will be responsible for the protection of the podium "against disruption," as McDonnell described it.

To maintain order during the convention, the Frains will be the enforcement arm of the permanent convention chairman who will call on them to remove anyone he determines is disrupting the convention.

Although the Frains have no police arrest power, McDonnell said his ushers can make citizen's arrests and have been promised cooperation by Miami Beach police who would process their citizens' arrests.

"OF COURSE there will be plainclothes police in the convention, and if they observe an assault or some other crime, they would normally make the arrest," McDonnell explained.

McDonnell, whose firm will receive $75,000 from the Democrats for his services, has also served as a consultant to the convention committees in charge of credentials and traffic movement around the complex.

His ushers will also provide crowd control and security functions for convention committee meetings and other functions outside the convention complex in Beach hotels.

On 6/14/72, it was determined from the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement that the information relating to the Eliminators/Exterminators came from the Miami, Florida, Police Department.

On 6/16/72, Officer [redacted] (SIU), Miami, Florida, Police Department, advised that information relating to this group is without foundation and completely false. He reported that he first learned of this information as a result of an interview he conducted with a narcotics addict. He related that he could not recall the name of the individual, but that he was a Negro male about 18 years of age who wanted to make a deal with the narcotics Bureau of the Miami Police Department, with regards to charges against him. This individual then related information relating to the Eliminators/ Exterminators and all information furnished by him has been determined to be completely unreliable and without foundation. In addition, this individual has "skipped" out on the Narcotics Squad and his whereabouts are unknown.

Officer [redacted] advised that he has notified the appropriate authorities during weekly conferences on the convention that the information concerning this group is without foundation.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1972

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP Collective, and Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

1. YIP COLLECTIVE (YIPPIES)

Organizers for the YIP state they are negotiating with Miami Beach officials for a festival site and hope to attract thousands of persons to Miami Beach between July 4 and July 14, 1972. They claim if they are given a site they will clear out by July 14, 1972, and will not be present at the Republican Convention. They will attempt to avoid any violence since this could only hurt the chances of Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN receiving the nomination, and seeing him nominated is what they want most. The YIP Collective is currently putting together a 120-page handbook on "How to Survive in Miami", which they plan to distribute nationally in June. They have also decided not to advertise any specific rock groups in advance.

"The Village Voice"
New York underground newspaper
May 25, 1972

The YIP Collective, with offices at 1674 Meridian Avenue, Room 201, Miami Beach, has distributed about 3,000 copies of a three-page flier entitled "Ten Days to Change the World". These fliers, distributed principally to the underground newspapers throughout the United States, issue the invitation to everyone to come to Miami Beach from July 10 to July 14, 1972, and August 20 to August 24, 1972, to participate in peaceful "political-cultural" demonstrations designated as a "Celebration of Change".

MM T-1
June 8, 1972

On June 12, 1972, about 400 to 500 senior citizens at Miami Beach attended a street gathering which was addressed by YIP activist STEWART ALBERT. According to the source these senior citizens are members of a group known as American Federation of Senior Citizens from the South Beach area of Miami Beach, and they have indicated that they will support demonstrations during the convention by the YIP.

MM T-2
June 12, 1972

On June 16, 1972, JEFF NIGHTBYRD, a spokesman for the YIP Collective on Miami Beach, stated the Yippies had decided to concentrate on demonstrations at the Republican National Convention (RNC) rather than at the Democratic National Convention (DNC), as originally planned. He indicated about 50,000 demonstrators would be present for the DNC but the YIP planned "no marches and no confrontations" at the DNC. The YIP announcement stated "Our work here leads us to believe the Republicans would welcome a chaotic situation which would discredit the Democratic Party. We do not want to be a party to that". The YIP spokesman admitted that no one protest group can control all of the other groups planning demonstrations at the convention but that their announcement would possibly "set the tone" for demonstrators coming to the two conventions.

Spokesmen for a coalition of nine protest groups, including the YIP, are scheduled to present their needs to the Governor's Citizens Committee for convention planning in the near future.

The YIP spokesman also indicated that their emphasis at the DNC had shifted from political protest to "a cultural and artistic expression of new life possibilities". The spokesman stated that they wanted to make it clear they were not endorsing any candidate of the Democratic Party, however he stated they saw several progressive elements working among the Democrats and would do everything possible to create a peaceful admosphere where they can work unhendered at the DNC.

"Miami Herald"

2. ZIPPIES

On May 19, 1972, representatives of the Zippies and the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) met with officials of the Miami Beach Police Department at Miami Beach. THOMAS FORCADE, [redacted] claimed to represent the Zippie faction of the YIP, and [redacted] claimed to represent the VVAW.

The group representatives requested camp sites and facilities for their followers. FORCADE estimated that from 50,000 to 250,000 persons would come to the conventions for protest activities and [redacted] estimated that about 6,000 VVAW members would appear. Both groups said they would provide their own kitchen facilities from an organization entitled "The Hog Farm". The Zippie representatives said they anticipated constructing a stage and holding rock festivals and similar daily events. These group representatives were referred to the Miami Beach City Manager.

As previously reported, THOMAS KING FORCADE, a YIP activist and member of the Underground Press Syndicate (UPS) in New York, was expelled from the YIP at a national meeting in Miami on May 27, 1972. According to a source, FORCADE had little support and left the meeting alone following his expulsion. The source reported FORCADE would possibly form a separate group and continue to use the name ZIP or Zippies for this group.

The June 1, 1972, issue of "UPS News Service", published by FORCADE, reported that a factional dispute had developed between the Zippies, the true YIP and grass-roots organization involved in organizing for convention demonstrations, and the Yippies, a group headed by ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, which had rented a plush office in Miami Beach and penthouse suites in a beach hotel. According to the article, despite the physical threats and attacks on the Zippies by the HOFFMAN-RUBIN group, the Zippie efforts in Miami continue unabated. The article indicated the groups had at least temporarily settled their dispute and were at peace.

The Zippies, claiming to be a part of the YIP, have rented a house in Coconut Grove and are planning a "smoke-in" to demonstrate their demand for legalized marijuana.

"Miami Herald"
June 5, 1972

PAT SMALL, a spokesman for the Zippies, stated that the "Zippie Air Force" had seeded the Bayshore Golf Course in Miami Beach with 30 pounds of marijuana seeds in preparation for a "smoke-in" on July 9, 1972. SMALL claimed that the marijuana seeds had been dropped from a light plane.

B. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)
MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

FPC, also known as the Florida People's Platform Coalition (FPPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure gooup to demonstrate at the DNC in Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C. as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the DNC and RNC, including the FPC and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC).

According to a source, the MCC is composed basically of members of the SDCC, which has dissolved as a separate organization, and members of the FPC, which continues to use the name FPC interchangeably with MCC. For example, the residence which houses most of the Florida group, located at 4462 S. W. 10th Street, Miami, telephone 444-0962, is commonly referred to as the "FPC house". This is also utilized as a meeting place for the MCC and this telephone has been publicized as the MCC telephone.

The residence housing the "San Diego group" of the MCC, former members of the defunct SDCC, is located at 3060 N. W. 15th Street, Miami. These include [redacted] b6 b7C

The MCC has now opened an office at 1716 Alton Road, Second Floor, Miami Beach, above the Mayflower Lounge at this address.

He has been in contact with the Communist Party in the Miami area in an effort to raise money for his group and to obtain housing for those who come to Miami for convention demonstrations. [redacted] indicated his group has a large amount of radio and TV equipment located at 4462 S. W. 10th Street, Miami, and they plan to record activities during the coming conventions for later sale to public television. [redacted] said his group plans to do little during the DNC if Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN is nominated. During the RNC they plan to do everything possible to embarrass President NIXON by acts of civil disobedience and confrontation with authorities.

June 13, 1972

A MCC planning meeting was held at the Albion Hotel, Miami Beach, on June 11, 1972, and was attended by MCC and YIP representatives. Discussions were general and indicated a very pessimistic mood as to success of convention activities due to (1) The isolation of Miami from the mainstream of protest activity; (2) Absence of strong constituency groups in this area upon which to form a base; (3) Absence of a radical youth culture in Miami; and (4) Growing strength of Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN as a possible Democratic nominee.

Regarding this last point, it was stated that the propriety of conducting disruptive and civil disobedience actions at the RNC becomes highly questionable since such actions, with Senator MC GOVERN as the Democratic nominee, could well accrue to the benefit of the Republican administration. The possibility of canceling such activities was considered but no firm decision was made.

MM T-3
June 12, 1972

The above planning session was continued on June 12 and June 13, 1972. Discussions on these dates were held at Lummus Park, and in addition to the representatives of the MCC and YIP, a number of individuals from New York were present. The discussions which concerned possible activities at the RNC, centered around the conflict of interest between the substantial numbers of senior citizens in Dade County on one hand, and the "May Day graduates", or more radical protesters, on the other hand. It was pointed out that the large number of senior citizens in Dade County is the only established minority group of significance because of their size and political strength, and that if any action was taken which would harm this minority group, the media would "rip the movement apart". The problem of how to resolve these differences prompted lengthy discussions as to the advisability of holding the national actions elsewhere in the nation and not in Miami Beach. As the discussion progressed it became apparent that while many favored demonstrations in Miami Beach by local people only, the majority favored continuing plans for national actions in Miami Beach by as many people as possible from other areas.

The discussion also continued concerning the advisability of not conducting disruptive and civil disobedience actions at the RNC because of the desire of the movement to do nothing which might hurt the chances of the candidacy of Senator GEORGE MC GOVERN. No firm decision was reached on this issue.

Specific detailed plans were not formulated but general proposals emerged from the discussions for actions during the RNC as follows:

First Day: A long peace march by as many people as possible in the immediate vicinity of the Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Second Day: Mass civil disobedience referred to as a "moral demonstration" in the form of a sit down immediately in front of the Convention Hall. This entails "herding people like cattle" into the area where they were to sit down and refuse to move thereby immobilizing the convention activities. This is visualized as a "highly structured" action or a disciplined action involving only passive resistance and non-violence.

Third Day: A continuous march around the Convention Hall and unstructured acts of civil disobedience in the areas north of the Convention Hall away from the South Beach area, which houses the majority of senior citizens.

MM T-3
June 13, 1972

MCC current plans for RNC activities include an exposition called "Expose '72", referred to as a "humanized people's world fair". This will be held in Miami Beach from August 14 to August 23, 1972, and will consist of various exhibits supporting domestic and foreign liberation struggles. Among the exhibits will be one supporting the CASTRO regime in Cuba.

Also, on August 20, 1972, the day prior to the RNC, the Miami Women's Coalition will conduct a march and minor civil disobedience actions in the Miami Beach area. These will probably include a demonstration in front of the Playboy Plaza Hotel since this is seen as a symbol of the suppression of women's rights. The Miami Women's Coalition is a newly founded group of women activists within the MCC, organized by [redacted]

C. CONVENTIONS COORDINATING COMMITTEE (CCC)

The CCC was formed as a coalition of organizations having advanced parties in Miami for the purpose of negotiations with Government officials with regard to services such as camp sites. A Steering Committee was established to which each group is to send one representative. The groups which are members of this coalition are as follows:

MCC
National Coalition of Gay Organizations (NCGO)
National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO)
People's Party
Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)
VVAW
YIP (Yippie faction)
YIP (Zippie faction)

The first meeting of the Steering Committee was held on June 3, 1972, at which it was decided only recognized movement groups with a membership or constituency which are actively promoting convention demonstrations would be permitted to be members.

The CCC has indicated that these groups have a right to camp sites, food, health and toilet facilities and have called upon the city of Miami Beach to furnish them for the represented groups.

MM T-5
June 11, 1972

The CCC was formed by the MCC in order to present a semblance of a united front to local officials in their demands for services such as camp sites and toilet facilities for those groups planning demonstrations at the conventions.

The MCC plans to use this group for negotiating purposes only and with exception of the YIP, none of the groups are permitted representation in the MCC planning meetings in which the overall scenario of convention protest activity is being formulated. The MCC leaders have considered changing the name of this loose association to "Conventions Communications Committee" in order to avoid leaving the impression that the CCC is coordinating demonstration planning, but no action has been taken on this.

MCC leaders are considering having the People's Party expelled from the CCC since this group has not been previously active in convention planning and appears to be interested only in gaining publicity for its own political purposes.

MM T-3
June 11, 1972

D. NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D. C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

It was previously reported that the NWRO is planning its annual conference at Miami Beach from July 5 to July 9, 1972.

As of June 8, 1972, approximately 2,000 delegates have been registered to attend the NWRO convention. These delegates will utilize the Coronet Hotel and the Crest Hotel and Apartments, Miami Beach. A tentative commitment has been obtained from ANGELA DAVIS to address the NWRO conference on its opening day, July 5, 1972. Details have not yet been worked out.

MM T-6
June 8, 1972

ANGELA YVONNE DAVIS is a self-admitted member of the Communist Party who was found innocent in June, 1972, of charges of murder and kidnapping following a highly publicized trial in California.

The NWRO will stage a major demonstration on opening night of the DNC. They will protest the exclusion of poor people from the two party system and will request passage of their "poor people's platform". They will lead a march to the Convention Hall and try to gain entry to raise these issues. The NWRO is now using the slogan "People Before Politics", stating the poor people must be heard and July 10th is the time to act and Miami is the place to act.

E. PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party USA for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

PLP and the organizations which it dominates, the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Workers Action Movement (WAM), are organizing for demonstrations in Miami during the DNC. They will attempt to hold workshops and a small convention there. They will also attempt to recruit members of other movement groups to join them in demonstrations.

MM T-7
June 7, 1972

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

[redacted] stated he will organize local meetings in the near future to encourage support for SDS representation at the conventions. He said that SDS activity at the conventions will probably consist of SDS supporters marching to the hotels of delegates at Miami and holding "end the war" conferences.

MM T-8
June 13, 1972

The PLP front group, WAM, held a national Steering Committee meeting June 3-4, 1972, at the YMCA Hotel, Chicago. The meeting was marked by tension between PLP members and WAM people. Several members of the WAM expressed resentment at PLP domination of this group. Tentative plans were made for WAM picketing at the DNC. It was indicated that the mode of travel for east coast and midwest groups would be by bus and those from the west coast would travel by air. Final plans and decision as to whether or not to participate will be made in the local WAM chapters throughout the country. General response to participation in the convention by those delegates represented was unenthusiastic.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

It was previously reported that the SCLC planned to hold an encampment called "Resurrection City II" in Miami Beach during the DNC and would stage a "mule train march" during the time of the DNC.

SCLC coordinator [redacted] and two associates met with representatives of the Miami Beach Police Department at Miami Beach on May 23, 1972. The SCLC representatives requested camp sites for an estimated 1,500 to 2,000 of their followers with authorization for an occupancy by July 1, 1972. [redacted] stated that the SCLC intended to erect "tents and shanties" and requested the city to furnish services such as drinking water and toilet facilities for this group. [redacted] said the SCLC was planning a second camp site to be located somewhere in the City of Miami and that chartered buses would be used for transportation between the two camp sites. The SCLC representatives emphasized that their purpose in being here during the convention was not to disrupt the convention activities. The SCLC has an office in Miami from which they will direct their operations located at 59th Street and N. W. 7th Avenue, telephone 757-6379. b6 b7C

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Enraged Ones is a New York group which is coordinating New Left groups and individuals for demonstrations at the DNC and RNC.

The Attica Brigade is a New York organization formed in the fall of 1971 to march as a contingent in a demonstration to protest the Attica Prison incident. The group has come to view itself as a vangard anti-imperialist action organization and its membership consists of persons who have engaged in street fighting, trashing actions and similar forms of paramilitary actions.

[redacted] staff member of The Enraged Ones and coordinator of the New York Attica Brigade, planned to travel to Miami on June 10, 1972, to confer with members of the FPC. Purpose of this conference was to analyze the progress of the FPC in Miami and discuss progress of mobilization in the New York City area for convention activities. [redacted] was unable to make the trip due to shortage of funds but he plans to travel to Miami during the latter part of June to assist the FPC office in organizing convention activities.

H. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

CORE is a civil rights organization with headquarters in New York, New York.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

It was previously reported that [redacted] who is affiliated with CORE in Baltimore, Maryland, had indicated that orders had been received from CORE headquarters to the effect that members of CORE should make plans to employ disruptive tactics during the conventions in Miami Beach.

b7C

On May 15, 1972, [redacted] CORE affiliate at Baltimore, stated that CORE personnel in Baltimore were making no plans concerning any activities at the national political conventions in Miami. [redacted] indicated that any such plans concerning the convention would probably be drawn up at CORE national headquarters in New York. [redacted] at this time gave no indication that orders had been received from CORE headquarters concerning convention activities.

II. THREATS OF VIOLENCE OR DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITY

A. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

It was previously reported that a regional meeting of VVAW was held at [redacted] at which plans were discussed for violent activities during the upcoming conventions.

b7D

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Regarding the above meeting, a source has advised that [redacted] had numerous weapons in his house and practice sessions were held with crossbows being fired into doors, Derringer pistols being fired into stacks of newspapers, and "fried marbles" being shot at walls. "Fried marbles" are marbles which have been heated and placed in cold water while hot, causing them to fracture. These marbles explode upon impact when hurled against a solid object.

[redacted] also had 18 "wrist rockets", which he indicated were to be used as the "basic weapon" at demonstrations to take place during the RNC. [redacted]

[redacted] also indicated he has access to Cuban carbine rifles which have welded or soldered parts. He said his people have been learning how to make grenades and some of these tactics were learned from [redacted] (phonetic), formerly of the SDCC, who used "Underground Manual Number 3" as an instructional guide. [redacted] stated that his people have experimented with a grenade by covering explosive matter with epoxy glue, rolling it in BB pellets or small steel balls, and repeating the process until a softball size grenade is made.

b7D

[redacted] bragged about having "fire teams" consisting of four to five individuals in each team. Because the movement people have banned firearms from Miami Beach, [redacted] has designated the "wrist rocket" as the basic weapon and other weapons and "fire teams" will be used in the Miami metropolitan area. [redacted] claimed there are 150 police substations in the metropolitan area outside Miami Beach and if mass arrests or serious confrontations occur in Miami Beach, these substations will be hit with grenades and automatic weapons fire to divert police attention.

said there was absolutely no mention during this conversation of hand grenades or any other type of weapons.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

SCOTT CAMIL, a representative of the VVAW, stated this organization plans to send a 15,000 man army to the RNC and "anybody who tries to get in our way will regret it". According to CAMIL, the VVAW followers will talk to Republican delegates, hand out anti-war literature, show films and possibly stage a "war crimes investigation". He said a smaller contingent of VVAW members would carry out similar activities during the DNC. CAMIL also stated, "We know how to deal with infiltrators and provocateurs". He said, "Anybody who starts to make a hassle will be grabbed by our people, and they might not like the way they will be treated".

A local meeting of the VVAW was held [redacted] said he had received a letter from [redacted] regarding demonstrations at the RNC and the letter contained information regarding molotov cocktails and chlorine gas bombs. [redacted] also requested that demonstrators bring swimsuits to be used if necessary to get to the demonstration site. The letter reportedly stated the demonstrations will concentrate on the RNC and the VVAW may not participate in demonstrations at the DNC. [redacted] also reportedly mailed each regional coordinator a steel framed sling shot with a wrist brace.

Approximately 15 individuals attended this VVAW meeting and most were scared by [redacted] message and indicated they had changed their minds and are not traveling to Florida. III. COMMUNIST PARTY SUPPORT FOR PROTEST ACTIVITIES

On June 13, 1972, DANIEL RUBIN, Organizational Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, New York, New York, advised all Communist Party districts in the United States that various organizations, including the SCLC, NWRO, VVAW and People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) plan to engage in national conferences, conventions or similar activities in the Miami area prior to and during the DNC. He said these groups are now holding discussions together regarding convention activities. RUBIN indicated these groups have agreed in principle to work out a common platform, focusing on a few central issues to pressure the convention and to publicize their demands. According to RUBIN these groups have agreed to engage in one united mass march, probably on Monday night, July 10, 1972. They plan to have speakers at the head of the march who will in the name of the organizations represented present their joint platform to the mass media.

RUBIN urged all Communist Party leaders and members to support all of these activities.

IV. PARADE PERMITS - NEW LAW

At the regular biweekly meeting of the Miami Beach City Council on June 7, 1972, a parade ordinance was passed that would subject paraders or demonstrators to a penalty of a $1,000 fine or 90 days in jail, or both, for conducting a parade in Miami Beach without first obtaining a permit from city officials. It also requires that groups seeking a parade permit must inform police of the parade route and time and date of the parade. Parade sponsors must also provide first aid care for parade participants.

V. POSSIBILITY OF COUNTERDEMONSTRATIONS AND DISTURBANCES IN THE ETHNIC COMMUNITIES

A. NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

The NSWPP, also known as the American Nazi Party, American Nazis, and The George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

b7C

[redacted] of the NSWPP was in the Miami Beach area in early May, 1972, to survey the situation at the Miami Beach Convention Hall. He also researched local law requirements regarding demonstration activities and was disturbed by the high bond set for arrests in connection with demonstrations.

According to the source, the NSWPP expects to have approximately 35 demonstrators at each convention for counter-demonstration activity. They will not be armed with weapons but will carry nightsticks and mace.

B. "OPERATION BACKBONE"

"Operation Backbone" is the name given by Miami Beach attorney ELLIS RUBIN to a group of citizens in Miami Beach formed to oppose protest demonstrations and the use of public property by the demonstrators.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

YIP activist JERRY RUBIN and attorney ELLIS RUBIN of "Operation Backbone" engaged in a stormy debate for 70 minutes on the night of June 4, 1972, at the Miami Congregationalist Church regarding the upcoming conventions. ELLIS RUBIN claimed that the Yippies were planning violence at these conventions and JERRY RUBIN stated the demonstrating groups planned to be peaceful. The debate was concluded when ELLIS RUBIN walked out after he claimed that JERRY RUBIN had used foul language.

Attorney ELLIS RUBIN has stated his group will attempt to thwart the camping plans of non-delegates by having civic groups such as Boy Scouts apply to the Miami Beach City Council for camp sites. D. BLACK COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

It was previously reported that HUEY P. NEWTON, leader of the Black Panther Party (BPP), had accepted an invitation to speak at a church in the Liberty City area of Miami, on July 9, 1972.

On June 9, 1972, [redacted] b6 b7C Salem Baptist Church, 151 N. W. 60th Street, Miami, advised that he had been informed by BPP headquarters that NEWTON would be unable to travel to Miami but that a substitute speaker would be sent. [redacted] said that he had told the BPP spokesman that he did not want a substitute speaker if NEWTON was not available.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started at Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

The practice of the WFO at present is to accept information from them, but not to furnish information to them.

It has been found on several occasions in the past, when information has been furnished to the Mayor's Command Post, that it subsequently comes back to the WFO through the Department of Justice, embellished and confused to the point of being practically unrecognizable.

There was a meeting of Abdala tonight at [redacted] at [redacted] Fourteen individuals attended the meeting. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] told the group that P.L. Boitel, a Cuban student leader who had been in prison for 12 years in Cuba had died as a result of torture and a long hunger strike. Two years ago members of Abdala chained themselves at the United Nations in order to move that organization to take some action to save Boitel. Nothing was done. [redacted] added that now Abdala is once again goingto take actions around the country to tell people about what happened to Boitel and about the condition of more than 50,000 political prisoners in Cuba. [redacted] did not outline the actions. However, it was mentioned that demonstrations will take place [redacted]

[redacted] also spoke in favor of a local demonstration at the Soviet embassy to demand freedom for Cuban political prisoners.

[redacted] and [redacted] informed the group that they had received a call from Abdala in Miami, Fla. as well as from other Cuban groups, to request help in preparing demonstrations in Miami during the Democratic and Republican conventions. The plans so far call for broadcasting on Miami radio stations propaganda calling for aid in overthrowing the Castro government, and for distribution of literature and decals in the area where the conventions will be held. Abdala leaders will also be asked to go to Miami to participate in organizing the campaign. b6 b7C b7D

SM - RA 80-1353-1015

Reurep dated 5/30/72.

Cover page B of rerep stated that your office feels that subject's activities do not qualify her for ADEX at the present time.

A review of subject's activities at the Bureau indicates that, in addition to attendance at a National May Day Collective conference in 8/71, at Atlanta, Georgia, and at a New American Movement National conference at Davenport, Iowa, 11/71, she was present at a YIP conference at Madison, Wisconsin, in 1/72, which was attended by YIP activists from various parts of the nation. This YIP conference concerned itself with plans for protests and demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention in Miami, Florida, in 7/72, along with preconvention protests. Subject was also present later in 1/72 at a Chicago YIP meeting held to formulate plans for their group in connection with the Democratic National Convention and was an active spokesman at the meeting.

For the information of Chicago, your reported information regarding subject's involvement with YIP indicates that she is an activist within that revolutionary organization, which, in itself, qualifies her for Category III of the ADEX. If additional investigation indicates she is a leader of YIP in Chicago area, she should be recommended for Category II of the ADEX.

In line with the above, your office is to promptly submit an FD-122, recommending subject for inclusion in Category III of the ADEX. Then, if further investigation substantiates YIP leadership in Chicago, a supplementary FD-122 should be submitted recommending upgrading her to Category II of the ADEX.

Re: MARCH BEING PLANNED BY BRIGADE 2506

The Directors and some members of Brigade 2506 called on the organizations in exile, so that they would be duly represented at a demonstration in front of the Miami Beach Convention Hall, where the Democratic and Republican Parties will soon be holding their conventions to select their respective candidates for the general elections in the U.S.

The idea was that many Cuban exiles, carrying placards in English, should picket in front of the Convention Hall, demanding that the future candidates resolve the problem of Cuba and letting them know that the Cubans do not want them to negotiate Cuba or to continue the doctine of co-existence with the Castro government.

Most of the Cuban exile organizations based in Miami disagree with this call sent out by the directors and some members of Brigade 2506. They feel that demonstrating in front of the Convention Hall where the Democratic and Republican Conventions are to be held, by Cubans carrying placards, could be taken advantage of by extremist elements in the U.S., since they have announced their intention to be present at the convention site, and to carry out acts of violence. This would inevitably bring about a clash, and later their leaders could accuse the Cuban exiles of interfering in the internal affairs of this country, and put the blame for any violence on the Cubans.

So far, the following have publicly stated their opposition to the plans of Brigade 2506: Junta Nacional Revolucionaria, Veterans of Fort Jackson, and Accion Sindical Independiente, speaking through their leaders ISMAEL PINO, ANGEL FERRER and CONRADO RODRIGUEZ. These men, using the Latin radio stations in Miami, have advised the exiles of their disapproval of plans to meet in front of the Convention Hall to protest in any form whatsoever.

This refusal to meet on Miami Beach appears to be logical and intelligent, and it is hoped that the remainder of the Cuban exile organizations will adopt the same attitude of refusing to take part in this demonstration proposed by Brigade 2506.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

On June 15, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Florida VVAW, Post Office Box 13179, Gainesville, Fla., has disseminated an undated letter, presumably to all VVAW chapters in the United States, regarding planned activities at the forthcoming political conventions in Miami, Florida. A reproduction of this communication is set forth below:

Operation County Fair ... conducted in two ... will be held ... essential innovation.

Any Groups that come down ... regional headquarters in Gainesville, FL. We ... camping. We feel the best way to handle the situation ... different cities where we have chapters and then to converge ... at the same time.

People who wish to stay in FL. ... will be able to camp at the staging areas if they wish, those who stay will be expected to provide most of their own resources such as food, clothing and camping equipment. We hope that they will also participate in VVAW activities that will be planned in the different cities while they are here.

As far as the beach goes, we have a campsite and we are still negotiating with city officials as to our needs. A scenario has not been drawn up yet for the conventions.

We expect peaceful, non-violent, activities during the Dem. Convention. It is the hope of the Nixon administration to turn the Dem. Convention into a chaotic hallocost, but if we work hard we can foil their plan and help keep things peaceful. The Dem. offers the best alternative to the present situation of our country. George McGovern offers the changes that are most consistent with VVAW objectives. If there is any trouble at the Dem. Conv., it will help Nixon on his genocidal, repressive administration.

The FL. VVAW will take defensive action against any provocateers whether they are Police or Vets. We will not allow provocateers to indanger the safty and well being of the people who have come to Miami with the intent of exercising their constitutional right and duty of participating in the shaping of this country.

The right wing bourgeois Pigs maintain that if we come to Miami we should be able to support ourselves, and they are not responsible for helping us with food, sanitation facilities, ect. Our reply is that everyone has the right to participate in our government and just because we are poor is no reason to deny us this right. They decided to have the Conventions in Miami so they could make lots of money. We feel a conscientiously responsible government is more important than making lots of money. They knew that with the Conv. came demonstrations and by deciding to have the Conv. in Miami they must accept the responsibility of all the contingents of the Conv. including we poor people who want to participate in essential innovation. The more they cooperate with us the better it will be for all involved.

As a safty precaution and for security reasons we ask that all groups contact their regional coordinator befor they come down so that their coordinator can notify us and we will be ready.

Things that we will need if you can bring them are: 1. Radio equipment, civilian band, police band, VHF-4, UHF receivers, walkie-talkies. 2. ... 3. We have learned that the police will hand cuff people through their belts behind thier backs so they can't have their hands in front of them, so don't wear belts. 4. Bring balloons, we have found that balloons of ammonia have an effect on policemen, when they put you into the position of self defense. 5. Bo-le's which can be made by using 10 foot strips of monofilliment fishing line with a lead sinker on each end and one in the middle, they are great when used to trip people who are running after people to cause them harm. This is a purely defensive measure. 6. High pressure fire extinguisher can be used to make a surface slippery while being chased, also they may be refilled with other substances if necessary. 7. Foam lining sewn along the outside seams of your clothes can help lessen the effect of a club being swung at you. 8. We also recognize the right of collective self defense if we are placed in a position of receiving extreme or unlawful physical danger to ourselves or brothers. Hunting sling-shots have proven their worth in deterring offensive police brutality. We have a supply of some extremely well made sling shots that have proven themselves, they are available for $3 each. It is best to send for them now, or send ... and money and we will be able to give them to you when you ... down. Ball bearings and lead weights are very effective defensive projectiles and ... 9. REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Set forth below is a summary of information obtained relative to activities planned by dissident groups during the Republican National Convention (RNC) at San Diego, California, prior to the decision to relocate that convention to Miami Beach, Florida:

SAN DIEGO CONVENTION COALITION (SDCC)

The SDCC is a group of representatives of various radical groups in the San Diego, California area which was formed for active opposition to the United States Government through "serious, determined, and long-term social uphevel."

An SDCC conference in Santa Barbara, California, on March 17-19, 1972, which was attended by approximately 340 persons, set forth the following proposals:

1) A G.I. and Veterna's workshop calling for amnesty for all deserters and draft dodgers as well as more Veteran benefits;

2) The San Francisco Bay Regional Group urged support of the seven point program set forth at the Paris Peace Talks by the Provisional Revolutionary Government of Vietnam;

3) Community organization workshop, for the support of "Expose 72;"

4) A huge display showing the "military industrial complex for legal workshop, for legal assistance in mass arrests that may develop during the RNC, was to picket the Federal Building, Courthouse, Jail. etc.";

5) Workers constituency workshop, to unite laborers, participants and demonstrators at the RNC;

6) Welfare workshop;

7) Medical group workshop;

8) Architectural and planning workshop;

9) United farm workers organization committee workshop, for support of boycott of non-union grapes and lettuce;

10) Third World Constituency. Will support SDCC only if, 1) No interference with the Third World leadership; 2) They receive technical and financial support; 3) No whites allowed in the black community unless invited;

11) A committee to investigate possible right-wing terrorism..

The final draft of the conference stated, 1) SDCC participants cannot initiate violence, although non-violence civil disorder would be tolerated, violence would be tolerated in self-defense from the police; 2) No presidential canidate would be given SDCC endorsement; 3) A call would be made for an end to the Vietnam War and support for the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam; 4) Oppose President NIXON's policies of repression and imperialism; 5) Oppose all interference in internal affairs of other countries; 6) No interference with leadership of group participants in the SDCC alliance; 7) Fight racism.

As of March 31, 1972, the SDCC had fallen far short in its progress of obtaining goals set for the RNC. Because of internal dissension, SDCC failed to attract a large membership. A lack of funds, lack of leadership and factionalism has resulted in the SDCC failure to obtain its aims.

On May 10, 1972, the SDCC discontinued its operations in San Diego, California. The following individuals, active in SDCC, plan to come to Miami Beach, Florida, to become involved in activities related to the RNC:

GEORGE KATSIAFICAS
DON HAYDEN
SHARI WHITEHEAD
SHERRY RANDELL
PAM COLE
GEORGE LEWIS

SAN DIEGO PROJECT (SDP)

Three students of the California Institute of Art claimed to be part of the SDP which plan to disrupt the RNC at San Diego in an effort to end the war. They claim to be part of a large scale proposition planned at colleges throughout the country involving some 80,000 students who would demonstrate at the RNC, San Diego. They would demonstrate for the following reasons:

1) Disrupt and prevent the RNC;

2) Provoke local authorities to call in military for assistance;

3) To be cut off from the mainland so they can stage a mock invasion by boat;

4) To burn the moth ball fleat in San Diego Harbor;

5) Blow up ammunition dumps in Hollywood.

CONGRESS AUGUST PROJECT (CAP)

CAP was formed to assist demonstrations at the 1972 RNC, San Diego. It was discontinued when the RNC was relocated to Miami Beach and plan no participation in either the RNC or DNC at Miami Beach.

COMMUNITY CONGRESS OF SAN DIEGO (CCSD)

CCSD was organized to work with groups making plans for medical, legal housing and other services needed for people coming to the RNC at San Diego as non-deligates. It was to be an umbrella organization formed from a "drug coalition in assistance at San Diego" over the past few years and it represents a number of organizations working in the area of human rights, civil rights. Its activities are directed towards non-violent types of expression of opposition.

CALIFORNIA VETERANS MOVEMENT (CVM)

The CVM is a loosely woven ad hoc group of Vietnam Veterans and sympathizers opposed to United States involvement and intervention of Southeast Asia. At a CVM meeting on January 20, 1972, the RNC was discussed and the SDCC proposal of three days for demonstrations during the RNC, first two to be peaceful, the third day was reserved to Kamikaze Day, believed to mean a day of violence.

STUDENTS FOR DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

The San Diego SDS Chapter was to present proposals at the SDS National Convention, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to be held March 30 through April 2, 1972. These proposals called for students, professors and staff from every campus in the country to organize and come to San Diego to make "anti-racist action, the focal point of activities at the RNC."

CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

On March 8, 1972, a CORE affiliate from Baltimore, Maryland said orders had been received from CORE Headquarters that CORE members will make plans to employ disruptive tactics during the RNC at San Diego. No details were available.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD (NLG)

The NLC established an office in San Diego, California with the intent of representing persons arrested during the demonstrations relating to the RNC.

COMMUNIST PARTY (CP)

An affiliate of the Southern California District of the CP, USA, advised during March, 1972, that CP should have close ties with the SDCC.

PEOPLES LABOR PARTY (PLP)

On March 1, 1972, it was reported the PLP, which was changing its name to the Workers Action Movement (WAM), would demonstrate at the RNC, San Diego, for a 30 hour work week with 40 hours pay.

UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES DESERTERS AND UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE DELINQUENTS LIVING IN CANADA

An unsigned letter dated early 1972 and postmarked Vancouver, British Columbia, contained the following:

Several thousand exiles across Canada will re-enter the United States at various boarder points on a permanent basis to coincide with the RNC, San Diego, for the following reasons:

1) Embarrass the president and the United States Government;

2) To awaken American people to the power and convictions of the youth;

3) To smear the Republican Party during the RNC;

4) To help abolish and draft other organs of the Government which are contrary to the constitution;

5) To return to the United States to work towards radical changes of the system;

6) They are homesick.

Father JAMES GROPPI, a Civil Rights Activist from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, during a speech at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on November 6, 1971, said the anti-war movement "must have millions of people camped out in the hills at San Diego, California, at the time of the RNC.... to say they want President NIXON out of the White House."

CONCERNED CLERGY AND LAYMEN

[redacted] a member of Concerned Clergy and Laymen from Washington, D.C., when in Kansas City, Missouri, from March 3-5, 1972, met with Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) and discussed plans of a newleft coalition sending people to San Diego to obtain jobs at the hotels and motels catering to RNC deligates. They would gather intelligente information regarding the wiring system and telephone networks. A proposal was that individuals would, through wire tapping and monitoring private discussions, know the discussions of the deligates to the RNC. b6 b7C

ANSWERS TO RADICAL GROUP DEMANDS

For camp sites on March 29, 1972, the San Diego city managers said the city had no intention of granting a camp site permit to the SDCC.

The San Diego Police Department did not issue a permit to YIP to set up camp sites for 20 to 25 thousand demonstrators.

"PEOPLE BEFORE POLITICS"

--NWRO Conference '72 - Program--

The '72 Conference is fast approaching ... less than one month remains and the program and schedule are starting to take shape. . . The conference will open Wednesday night, July 5, with a star-studded evening session and run til Sunday afternoon.

I. GENERAL SESSIONS: The tentative schedule is:

Wednesday evening - July 5th	Opening session
Thursday evening - July 6th
Friday evening - July 7th	'72 A political year
Sunday morning - July 9th	Closing session - devoted to women's issues & women's rights

II. PLENARY SESSIONS - Besides the general sessions, the major emphasis of Conference '72 will be on program for Welfare Rights in '72:

A. Child Care
B. Nutrition and Feeding Programs
C. Early Screening and Health
D. Brooke Amendment and Housing Rights
E. Welfare Repression

General plenary sessions will be held each morning to explain the above issues, and to rap about our problems in organizing around these issues in our local communities. The plenary sessions will lead into the workshops, which will comprise the major scope of Conference '72.

III. WORKSHOPS - Eight workshop periods are scheduled from Thursday thru Saturday. Many workshops will center on specific topics, but this year, Welfare Rights will offer series of workshops on key issues. These two and three part workshops will enable delegates to gain intensive knowledge and skill on one or two organizing issues. Special workshops to be offered include:

A. Leadership Development: This will be a three part series designed especially for the National Executive Board; NCC's and Alternates; State, City-wide, and County-wide Chairmen - skills, functions, and roles of leaders will be examined and analyzed.

B. Staff Development:

1. A three part series for new staff including discussions on what is an organizer, what are the roles and functions of an organizer, history and structure of WRO, basic "How-To-It" skills on door-knocking and canvassing, choosing tactics, and confrontation politics at welfare centers.

2. A two part series for staff and leadership with past field experience to refine old skills and develop new methods and models of organizing; finding issues and varying tactics to win campaigns; developing an ongoing structure for community organization.

3. Selected workshops on media, fundraising, and other special interest problems.

C. Child Care: The child-care program will be developed on child-care rights and issues. Workshops already scheduled are:

1. How to organize around a Comprehensive Community Controlled Child-Care Program.

2. How to gain control of existing Child-Care programs in your local community.

3. Title IV-A and other sources of Child-Care funding.

4. Foster Care

5. Pending Legislation and changes in Child-Care Standards.

D. EPSD&T (Early Screening) and Health Issues: Due to the efforts of NWRO, we have forced HEW to issue very favorable regulations on Early Screening and other health issues to guarantee that poor people start to demand adequate, comprehensive, and quality health care.

Workshops on early screening will be twofold. The information aspect will detail what is early screening, how does it operate, and what is a quality program for your local community. The organizing aspect will detail "How-To-Do-It". Various thoughts and models to organize on health and early screening will be analyzed and refined. Leaders from cities and WROs where early screening is becoming a major issue will help lead the discussions.

E. The Brooke Amendment Law: This housing law states that tenants in Federal public housing should only pay 25% of their adjusted income for rent. Welfare recipients should have their rents lowered now with no cut in welfare benefits. If Brooke is implemented in all states now, it will mean rent reductions totaling $62 million to welfare recipients and other tenants.

The Brooke workshops will explain what Brooke is and the regulations and how to figure the new lower rents. Other Brooke workshops will detail how to organize around housing issues, tenant rights, and to organize an effective, large-scale rent strike.

Many other workshops are scheduled and others are being planned. Topics include FAP, Talmadge Amendment, Nutrition, School Lunch and Breakfast Programs, Food Stamps, Prison Reform, Drugs, Title I, Education . . . . .

Future mailings will give more details and outline these other parts of the workshop program.

If you have any questions or suggestions on CONFERENCE '72 PROGRAM please call Burt Boltuch, person-to-person collect at the National Office, 202/483-1531

A source of information, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 30, 1972, an inquiry made on May 26, 1972 at the Center For Dialogue, 2175 NW 26th Street, Miami, Florida, determined a Youth International Party (YIP) National Convention to be held at that location May 26-28, 1972, had fallen apart.

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely knit, anticstablishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968.

The YIP National Convention had been called on this occasion to plan activity that was to be directed to the Democratic and Republican National Political Conventions that are to be held during the summer of 1972 in Miami Beach, Florida.

a group called Operation Snowplow had been created in Miami for the purpose of coordinating the demonstration activity expected in the city, however, this group was in a state of collapse. This group planned to negotiate with Miami city officials for use of public beaches for housing of participants expected for the National Political Conventions. She indicated Abbie Hoffman, National YIP activist, and other YIP leaders apparently refused to cooperate with Operation Snowplow.

To obtain further information regarding planned activity during the National Political Conventions [redacted] suggested contact should be made with either Abbie Hoffman at the new Yippie headquarters, 1674 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, or with [redacted] phonetic spelling, no last name given, phone number 754-0008 of the Gay Activists Alliance (GAA), a homosexual activist organization, of Miami, Florida. that Forcade was an "Agent Provacature" who had obtained a place in Coconut Grove, Florida.

[redacted] was overheard to discuss what had occurred earlier in the day. [redacted] mentioned that there had been much talk on the Miami Beach convention, but not much had been accomplished. "Fire groups" will be used to take action if the police "come down" on the demonstrators. The "fire groups" will use diversionary tactics in Miami to draw the police away from Miami Beach to allow the demonstrators to escape from the island of Miami Beach. The "fire groups" will hit office buildings and police cars as diversions. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] made inquiry about discussions that had been held at the National Office about the formation of a uniformed group to help police demonstrations. It was pointed out that the group under discussion will be equipped with gas masks, helmets, night sticks, and shields and will be used for defensive purposes only and to help keep in check trashing groups like the Attica Brigade from New York City. It was observed that [redacted] had an M-1 carbine [redacted] mentioned that he believes that it is necessary to have weapons and that such firearms can be easily obtained in Florida.

INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS
NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS
WATERGATE APARTMENTS,

(OO: WASHINGTON FIELD OFFICE)

At approximately 11:59 a.m., 6/17/72, SA [redacted] WFO, telephonically advised that the Washington Field Office at approximately 4:00 a.m. 6/17/72 had been notified the National Democratic Headquarters located in the Watergate Apartments complex had been broken into. He explained the security officer assigned to the Watergate complex noticed the lock(s) of Democratic Headquarters had been tapped. Local police were notified by the security officer.

Five individuals were arrested inside the Democratic Headquarters facility. In the possession of the individuals arrested were walkie talkies, two cameras, and eighty rolls of high speed film. They also had in their possession electronic surveillance equipment capable of intercepting communications inside the facility. All five individuals wore surgical gloves.

Prior to any information being disseminated as to the arrest of the five individuals, Washington, D.C. attorney MICHAEL DOUGLAS CADDY appeared at police headquarters and inquired if the individuals had been arrested. CADDY was questioned apparently by the Washington, D.C. PD as to his knowledge of the break-in; however, no information was received from him. Later, attorney JOSEPH RAFFERTY appeared at police headquarters and it is assumed both attorneys will defend the individuals arrested.

The following individuals were arrested and at the time of arrest furnished aliases. After the appearance of the attorney, they furnished their true names.

RENNIE DAVIS AND HIS GROUP WERE DESCRIBED AS ANARCHISTIC, NON-SECTARIAN, IRRESPONSIBLE, HAVE A POTENTIAL FOR "RASH ACTS",

AND PREFER TO DO THINGS IN THEIR OWN WAY.

THE MIAMI CP SHOULD URGE THE RENNIE DAVIS GROUP TO WORK WITHIN ESTABLISHED ORGANIZATIONS DEALING WITH CIVIL RIGHTS, WELFARE, AND TENANTS. THIS IS PARTICULARLY COGENT SINCE SUPPORTERS OF SENATOR GEORGE MC GOVERN HAVE DECIDED NOT TO INITIATE ANY DEMONSTRATION OR CONFRONTATION WHICH COULD REFLECT ADVERSELY ON THE CHANCES OF ELECTING SENATOR MC GOVERN.

DETAILS:

I. ORGANIZATIONAL DATA

NY T-1 advised on March 10, 1971, that the National Headquarters of the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, formerly located at 5 West 21st Street, New York City (NYC), moved by truck on November 6, 1970, to 690 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City, in January, 1968.

The source advised on May 5, 1972, that the YIP has not re-established itself in NYC since it moved to Boston on November 6, 1970, and that the YIP has ceased to exist as a functioning organization in NYC.

The source further advised that ABBIE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, who continue to reside in NYC and who were the prime movers of the organization, continue to refer to themselves as Yippies in their writings and public speeches. Source advised that as a result, various individuals throughout the country, who want to identify themselves with HOFFMAN and RUBIN, utilize the name YIP in referring to themselves, but are in actuality not connected with any YIP organization.

NY T-2 advised in a similar manner on June 12, 1972, that there is no longer any organized YIP activity in NYC, and that any interest generated by the YIP movement in NYC is done so only because HOFFMAN and RUBIN continue to represent themselves as leaders of the YIP.

JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Anti-Riot Law violations that arose from activities during the National Convention at Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending appeal, they were released on bond by the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois.

II. SUMMARY OF THE YIP "PRE-CONFERENCE, JANUARY 7-9, 1972, MADISON, WISCONSIN

NY T-3 advised on [redacted] YIP "Pre-Conference" at Madison, Wisconsin, during the period January 7-9, 1972. This Conference, [redacted] would be held in the St. Francis House,

Episcopalian Center, at the University of Wisconsin - Madison, 1001 University Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin.

The source advised on [redacted] that [redacted] individuals arrived in Madison on [redacted] for the Conference. [redacted]

b6
b7D

The main objective of the "Pre-Conference" was to organize and discuss protest tactics for the Miami Democratic National Convention in July, 1971. The Miami action included the discussion of a means of obtaining support for Miami protest plans among YIP people and among outsiders. Several YIP functions were tentatively scheduled across the country in an effort to win this support.

Also discussed was [redacted]

NY T-4 advised that

In June, 1971, NY T-5 identified TOM FORCADE as an officer of the Underground Press Syndicate (UPS).

> "The UPS is a NYC based organization founded in 1967, whose main functions are to aid in the initiation of underground newspapers and to aid members of its syndicate in the operations of their underground newspapers."

The December 22, 1971, issue of "The New York Ace," a bi-weekly newspaper published in NYC, lists TOM FORCADE as its Washington Reporter in its masthead.

This issue of the newspaper on Page 6 also contains an article by TOM FORCADE entitled, "Inside D.C." In this article, FORCADE stated he was recently admitted to the Senate and House Press Gallery.

TOM FORCADE also stated that as a member of the Senate Press Gallery, he is entitled to a floor pass to both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

NY T-1, who provided reliable information in the past concerning the YIP organization advised on that he received no information concerning identities of individuals [redacted] who attended the YIP "Pre-Conference" in Madison, Wisconsin.

III. YIP ACTIVITIES IN PREPARATION FOR THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTIONS IN MIAMI, SUMMER, 1972

b6
b7D

As a result of the "Pre-Conference" held in Madison, Wisconsin, January 7-9, 1972, which was sponsored by the Madison Chapter of YIP, a "Presidential Nominating Convention" was held at 2440 North Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on January 23, 1972.

NY T-3 advised that [redacted] YIP's attended the convention with the purpose of nominating a Presidential "candidate," and to further formulate plans to protest the Democratic Convention in Miami. People in attendance, representing themselves as the new "Zeitgeist International Party" (ZIP), the political wing of the YIP, then nominated an actual rock as their candidate for the Miami YIP Convention. The source advised the attendees also tentatively scheduled several "YIP" activities prior to the Miami Convention; however, no further definite plans were made for the Miami Convention.

NY T-4 advised on January 26, 1972, that the "rock" nominated at the Chicago Convention weighed approximately ten pounds.

NY T-6 advised on January 24, 1972, that during the whole Convention it was stressed that no one is an official spokesman for YIP or ZIP, and that there is no formal YIP or ZIP organization either on local or national levels which is to require officers, spokesmen, or individual members. "Everyone" is potentially a YIP or Zippie and all are qualified to participate, regardless of age, in YIP activities. YIP and Zippie events will just occur, notice of "happenings" will appear in future circulars or in the underground press. When such events are announced, everyone is to spontaneously show up, be happy and not be grim or closely allied with any specific political line.

NY T-4 advised on [redacted] that [redacted] to meet with TOM FORCADE and other YIP leaders, [redacted] a meeting took place with JERRY RUBIN [redacted] severely criticized RUBIN concerning his YIP "leadership." RUBIN allegedly made an attempt at reconciliation, stating the bad press given him by the Madison Chapter of YIP was hurting him politically. [redacted]

b7D

NY T-4 advised on April 29, 1972, that JERRY RUBIN participated in a YIP activity, publicly billed as "J-Day, Spring Plant-In," which took place in Madison, Wisconsin, April 29, 1972. The activity was formulated at the YIP "Pre-Conference" in Madison, January 7-9, 1972, and was officially sponsored by the Madison Chapter of YIP. About 1,000 persons were present at the peak of the demonstration at the State Capitol Grounds, where several speakers covered a variety of topics. RUBIN allegedly made the trip to Madison at his own expense, in an effort to get himself back in good graces of local YIP leaders. [redacted] although neither TOM FORCADE nor ABBIE HOFFMAN were in attendance.

NY T-7 advised on May 13, 1972, that JERRY RUBIN, ABBIE HOFFMAN and STEWART ALBERT, accompanied by their "groupies", on May 13, 1972, drove to Miami Beach, Florida. There they visited the Miami Beach Convention Hall, the site of the forthcoming national political conventions. They also inspected possible camp sites, such as parks and golf courses.

Source advised on May 14, 1972, that HOFFMAN, on May 14, 1972, was in contact with the Miami Beach Police Department and arranged for a meeting with his assistants and representatives of the Miami Beach Police Department that evening. The meeting took place at "Denny's" restaurant on Biscayne Boulevard; however, HOFFMAN himself did not participate. The source further advised on May 15, 1972, that on that day RUBIN, HOFFMAN and ALBERT met with the Chief of Police at the Miami Beach Police Headquarters. During the day they stated it was their desire that the conventions be peaceful. They requested the use of the Bayshore Golf Course as a camping site during the time of the conventions when they will stage a ten day festival from July 4-14, 1972. They were advised that the decision would have to be made by the Miami Beach City Manager. All three stated that they hoped no attempt would be made to infiltrate their organization. They advised that they represented the YIP.

Following the meeting, RUBIN and ALBERT held a press conference in front of the Miami Beach Police Department Headquarters. They had alerted the local press as to their meeting with the Chief of Police.

STEWART ALBERT is one of the original founders of YIP and is the constant companion of JERRY RUBIN.

NY T-8 advised on May 24, 1972, that JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN have rented Penthouse A and Penthouse D at the Albion Hotel, 1650 James Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida.

Source advised that RUBIN, HOFFMAN and others, representing themselves as the YIP, also rented office space at the Meridian Medical Center, Rooms 200 and 201, 1680 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, in order to make preparations for the upcoming national conventions.

NY T-5 advised on May 27, 1972, that a YIP National Congress, scheduled to be held in Miami on May 26-28, 1972, for the purpose of organizing protest activity at the Democratic Convention, had beencancelled. The source advised all YIP activity in Miami was totally disorganized and nothing was being accomplished with respect to convention planning.

NY T-5 and NY T-9 advised on

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

NY T-9 advised that [redacted]

NY T-9 advised on [redacted] b7D that disagreements still exist among the persons who were controlling the YIP and that the offshoot of the Party was a group called "Zippies," which is also known as the "Zeipgiest International Party."

Source advised that STEWART ALBERT addressed a group of people calling themselves "The American Federation of Senior Citizens" on Miami Beach during the evening of June 8, 1972. Source advised that ALBERT kept things "cool" and apparently was trying to get old people to be sympathetic to and favor the young people who would be coming to the forthcoming conventions in Miami. The source advised that the theory being used was that the United States Government is unfair to old people.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION
(MCC)

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C. on May 20, 1972, as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions. The three groups involved in the MCC are the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC), the Florida Peoples Coalition (FPC) and the Miami Liberation Front (MLF).

The SDCC is a group comprised of representatives of various radical organizations in San Diego which was formed for active opposition to the U. S. Government through "serious, determined, and long-term social upheaval."

The FPC, also known as the Florida Peoples Platform Coalition, is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention on Miami Beach during July, 1972.

The MLF is a local coalition of students, women and young workers who share a common opposition to racism, sexism and imperialism. This coalition was organized around the concensus that there must be coordinated non-violent opposition and confrontation at the Democratic National Convention to be held at Miami Beach in July, 1972.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

On June 11, 1972, a planning meeting of the MCC was held in the Albion Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida. The meeting was attended by various groups planning protest activities at the upcoming political conventions. The meeting was dominated by the RENNIE DAVIS faction of the MCC.

RENNARD C. DAVIS on February 18, 1970, was found guilty of anti-riot law violations that arose from activities during the national convention at Chicago, Illinois, August, 1968. Pending an appeal, he was released on bond by the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois.

Discussions at this meeting were general and indicated a mood of extreme pessimism and discouragement as to the success of convention activities. The reasons for this feeling as discussed were as follows:

1. A "National Action" has never before been planned in an area isolated from the main stream of social protest activity as is Miami and in an area in which the populace is so apathetic regarding political issues.

2. There are no strong constituency groups in this area upon which to form a base with the exception of the senior citizens who are generally antagonistic toward militant protest actions. It is difficult to form a central theme as an issue which would not further antagonize this major group of senior citizens.

3. The radical youth culture which has been heavily relied upon for support in previous actions in other parts of the nation is totally absent in Miami.

4. With the growing strength of Senator GEORGE McGOVERN as a possible nominee at the Democratic National Convention, the propriety of conducting disruptive and civil disobedience actions at the Republican National Convention becomes highly questionable since such actions, with Senator McGOVERN as the Democratic nominee could well accure to the benefit of the current administration. The possibility of canceling all such activities at the Republican Convention in the event of Senator McGOVERN's nomination are being considered.

MM T-1
June 12, 1972

On June 12 and 13, 1972, the planning session of the MCC, which was begun on June 11, 1972, was continued in Lummus Park in Miami Beach. The meetings on these two days continued for several hours and most of the time was taken up by lengthly discussions concerning plans for the Republican Convention. The groups represented have no intention of staging actions against the Democratic Convention. These discussions centered around the conflict of interest between the substantial numbers of senior citizens in Dade County on the one hand and the "May Day Graduates" on the other hand. The "May Day Graduates" is a term understood to denote the veterans of violent protest actions in other parts of the nation in years past.

Local representatives emphasized to the groups from other areas that the large number of senior citizens in Dade County constitute a minority group of significance because of their large numbers and their resultant political strength. It was noted that the local news media could be expected to support the senior citizens in any differences which may arise. In this connection one individual voiced very strongly his fear that the media would "rip the movement apart" if anything happened which was opposed to the best interests of the senior citizens.

The problem of how to resolve the great differences between the movement people and the senior citizens is a very difficult one for which the members of this meeting were unable to find a satisfactory solution.

These discussions were also converned on a continuing basis with the question of whether it was advisable to conduct disruptive and civil disobedience actions at the Republican Convention in the event that Senator GEORGE McGOVERN became the nominee of the Democratic Party. It was noted that the movement people desired to do nothing which might imperil the candidacy of Senator McGOVERN. No decision was reached on this issue.

RE: MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

Specific plans were not formulated during these meetings, but generalized proposals emerged on a tenative basis for actions during the Republican Convention as follows:

The first day. A long peaceful march by as many people as possible in the immediate vicinity of Miami Beach Convention Hall with a maximum number of placards and banners bearing appropriate anti-war and anti-administration slogans.

The second day. Mass civil disobedience referred to as a "moral demonstration" in the form of a sitdown immediately in front of the Convention Hall for the purpose of immobilizing the convention delegates. This action was visualized as "highly structured," which means in the language of the movement a disciplined action involving only passive resistance and no violence whatsoever.

The third day. Because of the geographical considerations which make it possible for the police and other forces of law and order to provide a high degree of protection to the Convention Hall on Miami Beach, it is contemplated that actions will be shifted a few miles north on the third day and they will be centered in smaller communities in the northern part of the Miami Beach area away from the South Beach area where the senior citizens are concentrated.

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

The YIP collective, on the evening of May 28, 1972, met with YIP followers of FORCADE at YIP headquarters, Miami Beach, Florida. Approximately 35 were in attendance. A decision concerning the establishment of a printing collective took place.

JERRY RUBIN continues to be in New York and may remain there until after the primary elections. TOM FORCADE is also in New York City.

RE: THOMAS KING FORCADE

TOM FORCADE continues to be involved in publishing the "Beach Blanket News". One copy of this paper contained an article captioned "Gay Power" and another article "On To Miami". The "On To Miami" article was as follows:

> "As summertime approaches, various radical groups are looking forward to enjoying surf, sand and sun in a 1972 political vacation in Miami Beach. We'll all be enjoying the warm tropical climate while trying to change the political climate.
> "Y.I.P. is going to be trying to bring thousands of people down to Miami for the conventions. We're also going to be working to integrate these people into the spirit and mood of the local community,and needs...
> "Y.I.P. and everyone wants a non-violent summer. The public is tired of violence. Chicago proved the government can be fascist. Im Miami we want to show how we're different. We all want an immediate end to the war and much more!
> "But already the government appears to be trying to use the convention demonstrations to project an image of 'law 'n order'.
> "Some of our key people have been jailed, other have been hit with bogus charges and are on the lam. Hassles of freeks have begun locally.
> "Further, we have made it clear to the Miami Beach police that to prevent trouble during the conventions we would have to have Bayshore Golf Course as an assembly and accomodation area for the huge numbers of people coming down. Chief Pomerance and other officials expressed their desire to fully cooperate, and the future will tell how sincere they are. We know the people will not allow unnecessary stalling like Chicago did, in '68.

OPERATION PUSH, ALSO KNOWN AS PEOPLE UNITED TO SAVE HUMANITY

On June 15, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information regarding activities of Operation PUSH (People United to Save Humanity) (OP):

Jesse Louis Jackson, National Director OP, is planning travel to the forthcoming Democratic National Convention which commences in Miami, Florida, on July 10, 1972. The main purpose of this travel and of the OP organization is to lobby at this convention in an effort to include ideas of OP in the Democratic platform which would be favorable to blacks and minority groups. OP is not planning any militant activities and/or civil unrest during this convention.

Jackson has described OP as a Chicago based political and economic organization for the betterment of black and minority groups with guidelines similar to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

Jackson is described as follows:

Name	Jesse Louis Jackson
Aliases	Jessie L. Jackson Jassie Louis Jackson
Sex	Male
Race	Negro

In addition, OP had planned a mass demonstration in Washington, D.C., on July 4, 1972, to highlight the need for additional employment for blacks and minority groups. Due to the lack of support for this demonstration, this matter was cancelled and a new date was set for August 26, 1972. Due to the apparent lack of support, this mass demonstration will not be held on August 26, 1972, in Washington, D.C., and it has been cancelled indefinitely.

On July 1, 1972, representatives of OP (not further identified but probably Jackson) will travel to Cincinnati, Ohio, to participate in a rally to commemorate the establishment of an OP organization in that city. OP is planning no civil unrest during this rally.

The June 15, 1972, issue of the "Chicago Daily News," a daily Chicago newspaper, reflected an article captioned, "PUSH buys S.Side temple." This article reflected information that OP has signed a contract to buy the K.A.M. Temple, 930 East 50th Street, Chicago, Illinois, which it will use as its headquarters. This article reflected this property was sold for "less than" the $450,000 asking price.

SUBJECT: VVAW - OPERATION "COUNTY FAIR"

On 6/15/72 a meeting was held in Colonel [redacted] office with members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War reference their intended presence at both national political conventions. In attendance were: Major [redacted] Major [redacted] Captain [redacted] Sergeant [redacted] and Captain [redacted] of this Department; [redacted] of the State Attorney's office; [redacted] of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and, representing the VVAW, [redacted] the State Organizer, [redacted] a local spokesman for the organization and five associates. These minutes are brief in that the meeting was taped and said tape will be made available to authorized personnel on request. b6 b7C

All those present introduced themselves. [redacted] was the spokesman for the VVAW. He first requested that their medics (referred to as "red cross") be extended extra privileges during both conventions, to enable them to assist their comrades or anyone else, including police, in need of medical attention. He claims that most of the medics are ex-service doctors, and will be distinguishable by the red cross. He was assured that the police would cooperate with these people.

[redacted] requested that in the event of peaceful, multiple arrest situations (he implied there would be some), that low bonds, preferably from $2.00 to $10.00 be levied. He was advised that the police do not set the bonds, however, [redacted] assured him that he would advise the Judges of the circumstances of the arrests in the event they were non-violent.

[redacted] advised that their's is a national organization, having some twenty-five thousand members, and is well organized. At the beginning of this meeting, he estimated that approximately fifteen thousand VVAW members would be in Miami Beach for the Democratic convention, however, after the meeting adjourned, he suggested that a more realistic figure would be 4,500 for the Democratic convention and perhaps twice that figure during the Republican convention. They intend to arrive in Miami Beach en masse on July 7th and leave during the interim between conventions. They will stop in Gainesville on their way here, as they have arranged for accommodations there. Their "Operation County Fair" is scheduled for July 7th - 14th for the Democratic convention and August 20th - 24th for the Republican's.

The VVAW has experienced marshals who are familiar and influential with their individual groups. There are twenty-six (26) Regions nation-wide (14 Florida Chapters) which are divided into States, then broken down into cities, then into groups.

80-135-924

The marshals will wear yellow arm bands for identification. They are noted for keeping order within the group and cooperating with the police.

VVAW has joined with the new local Conventions Coordinating Committee for negotiating purposes; camp sites, etc., but prefer to speak for themselves. They have previously met with some of the Cuban groups and do not wish to offend them. They have also met with the County and Miami Police Departments.

They requested approval to maintain a drug analysis facility "Corner Drug Store" at their camp site. We informed them that the police would not authorize such a service.

They inquired about ocean swimming at night and we informed them of the dangers; fish, tides, etc. We also advised against their people "fanning out" into the residential community, and suggested that they carry identification. They inquired if we were going to enforce the vagrancy ordinance and an erroneous "law" they had heard about prohibiting unescorted women on the streets after midnight.

They were concerned with the treatment they might receive from the Florida Highway Patrol assigned here from northern Florida. They claimed to have no intentions of obstructing traffic unless they receive information that the National Guard is on the way. In that event, they would obstruct in any way possible. They intend to station some of their members at the various bridges for monitering purposes.

To circumvent misunderstandings, we requested that they confer with our Field Commanders prior to acting on rumors. We will reciprocate by contacting their leaders or marshals under these same circumstances.

The VVAW claims to have six (6) of their representatives in the Georgia Democratic Delegation.

Copies of VVAW convention newsletter, camp site and services request of the Convention Coordinating Committee, VVAW objectives and other literature was retained by this writer.

SUBJECT: MIDEM; MIREP

At the Intelligence Conference held at the Intelligence Center, Miami Beach Convention Complex on 6/15/72, it was reported by [redacted] of the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement that the front door, located on the west side of the intelligence area should be the only door used for entrance and exit into the center except in times of emergency. He said that there is a combination lock on the door and the following is the current combination: [redacted] This should open the door. b6 b7C b7E

He said that in all probability for the next few weeks, intelligence meetings would be held at the center each Tuesday and Friday. An agenda will be prepared for each meeting and in order to get an item on the agenda it should be submitted to him prior to 9 A.M. on the day of the meeting.

He said that admission to the Intelligence Center would be restricted to those persons whose names have been submitted as being assigned to the center.

He said a calendar of events which would be kept as current as possible would be posted in the Intelligence Center area.

He also reported that the Miami Police Department and the Dade County Public Safety Department would set up command posts on the mainland in the event of problems there during the conventions and that these command posts would depend upon the Intelligence Center for their intelligence information.

He said that an FCIC unit was being installed in the Intelligence Center and that three duplicating machines have been installed.

Task force: Act now on campsites

By RICK EYERDAM
And ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The Governor's Community Coordinating Task Force has joined with nine protest organizations in urging immediate action by local officials on requests by non-delegates for campsites and other facilities at this summer's national conventions.

After more than two hours of animated discussion with leaders of the demonstrator groups yesterday, the task force voted to urge the Miami Beach Council, the City of Miami Commission, and the Metro Commission to "immediately enter into substantive negotiations with the non-delegates."

Some of the task force members openly criticized Miami Beach officials for failing to respond to the requests of the non-delegates.

"We feel that the local governments have log-jammed these young people," Task Force member Sid Levin said. "If it takes a mass resignation or our going before the Miami Beach Council, something must be done."

These people have acted in good faith and have made an effort to make preparations for their own people and there is no reason why they should continue to be put off," Earnie Seiler, executive vice president of the Orange Bowl Committee and chairman of the task force added.

Included in the resolution was a request for Gov. Reubin Askew to direct the local government bodies to begin negotiations. The two city managers and the county manager would do the actual negotiating.

The 21-member task force was appointed by Askew to serve as his liaison with the community and to advise him on convention-related problems.

The task force is made up of religious, civic, business and government leaders and includes City of Miami Commissioner Theodore Gibson, Miami Beach Commissioners Leonard Haber and Robert Goodman, and Metro Commissioners James McKilfuns and the Rev. Edward Graham. Gibson and Graham were absent from yesterday's meeting.

The demonstration leaders told the task force that they felt Miami Beach city officials had not been dealing in good faith and had been stalling for time, especially on requests for a campsite.

The leaders also complained that they had provided the information requested by Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key two weeks ago and had received no response from his office.

Cheri Whitehead of the Miami Conventions Coalition explained that all the groups planning any activities during the conventions had organized a coordinating committee to negotiate with officials on campsites and other facilities for non-delegates.

The committee, called the Conventions Coordinating Committee, has requested the use of four campsites in Miami Beach during the Democratic National Convention July 10-13 and the Republican National Convention Aug. 21-24. They are asking for Bayshore Municipal Golf Course, the par-three golf course, Flamingo Park and the 21st Street Beach.

She emphasized that the committee has repeatedly stated that it will remain flexible on the requests if and when negotiations begin.

Goodman said he could see no benefit to the people of Miami Beach in negotiating a campsite at the present time. He added that he thought that announcing a campsite at an early date would encourage more demonstrators to come to town.

"This is not a question of more or less people," Miss Whitehead replied. "It is a question of more or less order. The people are coming. The more time we have to plan, the more organized and orderly the convention will be."

The Miami Beach City Council is expected to discuss the matter again in about two weeks.

Although the issue of campsites was the central matter for discussion yesterday, the non-delegate leaders were also asked to outline their individual plans and requests.

Here is what they said:

● Scott Camill, state coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, said his group hopes to mobilize 15,000 anti-war veterans to take part in demonstrations during the Conventions.

He said the veterans intend to bring their own food and tents, but will need a place to camp. He told the task force that the veterans do not plan to stay in the area between the two conventions.

● Ray Betts, a local organizer for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said his group plans to build "Resurrection City II" in Miami Beach during the Democratic convention.

Betts said the SCLC wants to build the temporary shantytown in Flamingo Park "to dramatize the specific needs of poor people." He said the group has not yet decided whether to stay in town between the two conventions.

● Patrick Small, a spokesman for the Zippie faction of the Youth International Party, said his group is planning a series of activities during both conventions.

He said he has no idea how many non-delegates his group will be able to mobilize, but he said his group will need campsites. He said the Zippies will not stay in town in between the conventions.

● Will Colom, a local organizer for the National Welfare Rights Organization, said his group, which will be holding a convention in Miami Beach a week before the Democrats, plans to take part in non-violent, non-disruptive protests during the Democratic convention. He supported the request for campsites.

● Oran Lindquist, a local organizer for the People's Party, told the task force that his group wants to hold a convention of its own in the Convention Center after the Democratic convention is over.

He said the group would like to use the convention hall for two or three days and invite the non-delegates who will be in town for the Democratic convention to attend as delegates.

● A representative of the Women's Convention Group said her group hopes to organize women from across the nation to demonstrate for women's rights at both the Democratic and Republican conventions.

She said that her group wants to have its own camping area and a child-care center. She said the group is not planning to stay in town between the two conventions.

● Jeff Nightbird, an organizer for the Youth International Party, said that his group has decided to "redirect its emphasis" from the Democratic to the Republican convention.

Nightbird said the Yippies will sponsor no marches or rallies during the Democratic convention, but will support the other groups' actions. He said his group will direct its efforts to organizing mass protests during the Republican convention.

● Cheri Whitehead, of the Miami Conventions Coordinating Committee, said her group is also placing its emphasis on the Republican Convention. It is planning no demonstrations during the Democratic Convention, but is hoping to organize large-scale protests during the Republican Convention.

She told the Task Force that her group supports the campsite requests of the Conventions Coordinating Committee, emphasizing that those requests are flexible and negotiable.

ALTHOUGH YOU WOULDN'T guess it by the signs, Miami might offer Watson Island as a campsite for non-delegates coming to town this summer for the conventions. At least that's what Miami Mayor David Kennedy said yesterday. The no-camping signs on the island and MacArthur Causeway are not new, Miami City Manager Melvin Reese says they merely replaced older ones.

Yippies Cancel Demo

Protest Plans

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

In an abrupt switch, the Youth International Party said Thursday it plans "no marches and no confrontations" at the Democratic Convention, which begins July 10 in Miami Beach.

Instead, YIP spokesmen said, they'll focus protest on the Republican Convention, which will hit the beach in August.

Yippie spokesmen dropped their estimate of demonstrators for the first convention from 100,000 to 50,000 or less, and said they no longer need Bayshore Golf Course as a campsite.

With smaller numbers, they said, Beach Mayor Chuck Hall's offer of Miami Beach Senior High School athletic field and the Par Three Golf Course will suffice.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT was a surprise because the YIP has the biggest names — Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman — and the best financing of all the white anti-war protest groups now operating in Miami.

Neither Rubin nor Hoffman, however, was present for the press conference at which the YIP announced its new plans.

"You can think of the conventions as a stew," said Jeff Nightbyrd, YIP spokesman. "The Republicans are the meat. The Democrats are the vegetables. City officials are the carrots. The people of the city are the gravy and we are the spice.

"The meat is tainted, too many carrots have had their heads underground and we gotta change the recipe."

ment was the fact that the Miami Beach City Council has refused so far to designate campsites demanded by the YIP and other protest groups.

In their announcement, YIP leaders blamed this on the Nixon Administration.

"Our work here leads us to believe the Republicans would welcome a chaotic situation which would discredit the Democratic Party . . . We do not want to be a party to that."

Admitting that no one protest group can control all others for the conventions, the Yippies claimed only that their announcement would "set the tone" for demonstrators flocking to the two conventions.

A BROADER statement from nine protest groups was expected. Including the YIP, the nine groups were scheduled to present their needs to Gov. Reubin Askew's citizens committee for convention planning.

Speaking only for themselves, the Yippies said they will shift their emphasis at the Democratic Convention from political protest to "a cultural and artistic expression of new life possibilities."

That means, they said, counter-culture poet Alan Ginsberg will lead "chanting," while artists will express themselves through such unconventional presentations as "sky art," for which searchlights and sky writing planes were included as "possibilities."

"We want to make clear we are not endorsing any candidate of the Democratic Party," the YIP said. "However, we see several progressive elements working among the Democrats, and will do everything possible to create a peaceful atmosphere where they can work unhindered."

THEY PREDICTED a "mass mobilization" for the GOP convention, but added: "We think a massive nonviolent presence will be more effective in stopping the war than street fighting."

Meanwhile, at Bayshore Golf Course, a splinter group of the YIP calling themselves Zippies announced plans for a marijuana smoke-in which they hope to conduct on that site July 9.

Zippie spokesman Pat Small claimed the group has already seeded the golf course with 30 pounds of marijuana seed dropped from a small airplane June 8 before dawn.

Asked who provided the plane, he replied:

"The Zippie Air Force."

TOGETHER, the two announcements seemed to indicate that white youths have shifted their anti-war demonstrations away from the Democratic Convention, and will concentrate instead on a counter-culture exhibition of what they call "alternative life styles."

At least two black groups, however, still plan protest demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. These are the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the National Welfare Rights Organization.

Protesters Will Focus On GOP

Anti-War Groups To Forgo Demos

Army of Ushers . . . 4C
Troops on Call . . . 4C

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Two anti-war groups Thursday canceled their protests for the Democratic National Convention and Gov. Reubin Askew's citizens' task force urged city and county officials to begin "substantive negotiations" for campsites for nondelegates.

The Youth International Party and the Miami Conventions Coalition said they would forgo demonstrations at the Democratic gathering in July and attempt to focus protest on the GOP convention in August.

But those groups and others accused Miami Beach city officials of dragging their feet in failing to designate a campsite for those demonstrators who will come here in July for the first convention.

A SPOKESMAN for the National Welfare Rights Organization said that group still plans to have 1,200 welfare recipients here for the Democratic Convention.

"But what we are getting from city officials is a stand-off," NWRO organizer Will Colom told the governor's committee.

NWRO will house its 1,200 persons in hotels but is backing campsites for the movement.

An hoc exchange between Askew's Citizens' Advisory Committee and spokesmen for various protest groups ended with the committee voting to throw its support behind the movement's demand for negotiations about where the demonstrators will be allowed to camp.

COMMITTEE Chairman Earnie Seiler said he would "immediately" — beginning Thursday night — communicate the committee's recommendation to the city councils of Miami Beach and Miami and the Dade County Commission.

The movement groups announced their revised plans for the Democratic Convention at the committee meeting Thursday afternoon — and at a Youth International Party press conference several hours earlier.

"You can think of the conventions as a stew," YIP spokesman Jeff Nightbyrd told the press conference.

"THE REPUBLICANS are the meat. The Democrats are the vegetables. City officials are the carrots, the people of the city are the gravy, and we are the spice.

"But the meat is tainted, too many carrots have had their heads underground, and we gotta change the recipe."

Claiming that "the Republicans would welcome a chaotic situation" at the Democratic Convention, the YIP said it "will not be a party to that." Instead of political protest, the group said, it will shift its activities at the first convention to "a cultural and artistic expression of new life possibilities."

SHARI Whitehead, speaking for the Miami Conventions Coalition, told the governor's committee that group has similar plans.

"We're mobilizing for the Republican Convention. We're concerned that things go smoothly for the Democratic Convention," she said.

Both groups said that reduced numbers of demonstrators at the first convention probably would eliminate the need for a campsite as large as Bayshore Golf Course — which they had previously requested.

But they and others pressed the committee for action on some site — and rejected the idea of a place outside the city of Miami Beach.

Beach Councilman Leonard Haber, a member of the governor's committee, told

Gov. Askew's Citizens' Task Force Hears a Spokesman at Meeting

. . . governor has urged 'substantive negotiations' for nondelegate campsites the groups he had requested a special meeting of the Beach Council to act on the issue before June 28.

IT APPEARED unlikely, however, that the meeting will be held before June 21, when Beach Mayor Chuck Hall and other councilmen plan to return from a national conference of city officials in New Orleans.

Other groups advising the governor's committee of their plans included Vietnam Veterans Against the War, whose spokesman said that that organization would have 15,000 members here "for both conventions"; the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which plans a Resurrection City encampment at the Democratic Convention; and the Miami Women's Coalition, which predicted that the conventions would draw "women's groups from all over the country."

The meeting of the governor's committee began formally, with the movement spokesmen asked to relate their plans one at a time. After about 30 minutes the movement representatives objected that the procedure was "too much like a court" and "like school."

SOME MOVED their chairs into the midst of the committee of businessmen and civic leaders, while others sat on the floor.

"Instead of you asking us our plans, you should be telling us yours," one spokesman said.

Members of the committee explained that they could act only in an advisory capacity to elected officials — but they rejected the charge that they were doing nothing.

"WE'RE DOING everything we can do, and I don't like your saying we're just a bunch of politicians," said Mrs. Athalie Range, secretary of the Florida Department of Community Affairs.

After accusations back and forth, the meeting appeared to reach a degree of understanding in an exchange between Mrs. Range and a young woman wearing a sweat shirt with the slogan "The Pope Smokes Dope."

"We came here to change the world, and we're frustrated," exclaimed the young woman.

"We understand," said Mrs. Range, a black civil rights leader.

The young woman looked at her and smiled.

"Then I feel better," the girl said.

Earlier, as Bayshore Golf Course, a splinter group of the YIP calling themselves Zippies announced plans for a marijuana smoke-in which they hope to conduct on that site July 9.

Zippie spokesman Pat Small claimed the group has already seeded the golf course with 30 pounds of marijuana seed dropped from a small airplane June 8 before dawn.

Asked who provided the plane, he replied:

"The Zippie Air Force."

CLIFFORD O'KEY

O'Key mum on campsites for now

Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key said today he does not plan to present his expected report on campsites for non-delegates at this summer's political conventions before June 28. That's less than two weeks before the July 10-13 Democratic convention begins.

Last night the Governor's Community Coordinating Task Force urged immediate action by Beach officials on the campsite question. (A detailed report of the Task Force action is on Page 8A.)

When asked to comment on the task force's recommendation, O'Key said, "I appreciate the input of the task force on this question. I have been in continual contact with the non-delegates and will continue to meet with them."

A council meeting had been scheduled for June 21 but was moved to the 28th because the mayor and all the councilmen will be attending the National Conference of Mayors in New Orleans from June 17-21.

Yippies to concentrate on GOP; go easy on Demo convention

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The Yippie branch of the Youth International Party, one of nine groups planning protests during the political conventions this summer, will "redirect its emphasis" from the Democratic National Convention in July to the GOP convention in August.

Organizers of the group announced yesterday that they would sponsor no rallies or marches during the July 10-13 Democratic convention.

Instead, said the organizers, the Yippies will direct their efforts to organizing mass demonstrations at the Republican convention August 21-23.

"The emphasis will be on the Republican convention," said Gus Reichbach of New York City, attorney for the Yippies. "The Yippies won't be calling marches, though they'll join other groups if they call actions themselves.

"We've scaled down our projections. We don't want to see 100,000 people coming down here now. We're thinking in terms of 20,000 to 30,000 for the Democratic convention.

The Yippies — one of the main sponsors of the demonstrations at the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago — explained in a statement that they have decided to change their plans this summer because they want to avoid chaos and disorder during the Democratic convention.

In the statement, the Yippies said they do not believe Dade County is prepared to handle large crowds of protesters during the convention, so any large influx of protesters could touch off unnecessary and unwanted confrontations.

"More than a month ago, we began contacting city officials explaining to them our peaceful intent, and asking for cooperation in avoiding another Chicago," said the statement, referring to the confrontations which broke out during the 1968 convention.

"(But) despite the goodwill of several officials, we still have made no concrete progress at taking care of the human needs of non-delegates, our enemy is time. As each day passes, planning becomes more difficult and chaos more likely."

The Yippies charged that local officials have delayed planning for non-delegates in large part because of pressure brought by the Nixon administration.

President Nixon, the Yippies charged, wants to increase the chances for disorder during the Democratic Convention.

"Disorder would not serve the demonstrators' goal of a peaceful end to the war, and it would endanger our grandparents' generation which lives here," the statement explains. "We will resist the Republican scheme to use us as scapegoats to promote a repressive society."

The Yippies said they were not endorsing any Democratic candidate.

"However," said the statement, "we see several progressive elements working among the Democrats, and will do everything possible to create a peaceful atmosphere where they can work unhindered."

Reichbach explained yesterday that, in order to scale down the protests at the Democratic Convention, Yippies organizers around the country are telling their supporters that "if you can only come to one convention this summer, come to the Republican Convention."

The Yippies are also telling their supporters that do come to the Democratic Convention to be "self-sufficient" while they are in Miami Beach and, when they return to their hometowns, to stir up support for the Republican convention protests.

In their statement, the Yippies said they will sponsor workshops during the Democratic convention to instruct their supporters on how to help organize for the Republican convention.

View From the Beach: Fear and Optimism

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Fannie Reichgott, 76, sat in the back of her Collins Avenue candy store, one measure of the mood of Miami Beach as the sandbar city hunkers down for a political hurricane.

Democrats, Republicans and demonstrators marched out of the table radio amid panicky talk-show predictions of trouble at the conventions.

Fannie listened and shrugged.

"I don't know whether to be scared or not," she said. "will it do me any good?"

EDDIE THE prizefighter came in. Also a couple of young black men to buy Popsicles. Fannie polled her delegation.

"So, Are YOU scared?"

The taller of the two blacks grinned. "I'm not scared. I like a little action."

Fannie stood her ground, in print dress and shower scuffs.

"If we don't look for trouble, we're not going to have it. There's a Jewish saying: 'If it's bershart — if it's fate.'"

SHE POINTED through the back of the store, past the twin beds and the refrigerator and the electric fan. "I go out to feed the cat. Here we got the local bums sleeping in the alley. Now they're going to blame that on the conventions too."

Eddie thought it over. Eddie Talhami, 28, who works out at the Fifth Street Gym and drives a cab, waiting for a break.

Eddie voted: "I'm sure, Mama, you're right. By running away we don't solve nothing.

"And, maybe we'll make some money."

window are those of commerce: American Express, BankAmericard, Master Charge, Carte Blanche, Diners Club, "Drastic Big Discounts."

Under gray-lacquered bubble hair, the manager surveyed her racks of dresses and looked glum at the mention of conventions.

"We could have lived without both of them. In 1968, they killed the week. It'll help the hotels, but no merchants thinks it'll help us."

Will some shops close? "There has been talk. Nothing definite."

A MILE away but on the same subject, a city official confided: "some of the shops were talking about closing.

"I think I talked them out of it. Think how that would look: International television coverage, and Miami Beach is boarded up.

"So we're going to have Democratic Women's Day on the mall instead."

BUT IF delegates may bring dollars, who wants the long-haired nondelegates? Alvin Baird does, a thousand at a time. As manager of the Roosevelt Theatre on Arthur Godfrey Road, he's booking midnight double features every Thursday and Friday for a seven-week period beginning July 6 and 7.

The films will include Beatles flicks — "Help," "Hard Day's Night," "Yellow Submarine," and other youth-oriented pictures such as "Downhill Racer" and "Barbarella."

With 1,000 seats to fill, Baird has been talking with everyone from the police to the Yippies about giving away 300 to 400 tickets a week.

IT'S GOOD business, he figures, "and it sets a positive mood in the community. The country is based on diversity. Let's appeal to that broad range of diversity."

If any community can host the whole wide spectrum of American politics and protest, Baird thinks, it's Miami Beach.

"We're a bigger fishbowl than Disney World. And probably funnier."

Jeff Nightbyrd, 28, sat behind his desk at Yippie headquarters, 1674 Meridian, a movement veteran whose credentials include civil rights marches in Alabama, the first anti-war march in Washington, a sit-in at the LBJ Ranch in Texas.

HERE to help the Youth International Party plan street culture for the Democratic Convention and protest for the Republicans, he'd been trying to convince public officials that most demonstrators don't want disorder — and that the best way to prevent it would be to give them predesignated campsites.

But now it was less than a month until the first convention, and from Jeff Nightbyrd's point of view, the establishment was still dragging its feet: "I've told them we want a peaceful event, but you've got to take care of certain basic human needs—"

THE PHONE rang. It sounded to Jeff Nightbyrd like the caller was using a speaker-phone, so Jeff hit the switch on the YIP speaker-phone too.

"Jeff?"

"Yeah."

"Jeff, this is Chuck Hall."

"Yeah, Chuck." The mayor had a group of visitors down from Brandeis University doing a study, and he wanted to send them over to talk to the Yippies.

"We don't need studies, Chuck. We need campsites."

"We're working on that, Jeff. But these people are on our side."

Jeff Nightbyrd agreed to do the mayor a favor. Send the people over. The conversation ended. Jeff grinned ruefully. "See what I mean?"

IN THE BACK room of Mendelson's Kosher Meat Market, 621 Washington Ave., the lunch-hour regulars sit along the chopping block. Steak, homemade french fries, platters of pickles, Jack Daniels, convention talk among men who've spent years sizing up politics.

Delegates, nondelegates, what's the difference? — "they don't go for a nickel," said a merchant. "It'll help the hotels. I can't fault the guy who's gonna make a buck. But for me it's a total loss."

A lawyer spoke up. He understands why young protesters want to be here; he cannot understand their demand for food and accommodations. "Sure, they have a right to come down — but food is another question."

STILL, NO ONE predicted trouble. Daley wasn't dumb in Chicago, he just didn't have any experience with what he had to handle. "We have Chicago to learn from."

Around the table there was general agreement. Police Chief Rocky Pomerance will be ready.

"I remember Rocky when he was a postman riding a bike. Rocky knows every step. And he's going to take it."

But there was no love expressed for the city councilmen who voted to invite the conventions.

Said a businessman: "The council are matzoh balls. A matzoh ball has no backbone."

THERE'S A different perspective from the 14th-floor penthouse office of Hank Meyer, the public relations man who has been selling Miami Beach to the world for 23 years, first as the city's PR man and since 1956 as head of Hank Meyer Associates, his own firm.

From behind his marbletop desk, Meyer can look out on a sea gull's eye-view of the convention center complex, including the hall where a president will be nominated and the greensward where demonstrators will march.

Hank Meyer has worked for years to "make the Miami Beach dateline a household word." And so the reason for the city's inviting both conventions, to him, was that Miami Beach wanted to identify itself as the convention "capital of the world" and become a part of history.

AND IF THAT means hosting the unconventional as well as the conventional, his reply, simply put, is: "Why not?"

Certainly, there are "imponderables" in the package. Certainly, a reasonable man must be "concerned." But Hank Meyer is counseling "a positive approach."

He explains: "New, fresh ideas are really what has kept this city in the forefront."

And so the mood is mixed. Fear and optimism. Cynicism and courage. Plain talk and public relations. Miami Beach, after all, is 7.1 square miles of pure polyglot — probably the greatest melting pot south of Manhattan.

BUT FOR ALL the show biz — what other city could bring the candidates to the hall via Jackie Gleason Drive? — there also is the stoicism of having simply lasted this long, for 49 per cent of the city's population is 65 or older, and if two conventions are traumatic, these people have seen stranger struggles, and survived.

They are, a lot of them, people like Max Serechuck, president of the Dade County Council for Senior citizens, who sat in his Washington Avenue third-floor office last week and recalled how, four years ago, he took a New York reporter out on the street to talk to old people about the convention that was here then.

Serchuck smiled wryly at the memory.

"The man asked a woman how she felt about it. She said, 'What convention?' He said, 'Don't you know there's a national convention going on? Don't you read the papers?'

"She looked him in the eye and said, 'Mister, on $68 a month, Social Security, you don't buy newspapers.'"

Badges Getting a Philosophical Polish

Police Leaders' Profiles 6C

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

Miami Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance calls it a "thin blue line." Police officials insist their convention philosophy will be low-profile. And even the Yippies say their attitudes toward policemen have mellowed.

With lingering four-year-old memories of Chicago, law enforcement planners gearing up for the twin-convention summer — now just three weeks away — have sent nearly 3,000 officers through some of the most specialized, expensive training in police history.

WITH THE textbook and the training film getting more emphasis than tear gas and night-sticks, some unlikely scenarios have unfolded:

● Abbie Hoffman speaking to a hostile audience of Miami policemen who complained later that he sidestepped their questions.

● Pomerance moving about in a constant entourage of visiting reporters and photographers, quoting Cicero and being referred to by one New York writer as "the thinking man's police chief."

● Burly veterans and young rookies, any of whom would rather be elsewhere, sitting in classrooms and soaking up courses on the philosophy of dissent, watching filmed replays of violent protest confrontation and undergoing carefully planned "sensitivity training."

● All 1,500 members of the largest police force in the Southeast — the Dade Public Safety Department — being shuffled through classes within three months.

● Four hundred state officers becoming students at Florida State University for a week and mingling with students registering for the summer quarter.

● At least one officer — who is nearing retirement — deciding to go back to school anyway because, as a result of the training, he's seen that things are so complex now," an instructor says.

AT THE HEART of the uniformed convention security force is the 250-man Beach police force, many of them veterans of the 1968 Republican National Convention.

The only casualty on the Beach side of Biscayne Bay occurred when the driver of the Poor People's Campaign mule wagon was run over and injured slightly by the vehicle after the mules panicked.

On the Miami side in 1968, a racial disturbance turned into violence, and officers from Metro and Miami were required to restore order.

This time is another story, with not one, but two conventions, and not a few but thousands (5,000 or 100,000, take your choice) of demonstrators expected — hippies, Yippies, welfare recipients, black people, Spanish-speaking people, left-wing people and right-wing people.

POMERANCE HAS deplored the necessity of the increasing importance of police in the American political process. "It's too bad," he says, "that police have to be a factor."

Pomerance, as chief of convention security, will command about 850 uniformed men, including his force, about 200 officers from Metro and Miami, and another 400 from the state.

Basically, he told the Beach City Council in May before it voted to invite the ... suggests that we have Republicans, "the game plan X number of men on the streets of our city from approximately July 6 to Aug. 24. The next level of federal involvement would be first an injunction and then U.S. marshals. Next would come the U.S. Army."

NOT NECESSARILY on convention duty but at the ready will be the rest of Metro's 1,500 officers, Miami's 794 and a few hundred more from Dade municipalities.

The next line of forces includes 3,000 National Guardsmen, 2,000 of them from outside Dade, ordered to duty during both conventions by Gov. Reubin Askew.

No one is saying how many federal agents and officers will be on hand, but personnel from 10 federal agencies, some of which compete with each other for prestige and tax money, are expected to be around, including the squads of Secret Service men and FBI agents that are becoming a fixture in the campaign.

INSIDE THE hibiscus-concealed chain-link security fence that surrounds the Miami Beach Convention Center Complex, saying who gets in and who does not will be the Andy Frain security service, hired by both parties to be the uniformed sergeants at arms and overseers of order.

But most visible to those who won't be among the 15,000, plus sitting in the Convention Hall, will be the policemen who, in spite of their numbers, will not match the 7,000 in Chicago and the approximately equal number that probably would have been available to the GOP had the party kept San Diego as a convention site.

The strategy, then, has demanded that law enforcement officials compensate with intensive training for what they lack in numbers and seek to prevent serious confrontations by preventive policing.

IT'S A STRATEGY that Pomerance has described as the "effective and human policing" of the conventions, and its components are the preservation of peace and the right of both delegates and demonstrators to express themselves peacefully.

The key to the success or failure of Pomerance's goal is, he is convinced, a $395,424 U.S. Department of Justice Law Enforcement Assistance Administration project known in bureaucratic language as "National Political Convention Law Enforcement Services Project."

That money, plus another $178,313 from the city of Miami Beach, brings to $573,737 the amount being spent on training 220 Beach policemen, plus about 80 more from Miami, Coral Gables and the state.

ACCORDING TO Pomerance, more than $354,000 of the money is being used wholly for training, $4,585 for new "armory" equipment and another $228,000 mostly for sophisticated communications and photographic equipment.

In the arsenal are metal detectors for hidden weapons and such riot control gear as face shields, smoke generators and gas grenades and plastic handcuffs with special pencils to write the name of the person arrested on the handcuffs themselves.

The electronic gear includes 45 walkie-talkies, an electronic system for scrambling police radio communications so they cannot be monitored by amateur radio operators, a radio paging system for police, a closed-circuit television system for surveillance in and around the hall, night-vision lookouts for outside the hall, a mobile command van with full communications and a minibus for shuttling policemen to and from the hall.

BUT THE 96 hours of classroom instruction that concludes this weekend at Miami Beach High School is the "one significant variable" that makes preparations for these conventions different, says Wayne Hanewicz, project director and an associate professor in criminal justice at Florida International University.

Hanewicz and a group of experts in behavioral sciences, urban affairs, psychology and psychiatry and police management from throughout the country got together in January and put the program together.

Part of the money has been used for overtime pay for the officers who have attended in three weekend shifts. One group has been in class from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturdays, after having worked the midnight-to-eight shift; another has worked 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, then come to class from 4 to 8 p.m. and what Hanewicz describes as "the freshest group" has attended from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sundays after working a four-to-midnight shift the day before.

THE PROGRAM began with the behavioral sessions that have comprised about half the classroom work, then went into what Hanewicz calls "cognative input" — such things as law and the philosophy of dissent — and finally into tactical training in such skills as operation of equipment, mass arrest procedures and physical training.

At first, there were encounter-like sessions whose goal, Hanewicz says, was to try to get the men to know a little bit more about themselves, get them angry.

That, says Hanewicz, did not prove difficult. Once, an invited member of the counter-culture showed up wearing a Viet Cong pin. A Vietnam veteran officer stalked out. A friend followed him, but they soon returned to class.

REPRESENTATIVES of several nondelegate groups were invited to speak to the policemen. "We just asked them to come in and sit down and tell a little bit about themselves. A few of the officers did get a little bit upset," Hanewicz said.

"I guess part of the anger was a little bit of apprehensive anger," he said. "Not knowing what the convention was going to present and feeling that it had been thrust on their shoulders, they felt a little bit like pawns. They were angry at the program, and we dealt with it. I think they've pretty much gotten over it."

"Now all of this, of course, we had to do all over again when the Republican convention was invited. We'd been saying, 'Don't worry, folks, all the trouble is going to be in San Diego.' We not only ended up with our feet in our mouths, we ended up in up to our knees. We got both legs in there."

HANEWICZ FEELS part of the officers' apprehension stemmed from a belief that they were facing at best a no-win situation in which they lacked public support. That belief, he feels, has faded.

Along with the non-delegates, some heavyweight instructors were paraded before the police-students: Dr. Gerald MacCallum, chairman of the University of Wisconsin Philosophy Department, PhD from Berkeley and an Oxford scholar whose specialty is political philosophy; Prof. James Ray LeGrand, chairman of the Criminal Justice Program at FIU Law; Prof. Emeritus Frank Day of Michigan State University; and Prof. John Klotter, dean of the Southern Police Institute at the University of Louisville.

The policemen, says Hanewicz, were pretty much like any other students: tired, sometimes catnapping from fatigue, sometimes interested, sometimes disinterested.

"THAT'S ONE of the things that was very hard to get across. We can talk about simulation, but we had to say, 'This is the very thing you're going to be facing.' That instead of talking the game, we were actually playing it, and if they see that, they got something out of the program."

What they did get from the program will not be known for certain until the conventions are over.

After the July 10-13 Democratic gathering, Hanewicz and his staff will take a look at performance and decide whether any more training is needed before the Aug. 21-23 Republican convention.

After that, there will be a detailed report on the project's success or failure.

Although far less fanfare has surrounded the training being given officers of Metro, Miami and the state, their respective chiefs are convinced it will be equally effective.

"I hope," says Dade Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy, "that we are seriously criticized afterwards for overpreparation."

PURDY'S EXPECTATIONS for the convention period are succinct: "I do not plan to turn Dade County into an armed camp, nor do I plan to tolerate wholesale destruction."

His 1,500-member force has been getting a minimum of eight hours each month — for the last three months — of training tailored to police the convention.

"Every man in this entire department is committed to making this thing work, because we know that if it falls apart, it's on us, we're it," says Purdy.

"SENSITIVITY training is nothing new to our people, because they start it in recruit school. We're not in this for glory or publicity; we're in it for survival, community survival."

The courses have been refresher training, mostly, in such areas as handling crisis situations and hearing from the department's staff psychologist, Dr. Parke Fitzhugh.

Purdy says it is crucial to policing the convention that many of the officers will themselves be young. "We are talking to a group of people that are going to be policing their peer group. If we had to police these kinds of activities with middle-aged people, we'd be in serious trouble, and understandably so. When they take off their uniform, they're a part of the young people, too."

THE MIAMI Police Department, aided by an $84,000 federal grant, is putting 500 of its 794 officers — including all the uniformed patrol and traffic forces — through eight hours of "platoon training," mainly in tactical skills.

The department already had trained 360 officers in three-day sessions that were microcosms of the Beach training.

"We're faced with a two-fold problem," says Robert Parkins, administrative aide to Chief Bernard Garmire. "We have to provide 133 men to the Beach as well as to provide to our constituents the service that they will expect and demand. The problem is, we've got to expect an increase in reported crime."

It's an expensive undertaking for Miami. Miami City Manager Melvin Reese estimates that the city will spend more than $254,000 for police overtime during the conventions, with most of it paying for 12-hour days to compensate for the loss of the 133 officers borrowed by the Beach. Overtime will also be expensive for other police agencies.

THIS PAST week, 400 Florida Highway patrolmen, Beverage Department officers, Marine Patrolmen and Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission officers have been in convention training at Florida State University in Tallahassee.

The training, financed by a $30,000 federal grant, was designed especially for the convention-bound officers, says William L. Reed, executive director of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, named by the governor as state coordinator for "all non-military functions" in which the state is involved for the conventions.

The state officers, considered crack troops with experience in both civil disorders and natural disasters, will be well-suited to convention duty, says Reed.

Lawyers at the sessions at Florida State emphasized that the key factor in police responses during the convention will be whatever is considered "reasonable to a cautious man" — the courts' terms — under a given set of circumstances, according to United Press International.

"What's reasonable in Pahokee in July will be a lot different than what'll be reasonable in Miami Beach in July," one instructor said.

PERHAPS THE role of the police in the conventions is best summarized by a statement in the Beach's application for the federal grant:

"It is no exaggeration to say that the eyes and ears of the world are focused upon the host community and its highly visible law enforcement resources during this enactment of contemporary history. It is clear that the highest degree of professional competence and sophistication is most urgently needed to meet so serious a challenge."

CHARLES WHITED

What If Nobody Wants to Riot?

I'VE JUST HAD an awful thought. Picture this, if you can:

Here's a town braced for the wildest summer in its history and ready for anything short of a Russian invasion.

We have 3,000 guardsmen billeted in schools, a small army of police poised for crisis, and so many FBI, Secret Service, intelligence men and narcs they're stumbling over one another.

The TV networks have scheduled prime-time, coast-to-coast coverage of the action, with millions of dollars sunk into commercials pushing deodorants and remedies for upset stomach.

Seventy million normal, average, violence-starved Americans are hovered around their sets, waiting for the 7 o'clock riots.

The county manager is in his secret command post, the local police are pulling 12-hour shifts, seven days a week, the Republican National Convention is in full swing, and . . .

Nothing happens.

No head-bashing in the streets. No smashed windows. No surging mobs. No trampling of the flower beds, wild drug orgies in public places, jostling of senior citizens or wallowing nude in the parks.

Instead of 100,000 wild-eyed radicals and assorted motorcycle gangs descending like Attica's hordes, we get maybe 20,000 serious, law-abiding and orderly dissenters.

They don't break glass, litter their campsites or even break the jaywalking laws. They're polite to local residents and officers, remain in designated protest areas and spend a lot of time playing guitars.

Most of them even wash and brush their teeth.

Many Ready

EGAD. AFTER all our pre-convention jitters, the clashing debates, the preparedness, the mood of crisis, the pulsing excitement, could the community stand it?

Could all those riot-ready lawmen stand it, spending day after boring day sitting around waiting for a radio alert?

Could Walter Cronkite stand it?

A lot of people have got a big stake in the convention.

Think of how poor Ellis Rubin would feel, for example, after he's made all those sulphurous speeches in behalf of his "Operation Backbone," roasting the hippies, zippies, yippies and such ilk.

What a low-down, filthy trick that would be to pull on Ellis.

And what about all those people on the radio talk shows who are raising hell with Mayor Chuck Hall and the Miami Beach Council for allowing this street ruck to come here in the first place?

They've got feelings, too.

Why, we've even canceled all the trials in Circuit Court during the conventions, so there'll be plenty of judges to handle all the people who are going to be arrested.

There's a whole ball park ready for use as an overflow jail.

It's Dirty Pool

WHAT ARE all those judges going to do with themselves if there is nobody to judge? Eh? We don't pay those nice salaries just so they can sit around playing gin rummy, you know.

A lot of these leaders of non-delegate groups just don't seem to be getting into the swing of things.

Here we are, practically on a war footing, and they keep talking about peaceful dissent. Some groups are even thinking about pulling out of the Democratic Convention scene, which would cool things even more.

Is that dirty pool or isn't it?

I mean, how would you feel if you gave a riot and nobody came?

The other day, I heard a lady yelling at a long-haired non-delegate leader about the mess they would make of the park if his group were allowed to camp there. Do you know what he had the cheek to say?

He had the cheek to say, "Madam, we plan to leave your park in even better condition than we found it."

How can you reason with somebody like that?

Darned hippies. No sense of responsibility.

Here's a Look at the Convention's Security Leaders

Bernard Garmire

MIAMI POLICE Chief Bernard Garmire has not been in the spotlight during convention security preparations but his 700-man force has been concentrating on improving community relations and quietly preparing for the conventions.

The former police chief of Tucson, Ariz., and Eau Claire, Wis., the chainsmoking Miami chief is considered a police expert on race relations and dealing with minority groups.

Garmire, 57, has been Miami's police chief since 1969.

One hundred Miami police will be loaned to help out on Miami Beach during the conventions with a special mobilization plan in force in case trouble erupts in Miami.

"We are well aware of the fact there can be some violent confrontations," Garmire said recently. But he is relying on a continuing community relations program which stresses communication with minority groups to prevent the sparks that lead to street confrontations.

James J. McDonnell

AS OWNER and operator of the local Andy Frain usher ing service franchise, James J. McDonnell, will head a force of approximately 350 uniformed ushers who will be highly visible during the conventions in their blue and gold uniforms.

McDonnell's ushers will be responsible for checking the credentials of those entering the convention and for order on the convention floor.

Working under the command of the permanent convention chairman, the Andy Frain ushers will enforce convention rules to insure the meetings are not disrupted and the podium remains secure.

McDonnell, 39, who was elected this year as president of the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce, has headed the usher service since 1958. His ushers served at the 1968 GOP convention.

Henry W. McMillan

A VETERAN of World War II and several civil disturbances, Major General Henry W. McMillan, 61, has been appointed state military coordinator by Gov. Reubin Askew for the two conventions.

According to present plans, 3,000 National Guardsmen under McMillan's command will be on stand-by duty in Dade this summer billetted in seven high schools during 14 days of convention duty.

Guardsmen under McMillan's command were mobilized to help quell street disorders in Miami four years ago during the GOP national convention.

Florida's adjutant general for the past 10 years, McMillan is former commanding general of the 51st Infantry Division of the Florida and South Carolina National Guard.

Following service during World War II in the 31st Division when he served as regimental commander with the rank of colonel, McMillan was chief of the first military mission to Paraguay.

In civilian life he served as chief of the collection of the Internal Revenue Service until his retirement in 1962.

Rocky Pomerance

THE SYMBOL of police security at the conventions is a 250-pound professional cop who believes in keeping a low profile and avoiding confrontations.

As chief of Miami Beach's 250-man force of blue uniformed police, Rocky Pomerance, 45, has been designated by Gov. Reubin Askew as "chief of convention site security."

As Miami Beach's top law enforcement officer, Pomerance won praise in 1968 for his handling of the GOP national convention. He was not involved in the violent street confrontations which flared across Biscayne Bay in Miami during the 1968 convention.

A 15-year veteran on the Miami Beach police force, Pomerance was hired 22 years ago as a patrolman. For seven years he served as an elected constable before he was appointed chief in 1963.

Favoring a low profile approach to keep crowd tensions down, and extensive training to help his men cope with crowd control problems, Pomerance will field his forces around the convention site and other key spots with a minimum show of weapons.

E. Wilson Purdy

Under state law, Sheriff E. Wilson Purdy is recognized as the top law enforcement official on Miami Beach or any other part of Dade County, and could assume command on an emergency.

But Purdy, 53, emphasizes his cooperative role with Miami Beach Chief Rocky Pomerance and tries to avoid discussions of when and how he would take over in an emergency.

Purdy, who serves at the pleasure of Dade County Manager Ray Goode, has been Sheriff since 1966 and is a veteran of the 1968 civil disturbances in Miami's Liberty City area.

He commands a total of 1,525 deputies in brown uniforms and will play a support role to Pomerance's Miami Beach police unless serious trouble develops.

Purdy, who is credited with successfully upgrading a department he took over in the midst of a major corruption probe, is the former Commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police and former St. Petersburg police chief. He also served in the FBI for 12 years.

William Reed

AS FLORIDA'S top statewide law enforcement officer, William Reed has been designated by Gov. Reubin Askew to coordinate all state non-military functions, services and support in the areas of public health, safety and welfare.

Reed's 350-man Department of Law Enforcement will serve primarily in an intelligence gathering function to prepare and communicate any emergency information required for decision making by Governor Askew.

Reed, 36, will also coordinate the efforts of approximately 400 uniformed State Troopers and other state lawmen assigned to Miami Beach during the conventions.

"Our mission is to support the overall security effort and maintain total communications with the governor apprising him of the general status," Reed said.

A former director of the University of Miami law center, Reed is an attorney who gained his police experience with the Kansas City, Mo. police department.

Paul Rundle

"IF WE MAKE a mistake in criminal investigation we lose the case. If you make one mistake in the area of human relations you can lose a city," Paul Rundle recently told local police.

As Secret Service Special Agent in Charge of Convention Security, Rundle heads the team of federal agents directly charged with safeguarding the President, Vice President, presidential candidates and certain other top officials.

Rundle, 41, a 15-year Secret Service veteran, returns to Miami Beach this summer after heading the Secret Service force here during the 1968 GOP convention.

Former Special Agent in Charge of the Denver office, Rundle will assume a new post as deputy Assistant Director of the Secret Service in Washington, D.C. following the convention.

In past years Rundle was assigned to protect former Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John Kennedy and, when they were Vice Presidents, Richard Nixon and Lyndon Johnson. He also spent two years in Paris as assistant agent in charge of Secret Service operations in Europe, Africa and the Near East.

Kenneth W. Whittaker

ALTHOUGH MIAMI'S contingent of 180 FBI special agents will be invisible to the untrained eye at the summer conventions, Kenneth W. Whittaker's men have a key function to perform.

Working in liaison with other federal agencies and local police departments, the FBI will be responsible for collecting the basic intelligence on which police decisions will be based.

If trouble should erupt, the FBI has direct jurisdiction for many federal violations, including assaults on federal officers, transporting firearms across state lines and crossing state lines to commit civil disorders.

Head of the Miami office for the past two years, Whittaker, 44, has built a reputation as an articulate and cooperative spokesman for the FBI in his dealings with the media.

Whittaker is an attorney and a 20-year veteran with the FBI.

Police convention-overtime to cost Miami $254,660

By ED TAYLOR
Miami News Reporter

The Miami City Commission has learned that this summer's political conventions will be costly affairs for the city.

City Manager Melvin Reese told the commission yesterday that the city must come up with $254,660 to pay for overtime for Miami's police officers during the conventions.

"I don't know where the money will come from to meet this obligation," Reese said.

All city police officers will be working 12-hour days during the Democratic and Republican conventions.

During the 1968 Republican convention here, Miami policemen who work overtime were compensated in leave time, Reese said. Because of contractual agreements since then, however, the police now must be paid for their overtime.

Reese said that 133 Miami officers will be working in Miami Beach during the conventions. He stressed that police officers remaining in the city also will have to work longer hours.

"Because of possible problems in our own community, it is necessary for all police to work 12 hours," he said. "They will have to work overtime to give the city adequate protection."

The overtime costs could go higher than Reese's figure because of an agreement that the commission entered into yesterday with Miami Beach and Coral Gables.

The agreement provides liability, workman's compensation and pension protection for Miami officers working in Miami Beach during the conventions. The officers will be used in non-emergency situations only.

It also calls for the officers to be paid time-and-a-half for overtime. Reese said his cost figures for overtime were calculated at regular pay, not time-and-a-half. He said that a previously negotiated agreement with the Miami police calls for them to receive regular salary for overtime.

Reese also questioned the fairness of the agreement's overtime provision.

"Our officers will work 12 hours a day in the city and 12 hours in Miami Beach. But will only those working at the Beach get time-and-a-half?" he asked the commissioners.

The commission authorized the agreement with the exception of the salary provision. Reese will negotiate the overtime question with police representatives.

The commission also voted to include Miami firemen in the agreement.

Reese, at his reqeust, was granted authority by the commission to seek federal funds to handle the overtime costs. He said he plans to apply for a grant from the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

At a conference sponsored by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) in Detroit, Michigan, on February 19 - 21, 1972, WAM was established as a national organization headquartered in New York, New York, to continue the PLP's efforts to organize workers in the struggle for workers' rights, centering around the campaign for "30 hours work for 40 hours pay".

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism - Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

On June 6, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information.

On June 3 and 4, 1972, a meeting of the International Steering Committee (ISC) of WAM was held at Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), Chicago, Illinois. The meeting was called to discuss the progress of the "30 hours work for 40 hours pay" campaign, the extent of WAM inroads into established labor unions, WAM finances, WAM organizational proposals and to plan WAM demonstration activities for the forthcoming Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami, Florida.

The meeting began with the presentation of reports from the various WAM chapters. All chapters shared the same problems, e.g., slow membership growth, slow acceptance by the labor unions and inability to raise sufficient funds.

The Buffalo and Cleveland chapters have been directing their actions toward the auto industries; the Cleveland chapter has achieved more success to date.

The San Francisco chapter is sponsoring a boycott of all Coca-Cola products.

The Washington, D.C. chapter has been making some inroads with the labor unions through the teamsters (concrete haulers) and a paving union.

The Montreal chapter has been sponsoring a boycott of A and P food stores there.

The Toronto chapter has been picketing the local Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company office to protest the Guisseppe Sgotto case and would like the other chapters to take the issue to their local Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company offices.

WAM plans for demonstrations at the 1972 Republican and Democratic National Conventions in Miami, Florida, were then discussed. It was decided to focus exclusively on the Democratic National Convention. It was decided that WAM would be in Miami on July 8 and 9, 1972, which is the weekend prior to the Convention. It was decided to picket at the hotels where the delegates will be staying. Plans were made to picket only, no discussion was held regarding any civil disobedience or disruptions. It was decided to leave the final decision to travel to Miami to the local WAM chapters, however, pledges as to the number of persons each chapter could send to Miami were made as follows:

Atlanta	-18
Boston	5
Chicago.	5
Houston	5
New York	15
Washington, D.C.	3

51

The Washington, D.C. chapter is to coordinate this action. On the return trip, the group will travel to Atlanta for a demonstration action, the date and nature of which was unspecified.

The Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle chapters will hold reactionary demonstrations at their respective Democratic Party Headquarters in the event a confrontation occurs between the Miami Police and the WAM demonstrators.

It was decided to hold the next International Steering Committee meeting in Houston, Texas, on September 8, 1972.

The slingshot consisted of aluminum tubing with a wrist brace and what appeared to be heavy surgical hose. JERRY RUBIN and ABBE HOFFMAN, on February 18, 1970, were found guilty of Antiriot Law violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. Pending an appeal they were released on bond by the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago.

JUNE 4, 1972

The June 5, 1972 issue of the "Miami Herald," a regular legitimate Miami, Florida newspaper, reflected an article captioned "Curse Ends Rubin Debate." The article reflected that a Miami Beach attorney, ELLIS RUBIN, had stalked out of a debate with Yippie leader JERRY RUBIN held on Sunday night, June 4, 1972, when a four-letter word was used. The depate concerned the possible demonstrations in Miami Beach this summer and RUBIN promised peaceful demonstrations if "we are treated like human beings." The article indicated that the RUBINs launched personal attacks on each other, with JERRY RUBIN calling the lawyer "my Uncle Ellis" and saying he was ashamed of his "relative." The article also contained the following:

> "ELLIS RUBIN read frequently from Jerry's book, 'Do it!' charging that the book's rhetoric was proof that the 'hippie, yippie, zippie and creepie' demonstrators intend to cause violence in Miami Beach."
> "The lawyer protested when it was announced that debate proceeds -- at $1 per person -- would go to the 'Sunshine Committee' a Miami

"group raising funds to provide demonstrators with food and seeking to ease any tensions between Dade residents and visitors to the convention.

"However, Sunshine leaders Gerald Engle and Marilyn Adams said $50 of the receipts would go to Ellis Rubin as a speaker's fee."

On June 15, 1972, information was obtained that the debate which took place between Yippie leader JERRY RUBIN and [redacted] was very entertaining and JERRY RUBIN came out the better of the two, particularly in view of the fact that [redacted] walked out after a four-letter word had been used. The debate is described as "pure entertainment" [redacted] b6 b7C

JUNE 6, 1972

There is no definite planned activity on the part of YIP in view of the fact that the leaders spend practically all of their time bickering and disagreeing with each other.

JUNE 7, 1972

On [redacted] a [redacted] (phonetic) went to the YIP offices [redacted] Several people were in the YIP offices at the time and were very upset [redacted] involved with the YIP, had gone to Oakland, California, merely to vote and was supposed to be back within a few days. STEWART ALBERT reportedly was leaving for New York City on June 7, 1972. The members of YIP were pleased with the reactions of Miami Beach Chief of Police ROCKY POMERANCE as they considered him "real cool." The three-page flyer captioned "Ten Days To Change The World" was printed at the YIP headquarters and approximately 3,000 copies were made and were reportedly distributed all over the country to underground newspapers in batches of 200 to 300. There has been no mention of violence or plans to have an active confrontation with police officials at the Democratic Convention.

[redacted] ABBE HOFFMAN was not in the city of Miami and was not expected for some time. [redacted] had departed for Berkeley, California. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] is still in Miami and active in YIP. [redacted] is also known as [redacted]

Two members of the Vietnam Veterans visited the YIP office on June 7, 1972, one of the white race and one black. They remarked that their outfit planned to mass outside of the city during the convention and then move into the city in force. These individuals indicated that the state officials for their organization did not know their plans but they would be informed when the local members were informed, and they further claimed they would not ask for a permit to march. They made the remark they had at least 15,000 members ready to come to Miami Beach for the convention. They also claimed they had all the necessary supplies and money to take care of themselves during the convention.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

There is to be a speech before the American Federation of Senior Citizens at Miami Beach on the evening of June 9, 1972, and this would involve the YIPs.

JUNE 8, 1972

STEWART ALBERT, in the absence of JERRY RUBIN, on the evening of June 8, 1972, addressed the American Federation of Senior Citizens at Miami Beach. ALBERT kept things "cool" and was trying to get the old people to be sympathetic to and favor the young people who would be coming to the forthcoming conventions in Miami Beach. The theory being used by ALBERT was that the Government was unfair to old people.

There is still disagreement and bickering between the individuals who control the YIP and the offshoot is a group referred to as the "Zippies," which means "Zeipgiest International Party," meaning "World View."

JERRY RUBIN was still an active YIP but as of June 8, 1972, was still in New York City. STEWART ALBERT is one of the leaders and very active in YIP and frequently pinch-hits for JERRY RUBIN.

JUNE 14, 1972

There were no definite plans as yet, as far as the Yip is concerned, in regard to the convention. The YIP is now taking a "cool" attitude in view of the fact that it appears MC GOVERN was a cinch for the presidential nomination and the YIP did not want to do anything to jeopardize MC GOVERN. JERRY RUBIN was in New York City and JERRY reportedly had been doing some "door knocking" in support of MC GOVERN, but it had been decided this was not advisable and he had stopped doing this.

ten days to change the world

The Youth International Party invites everyone in the United States to come to Miami Beach for a Celebration of Change, to occur from July 10 to July 14 and August 20 to August 24. We will create, in Miami Beach, a political-cultural demonstration of benign and peaceful magnitude---a zone of sanity and sharing for inspired Americans of many persuasions. Together in this joyous unity we will lay plans to disturb the coming machine-like tread of the Republican kingmakers.

The United States is rapidly becoming a nation doomed by its own monied corruption, violence, racism, pollution and amoral materialism. Congress's strength is ripped off by arrogant, macho power-brokers in the Executive Branch promising no future for us but a decadent Roman Imperium.

The Youth International Party strongly suspects that Richard Nixon is possessed by such an intense personal need for the nations of the world to grovel before his war-room throne, that the convolutions and revolutions of the world, in the months to come, may cause him to join the society of foamy-mouths.

Baleful winds of repression wait to be unleashed from the dark caves of the Republican Party. Everywhere bitter crowds of American citizens view the corruption and illicit wars of the government with total revulsion. War, social slavery, sexism, racism are peddled and packaged by monster capitalist conglomerates as the true America. If that is America, there is nothing for an American citizen to look foreward to but a long life of pain in a fearsome valley of robot violence.

The Youth International Party gathers for resistance and change. We are the direct descendants of a freedom and justice seeking people which links us with every centur with every decent cause, with every plant and mammal that ever lived.

We are freedom and sharing

We are women and men reborn in change

We are socialism

We are the grain

We are the sunflowers reaching to the sun

We will change our country by any means necessary

We are freeshare

There is nothing for America but floating platforms of war over dead jungles unless we rise up in a wave of change. We have an inalienable right to cross state lines to share, to seek peace, to speak against war, to demand honesty in our government and to command ourselves in our own ways of freedom. We will not let our country be taken over by a fierce, elite, jaded caste of bloodmoney-hurgry power-brokers living the life of the damned. We stand atop the seawall of ecology, freeshare and change. We stand at the barricades of decency and beauty.

We want change !

We want to change the environment !

We want to change the economy !

Change the government !

Change the culture ! Change your spirit !

Change your diet ! Change your sex !

Ex-change everything !

We will gather nean the convention site to point toward the deep change American civilization must undergo in order to create peace in the world. We seek the immediate goal of freeing all political prisoners. We demand that women have complete control of their own minds and bodies. People will be free to express their sexuality in peace and joy. Restrictive laws against marijuana will end, and the military economy will be dismantled.

We will continue changes with unconditional amnesty for draft refusers and from those who managed to escape from the grasp of the armed forces. We will demand a total end to all racism, to all sexism, and to the class system which leaves one of every four Americans impoverished in resources and spirit. We will seek to end the American tax system which spares the rich while burying the working person beneath a mountain of cruel and evil taxation.

We are taking every step to create ten days of peaceful openness and positive action, not to mention music, water and fun in the sun. We will only have peace. With great energy, the Youth International Party is negotiating with city, county and federal officials as well as the two political parties. Use of public facilities and parks has already been offered us.

NEWS BULLETIN

For Immediate Release

June 1, 1972

The Youth International Party (Yippie) today announced plans for a giant gathering of young people to take place in Miami Beach this summer during the Democratic and Republican conventions.

YIP has opened up an office two blocks from the convention hall and, with other groups, is concluding negotiations with city officials for camping sites. More than 100,000 young people are expected at the first festival/party July 8-13 during the Democratic Convention.

The Youth International Party is calling the two festivals the "Celebration of Change -- 10 Days to Change the World." Protest marches will be held from the campgrounds to the convention hall to protest Nixon and Humphrey's war in Vietnam. The theme of the "Celebration of Change" will be change, in all areas of life, by any means necessary.

Mayor Chuck Hall of Miami Beach has told the press that he believes the high school athletic field and par-three golf course two blocks away from the convention hall should be made available for camping for non-delegates.

Federal representatives assure YIP that toilet facilities and water will be available.

YIP is a collective of 30 organizers now working in Miami Beach to create this event. Major rock groups have agreed to appear to play for the people, as well as well-known yogi's, superstars and juggling acts.

"With no rock festivals planned for this summer, Miami Beach will be the place to be," said a hitch-hiking Yippie organizer. "Young people should be here in Miami Beach by July 8th."

NOTICE:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

We are coming to Miami Beach, Dade County, to exercise our right to peacefully assemble and demonstrate against the Indo-China War, the oppression of poor and old people, minorities, blacks, workers, gays and women, the exploitation of youth and the ecological destruction of the planet.

We are here to affirm a new life-style of freedom, justice and equality for women and men.

We have asked for the Municipal Golf Course, Bayshore G olf Course, Flamingo Park and 21st Street Beach as sites to both demonstrate and live on from the first week of July to the last week in August.

We have an absolute right to expect food, health and toilet facilities to be provided.

When the city council of Miami Beach voted to have both conventions in their city, they also voted to have us, the non-delegates.

The rich businessmen and the bureaucrats of Miami Beach are going to make a lot of money off the conventions; they as well as the Federal government must share a decent and fair amount of this money with the counter-convention.

At this time, when our country is headed for total disaster, we not only have a right to be here and protest but a responsibility.

The city of Miami Beach, the county of Dade and the Federal government have a moral responsibility to help us.

We have made our requests, but we are flexible; we hope the City Council is equally flexible.

The YIP held a press conference on Thursday, June 15, 1972, at their headquarters, 1680 Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. Neither JERRY RUBIN nor ABBE HOFFMAN was present and the spokesman was JEFF SCHERRO, who uses the name JEFF KNIGHTBYRD. It was stated that the yip planned no marches and no confrontations at the Democratic Convention and that instead, they would focus protest on the Republican Convention, which would hit the Beach in August. Further,

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

YIP dropped its estimate of demonstrators for the Democratic Convention from 100,000 to 50,000 and indicated they no longer needed the Bayshore Golf Course as a campsite and indicated the Miami Beach Senior High School athletic field and the Par Three Course would suffice. In regard to the Democratic Convention, they indicated they would shift their emphasis from political protest to a "cultural and artistic expression of new life possibilities." They predicted a "mass mobilization" for the GOP Convention but added; "We think a massive non-violent presence will be more effective in stopping the war than street fighting."

At the Bayshore Golf Course, "Zippie" spokesman PATRICK SMALL claimed the group had seeded the golf course with 30 pounds of marijuana seed, dropped from a small plane on June 8, 1972, before dawn.

The Zippies are an offshoot of the YIP and the normal leader is TOM FORCADE.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

"Instead, YIP spokesmen said, they'll focus protest on the Republican Convention, which will hit the beach in August.

"Yippie spokesmen dropped their estimate of demonstrators for the first convention from 100,000 to 50,000 or less, and said they no longer need Bayshore Gold Course as a campsite.

"With smaller numbers, they said, Beach Mayor Chuck Hall's offer of Miami Beach Senior High School athletic field and the Par Three Golf Course will suffice.

"The announcement was a surprise because the YIP has the biggest names -- Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman -- and the best financing of all the white anti-war protest groups now operating in Miami.

"Neither Rubin nor Hoffman, however, was present for the press conference at which the YIP announced its new plans.

"'You can think of the conventions as a stew,' said Jeff Nightbyrd, YIP spokesman.

"'The Republicans are the meat. The Democrats are the vegetables, City officials are the carrots. The people of the city are the gravy and we are the spice.

"'The meat is tainted, too many carrots have had their heads underground and we gotta change the recipe.'"

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

"Behind the announcement was the fact that the Miami Beach City Council has refused so far to designate campsites demanded by the YIP and other protest groups.

"In their announcement, YIP leaders blamed this on the Nixon Administration:

"'Our work here leads us to believe the Republicans would welcome a chaotic situation which would discredit the Democratic Party . . . We do not want to be a party to that.'

"Admitting that no one protest group can control all others for the conventions, the Yippies claimed only that their announcement would 'set the tone' for demonstrators flocking to the two conventions.

"A broader statement from nine protest groups was expected. Including the YIP, the nine groups were scheduled to present their needs to Gov. Reubin Askew's citizens committee for convention planning.

"Speaking only for themselves, the Yippies said they will shift their emphasis as the Democratic Convention from political protest to 'a cultural and artistic expression of new life possibilities.'

"That means, they said, counter-culture poet Alan Ginsberg will lead 'chanting,' while artists will express themselves through such unconventional presentations as 'sky art,' for which searchlights and sky writing planes were included as 'possibilities.'

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

"'We want to make clear we are not endorsing any candidate of the Democratic Party,' the YIP said. 'However, we see several progressive elements working among the Democrats, and will do everything possible to create a peaceful atmosphere where they can work unhindered.'

"They predicted a 'mass mobilization' for the GOP convention, but added: 'We think a massive non-violent presence will be more effective in stopping the war than street fighting.'

"Meanwhile, at Bayshore Golf Course, a splinter group of the YIP calling themselves Zippies announced plans for a marijuana smoke-in which they hope to conduct on that site July 9.

"Zippie spokesman Pat Small claimed the group has already seeded the golf course with 30 pounds of marijuana seed dropped from a small airplane June 8 before dawn.

"Asked who provided the plane, he replied:

"'The Zippie Air Force.'

"Together, the two announcements seemed to indicate that white youths have shifted their anti-war demonstrations away from the Democratic Convention, and will concentrate instead on a counter-culture exhibition of what they call 'alternative life-styles.'

"At least two black groups, however, still plan protest demonstrations at the Democratic

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

"Convention. These are the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the National Welfare Rights Organization."

ReBulet to SAC, Albany dated 4/5/72 captioned "CALREP; MIOPH," copies to all offices.

In connection with the forthcoming national conventions of the major political parties scheduled for July and August of this year in Miami, Florida, the importance of prompt and thorough handling of resulting criminal violations cannot be overemphasized. Of particular importance are violations of the antiriot statutes. One of the most likely violations which may grow out of the activities prior to the conventions is that established by Section 2101, Title 18, U.S. Code which prohibits interstate travel or use of any facility of interstate commerce to incite, organize, promote, encourage, participate in or carry on a riot. Planning and other activities in that regard may be occurring at the present time and learning of such possible violations at the earliest possible date is vitally important. Referenced letter set forth instructions regarding the gathering and preservation of evidence concerning criminal violations which may occur prior to and during demonstrations related to the above-mentioned conventions.

Information to date indicates the following organizations have formulated plans to participate in the above-mentioned demonstrations. The office of origin concerning each of the listed organizations is indicated below.

Florida Peoples Platform Coalition	OO:Tampa
Youth International Party	OO:New York
Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice	OO:New York
National Peace Action Coalition	OO:New York
Vietnam Veterans Against the War	OO:New York
Anti-War Union	OO:WFO
Progressive Labor Party	OO:New York
SDS/Workers Student Alliance	OO:Boston
Attica Brigade	OO:New York
The Enraged Ones	OO:New York
Young Socialist Alliance	OO:New York
Student Mobilization Committee	OO:New York
Socialist Workers Party	OO:New York

Inasmuch as it would appear any prearranged violence which may occur in Miami will undoubtedly be the result of efforts of some or all of the above organizations, the leaders of these organizations will be the most likely candidates for future possible antiriot prosecution. Therefore, receiving offices should intensify coverage of the leaders of the above organizations who reside within your respective divisions to insure any indication of possible planned violence is brought to your attention immediately enabling you to open an appropriate criminal case and institute necessary investigation promptly. Specifically, a chain of evidence must be built which will be available immediately to support antiriot charges which grow out of activity relating to the conventions. Experience has demonstrated that it is difficult to obtain this type of evidence after the violation occurs. Testimony of witnesses who are capable of and available to testify and admissible physical evidence regarding the plans, intent, travel, and other activities of these leaders constituting elements of antiriot violations are absolutely essential to make the strongest prosecutive cases possible.

Contents of this communication and of referenced letter should be immediately discussed with personnel handling investigation in captioned matters and with personnel handling established sources who are in a position to furnish pertinent information regarding captioned matters and regarding the organizations mentioned above.

Bobby, President

In recent years, an adversary situation has developed between the psychiatric profession and the homosexual community. While much of psychiatry seems unaware of this, it is felt with growing resentment and bitterness by the homosexual community, who increasingly see psychiatry as THE major enemy in a battle against deeply-rooted societal prejudice, and see psychiatrists as singularly insensitive and obtuse to the destruction which they are wreaking upon homosexuals by their negative attitudes and pronouncements. We consider such an adversary situation undesirable and reconciliation to be to the advantage of both adversaries. That is why we, as homosexuals, are here at the Dallas conference of the American Psychiatric Association. In our view, homosexuals are the people most knowledgeable about, and certainly most concerned with these questions. We have traditionally been the people least consulted while others, self-appointed and never authorized to represent us, have talked about us instead of with us, and set themselves up, without our permission, as our spokesmen. We are bringing that to an end.

b6
b7D

Central to the conflict between psychiatry and the homosexual community is the "sickness theory" of homosexuality and the whole related complex of negative attitudes toward homosexuality, which try to make of homosexuality something inferior to and less desirable than heterosexuality. It matters not whether the word used be sickness, disorder, affliction, disturbance, dysfunction, neurosis, immaturity, fixation, character or personality disorder, pathology, or any other—or whether homosexuality be considered as merely symptomatic of these—the effects are the same: (1) To support and buttress the prejudices of society and to assist the bigots in the perpetration and perpetuation of their bigotry; and, at least equally important (2) To destroy the homosexual's self-confidence and self-esteem, impair his or her self-image, degrade his or her basic human dignity.

Before any theory having consequences as disastrous as these is accepted, there should be certainty that it rests upon a sound scientific basis. As anyone with even a rudimentary scientific training is aware, the approach of psychiatry to homosexuality violates every canon of good scientific research. For psychiatry cavalierly to spout forth its characterisations of homosexuality as less than fully healthy represents utter irresponsibility. If the profession wishes to continue to take pride in its alleged scientific accomplishments, it had better be sure that its "researches" really are scientific. Insofar as homosexuality is concerned, they could not be less so. They are the distilled, concentrated essence of bad science; they are a textbook illustration of "science" gone wrong. When the psychiatric position on homosexuality is examined, we find that we have been DEFINED into sickness and pathology by cultural, social, moral, teleological and theological value judgments, camouflaged and cloaked in the language of science, but with none of the substance of science.

Even more irresponsible is the continuing refusal of psychiatry to shoulder its proper burden in any situation of bigotry: To provide therapy for the bigots in order to change their attitudes; to change the attitudes of society, instead of not only accepting those attitudes but deifying them and then engaging in human engineering for conformity to them.

Deeply resented by the gay community are persistent efforts by psychiatrists to convert homosexuals to heterosexuality, instead of inculcating them with pride in their homosexuality. Increasingly, we hear psychiatrists piously declare that they attempt to convert "only those homosexuals who wish to be changed." That is an unacceptably simplistic, superficial, and shallow approach. When society generally, and psychiatry particularly, have "brainwashed" homosexuals into a belief in the inferiority of their homosexuality, the homosexual who asks to be changed is merely the creation of a self-fulfilling process. How many whites choose to try to "pass" as black, and why is the number so small, and why do any blacks at all choose to "pass" as white, and is it not better that now, in an era of "Black is Beautiful," fewer and fewer Blacks are trying to be untrue to themselves? We must investigate and often challege the motives before we accept the desire to change. The great majority of homosexuals desiring to change to heterosexuality should be instilled with a belief that "Gay is Good," not blandly welcomed as candidates for change.

The homosexual community looks upon efforts to change homosexuals to heterosexuality, or to mold younger, supposedly malleable homosexuals into heterosexuality (the very existence of this "plastic teenager" is questionable at best) as an assault upon our people comparable in its way to genocide. We find offensive the entire vocabularly of the psychiatric literature, in which "help," "improvement," "success," "recovery" and similar terms relating to the therapy of homosexuals is related to the extent of increase in heterosexual tendency and activity. The goals of therapy of homosexuals must be subjected to searching re-examination.

Equally important as a consequence of psychiatric attitudes, is the fact that large numbers of homosexuals who might benefit from psychotherapy for a variety of problems unrelated to their homosexuality (which is NEVER a problem in and of itself, any more than *hetero*sexuality is ever a problem in and of itself) will not go near a psychiatrist because of their fully-justified expectation that their real problems will be shunted aside and ignored, and the therapy will become an unwanted assault upon their homosexuality.

For better or for worse, psychiatry and psychiatrists are authority figures in our society today. Responsible authorities assess with great care the consequences of the exercise of their authority and the validity of their positions and premises. In regard to homosexuality, psychiatry clearly has not done so. It is time to start doing so, or to doff the mantle of authority before it is taken from you!

In our view, it is time for psychiatry to reassess its position on homosexuality from the ground up. Queen Victoria has been dead for almost three-quarters of a century. Freud, brought up in the depths of a Victorian era from which he never escaped [illegible] work as a pioneer and trail-blazer, but trails are necessarily blazed with lack of knowledge of the whole terrain and seldom follow what ultimately turns out to be the optimum route. It is time to realize that much of the psychiatric approach to homosexuality must be recognized for what it is: A misinterpretation of cultural artifacts of the particularly distorted, warped, perverted sexual attitudes of the Victorian era, in which Freud grew up, and shortly following which era most modern "authorities" on this subject were trained.

We must recognize that one of the glories of humankind is its endless diversity and pluralism in all things; that we are not faceless robots all turned out of the same mold, but that we follow different courses of equal value to different goals of equal value in psychosexual development as in all other areas; that there is no one, single healthy course in psychosexual development.

Finally, we must realize that among the glories of humankind is its brain, which has liberated us from the degrading, demeaning, dehumanizing (and inapplicable in this context) "anatomy is destiny" theory. Our genital organs are our appendages; we are not appendages of our genital organs.

We take the position that in our pluralistic society, the homosexual has a moral right to be a homosexual, and being a homosexual, has a moral right not only to live his or her homosexuality fully, freely, openly, and with pride, but also has a right to do so free of arrogant and insolent pressures to convert to the prevailing heterosexuality, and in the expectation of the active, affirmative, positive assistance and encouragement of all the official and unofficial arms and agents of society, including psychiatry, in his so living.

Not only do we insist that homosexuals, as people, are in no way inferior to heterosexuals as people (a precept to which we are sure that most psychiatrists will take no exception) but we insist, equally uncompromisingly, that homosexuality—as a condition, state of being, a way of life or life-style, an expression of love and affection—is fully on par with and in no slightest way inferior to heterosexuality.

We are working to create a sense of community among our people, to create, in turn, a sense of unity, solidarity, militancy, and activism, in order to assist us to achieve our full rights and status in a society which is ours as much as it is that of the heterosexuals. We are working with success to create among our people a sense of pride in their homosexuality and a sense of the rightness of what they are and the goodness of what they do.

In order to do this, it is necessary to extract homosexuality from the medical context in which it has long and persistently been placed, and to place it in a sociological context of minority group relationships involving prejudice, discrimination, and bigotry. This is the only context in which the real problems of real homosexuals in our society today will be constructively and productively addressed. It has been well and truly said that in our society there is no Black problem, there is a white problem. We say that there is no homosexual problem, there is a heterosexual problem. Psychiatry, as it presently deals with homosexuality, is a major part of that problem.

A psychiatric profession which persists in approaching homosexuality as a medical problem and homosexuals, per se, as patients, while homosexuals themselves—homosexuals are busy entering politics and running for public office, is singularly out of touch with reality—psychotically so!

We are trying to open dialog with the psychiatric profession on these questions. In past years, it has been necessary, on occasion, to resort to strong measures against a resisting profession in order to achieve such discussion of our problems with us instead of merely about us. We sincerely hope that productive, constructive discussion and dialog, followed by meaningful reform of psychiatry, will now proceed actively.

Psychiatry, in the past—and continuingly—has been the major single obstacle in our society to the advancement of homosexuals and to the achievment of our full rights, our full happiness, and our basic human dignity. Psychiatry can become our major ally.

Will you assist us?

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

1. Both individually, and collectively as a profession and an association, re-examine your past positions on homosexuality. Discard the negative attitudes and the biases which have afflicted you in the past.

2. Work for a public renunciation, by psychiatry, of the "sickness theory" of homosexuality in ANY semantic guise.

3. Undertake an active, vigorous campaign to ameliorate and ultimately to eliminate popular prejudice on this question, both through work to change attitudes and in such specific areas as law reform, equal opportunity legislation, etc.

4. Consult on an on-going basis with representatives of the homosexual community.

Our themes are: GAY, PROUD AND HEALTHY and GAY IS GOOD. With or without you, we will work vigorously toward the acceptance of those precepts and will fight those who oppose us. We would much prefer to work with you than against us. Will you join us, to our mutual benefit?

Your comments, suggestions, and efforts at dialog and discussion are welcome. Contact:

PREAMBLE:

WE AS LIBERATED HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVISTS demand the freedom for expression of our dignity and value as human beings through confrontation with and disarmament of all mechanisms which unjustly inhibit us: economic, social, and political. Before the public conscience, we demand an immediate end to all oppression of the homosexuals and that immediate unconditional recognition of these basic rights:

THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN FEELINGS. This is the right to feel attracted to the beauty of members of our own sex and to embrace these feelings as truly our own, free from any question or challenge whatsoever by any other person, institution, or "moral authority."

THE RIGHT TO LOVE. This is the right to express our feelings in action, the right to make love with anyone, anyway, anytime, provided only that such action be freely chosen by the individuals concerned.

THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN BODIES. This is the right to treat and express our bodies as we will, to nurture, display, and embellish them solely in the manner we ourselves determine independent of any external control whatsoever.

THE RIGHT TO BE PERSONS. This is the right freely express our own individuality under the governance of laws justly made and executed, and not to be the bearers of social and political rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights, enjoined upon illegislative bodies and courts, and grounded in the both fact of our common humanity.

To secure these rights, we hereby institute the GAY ACTIVISTS Alliance, which shall be completely and solely dedicated to their implementation and maintenance, repudiating, at the same time, violence (except for the right of self-defense) as unworthy of social protest, disdaining all ideologies, whether political or social, and forebearing alliance with any group except for those whose concrete actions are likewise so specifically dedicated.

It is finally to the imagination of oppressed homosexuals themselves that we commend the consideration of these rights, upon whose actions alone depends all hope for the prospect of their lasting procurement.

1972 GAY RIGHTS PLATFORM IN THE UNITED STATES

(adopted by the National Coalition of GAY Organizations meeting in Chicago, Illinois, February 13, 1972)

Millions of Gay women and men in this country are subject to severe social, economic and psychological and legal oppression because of their sexual orientation.

We affirm the right of all persons to define and express their own sensibility, emotionality and sexuality, and to choose their own lifestyle, so long as they do not infringe upon the rights of others. We pledge an end to all social, economic and legal oppression of Gay women and men.

We demand the repeal of all laws forbidding voluntary sex acts involving consenting persons in private.

Laws prohibiting loitering for the purpose of soliciting for a homosexual liaison are vague and unconstitutional. Nevertheless, they are frequently used as the legal cover for police entrapment of Gay women and men.

We demand the repeal of all laws prohibiting solicitation for a voluntary private sexual liaison.

Prejudice and myth have led to widespread discrimination against Gay women and men.

We demand the enactment of civil rights legislation which will prohibit discrimination because of sexual orientation in employment, housing, public accommodations and public services.

DEMANDS:

FEDERAL:

1. Amend all federal Civil Rights Acts, other legislation and government controls to prohibit discrimination in employment, housing, public accommodations and public services, because of one's sexual orientation.

2. Issuance by the President of an executive order prohibiting the military from excluding for reasons of their sexual orientation, persons who of their own volition desire entrance into the Armed Services; and from issuing less-than-fully-honorable discharges for homosexuality; and the upgrading to fully honorable all such discharges previously issued, with retroactive benefits.

3. Issuance by the President of an executive order prohibiting discrimination in the federal civil service because of sexual orientation, in hiring and promoting; and prohibiting discriminations against Gay women and men.

4. Elimination of tax inequities victimizing single persons and same-sex couples.

5. Elimination of bars to the entry, immigration and naturalization of Gay aliens.

6. Federal encouragement and support for sex education courses, prepared and taught by qualified Gay women and men, presenting homosexuality as a valid, healthy preference, lifestyle, and as a viable alternative to heterosexuality.

7. Appropriate executive orders, regulations and legislation banning the compiling, maintenance and dissemination of information on an individual's sexual preferences, behavior, and social and political activities for dossiers and data banks, and ordering the immediate destruction of such data.

8. Federal funding of aid projects for social and political activities of Gay women's and men's organizations designed to alleviate the problems encountered by Gay women and men which are engendered by an oppressive sexist society.

9. Immediate release of all Gay women and men now incarcerated in detention centers, prisons and mental institutions because of sexual offense charges relating to victimless crimes or sexual orientation; and that adequate compensation be made for the physical and mental duress encountered; and that all existing records relating to the incarceration be immediately expunged.

STATE:

1. All federal legislation and programs enumerated in Demands 1,4,6,7,8, and 9 above should be implemental at the State level where applicable.

2. Repeal of all state laws prohibiting private sexual acts involving consenting persons; equalization for homosexuals and heterosexuals for the enforcement of all laws.

3. Repeal all state laws prohibiting solicitation for private voluntary sexual liaisons; and laws prohibiting prostitution, both male and female.

4. Enactment of legislation prohibiting insurance companies and any other state-regulated enterprises from discriminating because of sexual orientation, in insurance and in bonding or and other prerequisite to employment or control of one's personal demesne.

5. Enactment of legislation so that child custody, adoption, visitation rights, foster parenhood, and the like shall not be denied because of sexual orientation or marital status.

6. Repeal of all laws prohibiting transvestitism and cross dressing.

7. Repeal of all laws governing the age of sexual consent.

8. Repeal of all legislative provisions that restrict the sex or number of persons entering into a marriage unit; and the extention of legal benefits of marriage to all persons who cohabit regardless of sex or numbers.

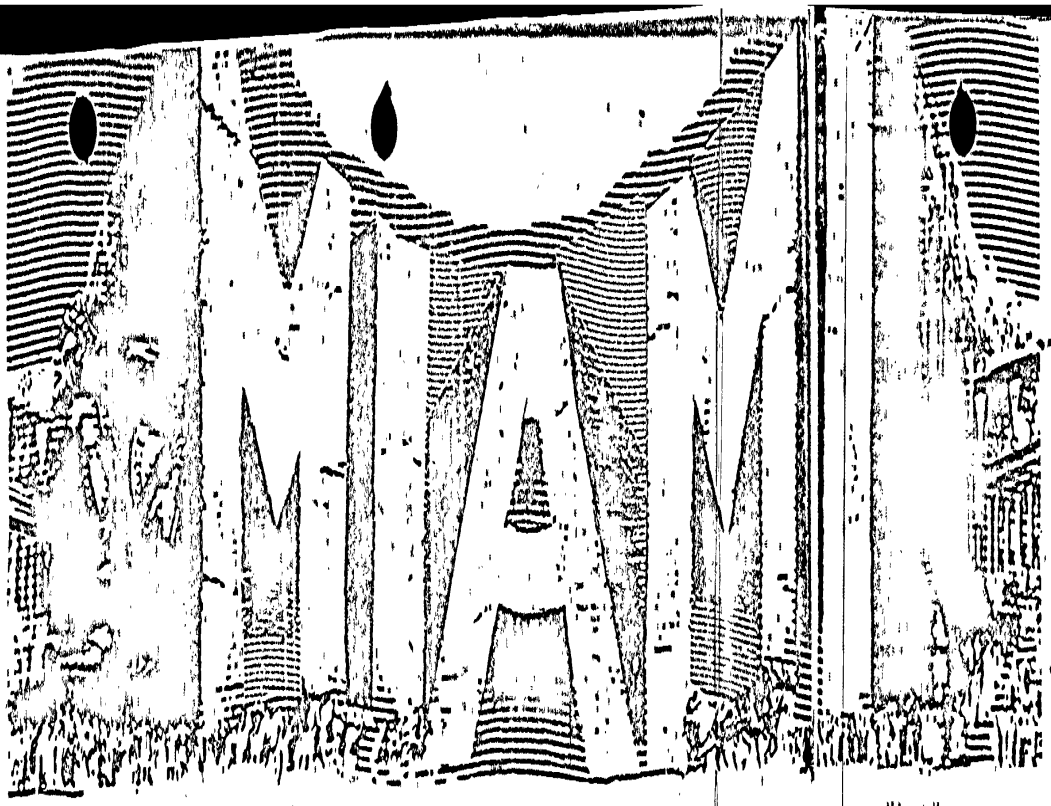
Buy U.S. Savings Bonds Regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan



Dear friends of Good Times Commune:

Howard and I are in Florida, but friends are sending the GT down, very welcome in a part of the USA where the establishment propaganda is uncontroverted and hence has a self-righteous tone of false objectivity.

I wanted to turn you on to something that happened here re anti-war demonstrations and the nomination conventions which might not be fully amplified by L.N.S., etc.

Today there was a rally at U. of Miami at which Jerry Rubin, Abby Hoffman and others spoke against the war and made some suggestions about activism before and during the conventions. They asked for no violence, rather for large numbers of people (500,000) to appear in town to voice opposition to the war and domestic problems, and to back McGovern as a real alternative to the Nixon-Humphrey puppet dance of death, strings pulled by the Ruling Class.

In other words, they didn't advocate anything more than U.S. history books tell you is your right and duty as a good American citizen. Regardless, when Rubin called a gathering of people who would implement these suggestions after the main rally, those gathering around were set up (physically) by Cuban youths staging what they called a counter-demonstration. Their message was that they wouldn't stand for any hairy communists dirtying up Miami during the conventions, after all, that's unamerican. (This was all on FM Radio and TV; I personally wasn't at the demonstration.) The alternate-culture's radio station, WBUS, of Miami Beach announced right after the demonstration that they would play a tape of it. A Cuban group called the station immediately demanding equal time to state their position. This togetherness and evidence of knowledge of activist technique surprised me, but it didn't surprise some residents of Miami counter-culture, who hipped me to this situation:

Recently there has been much propaganda for the social acceptance of the Cuban refugees who jam Miami. These are the "gusanos" who would not live socialistically. Newspapers run daily human interest stories on what adjusted super citizens they are and how their kids never cause any trouble. (Some young ones dress hip but act pretty 1950's.)

In truth, they flourish under capitalism. Small businesses proliferate, urged into being by Miami banks and civic-minded groups such as Jay Cee-types who offer special concessions on loans to Cuban businessmen. In other words, the large Cubano community (200,000 or 10% of Miami's population) is in the palm of the oppressor's hand and is very thankful for it. Not a day goes by without some beaming Latino expounding on the beneficence of the Amerikan system in the local newspaper.

Combine this with the circumstance that the gusanos are very militaristic. We have all heard of their plots to re-invade the homeland. They send their sons to paramilitary "academies". In the large Cubano neighborhood along the Miami River in the inner city, almost every corner boasts one of these. At 8 o'clock in the morning you can see the little eight year olds at rifle drill. I watched a Karate class (I was outside the fence); they were teaching aggressive offensive techniques. This was a brown belt class. The Cubans who attacked the demonstrators seemed to be older teenagers and they were smooth and calculating in their ass kicking, every man moving in the same patterns.

Now, Police Chief Rocky Pomerance (the Alfico of Florida) of Miami Beach has said he will contain convention demonstrations without violence by placing "psychologically prepared" agents in the field. At last announcement, they planned to use (unidentified) military personel in plain clothes, their numbers at a high ratio to demonstrators. They were stressed as non-violent.

If violence is desired, the Cubano youth could be used as the agent, the violence could not be traced to the police and the establishment. I have no secret memos to support this speculation; still the possibility cannot be ignored. If the establishment steps up its agitation among the Cuban youth that it started with media recognition, demonstrations at the conventions could, at best, be rendered ineffectual. The worst, I leave to your imagination. I suspect it could be unmitigated disaster. At any rate, a poor freak from Chicago or New York who embraces the first Latino he sees as a brother may get a Karate chop.

People should be prepared for this possible multiplication of opposing forces.

'Love and peace,

P.S. Bulletin on WBUS tonight, a spokesman for the Cuban youth organization says they can have 20,00 of their boys at the convention to battle leftist demonstrators.

Howard says "Shades of Mexico City 1970" when busloads of gratis fascists were bussed into a plaza to wreak terrible violence and death on students at the University.

Saturday: A Mr. Fernandez (a real gangster-looking guy, of the "Cuban Revolutionary Party", on a TV news conference, yet, said he is training "urban guerillas" to kick ass at the convention. Commentator said "Police may have to fight opponents from both left & right" because "emotions are running high & may not cool before July 10th.

Miami Herald whitewashed the Cuban's disturbance of yesterday's rally by saying only that one Cuban scuffled with police. TV film showed that this happened after Cubanos attacked people at the rally.

Will send later reports if you are interested.

The Youth International Party (Yippie) today announced plans for a giant gathering of young people to take place in Miami Beach this summer during the Democratic and Republican conventions.

YIP has opened up an office two blocks from the convention hall and, with other groups, is concluding negotiations with city officials for camping sites. More than 100,000 young people are expected at the first festival/party July 8-13 during the Democratic Convention.

The Youth International Party is calling the two festivals the "Celebration of Change -- 10 Days to Change the World," Protest marches will be held from the campgrounds to the convention hall to protest Nixon and Humphrey's war in Vietnam. The theme of the "Celebration of Change" will be -- in all areas of life, by any means necessary.

Mayor Chuck Hall of Miami Beach has told the press that he believes the high school athletic field and par-three golf course two blocks away from the convention hall should be made available for camping for non-delegates. Federal representatives assure YIP that toilet facilities and water will be available.

YIP is a collective of 30 organizers now working in Miami Beach to create this event. Major rock groups have agreed to appear to play for the people, as well as well-known yoels, superstars and juggling acts.

"With no rock festivals planned for this summer, Miami Beach will be the place to be," said a hitchhiking Yippie organizer. "Young people should be here in Miami Beach by July 8th.

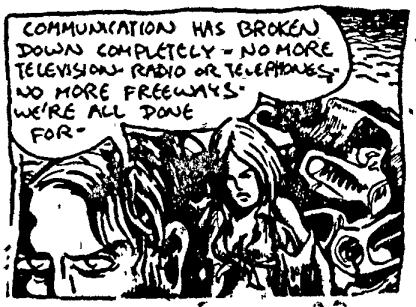
NISHES WELL BUT BEACH MAY BE HOT



by Angela Keyes Douglas

Some feedback on my last BARB ticle dealing with Miami has en received and duly noted. I ve been asked to write more ositive" things about the YIPlled gathering in Miami, and parently some YIPPIES were ffed at a few of the things id about YIP and Jerry Rubin. However, I feel strongly that at was said in the last article ands. Although YIP does reesent a lot of people, and Jerry uth Internation Party is not, d never has been, a gay liberanist or feminist organization. Yet, the statements issued by P in its call to Miami are surely sitive ones, and will be answered by the presence of at least a hunared thousand people; I wouldn't doubt that double or triple that number might show up, and predicted that figure some months ago.

Having lived in Florida, including Miami, for about ten years in total, and wearing long hair back in 1958 - when I was a male - in the area, I am slightly familiar with some of the scenes going on there and some of the negative attitudes of conservatism to be found.

Of course, it is my personal wish that hundreds of thousands of people show up at the conventions, and that their presence will have a positive effect in many ways and on many levels. I also hope that everyone enjoys themselves and avails themselves of the area's atural beauty and artistic sculpures in front of the hotels, and whatever.

But to completely ignore the spects of right-wing backlash and possible hassles would not only be dum-dum, but counter to a lot of things I believe in. I could liken only to calling for a lot of people run headlong into a cave which ds over a cliff.

If you are planning to go to Miami, be prepared for hassles.

It's that simple. The area is a hostile one, and the hostility is increasing as backlash groups gain publicity and support.

Agent provocateurs will incite violence, create situations, and drugs may be laced with poison, as they have at other large movement gatherings. Being dependent on food and supplies from the Establishment is on a par with being a VC and depending on the US government to feed and arm you.

The "campsites" might very well turn out to be concentration camps, and indeed, the city of Miami's officials have announced that they are preparing "detention space" for people popped in mass arrests. Thus, more data on Miami in this article; read it and make your own decision as to go to Miami or no.

"Don't follow leaders and watch the parking meters".

Miami Beach is an island, connected to the mainland and thecity of Miami by six bridges, called causeways. Some of them charge tolls. All of them can be totally secured by police, and persons attempting to cross them can be screened and searched. This is one of the reasons why the site was chosen as an "ideal spot" for the conventions, and a rightish reporter in a major newspaper said "the police will secure the bridges and turn back the rabble easily" some time ago.

So, fellow rabble, unless you have access to a boat, a blimp, or can swim damn well—or if you actually reside or work on Miami Beach—the entire island may be closed off to you during the conventions.

Miami officials say this could be done with an order from the county safety department.

Miami and Miami Beach are separate cities, each with its own government and mayors. The mayor of the Beach is Chuck Hall; of Miami, David Kennedy. Miami and Miami Beach are also under a Metrocity government system, which has its own mayor—and police force, as well as the county, and then the state. Layers and layers of bureaucracy....the Miami officials have announced that they are not, repeat not, encouraging non-delegates to come to the conventions. They also say they will rigidly enforce all existing laws in regards to sleeping in parks and on the beaches.

Thus, if for some reason the campsites on the Beach are not available, people will be forced to try and find places to stay on the mainland, in Miami. And that won't be as easy as it may seem to some people.

As backlash crystallizes nd organizes, the situation may grow very intense and the positive, constructive attempts being made to gain campsites and whatever by YIP and others with city, state and Federal officials may be negated by the backlash, and nothing else. If young people are denied their right to be present, some trouble is likely.

A number of caravans are presently being organized to bring thousands of people to Miami. I am only familiar with the one announced by the National Coalition of Gay Organizations, which is nation-wide and well-organized. Many thousands of people will be there; YIP should have no fear about a small number showing up. As to anything else, it's all speculation.

I personally hope to see a strong feminist and gay liberationist presence at the conventions, as these are really the major issues at this time as far as millions of us are concerned. For the first time in history, gays are truly having some say as to how the genocide against us will be perpetrated, and in a similar sense so are women.

The struggle against sexism will not be suspended for the duration of anything.

During my last few visits to Miami, I met a small number of people working very hard at great sacrifice to prepare for the conventions—and to raise the consciousness of the area in general. Perhaps a hundred in all. Not bomb-throwing revolutionaries, just young people from the area, or people who had moved there from others.

We—as I was involved in some of these efforts to a certain extent—began to look with great disdain at the people who flit in for a week or so screaming how behind Miami was, as they didn't stay around to do anything but cruicize and get a sun-tan. And so it is this time.

Where was YIP when Al Featherston of BAMM was railroaded off to prison, or when gay lib was trying to get together, or the feminist movement or efforts to

MIAMI M

ZIPPIE CALL COMES DOWN

MIAMI BEACH—Have you made arrangements for your summer vacation yet? Consider some of the many reasons why, this year, famous Miami Beach is THE "in" place to go:

Because you're not in school & can't find a summer job in the Nixon depression.

Because you weren't in Chicago in '68 & don't want to miss the social event of the season again. "I went down to the demonstrations to get my fair share of abuse..." Because you can't stomachwhat Dick & his buddies do and represent, & you want to join many thousands of other folks who are going to say so loud and clear.

Because you want to pressure the demo-crats to talk about real problems instead of pirsonalities and pseudo-issues.

TO STOP THE WAR! While we're getting it on in Miami Beach, the final battle of the Indocina War (that's been going on for the last thirty years) is being waged. Nixon is trying to cool it here & wheel & deal around the world; at the same time he sends in the Marines & lets the Air Force & Navy bomb & shell everytwing & everyone in sight over there.

But if the Democrats nominate their anti-war candidateunder pressure from the streets, followed by hundreds of thousands of angry folks marching on the Republican Convention (and Dick can't get away from it all on Key Biscayne anymore), that's going to make some generals pull in their horns & be a boost for NLF. And maybe Thieu & Ky will even decide to take it on the lam to the Riviera with their loot sooner.

But, you say, I'm not pro-Mc Govern. Why should I come for the Democratic Convention?

Neither are most of the people working on the actions. We understand that while McGovern might be an OK guy personally, there are also the old Kennedy men running his campaign, all the other people who would be in a Democratic controlled congress. It's a better team, but still the same game. That's one reason why no organization in the Convention Coalition is endorsing a candidate, and why we're going to focus on issues, not individuals.

I am fo McGovern. If I come down, won't I be helping to undercut him? Just because most of us don't think he's the answer doesn't mean that we can't see that George would be better than Dick. (Especially for the Vietnamese). So we intend to play it cool & not foul it up for him.

Is this going to be the biggest and bloodiest riot that I have ever seen?

Few of us are pacifists. Some Miami—Sunday night, June 4, in Miami's First Unitarian Church, the debate between yippie spokesman Jerry and upright local Attorney Ellis Rubin ended abrupdly. A person from the overflow crowd of 400 asked Ellis if the 1,000's of demonstrators coming to Miami should simply be told to "go fuck themselves".

The wording of the question so offended Ellis, he called it quits right on the spot. The dignity of his wife had been defiled or so Ellis claimed. Much to the pleasure and cheers of the crowd, he walked out with a bevy of quards and his wife at his side.

But by then it didn't matter much anyway. After 90 minutes of verbal sparring with Jerry, Ellis had Miami Beach lives entirely tourists & peosioners. The el owners don't want to see us, they don't want to see a big- & better Chicago '68, for damn e.

The city government is negotiating with us in a rational way. Some Republicans & Democrats would not mind seeing the others' convention trashed—but what goes for one will probably go for the other too. V.V.A.W. have already announced that they are prepared to deend demonstrations against physical attacks from the outside elements.

But lots of other people have their fingers in the pie, so nobody can say how things will turn out. So, don't expect trouble, but don't come down to Miami Beach with flowers in your air.

What can I do now?

Publicize & organize people in your area to come down.

Raise money. Send it to us & say who or what it's for & we'll pass it on.

Above all, try and get together with comrades to come down as a group. Bring some $$. We are arranging for a camp site, & facilities, but the more we are able to take care of one another, the better. Try to prepare for what you want to do, so you're ready to roll as soon as you arrive. If you can bring banners. props, equipment, food or other supplies, so much the better. Let us know.

and thus irrelevant.

Basically, Jerry's overall theme was like it or not, people are coming from all over to peacefully demonstrate in Miami this summer. Whereas, Ellis instead of trying to understand why (the war, poverty and oppression of minority people) seemed only interested in defending private property and spreading alarmist fear about disharmony that could result in the community.

Fear of one group by another is usually the major reason for such disharmony.

Jerry was attemping to break that fear down in the audience. Ellis appeared more interested in reinforcing it. Besides, even Miami Beach's city council has labeled Ellis an alarmist.

MIAMI ORGS MELD

Miami Beach—The organizations which have advance parties in Miami preparing Convention activities have joined together to form a coalition. The purpose of the coalition is to carry out united negotiations with government officials and to coordinate the activities planned by various member groups.

In order to achieve this, a steering committee was established, to which each member group sends one representative. At the moment the groups represented are: National Welfare Rights Organization, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Florida's People's Party, Y.I.P. (Yippie), Y.A.P. (Zippie), Vietnam Veterans Against the War, Miami Conventions Coalition (Florida People's Coalition, San Diego Convention Coalition and Miami Liberation Front), and the National Coalition of Gay Organizations.

At the first meeting of the steering committee, Saturday, June 3, it was decided that only recognized movement groups with a membership or constituency which are actively promoting Convention demonstrations would become members.

JOURNEY TO THE EAST

LAST MINUTE WEST COAST CARAVAN SET

A people's caravan from Berkeley is about to be launched to Convention City '72, Miami Beach, Fla. Groups of people will be travelling accross the continent making contacts ad book ups with other grops to share information, exchange proposals for the delegates at the convention, develop workshops to bring to Miami for political-cultural event which will crystalize not only our opposition to the war but to push for platform changes which speak to our needs and express our political and social demands, such as planks to deal with tax reform, welfare programs, and planks dealing with male birth control, etc.

We can turn the tide in the country.

We are not going to Miami to give all embracing support to any one candidate. There are many voids in American civilization and politics. None of the candidates can fill all of them.

But in terms of the war, welfare, and political repression we know which candidates we definitely do not want to see nominated. We will be there to organize street theatre, militant lobbying, demonstrations, caucuses, and leafleting.

We have had enough of Nixie's new repression-nixonomics. Our purpose is to communicate, educate and persuade.

With Wallace's growing strength in the Democratic political arena an onslaught from the right may throw the convention into a disastrous situation. While the right begins to strengthen its credibility in the media and amongst the people it wil be particulary important to be there to prvent a right wing onslaught. We are going to have to make it perfectly clear what the real interests of people in this country are and what issues as well as programs speak to our need.

Come to Miami to reshape a decaying structure. The time to begin is now. Last Minute Caravan for Miami is gathering rides, riders, cars, buses, trucks, mechanics for a people's lobby.

Office in Berkeley: contat 2490 Channing Way, Room 400, to call ask information for Paul Glaser's new listing. In Miami, contact 1674 Meridian Ave., 305-531-8895, room 201; In America, head South East.

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY 5 THROUGH 9, 1972

DEMONSTRATIONS AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, JULY, 1972

It has previously been reported that Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, President of the SCLC, had announced in Chicago, Illinois, on June 7, 1972, that SCLC plans to erect Resurrection City Number Two for the poor people during the Democratic National Convention at Miami Beach, Florida.

SCLC was founded by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.

It has previously been reported that the NWRO is planning an annual conference to take place on Miami Beach, Florida, July 5 through 9, 1972, and ANGELA DAVIS was scheduled to address this convention on opening day.

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D.C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SCLC; ET AL

On June 22, 1972, the "Miami Herald", a local Miami, Florida, newspaper, reported that three black organizations announced plans in Washington, D.C., for activities in Miami and Miami Beach, Florida, during the Democratic National Convention.

The article reports that Reverend RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY said SCLC will sponsor a mass rally in Miami Manor Park, Sunday afternoon, July 9, 1972. The park is located in Northwest Miami in a primarily black neighborhood. In addition, ABERNATHY said that SCLC is going ahead with plans to construct a "resurrection city" beginning July 5, 1972, and that representatives in Miami Beach are seeking a section of Flamingo Park for their encampment.

This article also reported that GEORGE WILEY, Executive Director of the NWRO, will sponsor a march to Convention Center on the night of Monday, July 10, 1972, as the convention opens.

In addition, it was reported that JESSE GRAY, head of the National Tenants Organization, said that his group will stage a demonstration at an unannounced location, Saturday night, July 8, 1972.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on June 22, 1972, that the plans for ANGELA DAVIS to address the NWRO convention on opening day, July 5, 1972, have been cancelled. This source reported that JULIAN BOND, a Georgia State legislator, will address the NWRO convention on opening day as a replacement for ANGELA DAVIS.

The Gay Activists Alliance (GAA) is a homosexual liberation group.

On June 21, 1972, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that there would be a demonstration held at the Federal Court House, Miami, Florida, at 8:30 AM, Thursday, June 22, 1972. The source also advised that the American Civil Liberties Union would also be present.

On June 22, 1972, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation went to the Federal Court House, Miami, Florida, to observe the proposed demonstration. Agents determined that no demonstration was being conducted. Further inquiries by agents determined that there was to be a court hearing concerning the Gay Activists bringing a complaint before the Federal Court against the Miami Beach Police Department concerning Ordinance 25-50 and Ordinance 25-52.

The ordinances are as follows:

Sec. 25-50. Impersonating females.

It shall be unlawful for any male person to exhibit or display himself costumed, clothed, garbed or appareled in any manner not appropriate to his sex or otherwise to impersonate a member of the female sex in any play, dialogue, theatrical production, pantomine, stage or floor show or act within the city.

It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any male person to exhibit or display himself costumed, clothed, garbed or appareled in any manner not appropriate to his sex, or otherwise to impersonate a member of the female sex in any play, dialogue, theatrical production, pantomine, stage or floor show or act within the city.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to theatrical performances sponsored by accredited schools, colleges and universities or moving pictures in a licensed theater or in public parades. (Ord. No. 1169, Sec. 3.)

Sec. 25-52. Indecent exposure; improper dress; indecent behavior.

It shall be unlawful for any person in any public place in the city to be found in a state of nudity, or in a dress not becoming to his sex, or to make any indecent exposure of his person or be guilty of any indecent or lewd behavior. (Code 1950, Sec. 22.35.)

The main purpose of their complaint was concerning the wearing apparel of individuals stating that it is a violation of their First Amendment rights.

It was observed that 20 to 25 individuals, men and women, from the local Gay Activists Alliance were in attendance. One individual was overheard to say that there would be 500 sisters in for the conventions referring to the upcoming two political conventions.

RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE; ET AL

The complaint was filed by the Gay Activists Alliance under the names of [redacted] and [redacted] A Miami Beach attorney attempted to get the complaint dismissed, stating that the ordinances do not violate First Amendment rights. Motion to dismiss was denied by Federal Judge EMETT C. CHOATE. A hearing followed where [redacted] was called as a witness and advised that [redacted] the Gay Activists Alliance is a non-violent civil rights organization. He further stated that their plans are for their organization to attend the convention in order to demonstrate for gay civil rights. He advised that there are approximately 584 gay organizations in the United States and that there is an expected six thousand individuals from these organizations coming to Miami. b6 b7C

[redacted] was next called to the stand and advised [redacted] for the National Coalition of Gay Organizations and that their main purpose is for gay civil rights. He advised that the purpose for coming to the convention is to talk with delegates in an attempt to have them understand their rights. b6 b7C

Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTENS stated that, in his opinion, the ordinances are vague and overbreath and give a chilling effect on the First Amendment rights. He placed a permanent injunction on Ordinances 25-50 and 25-52, stating that these individuals may dress in any manner which they want and are not to be arrested by the Miami Beach Police Department.

IT WAS THE INTENTION OF THE PCPJ, IN COMING TO MIAMI, TO SUPPORT THE ACTIONS OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION AGAINST (MCC). THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICANS NATIONAL CONVENTIONS. IT APPEARS, HOWEVER, THAT THE ~~XXXXX~~ MCC PLANS TO MAINTAIN A VERY LOW PROFILE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION, SAVING ALL OF ITS ENERGY AND RESOURCES FOR THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. FOR THIS REASON THE PCPJ IS NOW THINKING IN TERMS OF SHIFTING ITS SUPPORT TO THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) AND THE NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO) ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ WHICH ARE PLANNING TO CONCENTRATE THEIR EFFORTS AGAINSTTHE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

THE PCPJ IS DEDICATED TO A POSTURE OF NON-VIOLENCE AND HOPES TO INFLUENCE OTHER GROUPS TO MAINTAIN A POLICY OF NON-VIOLENCE DURING BOTH NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

PCPJ IS SELF DESCRIBED AS A COALITION OF OVER ONE HUNDRED ORGANIZATIONS DEDICATED TO THE ELIMINATION OF WAR, RACISM, POVERTY AND IMPERIALISM THROUGH MASSIVE CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE.

Think we should forward on LHM ??

The article continues to describe more precisely that the People for Peace is an alliance of concerned men, women and teenagers who share a belief that the "war in Southeast Asia must come to an end now." Mrs. BURNSTEIN, co-chairman of the group, pointed out, "by now everybody wants us to get out - even NIXON and AGNEW."

The article shows that the "now" makes the difference and it is toward this end the Broward People for Peace is marshaling its energies. Through letter-writing campaigns, the circulating of petitions, and the sponsoring of a candidate forum, the group hopes to hasten the end of U. S. involvement in Southeast Asia.

The group had seventeen founding members, which gathered for their first real meeting on July 9, 1970, according to this article. Their idea was to form a Mother's for Peace group. But as Mrs. BURNSTEIN, an attorney and mother of two, observed, "More and more men kept showing up so we thought we'd better change the name to People for Peace."

The group claimed that from a nucleus of seventeen, the paid membership has mushroomed to over one-hundred - and in less than two months.

Members eschew the screaming militant approach and regard themselves as a low-key group that has mapped an impressive legal strategy to accomplish its end, according to this article.

The article also points out that this group would also be working on draft counseling in order to apprise every draft registrant of his rights. In addition, the group will also make them aware of vocational opportunities offered by the military.

People for Peace has selected a variety of fronts in which to mount its fight for peace now. Members have faith in the impact of well-directed letters and postcards.

They periodically issue addresses of munitions manufacturers, radio and TV stations who refuse to accept paid peace ads, and a listing of businesses who "stifle our work for peace."

Their position is clearly stated in the motto they adopted, while still carrying the Mothers for Peace banner, "We who have given life must be dedicated to preserving it."

The article concluded by giving the group's address as P. O. Box 6340, Hollywood 33030.

The full text of this article will be serialized into this file.

The December 1, 1970, edition of the "Sun-Sentinel" contains an article showing that Broward County's first draft counseling service is sponsored by the Broward People for Peace, which opened an office at the Union Congregational Church, 120 SW 6th Avenue, Hallandale, Florida. The article indicates that one DICK GOLDSTEIN, a kindergarten teacher, and CONRAD BRUNK, Assistant Director, may be the leading principals of this service. Their counseling will closely follow a legal course using the book of rules put out by the Government and the Selective Service System.

GOLDSTEIN was also described as a graduate of the Merchant Marine Academy and a former Naval lieutenant.

The full text of this article will be serialized into this file.

The February 24, 1971, edition of the "Sun Sentinel" mentions a Mrs. ANDREW (MARIANNE) MAVRIDES as being a member of the Broward People for Peace. She expounds her opinions about the war in Vietnam as well as the objectives of the Broward People for Peace, which is a synopsis of what is already outlined in the September 14, 1970, article, supra.

Biographically, MAVRIDES is reported to be the wife of a high school English teacher and the mother of three children. Her older son is a student at the University of Florida, Gainesville, Fla.

The full text of this article will be serialized into this file.

The February 19, 1971, edition of the "Ft. Lauderdale News," a local newspaper published daily at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., contains an article claiming that the Broward People for Peace (BPP) has 250 members. MARGERY STEVENS is described as the BPP chairman. The telephone #922-8503 was given as the number to call for information about the organization.

Generally, the article is simply a recapitulation of the groups history and objectives.

The full text of this article will be serialized into this file.

The October 10, 1971, edition of the "Ft. Lauderdale News" contains an article reporting a bicycle trek sponsored by the Broward People for Peace. Also, the Rev. BILL WILLIS from the Miami Peace Coalition will speak before the group.

The full text of the article will be serialized into this file.

The October 11, 1971, edition of the "Miami Herald" a local newspaper published daily at Miami, Florida, reports that Dr. ALBERT KELLERT of Hollywood, Florida, is a leader of the Broward People for Peace.

The article reported a march sponsored by the foregoing group.

The full text of the article will be serialized into this file.

Yippies, war vets, cops all cozy down in Florida

BY DOROTHY STORCK

FOR ANYONE WHO HAS been thru the gas, Mace, political insecurity, street nuttiness, park pathos and malicious malapropism of the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago—talking to authority folks in Miami Beach these days is like talking to moon children.

The police chief, Rocky Pomerance [formerly Arnold Pomerance of the Bronx], calls back collect to tell you that he's putting all his cops thru sensitivity sessions at the university.

Jeff Nightbyrd calls back not collect.

He is phoning from the five-room air-conditioned suite on posh Lincoln Road where the Youth International Party has its headquarters.

In the bad old days when Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman thought up the Yippies as a cultural joke, administration jowls fell slack at the sight of them. Right before the teeth behind the jowls started to grind.

Now Jeff Nightbyrd informs you he is meeting tomorrow with "the governor's commission" to discuss appropriate campingsites.

YIPPIES, GAY LIB, VIET NAM vets for peace, Southern Christian Leadership Conference — in all a nine-part grouping that hopes to bring in getween 10,000 and 100,000 people to the conventions—have been meeting comfortably with officialdom.

Miami Beach and Dade County officials refer to the proposed hordes with unfailing politeness as "nondelegate visitors."

The girl who answer the Yippie phone in Nightbyrd's office bubbles happily that "Chuck" has been calling every day "to see that everything's all right."

Chuck, it turns out, is Charles [Call me Chuck] Hall, the mayor of Miami Beach, a former Northwestern U. language professor.

Rep. Claude Pepper, that perennial if somewhat-socked-about New Deal liberal, has been puttering in and out of the young folks' meetings.

And heading the governor's commission to make-sure-that-we-don't-have-anything-like-Chicago-in-1968 is none other than Ernie Seiler, the Sol Hurck of Miamidom, who is best known for creating the Orange Bowl and then filling it with teams, games, drum majorettes and balloons floating out of the louds-speaker system during halftime.

THE YIPPIES, Convention '72 are planning soft music and antidrug workshops in the park. "We don't want to make this a political Woodstock," Nightbyrd announces.

Pomerance, who had been called the thinking-man's cop, says that the rhetoric of The Movement has muted considerably since 1968.

He already has designated an area near the convention hall for demonstrations, built a fence around it, but tactfully covered the fence with hibiscus bloooms.

"I believe in the First Amendment," Pomerance says. "So do these kids. We can work with each other."

His 250-man force has taken a mandatory course in constitutional law nad philosophy of dissent—for wheih they received four college credits.

There have been sensitivity sessions at the now empty Miami Beach High School with policemen and members of the Yippies and the Viets Vets Aganist the War.

SCOTT CAMIL, A TWICE decorated ex-Marine who is heading the Viet Vets Against the War Miami office, suggested the sessions.

"We are not 'hippies.' Policemen are not 'pigs,'" Camil said. "We've got to take the dehumanization out of things."

Camil, whose father has been on the Miami police force for 18 years, has some further credentials to lure cops and bearede youths into handholding sessions. He was in charge of riot control training for the 10th Marine Regiment at Camp Lejeune, N. C., n 1969.

"The trouble in Chicago was that nobody looked at each other. Just the stereotypes," Camil said.

Rocky Pomerance is even talking about the possibility of having his men around the convention centr leave pstols, Mace and nightsticks back at the station house.

The civility is overwhelming. But it is not —as some veteran Chicago cops might assume—naivete.

Pomerance visited Chicago two weeks ago to match notes. He spoke briefly with Chicago police Supt. James Conlisk Jr. While the two police chiefs obviously have different philosophies of enforcement Pomerance has his contingency plans if sweet reasonableness should fail.

Should the need develop he can deploy something like 500 Miami, Dade County, Florida Highway Parole officers and unspecified numbers of Florida National Guard troops put under his overall command by Gov. Reubin Askew.

In addition, the city will be saturated by agents from 10 federal agencies, including the Secret Service, FBI, Bureau of Narcotics and the Army [military intelligence and bomb control].

EVERYBODY AGREES that everybody else is trying almost frantically to "avoid hassles." At least, for the Democratic convention. The later Republican convention may be quite another thing.

"The way we feel about the Democratic convention," says Scott Camil, "is that any violence can only hurt our cause and help Nixon. We are all basically behind the things McGovern is asking for, altho we don't want to back a man but a platform."

The early arrivals at the Viet vets headquareters are already starting to make the rounds and introduce themselves to the Florida delegates. The vets plan to lobby for peace, amnesty and a $30-billion defense budget cut. They will be assigned individual delgations as they arrive.

The old salt Yippie leaders, Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin, have already gone on record as endorsing McGovern.

Rubin has been in and out of the Miami office—once to debate conservative lawyer and former mayoral candidate Ellis Rubin.

Ellis Rubin has formed Operation Backbone, an outfit dedicated to driving out "Yippies, zippies and dippies," and bringing in hard-hats and Boy Scouts instead to tent under the palm trees.

Young Rubin debated the elder Rubin on radio—from which program Ellis promptly stalked as Jerry uttered an unairable word. Ellis Rubin is Jerry Rubin's uncle—which may give insight into why Jerry left home and also makes you wonder if all the descending Yippies will run into retired Miami Beach relatives and end up being scolded and fed chicken soup.

MAYOR [CALL me Chuck] Hall is having more problems with his city council at the moment than he is with the "nondelegate visitors."

Unlike Chicago, the Miami Beach council is not run by the mayor.

"I only have one vote," Chuck Hall laments, "and the other six members keep voting against me when it comes to giving the kids a camping site."

The Miami Beach council, predominantly businessmen with hotel interests and a steady tourist trade, were not particularly charmed to begin with at the idea of having two political conventions on home turf.

The thought of filling up the manicured parks with shaggy, non-paying kids is causing middle-aged indigestion in council chambers.

Mayor Hall admits the councilmen are holding off until the last minute, hoping the whole thing will go away. "But I just got another vote today," the mayor said. "They're going to have to come around and vote on the sites."

"They'd better," Nightbyrd says grimly. "And make provisions for water and sanitary facilities too, or we'll all troop in and use the johns in their hotels. And we don't want to take the parks away from the old people who sit in the sun [median age in Miami Beach: 63.2 years]. We want to camp on the golf course where the rich people play."

SCOTT CAMIL, WITH Marine realism, points out that the delay in naming the campsites is just going to cause confusion—"Which is one thing we don't want. But I've got to start making deployment plans for the vets coming down here."

Ray Goode, Dade County manager, has already contacted the Army and Civil Defense units to put in toilet and water facilities for the open-air nondelegates. "The kids have agreed to cut out of here for the five weeks between conventions," he said. "Everything's set, waiting for the city council to wake up."

Nobody, not even the Yippies, is talking much yet about activities planned during the Republican convention in August. But Camil predicts that the more serious protesters—and certainly the vets—will be arriving for that one.

There is already a San Diego Convention Coalition—redubbed Miami CC since the site switch—setting up to deal directly with theRepublicans. "There will be marches in August," Camil says, a bit worriedly.

Meanwhile, in the midst of the latest city council vote, Mayor Hall decided to ease his indigestion with a gourmet lunch in a posh ocean-front hotel wheih is destined to be Democratic National headquareters and the press center.

"I got food poisoning," Chuck Hall said. "My God, I hope it isn't an omen."

Shalom

This summer in Miami Beach people from all over the country will be getting together in the spirit of peace and friendship. We will be here to focus attention on some of the major issues affecting this nation and the world. These issues greatly affect you.

Each day the war in Vietnam continues the needs of senior citizens are denied. You, who have worked so hard over the years, are ignored by a system which spends billions of dollars to kill Vietnamese people, but cannot explain why there are no funds for adequate services for the elderly.

We must demand that our government pay serious attention to your needs as senior citizens. You people, a large proportion of whom must live on insultingly inadequate Social Security, are entitled to the highest quality medical services available. Doesn't Democracy really mean that the poor should have the same hospitalization protection as the rich? Why can't Nixon see that the right to health services is nothing more than the right to Life?

Now is the time to insist upon decent, lowcost housing, on greatly increased Social Security benefits, and a sincere government effort to support cancer and heart disease research.

Many senior citizens came to America years ago seeking freedom from corrupt and immoral wars. The war in Vietnam is one of the most corrupt and immoral in history. The barbaric slaughter of people of all ages must stop. Dignity and respect for senior citizens requires the immediate end of this brutal war!

W E N E E D Y O U R S U P P O R T

You can help us create a Peaceful Summer by urging your city and county officials to stop stalling and start planning NOW! We respect the residents of Miami Beach and want to work together for a constructive summer. Encourage Mayor Hall to recognize the need for space for those coming here for the conventions. For a Peaceful Summer call 534-7511 (City Hall) and give your support for a sufficient campsite.

A N N O U N C E M E N T:

This Saturday, June 17th, we will be spending the day at Lummus Park. Please come join us so we can talk, get to know one another, and have a nice day.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP sponsored a type of picnic or get-together held this date at Lummus Park, Miami Beach, Florida. This picnic was for the benefit of the older senior citizens in an attempt to get them interested in the YIP movement. This was a complete flop due to stormy weather, and nothing of pertinence transpired.

MM T-1
June 19, 1972

JUNE 19, 1972

The YIP Headquarters continue to be at 1674 Meridian and the leaders actually continue to be JERRY RUBIN and ABBE HOFFMAN. These leaders are absent a great deal of the time when they are normally back in New York City. In their absence STEWART ALBERT actually runs the organization in any activities and important matters, such as talking to the press or prominent citizens. The general theory now being undertaken by YIP is to soft pedal violence, particularly in view of the fact that it appears MC GOVERN may be the presidential nonominee and that violence would hurt his chances. The "YIPPIES are for the Democrats". The ZIPS or ZIPPIES have continued to disagree with the YIPS, and their headquarters continue to be 3113 Mary Street, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. This ZIP faction is headed by [redacted] There has been no positive action to speak of as far as the ZIP faction is concerned due to arguing among themselves. b6 b7C

The ZIP, or ZIPPIES, is a group of individuals who went over with TOM FORCADE when there was a split with the leadership of the Youth International Party.

A Dr. SIMON WILKER is acting as a type of liaison man between the senior citizens of Miami Beach and the YIP. The ZIP movement is really headed by TOM FORCADE who had "bolted" the YIP and who is currently believed to be in New York. In his absence, it is [redacted] who "takes over." The plans of both the YIP and ZIP at the present time indicate they are against the use of hard drugs but are in favor of using a lot of marijuana, "grass".

> ABBE HOFFMAN and JERRY RUBIN, on June 18, 1970, were found guilty of Anti-Riot Law Violations that arose from activities during the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. Pending an appeal they were released on bond by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois.

The June 21, 1972, edition of the "Miami Herald", a regular legitimate Miami, Florida newspaper, reflected an article captioned "YIPPIE Leader Preaches Convention Peace." This indicated a YIP spokesman, JEFF KNIGHTBYRD, on the previous Thursday, which was June 15, 1972, had talked before the Tiger Bay Political Club, a legitimate political social club in Miami. The article is as follows:

> "The message: if you hardnosed establishment types would be better capitalists, we'd all get through the summer with a lot less hassle.
> " 'Close to a million dollars has been spent on repressive measures to take care of people like me ...and not a penny on non-delegate needs,' charged Jeff Nightbyrd, a spokesman for the Youth International Party.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

" 'If you're going to arrest us all, it's going to cost you more money.'

"Nightbyrd said anti-war leaders want order at the Democratic convention - but are thwarted by the Miami Beach City Council's delay in acting on a request for demonstrator campsites.

" 'We're the ones who've been cool about it,' he said. 'We should be the Chamber of Commerce.'

"Some of his approximately 100 listeners were skeptical. Asked Anthony Fontana, Miami Police homicide sergeant and Tiger Bay president:

" 'If you violate the laws of this county, are you willing to be arrested?'

" 'No, I'm not ever willing to be arrested,' Nightbyrd replied.

"He explained that with campsites and other provisions for demonstrators not forthcoming, the YIP has cancelled plans for protest at the Democratic Convention.

"Because movement leaders believe the Republican party wants chaos at the Democratic convention, Nightbyrd said, they've decided to 'put pressure on Nixon' by backing off the first convention and concentrating on the second one.

"And what if the war ends before the Republican convention is held in August? a member of the audience asked.

"Nightbyrd smiled at the thought. 'In that case,' he said, 'I expect well have an incredible celebration and go get suntans.' "

Campsite flame kindled as officials, groups talk

By ED TAYLOR
Miami News Reporter

Local government officials contact with non-delegate groups concerning campsites and other facilities at this summer's national political conventions.

Last week, the Governor's Community Coordinating Task Force urged the officials of Miami Beach, Miami and Metro to "immediately enter into substantive negotiations with the non-delegates." Gov. Reubin Askew told The Miami News yesterreported today they are in day he supports the task force's stand.

The task force, a liaison group between convention planners and the community, called for a "land area" to be set aside for the several thousand non-delegates expected for the Democratic and Republican conventions in Miami Beach.

However, it stopped short of endorsing a campsite as the non-delegate groups have requested.

The task force also sent a letter to Metro Mayor Steve Clark requesting action by the county commission authorizing Metro officials to meet with the non-delegates.

Clark said today that County Manager Ray Goode, who has been handling Metro's preparations for the conventions, does not need commission authorization to meet with the non-delegates.

"The county manager has that authority," he said. "I will check with him and have him bring it up at the county commission meeting today."

A spokesman for Goode said he would continue to meet with representatives of non-delegates but that nothing "substantive" could be done until the Miami Beach council takes action on the campsites.

Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key is preparing a recommendation on the campsite question for the next Beach council meeting, June 28.

O'Key said yesterday he has been meeting regularly with the non-delegates.

"I met with Jeff Nightbird (representative of the Youth International Party) last Thursday for about an hour," he said. "We discussed the identification and specification of what they want in the way of campsites."

O'Key said he wants a written request for campsites from the YIP group. He said he has already received written requests from the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, two other non-delegate groups.

Representatives of non-delegate planning groups contacted yesterday said, however, that with the exception of the Task Force meeting last Thursday, they had not met with any Miami Beach officials in over two weeks.

The representatives met last week with Goode and had not yet met with Miami City Manager Melvin Reese.

Reese said Goode is representing the City of Miami in discussions with the non-delegates.

"He is talking for the city," Reese said. "We are co-ordinating with him and are in constant contact."

Reese said he was not able to attend the Task Force meeting because of a Miami City Commission meeting the same day, but added he will attend the Task Force's next meeting, this Thursday.

O'Key favors campsite

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key said today the Beach should provide an encampment area for protesters and other non-delegates expected during the national political conventions this summer.

In a telephone interview with The Miami News, O'Key said that "a place to bed down, a place which also provides sanitation facilities is obviously required" for the expected crowds of non-delegates.

"I think what we're talking about is a humane idea," O'Key said. "I have always felt that, if for no other reason than that we're dealing with human beings, there is an obligation on our part to consider their requests."

In endorsing the notion that non-delegates should be provided with a campsite during the conventions, O'Key added his name to a long list of Beach, City of Miami and Metro officials who have said the same thing in recent weeks.

Up until now, O'Key — who has been negotiating with protest groups on the campsite question — has declined to indicate how he stands on the matter.

O'Key said today that he is considering calling for an emergency council meeting to discuss the campsite question before the next regularly scheduled meeting June 28.

Two weeks ago, a committee representing nine groups planning demonstrations during the conventions formally asked the City of Miami Beach for the use of four city-owned facilities as campsites.

The Beach City Council deferred action on the campsite question at its last meeting, and referred the entire matter to O'Key.

Two Tenants Groups Plan Demonstration

Two Dade tenant organizations — one representing highrise residents and the other low-income renters — announced Tuesday they will join forces to stage a tenant demonstration on Miami Beach three days before the Democratic National Conventions opens.

Shepard W. Davis, president of the Tenants Association of Florida (TAF), which represents primarily middle and upper income tenants, Tuesday said his group will work closely on the project with a low-income tenant organization, the Florida Tenants Organization (FTO).

"WE'RE COMING together to dramatize the grievances of tenants and to say to the Democratic Party that the condition of human living is important," Davis said.

Davis and TAF attorney Alan Becker will meet with representatives of the FTO Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at the New Convent Presbyterian Church at 4300 NW 12th Avenue.

Although the two organizations are concerned with basically different tenant problems, Davis said, "We sympathize with the poor tenants and feel that their cause is just. We fully support their demands for decent housing and the elimination of the constant fear of eviction."

Yippie Preaches Peace on Beach At Tiger Bay

By ROB ELDER
(Herald Staff Writer)

It could only happen in Miami: the Tiger Bay political club, with a police homicide sergeant as president, listened Thursday as a Yippie longhair preached peace for the national conventions.

The message: If you hardnosed establishment types would be better capitalists, we'd all get through the summer with a lot less hassle.

"Close to a million dollars has been spent on repressive measures to take care of people like me . . . and not a penny on non-delegate needs," charged Jeff Nightbyrd, a spokesman for the Youth International Party.

"IF YOU'RE going to arrest us all, it's going to cost you more money."

Nightbyrd said anti-war leaders want order at the Democratic convention — but are thwarted by the Miami Beach City Council's delay in acting on a request for demonstrator campsites.

"We're the ones who've been cool about it," he said. "We should be the Chamber of Commerce."

Some of his approximately 100 listeners were skeptical. Asked Anthony Fontana, Miami Police homicide sergeant and Tiger Bay president:

"IF YOU violate the laws of this county, are you willing to be arrested?"

"No, I'm not ever willing to be arrested," Nightbyrd replied.

He explained that with campsites and other provisions for demonstrators not forthcoming, the YPI has canceled plans for protest at the Democratic Convention.

Because movement leaders believe the Republican Party wants chaos at the Democratic convention, Nightbyrd said, they've decided to "put pressure on Nixon" by backing off the first convention and concentrating on the second one.

AND WHAT if the war ends before the Republican convention is held in August? a member of the audience asked.

Nightbyrd smiled at the thought. "In that case," he said, "I expect we'll have an incredible celebration and go get suntans."

Ellis Rubin urges Beach to ban assembly, camping

A Miami Beach attorney today urged that the Beach City Council convene in emergency session to pass ordinances prohibiting public assembly and overnight camping in parks.

The attorney, Ellis Rubin, has been outspoken in his opposition to the crowds of non-delegates expected here for the Democratic National Convention July 10-13 and the GOP convention Aug. 21-23.

"I am shocked and amazed," he said, "that the city's charter and code of ordinance glaringly omits any mention of curfews, camping, riot control or assembly in the parks in Miami Beach. The demonstrators have been given a blank check to do anything they want."

Beach City Attorney Joseph Wanick disagreed.

"We have ample ordinances to cover any situation, Mr. Rubin notwithstanding," Wanick said.

Rubin said there was no apparent conflict between ordinances prohibiting public assembly in parks and the 1st Amendment guarantee of free assembly.

He pointed to a 1968 decision by the Illinois Federal District Court. The court permitted Chicago Mayor Richard Daley to refuse campsites to protesters, while ruling out any discrepancy with the Bill of Rights.

We oppose violence, Yippie says

A leader of the Yippies told 200 relatively staid South Florida politicos in Miami yesterday that violence and disorder are among the last things protesters want during the political conventions in Miami Beach this summer.

The Yippies, and all the other groups planning to stage protest demonstrations during the conventions, want to avoid a confrontation with the police and local residents, said Jeff Nightbyrd, an organizer with the Youth International Party.

He spoke for nearly an hour to members of Miami's Tiger Bay Club at the club's regular weekly luncheon, as a substitute for Jerry Rubin, Yippie leader, who was reported ill.

"You don't have to trust us," said Nightbyrd. "All you have to do is listen to our logic . . . Our primary reason for being here is to stop the genocide in Southeast Asia, and we realize that violence in the streets this summer won't help to end the war."

JEFF NIGHTBYRD

He urged that adequate and immediate plans be made by the community to accommodate the expected throngs of demonstrators.

Protest Groups Spell Out Convention Plans

Protest groups Wednesday began spelling out specific plans for their activities in Miami and Miami Beach during the Democratic National Convention.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy said his Southern Christian Leadership Conference will sponsor a mass rally in Miami's Manor Park Sunday afternoon July 9. The park, in Northwest Miami, is in a primarily black neighborhood.

In addition, Abernathy said, the SCLC is going ahead with plans to construct a "Resurrection City" beginning July 5. SCLC representatives in Miami Beach are seeking a section of Flamingo Park for that encampment.

George Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Organization, said the NWRO will sponsor a march to the convention center on the night of Monday July 10 as the convention opens.

Jesse Gray, head of the National Tenants Organization, said that group will stage a demonstration at an unannounced location Saturday night, July 8.

The three black organizations announced their plans in Washington as white groups already working in the Miami area announced plans to support the same activities.

We'll Avoid Conflicts, Leader of Yippies Says

By JAY MAEDER
Herald Staff Writer

The Youth International Party will seek to avoid confrontations during demonstrations on Miami Beach, because, among other reasons, party members fear for the safety of the Beach's elderly community Yippie activist Jeff Nightbyrd said on Wednesday.

Nightbyrd, chief Yippie negotiator for non-delegate campsites and provisions, said his group "feels a tremendous responsibility" to Miami Beach's senior citizens.

"Our systems can take tear gas," Nightbyrd told the Young Democratic Club of Dade County. "Theirs (senior citizens') can't."

"I SINCERELY believe the Republican Party is willing to sacrifice these old people to reelect Richard Nixon," Nightbyrd said.

Because of what he said he saw as a "calculated Republican scheme to create a situation of chaos that will discredit the Democratic Party," Nightbyrd said the Yippie Central Collective, of which he is a member, is calling for avoidance of confrontations and is attempting to discourage any more than 30,000 non-delegates to be on hand for the Democratic National Convention, which begins July 10.

He scoffed at "scare tactics" that he said are needlessly producing an unrest in the local community. "Any decent hippie chemist knows you can't contaminate a municipal water supply with LSD," he said. "It's chemically impossible. Yet here you have a water commissioner going on TV to announce that they're sawing the rungs off of water tower ladders so that crazed radicals can't climb them to drop in LSD.

"HERE, YOU HAVE someone else going on TV to tell us that manhole covers are being welded shut. What do they think we're going to do, release alligators? I mean, it's totally absurd."

He criticized Miami Beach officials for failing to come to terms with the non-delegate issue. "We should be working out details at this point — logistics of sanitation facilities and all of that — and instead we still don't have our campsite.

"Miami Beach is totally unprepared," he said. "Maybe everybody is. As you may know, we've gotten nowhere."

Gay Activists' Suit Attacks Female Impersonation Law

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Gay activists planning to demonstrate during the national conventions have filed a federal suit in an attempt to overturn two Miami Beach laws outlawing female impersonation.

The suit will be heard at 9 a.m. today by U.S. District Judge William O. Mehrtens.

Naming Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance as the defendant, Miami attorney Bruce Rogow filed the suit for the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of Robert F. Barry, 26, a lighting consultant, and Charles A. Lamont, 30, a former Methodist minister, as individuals and all male homosexuals as a class.

BARRY IS PRESIDENT of the Miami Gay Activist Alliance, and Lamont is an organizer for the National Coalition of Gay Organizations. Both live in Miami.

Purpose of the court action, Lamont said Wednesday, is "to get these ordinances declared unconstitutional because we have a lot of feminine identified brothers coming for the conventions who do not plan to sacrifice their life style."

The laws at issue are city ordinances 2550 and 2552. The first makes it illegal for a man to impersonate a woman; the second outlaws a man "wearing a dress not becoming to his sex."

Rogow said he will contend the laws are "over broad" and "allow police officers unfettered discretion to decide who is in violation." He will ask for an injunction against enforcement and a declaratory judgment that the laws are unconstitutional.

ASSISTANT CITY Attorney Lionel Barnett said he will argue that the federal court has no jurisdiction and that the matter should be heard in a state court.

Rogow said he has subpenaed Pomerance and other police officers as witnesses. The case is the first of several he plans to file in connection with the conventions as special counsel for the ACLU, said the Miami attorney.

From July 10-14, 1972, the Democratic National Convention will be held in Miami Beach, Florida. The Republican National Convention is scheduled for the same location August 21-24, 1972.

This document is the third of a series which will summarize information developed by the FBI concerning the potential for disruptive activities at these conventions. Plans, activities, and objectives of protest groups will be reported on a regular basis until the conventions.

OUTLOOK

Recently, the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) became the first group to announce a specific protest activity during the Conventions. It plans a march on the evening of July 10, the time of the opening session of the Democratic Convention. Indications are that the Students for a Democratic Society, the Progressive Labor Party, and the Workers Action Movement will join this march; however, such plans are still not final. In addition, since the NWRO and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) are closely aligned on protest issues, there is a strong likelihood the SCLC will participate in this action.

A series of meetings were held in the Miami area June 11-13 by several groups which plan to demonstrate at the Conventions. In attendance were representatives of the Miami Conventions Coalition, the Youth International Party, the Anti-War Union, and a number of individuals from New York City who have long been associated with the antiwar movement. Discussions were marked by a mood of extreme pessimism since those present considered the following factors to be impeding successful protest activity: (1) such an action has never been attempted in an area so isolated from the mainstream of social protest as is Miami; (2) there are no constituencies present upon which to form a base, with the exception of senior citizens, who are generally antagonistic toward militant protest actions; (3) a radical youth subculture is absent in Miami, and (4) the possibility of the nomination of Senator George McGovern as the Democratic Presidential candidate raises the question of propriety in conducting disruptive actions at the Republican Convention since such could "backfire" and be detrimental to the efforts of the Democrats and benefit the Republicans.

The following tentative actions emerged from the June 11-13 meetings, all of which are targeted against the Republican Convention:

August 21 - A long "peaceful" march is proposed for the immediate vicinity of the Convention Hall, with the emphasis on displaying a maximum number of placards and banners.

August 22 - A "moral demonstration," described as a massive sit-down in front of the Convention Hall, aimed at blocking convention delegates from entering or exiting the hall, is contemplated.

August 23 - The shifting of protest activities to small communities north of Miami Beach is anticipated.

ORGANIZATIONS

NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

NWRO, a nationwide group formed for the purpose of seeking increased Government support for welfare recipients, will hold its annual conference in Miami Beach July 5-9, 1972. Two thousand delegates have been registered for the conference, and the Coronet Hotel, 2001 Collins Avenue, and Crest Hotel and Apartments, 1670 James Avenue, both in Miami Beach, will be utilized to lodge the conference delegates. A tentative commitment has been obtained from Communist Party member Angela Davis to address the delegates on the opening day of the conference, July 5.

NWRO has announced it will stage a major demonstration the evening of July 10, the opening night of the Democratic Convention, to "forcefully but peacefully protest the exclusion of poor people from the Democratic and Republican Conventions and from the two-party system." The march will terminate at Convention Hall, where attempts will be made to gain entry in an effort to voice NWRO's protest through presentation of the group's "Poor People's Platform."

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

An office has been established by NWRO at the Salem Baptist Church, 151 N.W. 60th Street, Miami. The pastor of this church has announced that Huey P. Newton, leader of one faction of the violence-prone BPP, is scheduled to speak at the church on the afternoon of July 9, 1972. There is no indication Newton's appearance is connected with convention activities.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

At the SDS Summer Projects Meeting, which was held at Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts, on June 1, 1972, SDS members were urged to attend the Democratic and Republican National Conventions. A decision was reached to prepare and distribute leaflets announcing SDS support of demonstrations at both conventions.

A source who has provided reliable information in the past has reported that SDS will organize a series of regional meetings to encourage attendance at the conventions. This source advised also that SDS activities in Miami will mainly consist of demonstrations near the delegates' hotels and of holding "End The War" conferences (no further details given). It is likely that final plans for any actions in Miami will be formulated at an SDS Leadership Meeting to be held in Chicago July 1-2.

ANTI-WAR UNION (AWU)

AWU was recently formed by [redacted] to continue protests against American involvement in Southeast Asia and to implement his own personal plans for disrupting the conventions. Reportedly, [redacted] is discouraged at the lack of organization among those planning for demonstrations at the conventions. He has just returned from Paris where he and other members of the AWU met with North Vietnamese peace negotiators. He stated that AWU will demonstrate at the Democratic Convention; however, its chief target will be the Republican Convention, where efforts will be made to discredit the Administration's policies regarding Southeast Asia.

b6
b7C

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

Formed in 1962 by persons expelled from the Communist Party, USA, because of ideological differences, PLP advocates the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and on the thoughts of Mao Tse-tung. A source who has in the past furnished reliable information recently reported that PLP has initiated efforts to have as many members as possible travel to Miami to demonstrate on July 10 at the Democratic Convention. The aim of PLP is reportedly to call for a general strike to end the war in Vietnam and to publicize "United States imperialism."

WORKERS ACTION MOVEMENT (WAM)

Recently formed as a PLP front group, WAM is active in attempts to recruit members from the national labor force. WAM has as its major issue the establishment of a shorter work week with higher pay--30 hours' work for 40 hours' pay. At an International Steering Committee meeting in Chicago, held June 3-4, tentative plans were made by WAM for picketing at the Democratic Convention. Final plans and the decision about whether to participate were left to local chapters. A general lack of enthusiasm among WAM members was reported.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

On June 11, VVAW publicly announced it expects 15,000 members to be in Miami Beach for the Republican Convention and a smaller number for the Democratic Convention. This group of former servicemen who are opposed to America's role in Indochina plans to discuss issues with Republican delegates, distribute antiwar literature, and possibly stage a mock war crimes investigation. [redacted] for VVAW, was quoted as saying: "Anyone who gets in our way will regret it." b6 b7C

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

YIP has produced approximately 3,000 copies of a three-page flier captioned "Ten Days to Change the World" and is distributing them throughout the United States, mainly to underground newspapers. The fliers invite persons to travel to Miami Beach for a "Celebration of Change" to occur during the two national political conventions. This "celebration" is described in the fliers as a "political-cultural demonstration," but no specifics are cited.

MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)

Formed in late May to gain the leadership role in demonstration activities at the national political conventions, MCC has an office at 805 5th Street, Miami Beach, and a "drop-in" residence at [redacted] Miami. MCC, which was established through a merger of the Florida People's Coalition, the Miami Liberation Front, and elements of the San Diego Convention Coalition, has prepared a position paper with the following points: b6 b7C

(1) The Republican Convention should be the major focus of antiwar activity.

(2) The tone of the demonstrations should be one of confrontation, serious resistance, and non-violent civil disobedience.

(3) Organizers for the convention activity will attempt to build alliances with women, homosexuals, "third world" persons, students, veterans, labor, and the elderly.

(4) The strength of MCC depends on people coming to convention activities well prepared.

(5) At the Democratic Convention, emphasis will be placed upon support for "spirited but low-key street presence," lobbying, and propaganda.

(6) MCC will not publicly support any particular candidate.

It was also indicated that MCC would promote "Expose '72," an exposition of antiwar, antiestablishment, and "third world" community topics. Activities will include exhibits on the Indochina air war, the Nation's economy, Chicano and black movements, and the production of underground publications.

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

During a meeting of the Coordinating Committee of PCPJ in Louisville, Kentucky, on June 17, separate workshops were conducted concerning demonstrations at the Democratic and Republican Conventions. No specific plans were decided upon at the Democratic Convention workshop, but the group discussed lobbying tactics for the convention delegates. The Republican Convention workshop was led by [redacted] who stated he plans to organize daily non-violent demonstrations; however, more definite plans were not completed.

b6
b7C

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS OF REVOLUTION (CBR)

Another Government agency has learned that CBR, an extremist group in Dublin, Georgia, plans to attend both national political conventions. CBR, which claims a membership of approximately 300, has as its motto: "Kill Police and Hate the Whites." [redacted] is reported to be [redacted] and [redacted] are [redacted] Reports are the group will travel to the conventions in stolen vehicles and with stolen firearms. [redacted] reportedly participated in demonstrations at the 1968 Democratic Conventions in Chicago.

On [redacted] a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on [redacted] Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) meeting was held [redacted] One of the topics discussed at this meeting was the action to be taken by SDS at the Republican and Democratic Conventions planned for Miami Beach, Florida. This source noted pessimism on the part of SDS members concerning the change of the Republican Convention from San Diego to Miami, because of the lack of a student radical base in Florida. SDS members agreed at this meeting that the attendance of radicals would be much less in Florida at the forthcoming convention than would have been present at San Diego. All in attendance agreed that printed material was needed to publicize demonstrations at the forthcoming conventions, and this meeting concluded with the decision to begin distributing leaflets announcing SDS support for demonstrations at the forthcoming political conventions.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy," the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters at Boston, Massachusetts.

On June 19, 1972, same source advised that meetings were held June 17 - 18, 1972, at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Massachusetts, sponsored by SDS. The forthcoming political conventions were extensively discussed.

SDS organizers have prepared an anti-racism bill which will be taken to the Democratic Convention in Miami Beach, and the following twelve points will be demanded by SDS members:

1. Any local, state or federal policeman who murders a person of a minority race will be given life imprisonment.

2. No federal troops will be called in to put down any anti-racism demonstrations.

3. $10,000 guaranteed annual income for a family of four.

4. This guaranteed annual income will be given to anyone in need with no strings attached.

5. Any physician who practices forced sterilization will be given ten years in prison.

6. Children shall not be taken from Welfare parents.

7. Federal aid shall be refused universities who employ racist personnel.

8. Federal aid shall be refused universities which utilize racist textbooks.

9. No deportation or harrassment for foreign individuals in the United States.

10. Housing codes shall be strictly enforced with landlords receiving five years and or $5,000 fine minimum, depending on the situation.

11. Anyone who is on trial for any crime shall have a choice of lawyers with all fees paid for by the Government.

12. No medical experiments on minorities. This shall be a federal offense punishable by 10 years to life imprisonment.

This bill will be carried to Miami Beach Headquarters during an SDS sponsored march planned for Thursday, July 13, 1972. SDS members will also join the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO), and participate in an NWRO demonstration planned for July 8, 1972, at Miami Beach to protest racism and welfare cuts.

All SDS members are being urged to attend both political conventions, and are advised to contact SDS convention headquarters, Post Office box 8223, University Branch, Miami, Florida, 33124, for any further information regarding activities, publicity and housing for the forthcoming conventions.

[redacted] SDS, advised during the meeting that daily meetings in Miami Beach will be scheduled for SDS members once the democratic convention begins.

3 Black Groups Plan Demonstrations

Associated Press

Three black organizations announced plans yesterday for demonstrations in Miami Beach at the opening of the Democratic National Convention.

Jesse Gray, executive director of National Tenants Organization, said his group would stage a demonstration on Saturday night, July 8.

Rev. Ralph David Abernathy said the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which he heads will hold a mass rally in Miami's Manor Park on the afternoon of Sunday, July 9.

George Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Organization, said his group plans for a march on the convention center on the evening of Monday, July 10, as the Democratic Convention opens. Plans provide for a vigil outside while friends on the convention floor press for a "poor people's platform."

Abernathy also said the SCLC is going ahead with plans to build a Resurrection City II in Miami, starting July 5, similar to the one constructed in Washington four years ago.

Abernathy said similar demonstrations are being planned for the Republican National Convention which opens in Miami Beach Aug. 21.

OPERATION PUSH, ALSO KNOWN AS PEOPLE UNITED TO SAVE HUMANITY

The June 22, 1972, issue of the "Chicago Sun Times", a daily Chicago newspaper, reflected an article captioned "PUSH Plans Miami Headquarters". This article sets forth information as follows:

Operation PUSH (People United To Save Humanity) (OP) "will establish a permanent national headquarters here (Miami, Florida) and also use it as headquarters for political convention operations". Reverend Jesse Louis Jackson, OP National Director, announced the "full time service office" after meeting on June 21, 1972, with black and Cuban community leaders from Miami, Florida, and Key West, Florida.

Jackson was quoted as stating "in Miami, the level of unemployment, the lack of public education, the low black voter registration, and the black-Cuban conflict makes such an organization essential".

Jackson also stated OP will organize from its Miami office its fight to participate in the forthcoming Democratic and Republican National Conventions in July and August, 1972, in Miami, Florida.

Jackson was quoted as stating "if possible, we will demonstrate within the conventions. Our basic area of protest will be from within. The goals of OP are positions of power for blacks in whatever administration is elected and a comprehensive value of rights which is an alternative to the present degrading welfare system which is neither an incentive to learn or earn."

Jackson has described OP as a Chicago based political and economic organization for the betterment of blacks and minority groups with guidelines similar to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: FEDERACION DE ESTUDIANTES CUBANOS
(FEDERATION OF CUBAN STUDENTS)(FEC)
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

The Federacion de Estudiantes Cubanos (Federation of Cuban Students)(FEC) is an organization comprised of students of Cuban origin attending the University of Miami and other schools of higher learning in the Miami area, with other chapters perhaps located elsewhere. It has been previously reported that the FEC sponsored a march which took place on June 6, 1970, in downtown Miami, requesting that the Government of the United States grant permission for the Cuban exiles to fight for the liberty of their country.

b6
b7D

On [redacted] reported that some former members of this organization who no longer attend universities had been trying to influence the present membership into engaging in some form of violence against factions of anti-war demonstrators who were then active in the Miami area. However, the leadership of the FEC resisted this advice and declined to engage in such activity.

b6

On [redacted] reported that one FEC member, [redacted] dropped an envelope containing tear gas during a conference of students at the University of Miami called by the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, which is a revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968; however, this action was criticized by the rest of the FEC members.

On June 6, 1972 a person identifying himself as [redacted] telephonically contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office at Duluth, Minnesota, and said he understood the FBI was trying to reach him. Attempt was made to set up a personal interview or contact with him, but he stated he was traveling around the country, hitchhiking as a transient; and he had neither the time nor desire to be interviewed, and further inquiry would be a big waste of his time.

He was asked and said he had no information of any kind regarding any so-called order or shoot-out in regard to any convention at all. He verified he was given a ticket for hitchhiking on a freeway by an officer of the Police Department at Sacramento, California about a couple months ago, possibly in April 1972. He recalls talking to that police officer about an up-coming political convention and the officer mentioned he had already been scheduled to duty at such convention, even though it was some months away. As [redacted] recalls, he told the officer he suspected there would be more trouble at the coming convention than there was at the last one, as this stood to reason from the way violence has progressed in this country since the last election.

Subject refused to furnish any information on his whereabouts and said he would continue to just be hitchhiking around the country and he had no specific plans or schedule.

He was advised that should this Bureau desire any further contact with him, a message would be left with his parents in this regard; however, he said he did not want his parents bothered.

Rubin, Rubin, & the siege of Miami

by Edward Zuckerman

MIAMI BEACH — Will the Jewish grandparents of Miami Beach join their grandchildren's struggle for peace and freedom at this summer's political conventions? Will the man who's run 150 miles to protest black-outs of the Super Bowl win his struggle against the hippies, Yippies, and Zippies? Are we about to witness a repeat of Munich under the palms?

These are pressing questions in Miami Beach, where the Democratic convention is just a few weeks away, and the whirring of the air conditioners seems to be whispering to nervous officials, "Another Chicago? . . . Another Chicago? . . . Another Chicago? . . ."

At least eight groups are planning to stage demonstrations here at one or both conventions. They are the Youth International Party (Yippies), the Zippies (an offshoot of the Yippies), the National Welfare Rights Organization, Vietnam Veterans Against the War, the National Coalition of Gay Organizations, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Peoples' Party, and the Mobe (Conventions Coalition, which is a coalition of two other coalitions and the Miami Liberation Front.

Collectively, the groups have asked the city of Miami Beach to designate as campsites for demonstrators the municipal Bayshore and Par 3 golf courses, Flamingo Park, and the 21st Street Beach. In negotiations, they have taken pains to point time and again that all that nastiness in Chicago began because Mayor Daley refused to give demonstrators a park to stay in. Further, they point out, it is certainly in the city's best self-interest to have 100,000 or so kids camping on a golf course instead of roaming through backyards and the lobby of the Fountainebleau looking for a place to crash.

Miami Beach Mayor Chuck Hall agreed and came up with an offer of the Beach high school athletic field and, if needed, the Par 3 Golf Course as well, both of which are just a few blocks from the convention hall. Hall's offer was generally well-received by demonstration organizers, who figure that, at least during the Democratic convention, they won't need all the room they asked for.

But Hall's offer had barely hit the papers before cries of "Munich!" filled the air. "In 1938 Chamberlain appeased the Germans, and you know what the result was," City Councilman Herb Magnes told a meeting of a South Beach civic club. "And I don't intend to appease the hippies, the Yippies, or the schmippies," he vowed.

Meanwhile, the hippies, Yippies, and schmippies are themselves making the rounds on South Beach, where 90 per cent of the population is Jewish and 80 per cent of it is over the age of 65, seeking support for their campsite demand and trying to allay fears that the demonstrators' primary aims in Miami Beach are to snatch purses and generally terrorize the populace.

"We want to make you see that the hippies don't have horns, that the Zippies don't have tails . . . they're human beings," Dave Taub, president of the local American Federation of Senior Citizens and a powerful ally of the demonstration forces, said at one of a series of Saturday afternoon young-old get-togethers by the ocean at Lummus Park. A typical program in the park includes short speeches by New Lefties and Old Lefties, interspersed with the introduction of couples celebrating 50th and 60th wedding anniversaries, and the singing of songs, one of which is always "Hava Nagilah." The Old Lefties tend to slip into Yiddish as they speak, and the young radicals, many of whom happen to be Jewish, are not above capitalizing on that fact in a style reminiscent of Hubert Humphrey on the stump.

Hassled by hecklers as he spoke at Lummus Park, YIP organizer Stew Albert told the crowd, "Don't let the meshuginahs get you down." Speaking before 400 members of the American Federation of Senior Citizens a few days earlier, Albert began by announcing that he is Jewish, that he was bar mitzvah at Young Israel of Bedford Bay in Brooklyn, and that he would deliver his Haftorah instead of his speech if the crowd preferred.

His pitch continued, "The reason we're coming to Miami Beach is very similar to the reason you helped build the American labor movement. We want justice. . . . We have nothing against old people. In fact we think probably the two most oppressed groups in America are the young people and the old people. It's the people in the middle who run the country. If we had a Youth International Party and an Old People's International Party, we'd have a majority."

At yet another meeting of old folks, local YIP organizer Jerry Gorde said, "What we're asking you people to do is have a little faith in your grandsons and granddaughters."

Most of the old folks respond positively to these appeals, possibly because no one under 40 has paid so much attention to them in years. Even those who do not get carried away in hands-across-the-generation-chasm good fellowship mostly support the campsite proposition. "If they give them the park, they can control them," reasoned an 85-year-old man who happens to be my grandfather. "If you don't give someone a place to lie down, he'll grab what he needs."

The main spokesman for the anti-campsite forces is a local Republican attorney named Ellis Rubin who made his political debut in the '50s chasing down Communists for the state attorney general and the American Legion.

A few days before the city council meeting that was to deal with the campsite issue, I went to visit Rubin at his palatial Spanish Gothic home on the bay side of Miami Beach.

"Some people will say I'm doing this for publicity so I can run for office," he told me, and he was right, that's just what some people are saying. They point out that Rubin, who has run unsuccessfully for public office four times, recently made headlines as state chairman of an anti-busing group. He has also launched successful campaigns against uncalibrated parking meters, an antique and unenforced anti-cat ordinance, and a practice state troopers had of secretly recording a motorist's history of traffic violations by pricking pin-holes in his driver's license. One of Rubin's current crusades is against local television black-outs of the Super Bowl, a cause he dramatizes by annually running 75 miles from the edge of the black-out area to the site of the game. In 1970 he ran from West Palm Beach to Miami's Orange Bowl, and last year he ran from Baton Rouge to New Orleans. As he runs, his wife follows in a car loaded with Gatorade, towels, foot rub, and a potable oxygen tank she gave him for his birthday. As we talked, she served us cocktails of Gatorade and gin.

"Operation Backbone" is the name Rubin has given his anti-campsite campaign. Its backers, he told me, "do not want Miami Beach to become a giant cesspool" during the conventions. "We object to the city council making plans to provide uninvited visitors with facilities and accommodations to practice their revolutionary arts on us."

If people can afford to stay at hotels, he said, they're welcome to come. But if the city provides a free campsite to demonstrators, he warned, "what's to prevent the whole city of Des Moines, Iowa, from saying, 'Hey, it's going to be 10 weeks of freebies in Miami Beach. Let's all go down and they've got to take care of us.' This is anarchy. This is chaos. We cannot allow it. We're not going to allow it."

A few days after our interview, 400 people crowded into a Unitarian Church to hear Ellis Rubin debate Yippie leader Jerry Rubin. It wasn't exactly Lincoln vs. Douglas, but it made for an interesting evening. Ellis ominously read aloud passages like "Give us an inch and we'll take a mile" from Jerry's book "Do It" and other Yippie literature. Jerry opened up in true Yippie fashion by announcing that Ellis was his long-lost uncle who had once been a revolutionary but had sold out and gone to Miami Beach to make "money, money, money."

"Uncle Ellis represents a disease," Jerry said, "a disease that sees property as the most important thing and people as not counting." He charged Ellis and the Republican Party with campaigning against a compsite in order to create disturbances during the Democratic convention that would embarrass the Democrats and give the Republicans an excuse to seal off Miami Beach (it's an island) during their convention in August.

"Uncle Ellis" stormed off the platform during the question and answer period when somebody used the word "fuck," an offense, Ellis claimed, to his wife and the children in the room. The moderator, a matronly Unitarian, noted, "We all know that word, we know how to use it and how to do it," and pleaded for questioners to watch their language and for Ellis Rubin to come back, but, clutching his Yippie literature, he had already marched up the center aisle amid hoots and shouting and was gone.

The scene was just as tumultuous a few days later at the city council meeting where the campsite issue was supposed to be resolved. Ellis Rubin was there to speak against the campsite and in favor of amending a city anti-swastika ordinance to include the Viet Cong flag. Outraged property owners who backed Rubin were liberally sprinkled among the 250 or so spectators.

Without even allowing any speeches, however, the council voted to defer action on the matter pending a report by the city manager. The council's apparent strategy is to put off providing a campsite—which county officials, local police, and Democratic convention planners all support as a practical necessity—until the last possible moment in a vain effort to keep down the number of people flocking south. To the people at the council meeting, though, the council's action seemed to be simple cowardice.

"This fiasco is a complete disgrace and enough to make any decent person vomit," declared an anti-campsite lady. A man who shouted, "We got a bunch of damn hippies coming down here. Let's get it over with," was ejected by the police. A recess was declared while pro- and anti-campsite forces left the hall to argue outside, and when the meeting resumed, an ordinance providing penalties of up to 90 days in jail and a $1000 fine for parading without a permit was slipped through without anybody's noticing.

At least not right away. The American Federation of Senior Citizens, which is planning its own march during the Democratic convention in support of increased social security benefits, said it will march no matter what happens. "Permit or no permit, we're going to march," declared President Dave Taub. "We're going to march alongside of the hippies."

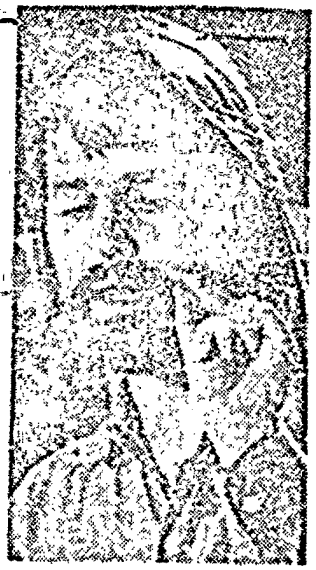
We oppose violence, Yippie says

A leader of the Yippies told 200 relatively staid South Florida politicos in Miami yesterday that violence and disorder are among the last things protesters want during the political conventions in Miami Beach this summer.

The Yippies, and all the other groups planning to stage protest demonstrations during the conventions, want to avoid a confrontation with the police and local residents, said Jeff Nightbyrd, an organizer with the Youth International Party.

He spoke for nearly an hour to members of Miami's Tiger Bay Club at the club's regular weekly luncheon, as a substitute for Jerry Rubin, Yippie leader, who was reported ill.

"You don't have to trust us," said Nightbyrd. "All you have to do is listen to our logic. . . . Our primary reason for being here is to stop the genocide in Southeast Asia, and we realize that violence in the streets this summer won't help to end the war."



JEFF NIGHTBYRD

He urged that adequate and immediate plans be made by the community to accommodate the expected throngs of demonstrators.

Convention Hall Keys Missing; All Locks Might Be Changed

By MARTIN WESTON and EDNA BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writers

A set of keys to all the major locks at Miami Beach Convention Center is missing.

The last person to see them, stagehand supervisor Robert Raley, told police the keys were stolen from his attache case which he said was locked in the dinner room at midnight Wednesday. The case was open and the keys gone when he returned for them at 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Convention Center manager Norman Litz said the keys "were either stolen or misplaced, we don't know which."

Maj. Walter Philbin, chief of the Miami Beach Police Detective Bureau, said, "I can't believe they were stolen in connection with the Democratic National Convention."

PHILBIN SAID that a group of "casual laborers" were working at the center late Tuesday night and are suspects in the case.

The police have not, however, discounted the possibility that the keys were simply misplaced.

Litz said he will decide today whether or not the approximately 150 locks involved will be changed.

Philbin said he will strongly recommend that the locks be changed regardless of whether or not the keys are found.

"Under the top security prospect surrounding the Democratic Convention, we cannot afford not to change them," he said.

IN ADDITION to the police, the Democratic National Convention committee and Andy Frain, the security firm at the Convention Center, were informed of the missing keys.

Litz said there are about 15 keys involved and they are believed to be on a key ring with some of Raley's personal keys.

He had no estimate on how much it would cost to replace the locks at the Convention Center.

U.S. preparing to station troops here during conventions

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

The Defense Department has announced that it is making preparations to station federal troops in Dade County during the Democratic and Republican conventions this summer.

In a statement released in Washington yesterday, the Pentagon said the troops will be used in case local law enforcement agencies and National Guardsmen cannot cope with possible civil disorders then.

The federal troops would join a force of about 3,000 Florida National Guardsmen — 1,000 from Dade County — who have been assigned to duty during the conventions by Gov. Reubin Askew.

"At the request of the Department of Justice," the statement said, "we are making appropriate preparations so that we can support, as required, state and local law enforcement authorities in connection with the national political conventions at Miami Beach."

The Pentagon statement did not specify when troops would be moved into the area, but a reference to moving troops in "at the appropriate time" indicated that such action would probably not be taken at least until the Democratic convention starts July 10.

The Pentagon said the troops would be stationed on federal property and military authorities "are now surveying the capabilities of Homestead Air Force Base" to house the troops.

The Defense Department statement was released shortly after the Justice Department and Gov. Askew's office announced in a joint statement that federal tropos woupld be sent to Dade during the conventions.

The joint statement, which grew out of a meeting between U.S. Attorney General Richard Kleindienst and Askew in Washington Tuesday, said the Justice Department will aid local authorities in providing equipment and logistical support for the military forces.

"These conventions must be conducted in an atmosphere of respect for the constitutional rights and the public safety of all persons, including delegates and non-delegates," the statement read.

"The governor and the attorney general said this decision to involve federal assistance was based on indications they had received from local law enforcement officials that additional resources may be necessary to insure the maintenance of peace, order and public safety," it said.

Don Pride, Askew's press secretary, said yesterday that troops stationed in the county during the convention would most likely be "regular Army units" who will be specially trained for convention duty.

He said he did not know at that point which military units would be sent. It is understood that the 82nd Airborne Division, based in Fort Bragg, N.C., is among the units being considered for duty during the conventions.

Capt. Ozzie Kruidenier of the Miami Beach police, one of the top police planners for the convention, said yesterday that Beach police have been in close touch with Pentagon officials in recent weeks.

He said he is certain the troops will not be kept here during the period between conventions. The Democratic will be July 10-13, the Republican, Aug. 21-23.

But Kruidengier also said he thinks troops will not be needed to maintain order.

"It doesn't look to me like we'll be needing any additional support from the National Guard or the Army," the captain said.

"We've gotten no indications that any of the protest groups coming down here intend to disrupt. Indications from all our intelligence and information are that no one intends to be disruptive."

Nine activist organizations have announced plans to organize protests. All of the groups have vowed that their demonstrations will be peaceful.

Medical training for conventions set

Training classes for volunteer paramedics and drug counselors to work during the political conventions this summer will get under way today.

A workshop for drug counselors will be held from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Rosensteil Building, 1600 NW 10th Ave., Room 411. The workshop will be conducted by three drug counselors brought to Miami by the Jackson Memorial Hospital Comprehensive Drug Program.

A total of 500 volunteers are being sought for the drug counseling and the paramedical program. Applicants must be 17 or older and priority will be given to those with previous experience or training.

A special orientation session for drug counselors and street medics will be held at Miami-Dade Junior College North Campus, McArthur Hall, Room 3101 beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Another drug workshop for health professionals will be offered tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Mailman Center for Child Development, 1601 NW 10th Ave., on the eighth floor.

Training for street medics consists of drug counseling and first aid. Courses are scheduled to permit volunteers to take the eight-hour training in one day from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. or in two four-hour sessions. The first session will be this Sunday in McArthur Hall, Room 3213.

Physicians, registered nurses and medical students also are needed for the conventions. Professional medical volunteers will be schooled by a special committee from the University of Miami Medical School. The first classes will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Rosensteil Building from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Anyone wishing to volunteer should call the American Red Cross, 751-6661, extension 123; or Switchboard of Miami, 633-7507.

Guard to stay at schools for conventions

By NICOLETTE HANDROS
Miami News Reporter

Nine secondary schools in Dade County will be converted to strongholds for the Florida National Guard and Metro officials during the political conventions this summer in Miami Beach.

Facilities at Miami Beach Senior High will be used for all county personnel working at the Beach during the conventions, July 10-13 for the Democrats and Aug. 21-23 for the Republicans. (Miami Beach Senior High is a few blocks from the Beach Convention Center.)

County Manager Ray Goode requested use of that school last month and submitted a specific outline for its use to school officials last week.

The outline, approved yesterday by the Dade School Board, includes permission for:

- Gymnasium area as a first aid station.
- Restrooms for volunteers working in the first aid station.
- All first-floor classrooms for a lost children's center.
- All second-floor classrooms as a rest area for personnel.
- Four portable classroom buildings for the Citizens' Information and Referral Service.
- Two home economics rooms to prepare food for volunteers and county employes.
- Administration building for an emergency medical command post.

The Ida M. Fisher Junior High gymnasium, locker room and grounds also will be made available to the county during the conventions, to be used only as a first aid station manned by medical volunteers.

Florida National Guardsmen will use seven senior high schools during the conventions.

Use of the schools will include large group meetings, recreation, command and communication center, feeding and billeting area, sanitary facilities, parking for military vehicles and food storage.

Schools to be used during the Democratic convention are Coral Gables, Miami Central, Miami Coral Park, Miami Norland and Hialeah-Miami Lakes senior highs.

During the Republican convention, guardsmen will be stationed at Coral Gables, North Miami, Miami, Miami Norland and Hialeah-Miami Lakes senior highs.

The Florida National Guard will be responsible for paying overtime salaries for custodial personnel and utilities at the schools during the conventions, according to its agreement with the school board.

Military officials indicated they may need other schools on short notice. The school board agreed to authorize use of other schools on such notice.

SUBJECT: MIDEM; MIREP

The following is a summary of ~~xxxxxxx~~ results of monitoring of FM Radio Station WBUS, 93.3, on 6/26/72, at 7:30 P.M. by SA [redacted]

The program was billed as a "Convention Report" by Youth International Party (YIP) leader JERRY RUBIN and ED SANDERS of the ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ "FUX Group".

The first topic discussed was the action of the Miami City Council on June 23, 1972, to deny campsides to ~~xx~~ demonstrators on Miami Beach during the forthcoming Democratic and Republican Conventions.

JERRY RUBIN predicted that the Miami City Council would reverse itselve on this matter because the City Council did not want to remain in the 18th Century. He commented that you cannot wage a genocide war like Vietnam and not expect anyone to come to protest, and you can't have people come to protest without providing a place for them to stay.

RUBIN ~~xxxxxxx~~ stated that the Republicans are pressuring the Miami Beach City Council to be non-cooperative during the Democratic convention, because the Republicans want the Democrats to be embarrassed by a riot. He added that his group was going to avoid any kind of confrontation during the Democratic convenstion because this would fall "right into the hands of the reactionaries around the country". He said that all of their (the YIPs) activities would be aimed at the delegates, old people and to the world through the news media, and he predicted that it would be peaceable.

80-1353-1079

ED SANDERS stated that beginning Sunday, July 2, 1972, and on each Sunday thereafter, there would be a "Free Share Feasts of the Ages", with food, music and dancing . He noted that watermelons were now in season and that many juicy watermelons would be providedx for humans of all ages to enjoy.

SANDERS also stated that there would be poetry by himself and ALAN GINSBERG, and that they were also planning a "midnight poetry reading" of "poets against the war" and that in connection with this they were trying to get GERMAIN GREER.

SANDERS added that they planned to make a "Nixon Watermellon Face" at the "Feast of the Ages" and he explained that they planned to make a face of RICHARD NIXON out of 500 watermellons and then eat the watermellons. He said that this would either take place at Lummus Park or on the golf course at Miami Beach next Sunday at 2:00 P.M.

RUBIN labeled as "jive" the stationing of Federal Troops at the places that the protestors had been asking for to use as camp sites. He noted that these places had been prohibited to the "Yippies" because of a desire to preserve the "putting green". He predicted that the National Guard would make the golf course into an ugly battlefield whereas he said the "Yippies" would have made it a place of beauty.

RUBIN invided everyone listening to come to the first demonstration of the "Convention Season" which is to take place at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, June 29, 1972, at Miami Beach. The purpose of the demonstration is so show people what a demonstration is and it will be a peaceful, legal protest of the turning of Miami Beach into a "Saigon", that is the bringing in of tanks, paratroopers, police and the army, and the treating of the "Yippies" economic problems with military solutions. He added that the assembly will take place somewhere around the Miami Beach Convestion Hall, the exact place to be announced later, and that the protesters will then march to one of the two golf courses where they will meet with the senior citizens of Miami Beach who will welcome them and thank them (the Yippies) for coming. RUBIN also expressed hope that Mayor "CHUCK" HALL will meet with them at this time and give them the keys to the city. RUBIN invited all students and non-students to attend this rally.

RUBIN also invited everyone listening to attend the "Free Share Feast of the Ages" at 2:00 P.M. on Sunday at Lummus Park, Miami Beach which will feature music, watermellons, lemonade, dancing, kissing, hugging, and swimming in the ocean.

RUBIN stated that the first conference will take place at 1:00 P.M. on Tuesday, June 27, 1972, place not stated, and he predicted that at 3:30 P.M. "there will be someone down here from the YIP talking".

WORKING PAPER OF THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION

b6
b7C

May 20, 1972

On May 19 and 20, 45-50 people met in Washington to discuss what actions the movement should take at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami this July and August. The meeting was called by members of the San Diego Convention Coalition and the Florida Peoples' Coalition.

One third of the people at the meeting were from New York and D.C., the rest were from areas including Boston, Philadelphia, Texas, Ohio, Vermont, and upstate New York. Many of the people at the meeting had already decided to work in Miami as organizers for the Miami Conventions Coalition. Others plan to return to their cities/towns and report on the meeting, and begin discussions about the actions. After a day and a half of good pointed discussion, the group came to the following consensus:

1. THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SHOULD BE THE MAJOR FOCUS OF ANTI-WAR ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER. (August 21-24) There will be a call for a three day national action including massive and dramatic demonstrations. The short term goal is to expose the criminal acts of the Nixon administration, particularly the continued escalation of the war in Indochina; and to demonstrate with marches and civil disobedience that the re-election of Nixon will cause continued resistance and confrontation in this country. We support the national liberation struggles of the Indochinese peoples. Our actions at the Republican Convention will be in full support of the 7-point peace proposal of the P.R.G.

2. WE FEEL THAT THE TONE SHOULD BE ONE OF CONFRONTATION, SERIOUS RESISTANCE, AND NON-VIOLENT CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE. Because of the present situation in the U.S. we know that the convention and the demonstrations may take place in the atmosphere of an armed camp. We will not use inflated rhetoric designed to provoke an overreaction by the repressive forces in Miami. However, what Nixon stands for is so oppressive to the American people and the people of the world that we must actively oppose Nixon's domestic and foreign policies.

3. OUR ORGANIZING FOR THE CONVENTION WILL ATTEMPT TO BUILD ALLIANCES WITH DIFFERENT GROUPS (e.g. THIRD WORLD PEOPLE, WOMEN, GAY PEOPLE, STUDENTS AND YOUTH, VETS, LABOR, AND THE ELDERLY). At the least, we will develop a program and scenario for the convention that will speak to the needs of a broad cross-section of people.

4. OUR STRENGTH DEPENDS ON PEOPLE COMING WELL-ORGANIZED TO THE CONVENTION ACTIONS FROM DIFFERENT REGIONS AND CITIES. Local organizations will develop program, do their own propaganda, and bring people in groups/brigades to the Convention. Beginning this week about 20 people in Miami are laying the groundwork for the convention actions--setting up an office and media center, raising money, talking with organized groups in the Miami area, and developing in more detail the scenario and tactics.

5- FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION (JULY 12-15) WE WILL EMPHASIZE SUPPORT FOR CONSTITUENCY ACTIONS, SPIRITED, BUT LOW-KEY ANTI-WAR STREET PRESENCE, LOBBYING AND PROPAGANDA AND EXPOSE.

The Miami Conventions Coalition will not, however, put out a call for massive street demonstrations at the Democratic Convention. We agreed to wage an intensive propaganda campaign at the Dem. National Convention around the war, with at least a partial focus on lobbying the delegates to the convention. The seven point peace proposal of the PRG would be key education tool in terms of talking both to McGovern supporters and to people in general. However, care would be taken to respect the attempts to make the 3-point peace plan a floor fight inside, and the PRG proposal would not be used to undermine that attempt.

6- IT WAS EXPRESSLY STATED AND AGREED THAT THE MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION WOULD NOT PUBLICLY SUPPORT ANYONE FOR THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT.

OUR DISCUSSION

We felt that we participated in a fruitful discussion about the role of the left at the Republican and Democratic Conventions, and the direction that the movement could take. This section is an attempt to give a sense of the flow of those discussions.

1. Many people felt that the primary objective in this period was to defeat Richard Nixon and the forces he represents within the ruling class. Other people wanted to concentrate more on issues than on Nixon himself. We all felt that the combination of the continuing Vietnamese offensive and the political climate in America makes the defeat of Nixon possible. There was a general feeling that our actions around the conventions could significantly affect the course of the war. We discussed how an anti-imperialist movement could relate to the issue of defeating Nixon, and specifically how other issues(racism, sexism, corporate capitalism)related to that.
2. We felt that any national demonstration or action is where the left states its politics, and has an opportunity to say things which relate to people's anger or disillusionment. That is why we felt that our call must be more than just to defeat Nixon. The demonstrations themselves are not a substitute for politics. We do not want to allow our presence to become the issue at the Republican convention; our demonstrations must dramatize the real issues.

3. We discussed the militancy of the demonstrations, the use of civil disobediance as a tactic and specifically the problem of the large Cuban population in Miami. Since the Miami police force has only 650 officers, the federal government will be responsible for protection, and the national guard will probably be present. People felt that the convention atmosphere could turn into that of an armed camp. Some people felt that the portions of the Cuban community which are right-wing were not that menacing, and that the policing forces would be relatively well disciplined. We felt that the seriousness of the world situation meant that we could not compromise the necessity to be there. Some people felt that it would be best if the onus of confrontation was placed on Nixon; others felt that Nixon might try to cool the situation out and that meant that the responsibility would be placed on us to remain militant.

4. We had long discussions about McGovern and his possible role, if he were nominated and if he were not. Some people felt that for the first time since the beginning of the war we had indeed a possible candidate whose election could affect the end of the war. Some people felt that all should be done to insure McGovern's nomination, with the exception of outright endorsement. Others felt that we should primarily be trying to push the Democrats and the country to the left. We discussed how the result inside of the Democratic convention might affect the tactics and militancy of the people on the street outside, and vice versa. Because of the possibility of McGovern as a real alternative for ending the war, we felt it was important for the outside demonstrations to be low key. Some people felt that demonstrations might have an adverse effect, and this was especially felt by most people if the demonstrations were in any way violent.

We discussed our strategy in case HHH got elected, and what our position should be if in fact McGovern won. We discussed tactics such as a march against death, or a candlelight march calling out the names of dead Vietnamese. A quiet anger. We all felt the need of strong support of activities already planned -- NWRO, SCLC, Gay groups, and other constituency demonstrations.

We realized that whoever would be nominated at the Democratic Convention would have a significant effect on the tone of the Republican Convention. We discussed whether an overt anti-imperialist, pro-PRG demonstration would be appropriate at the Democratic convention. We concluded that we should have an educational presence at the Democratic Convention which would press delegates to understand the real origins of the war.

We realized that all Democratic Convention organizing would be hampered by lack of time.

5. We had intensive discussions of the 3 point and 7 point peace proposals. We felt that lobbying around the 3 point proposal inside the Democratic Convention was very important, and had the possibility of producing floor fights. Most people concluded that the 3 point proposal was appropriate for organizing internally inside the Democratic convention, but that the mass propaganda line, especially for the Republican Convention, should be support of the 7 points.

We felt that a strong, independent women's presence would be a crucial part of the convention activities and the Miami Conventions Coalition.

We discussed the question of coalitions and united fronts, and agreed that we should try to make the demonstrations more broad-based than in the past.

We will emphasize the seriousness of these demonstrations, and our serious committment.

6. In terms of relations between local and national activities, we felt strongly that well organized local regions should define their own activities for the Republican Convention. We felt that the Conventions Coalition in Miami would probably be defining the scenario, but would do so in a way which was responsive to, and depended on, the participation and existence of local groups. We urged people to go back to where they lived and organize Conventions Coalition offices or centers which would distribute propaganda, discuss and organize among themselves, so that at the Republican Convention itself people would be able to participate in regional or city groups.

7. We felt that convention organizing would be very important this summer, because the offensive in Vietnam would continue, and because Nixon would continue to escalate. We felt that the major contradictions would intensify over the summer, and that the left could play a very significant role at both conventions; at the Republican in militant, strong, confrontational demonstrations of all forms, and at the Democratic by expressing strong anti-war sentiment.

EXPOSE '72

Expose '72 was only discussed briefly at the meeting, but we all felt it would be a very important part of convention organizing. The following is a synopsis of the Expose '72 proposal put forward by the San Diego Convention Coalition:

We want to create an atmosphere where people can come to understand more about the specific nature of the country, and the world we live in, and have some fun. Expose '72 would be a large exposition, and also a base for organizing brigades and other actions.

Exhibits: (a partial list)

--the air war, with weapons display
--people's art
--the economy
--Chicano and Black movements
--Women
--China, Vietnam, Cuba, Africa, Latin America

Continuous showing of movies, i.e. Milhous, Burn, Inside North Vietnam, Etc.
Workshops
Video--messages from other countries, the findings of the People's Panel of Inquiry on the Nixon Administration. People's news broadcasts of the days events and reactions from around the country and the world.
Entertainment

Publishing a daily newspaper or street wall journal.

We are hoping that regions will organize Expose 72 groups and exhibits in their regions and bring them to Miami. Expose is seen as one more tool in being able to organize nationally and internationally. It is a creative and new way that even more organizations, groups, constituencies and nationalities might be persuaded to participate in the Convention actions.

PRINCIPLES OF UNITY

THE FOLLOWING SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF UNITY WERE BROUGHT TO THE MEETING BY THE PEOPLE FROM FLORIDA AND SAN DIEGO. THEY WERE NEITHER ACCEPTED NOR REJECTED BY THOSE AT THE MEETING FOR A VARIETY OF GOOD REASONS. THEY ARE INCLUDED HERE TO PROVOKE DISCUSSION:

1. We support an end to the U.S. government's domestic policies of political, economic, racial, and sexual oppression as currently reflected in the Nixon Doctrine. e.g. NEP, Wage-Price Freeze, the use of the Taft-Hartly Act, the attack on secondary boycotts, right to work laws, welfare cuts, FAP, veto of the child care bill, use of grand juries as a tool of political repression, nomination of right wing judges, attacks on prisoners, and the racist use of the bussing issue.
2. Building alliances with Third World communities by creating the following relationships between Third World communities and the Miami Conventions Coalition and other convention organizing groups: non-interference in the leadership of Third World communities; technical and economic assistance to groups organizing around the conventions in Third World communities; emphasis by white organizers on the issue of racism; and the probelms of working people in their own communities. These relationships are central to creating an on-going national united front to oppose the common enemy: the forces of repression, racism, and imperialism.

3. We oppose all social, political, and economic forces which perpetuate domination and exploitation based on sex roles. We support the right of all women and gay people to define their own identities and societal roles.

4. We demand an immediate end to all US aggression and involvement in Indochina, and support the PRG 7 point plan for peace in Vietnam. The major points of which are:

   a. The US must set a date for the total withdrawal of all US troops, military personnel, weapons and war materials, and those of its allies.

   b. The US must end its intervention in the internal affairs of South Vietnam, and end its support of the regime of Nguyen Van Thieu.

We also demand that the US government respect the 1962 Geneva Accords guaranteeing independence and neutrality for Laos. We support the Front Uni National du Kampuchea as the only legitimate government of Cambodia.

5. We oppose all US interference in the internal affairs of other nations, and we support struggles of national liberation.

6. The demonstrations we are planning should not be violent.

7. No party or presidential candidate will be pushed through the use of slogans or the speakers' platform in the demonstrations. In addition, we will not support any presidential candidate.

Participation of Unicorn News Collective from Washington, D.C., at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami Beach, July - August, 1972

On June 22, 1972, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Unicorn News Collective of Washington, D.C., is expected to follow the events of both the Democratic National Convention and Republican National Convention being held in Miami Beach during July and August, 1972.

The source provided information relative to the formation and general background of the Collective which is summarized as follows:

In January, 1972, the Unicorn News Collective was founded as a gay men's collective engaged in making audio tapes on straight radical and gay subjects suitable for broadcasting throughout the country.

In May, 1972, Unicorn News was located at 1819 Vernon Street NW, Washington, District of Columbia 20009, telephone 202-234-3865, and 234-3866. The house which the collective occupies, is rented at the cost of $400 a month. The members include [redacted] and several other men, all homosexual and professing an "effeminist" consciousness. There is an overlap in membership with the Purple Star Tribe, whose most celebrated member is [redacted] The symbol of Unicorn News as used on its stationery is a unicorn flashing radio waves.

Participation of Unicorn News Collective from Washington, D.C., at the Democratic and Republican National Conventions in Miami Beach, July - August, 1972

In April of 1972, after the escalation of the war in Vietnam, Unicorn News began to send out a daily "Emergency Vietnam Audio Feed" to more than sixty stations as far from Washington as College, Alaska. Its sources of information included Dispatch News Service and the Asian Information Group.

At the present time Unicorn News is working to build an alternative audio news network on a national scale, and to create an audio information pool and an alternative media center to cover the national political conventions in Miami. If professes to be "working in full cooperation with WBUS-FM in Miami Beach". Two questionnaires have been printed for submission to other radio stations around the country. Also, members of the collective are seeking financial support for its activities during the summer.

Unicorn News is also concerned with gay political activity; [redacted] was one of the organizers of Gay Mayday in 1971, and the collective is following the campaign for gay rights during the 1972 election. It is not, however, on particularly friendly terms with Washington GAA, which has chosen to take the initiative in this field. It may be expected to attend gay conferences, caucuses and press conferences and to make tapes of the proceedings for broadcasting and replaying.

The collective should attend the conventions in Miami en bloc and may play a significant role in the non-establishment media coverage of the event. At the Democratic Convention, where there is expected to be a gay caucus of approximately 15 members, Unicorn News will be attending its press conferences and serving as liaison with the straight radical media. At the Republican Convention, it should stay close to the gay contingent among the demonstrators and record its activities. At both affairs Unicorn News will seek to collaborate with the radical news media in performing live coverage of the events inside and outside the convention hall.

Unicorn News may thus serve as a pilot project for homosexual-oriented radio stations elsewhere in the country, and also become a link in the proposed chain of anti-establishment media disseminate news and opinion in opposition to the regular radio and TV networks.

A xerox of the literature being distributed by the Collective is attached hereto.

UNICORN NEWS

ALTERNATIVE CONVENTION COVERAGE

In the process of building an alternative news radio network unicorn news invites you to participate in "Alternative Convention Coverage" from Miami Beach. We are building towards co-operation among alternative media - especially electronic - through an audio information pool and an alternative media center currently being established just eight blocks from Convention Hall. We are working in full co-operation with WBUS-FM in Miami Beach. Our idea of an alternative news network includes your participation and involvment, so we would like to know if you plan to have people in Miami or if you are interested in alternative coverage of the convention.

unicorn news has been growing over the past six months, and became a reality just a few weeks ago with our "Emergency Vietnam Audio Feed". The ad-hoc daily feed has served over sixty stations. By using such sources as Dispatch New Service and the Asia Information Group, as well as local stations; we have been able to offer a true alternative to the major news services. We intend to follow the Republican Convention in August with the birth of the network itself. It will be based on a five minute vignette format designed for open access and the possibility of input from you.

Let us know how we can serve you with information and how we can work together.

I. ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

The YIP, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-Establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City in January, 1968. Following a factional dispute in May, 1972, the YIP divided into two factions, the Yippies, headed by a YIP Collective, and Zippies, headed by THOMAS KING FORCADE, a member of the Underground Press Syndicate.

1. YIP COLLECTIVE (YIPPIES)

YIP leader STEWART ALBERT on June 19, 1972, reported the people in Miami planning the Miami protests were very disappointed in "national movement response". He further stated that they were concerned over the old people in the Miami Beach area and the danger of alienating them; this is the reason for the "non-militancy" approach. He said little action was planned for the large hotels in the Miami Beach area because of "mafia" connections and the fear of reprisal. He remarked planning had not really "gotten off the ground" and he therefore was unable to give specific answers to questions.

JEFF NIGHTBYRD, a spokesman for YIP, addressed the Tiger Bay Club, a legitimate social-political-businessman's club in Miami, Florida, on June 20, 1972. He was a substitute for YIP leader JERRY RUBIN, who reportedly was ill. He said, "Our primary reason for being here is to stop the genocide in Southeast Asia and we realize that violence in the streets this summer won't help end the war". He said with camp sites and other provisions for demonstrators not forthcoming the YIP has canceled plans for protests at the Democratic National Convention (DNC). Movement leaders believe the Republican Party wants chaos at the DNC and YIP leaders have decided to "put pressure on NIXON" by backing off the DNC and concentrating on the Republican National Convention (RNC).

In answer to the question what the YIP would do if the Vietnam War should end before the RNC, he said, "I expect we'll have an incredible celebration and go get suntans".

At a speech before the Young Democratic Club of Dade County, JEFF NIGHTBYRD said he saw a "calculated Republican scheme to create a situation of chaos that will disrupt the Democratic Party". He said the YIP was, therefore, attempting to discourage any more than 30,000 non-delegates to be on hand for the DNC.

After the first edition the name of this paper was changed to the "Beach Blanket Struggle". The third edition of this paper is dated June 22, 1972. The paper reports on activities related to plans of various groups for the DNC and RNC and contains articles encouraging people to come to Miami for the conventions. It appears to be written for distribution throughout the United States. It is distributed free of cost.

B. FLORIDA PEOPLE'S COALITION (FPC)
MIAMI CONVENTIONS COALITION (MCC)
PEOPLE'S COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE (PCPJ)

FPC, also known as the Florida People's Platform Coalition (FPPC), is a statewide organization established as a pressure group to demonstrate at the DNC in Miami Beach, Florida, July, 1972.

The MCC was formed at a national meeting in Washington, D. C. as a coalition of groups planning protest activities at the DNC and RNC, including the FPC and the San Diego Convention Coalition (SDCC).

The PCPJ is self-described as a coalition of over 100 organizations which are using massive civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

A meeting of the National Coordinating Committee of the PCPJ was held at Louisville, Kentucky, on June 16-18, 1972. The primary purpose of the meeting was to discuss contemplated actions at the DNC and RNC. [redacted] a member of the PCPJ interim committee, was one of the speakers at this meeting on June 17, 1972. He noted with regard to the Democratic Convention that the prospective is to defeat President NIXON's policies and to expose the President's policies of death, destruction and war at home and abroad. [redacted] stated that the MCC and PCPJ think that Senator MC GOVERN is the best possible Democratic candidate, but neither MC GOVERN or any other possible nominee will be endorsed by the MCC or the PCPJ. Members of the two groups are not to work directly for MC GOVERN even if he is nominated. [redacted] stated that the purpose of the MCC and the PCPJ with regard to the Democratic Convention should be to raise issues and educate people and not to support particular candidates. Actions around the Democratic Convention are to be aimed at communication and education. b6 b7C

Addressing himself to the Republican Convention, [redacted] indicated it is a worthy goal to remind the American b6 b7C people of the deteriorating American society and to encourage them to act to defeat President NIXON's policies. He proposed demonstrations in the form of marches and non-violent civil disobediences to indicate to the American voters that the re-election of President NIXON will cause continuing disruptive, resistance and confrontations in the United States. He pointed out that all acts need to be carefully planned, well disciplined, and non-violent. He expressed a definite need for cooperation between the MCC and the PCPJ and in this regard suggested an allocation of PCPJ personnel on a part-time basis to open a temporary office in Miami. b6 b7C

[redacted] MCC, also spoke to the group on June 17, 1972. He called for massive non-violent demonstrations at the Republican Convention to expose and confront the "NIXON Regime" as a means of strengthening the possibilities of ending the Vietnam War. He outlined a scenario from August 14 through August 23, 1972, as a major expression of dissatisfaction showing that Americans cannot accept another four years of the "NIXON doctrine". He pointed out that the MCC is not calling for massive demonstrations at the Democratic Convention since the MCC feels that any demonstrations to take place at the Democratic Convention should be low-key legal lobbying actions.

On June 18, 1972, the meeting reconvened and it was agreed to send a PCPJ collective to Miami in an effort to merge the PCPJ with the MCC. No one was sure whether the MCC would remain autonomous and it was agreed that details concerning the organization of the merger would necessarily be worked out as needed. b6 b7C

It was observed that the general tone of this conference was a dedication to a non-violent approach. [redacted] was a key spokesman for the non-violent prospective. He expressed a deep interest in practical concerns and logistics and indicated that every effort should be made to discourage demonstrators from staying in Miami and Miami Beach between the two national conventions.

MM T-4
June 18, 1972

On [redacted] PCPJ met at the office of the Anti-War Union, Washington, D. C., to discuss PCPJ's cooperation with the MCC. It was the consensus of those present that the MCC lacks leadership and was not accomplishing much with regard to planning demonstrations during the conventions. There was some discussion regarding the possibility of the PCPJ taking over the MCC but it was decided that PCPJ would obtain its own living quarters in Miami which would probably be used as an operation base and would work with MCC in convention planning. It was reported that PCPJ and [redacted] was then in Miami to meet with leaders of the YIP to determine if there was any possibility for cooperation of the groups during the future demonstrations. It was reported that DAVIS is not in favor of the radical type tactics which the YIP has advocated. b6 b7C [redacted] indicated they would travel to Miami within the following two days.

Following the above meeting the PCPJ group went to the office of National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) to discuss areas of cooperation between the PCPJ and NWRO. It was agreed that PCPJ would co-sponsor all of the NWRO activities in Miami this summer. This will include a demonstration on July 8, 1972, by the National Tenants Association, a NWRO subsidiary; a march on July 9, 1972, sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC); and the NWRO demonstration planned for July 10, 1972.

[redacted] of the PCPJ has been designated as the person in charge of movement communications during the conventions at Miami Beach. He held the same position during the May Day demonstrations at Washington, D. C. in 1971. He is expected to arrive in the Miami area by July 1, 1972.

MM T-1

At a meeting of [redacted] on [redacted] attended by [redacted] a serious disagreement developed between [redacted] including [redacted] proposed that a "national call" be made of various organizations to attend the DNC to support the constituency groups which are planning demonstrations at this time. [redacted] felt these groups would then later support the MCC and PCPJ in its activities during the RNC. The others present [redacted] opposed this "national call" during the DNC and felt the MCC and PCPJ should concentrate solely on RNC activities. According to the source [redacted] and although no decision was made, it was assumed that [redacted] would follow through on his plan.

b6
b7C
b7D

The overall scenario for protest activity at the RNC was altered at the above meeting. The current plan, which places more emphasis on opposition to the Vietnam War, is as follows:

First Day: A Vietnamese cultural activity called "Let Vietnam Live". Anti-war speeches to be made by a number of Vietnam citizens brought in for this activity.

Second Day: A "gauntlet of shame" will be formed from each major hotel to the convention hall. This will consist of demonstrators wearing white "death masks" lined up on both sides of the street which will be called "a street without joy". This will be intended to represent Highway I in Vietnam.

Third Day: Major demonstration to be conducted at Doral Beach Hotel during a meeting of the GOP National Committee. Later, demonstrators will march in a continuous circle around the convention hall in a "march against murder", to culminate in "unstructured" acts of massive disobedience.

The underground newspaper "University Review", published in New York City and Washington, D. C., will be the principal publication used by the MCC and PCPJ for organizing on a nation-wide basis. "University Review" will possibly publish a Miami edition under another name in the near future.

C. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

WSA, a faction of SDS, was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

The PLP was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party USA for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and Mao Tse-tung thought.

A national meeting of the SDS was held on the campus of Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Massachusetts, on June 17-18, 1972. These meetings were chaired by MARTIE RIEFE, East Coast National Secretary of the SDS. Topics discussed included ways to improve the SDS publication "New Left Notes", SDS finances, and action to be taken at the forthcoming political conventions.

D. SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC)

The SCLC is a civil rights organization with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, which was founded by the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

SCLC will hold a rally at Manor Park, N. W. 12th Avenue and 50th Street, Miami, on Sunday, July 9, 1972, for the purpose of informing the local citizenry of their plans for the DNC. This activity will be conducted by SCLC leader Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY and among the participants expected to attend will be singer HARRY BELAFONTE.

E. OPERATION PUSH

Operation Push, also known as People United to Save Humanity, is headed by JESSE LOUIS JACKSON, who has described the group as a Chicago based political and economic organization for the betterment of black and minority groups.

JESSE LOUIS JACKSON, National Director of Operation Push, is planning to travel to the DNC to lobby at the convention in an effort to include ideas in the Democratic Platform which would be favorable to blacks and minority groups. Operation Push is not planning any militant activities or civil unrest during this convention.

F. NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION (NWRO)

The NWRO is a civil rights group headquartered in Washington, D. C., which has sponsored protest marches and demonstrations in the past resulting in the arrest of members and leaders.

Previous plans to have ANGELA DAVIS address the NWRO convention at Miami Beach on its opening day, July 5, 1972, have been canceled. Plans now call for Georgia State Legislator JULIAN BOND to address this convention.

MM T-11

ANGELA YVONNE DAVIS is a self-admitted member of the Communist Party who was found innocent in June, 1972, of charges of murder and kidnapping following a highly publicized trial in California.

G. NATIONAL TENANTS ORGANIZATION (NTO)

JESSE GRAY, head of the NTO, said that this group will stage a demonstration at an unannounced location Saturday night, July 8, 1972, in connection with the DNC.

"Miami Herald"
June 22, 1972

Two Dade County tenants organizations, Tenants Association of Florida, representing primarily middle and upper income tenants, and the Florida Tenants Organization, representing the lower income renters, will join forces to stage a tenants demonstration on Miami Beach three days before the opening of the DNC. A spokesman for the organizations stated they were joining to dramatize the grievances of tenants and to say to the Democratic Party that the condition of humans is important.

H. GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE (GAA)
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS (NCGO)

GAA is a homosexual group headquartered at New York City whose purpose is the promoting of "gay rights". A Miami chapter of GAA was formed in early 1972.

RE: DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Gay activists planning to demonstrate during the national conventions filed a federal suit in an attempt to overturn two Miami Beach laws outlawing female impersonation. The suit named Miami Beach Police Chief ROCKY POMERANCE as the defendant and was filed by Miami attorney BRUCE ROGOW for the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of ROBERT F. BARRY, 26, President of the GAA, and CHARLES A. LAMONT, 30, organizer for the NCGO. The suit was also filed on behalf of all male homosexuals as a class.

"Miami Herald"
June 22, 1972

The two Miami Beach ordinances outlawing female impersonation were declared unconstitutional on June 22, 1972, by U. S. District Court Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTENS. Judge MEHRTENS entered a permanent injunction forbidding the Miami Beach Police Department from enforcing the ordinances. The order said the Miami Beach laws "have a chilling effect on the First Amendment rights" of homosexuals who plan to demonstrate during the DNC and RNC. According to court testimony, at least 6,000 homosexuals are expected to arrive in Miami at convention time to lobby for a "gay Bill of Rights" and a "gay plank" in the Democratic Party's 1972 platform.

II. THREATS OF VIOLENCE OR DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITY

A. VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW)

The VVAW is a national veterans organization with a national clearinghouse located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and a withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina".

A "Convention News Letter", undated, signed "Florida VVAW, Post Office Box 13179, Gainesville, Florida 32601" has been disseminated by mail during early June, 1972, from Gainesville, presumably to all VVAW chapters in the United States. A copy of this letter was made available by the source. The letter states that the VVAW "Operation County Fair" will be held in Miami Beach in two phases, the first session from July 9 to 14, and the second session from August 20 to 24, 1972. The letter states they expect peaceful, non-violent activities during the DNC but later contains the following paragraph:

"Things that we will need if you can bring them are: 1. Radio equipment, civilian band, police band, VHF & UHF receivers, walkie-talkies. 2. Gas masks, motor cycle helments. 3. We have learned that the police will hand_cuff people through their belts behind their backs so they can't have their hands in front of them, so don't wear belts. 4. Bring balloons, we have found that balloons of ammonia have an effect on policemen, when they put you into the position of self defense. 5. Bo-lo's which are made by using 10 foot strips of monofilliment fishing line with a lead sinker on each end and one in the middle; they are great when used to trip people who are running after people to cause them harm. This is a purely defensive measure. 6. High pressure fire extinguisher can be used to make a surface slippery while being chased, also they may be refilled with other substances if necessary. 7. Foam lining sewn along the outside seams of your clothes can help lessen the effect of a club being swung at you. 8. We also recognize the right of collective self defense if we are placed in a position of receiving extreme or unlawful physical danger to ourselves or brothers. Hunting sling-shots have proven their worth in detering offensive police brutality. We have a supply of some extremely well made sling shots that have proven themselves. They are available for $3 each. It is best to send for them now, or send in your orders and money and we will be able to give them to you when you come down. Marbles, ball berrings and lead weights are very effective defensive projectiles and fried marbles are also effective upon impact. 9. We need to know how many medics and corpmen will be available for our medical unit. 10. We need people to do work directly connected with the convention but not on the beach. This will be support and surveillance type activities, that will not put you at any time in a position of harm. 11. No fire armes will be permitted on the beach. All the Pigs need is an excuse to start killing our brothers and that would be it. People who want to go shooting can bring weapons. We have several firing ranges, but the weapons will be stored off the beach during the Dem. Conv."

A meeting of the VVAW was held in [redacted] attended by [redacted] for the VVAW. Source obtained the following information from [redacted] and [redacted]

Wrist rockets, which can be purchased for $3.00 each are to be widely used by this group against police personnel or anyone else who hinders to a great extent their activities during the convention. The ammunition for this particular weapon will be ball bearings, "fried marbles" and flattened pieces of metal. A test of the wrist rocket was made in presence of the source using ball bearings as ammunition. At close range this projectile penetrated approximately halfway through a City of Miami telephone book.

Cherry bomb type projectiles, along with smoke bombs, are also to be used with the "wrist rocket" to confuse the police and cause casualties.

Four to five man teams of one "medic" and his guards will be operating in the areas of major confrontations. These guards will be armed with "wrist rockets".

Four man "ambush teams" have been or are now being formed and will be used in conjunction with "phoney" calls for police assistance or against individual police units which can be isolated from immediate assistance or from the main body of police. These teams will allegedly be armed with "wrist rockets" but will not be restricted to this weapon.

V. POSSIBILITY OF COUNTERDEMONSTRATIONS AND DISTURBANCES IN THE ETHNIC COMMUNITIES

A. CUBAN ACTIVITIES

The Cuban exile organization Abdala in Miami has issued a call to other Cuban groups for help in preparing a campaign in Miami during the Democratic and Republican Conventions. These plans call only for broadcasting on Miami radio stations propaganda calling for assistance in overthrowing the CASTRO Government in Cuba and for distribution of literature and decals in the area where the conventions will be held. The directors of Brigade 2506, also known as the Association of Veterans of the Bay of Pigs, a Cuban exile organization in Miami, have called upon other such organizations based in Miami to join this group in a demonstration at the Miami Beach Convention Hall. This demonstration will consist of Cuban exiles carrying placards in English demanding that the future candidates resolve the problem of Cuba and informing these candidates that the Cuban exiles do not want them to negotiate with Cuba or to co-exist with the CASTRO Government. Plans for this demonstration have not been formulated and no date has been set. Most of the Cuban exile organizations disagree with this plan and feel that the Cuban demonstrators could be taken advantage of by extremist elements. This would inevitably result in a clash and the extremist leaders could then accuse the Cuban exiles of interfering in the internal affairs of this country and place the blame for any violence on the Cuban exiles.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)
WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE (WSA)

On June 5, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past made available a leaflet entitled "SDS Organizers School, Boston, June 16, 17, 18" which briefly states that at noon June 16, 1972 and continuing through June 18, 1972, the International Headquarters of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), was planning an SDS Organizer School at Boston followed by similar schoold in the mid west a few weeks later. The leaflet stated that SDS hoped to have at least two people from every chapter in the United States and Canada participate in one of these schools. Among things to be discussed would be "How to build up a region of SDS; How to initiate a struggle; What kind of literature SDS needs; How to improve 'New Left Notes'; and fund raising." An agenda will be sent out to SDS organizers prior to the west coast and mid west schools. The school, according to the pamphlet, is intended to help people to organize and build SDS; and learn from others how this is done.

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions; Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); amd Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). On June 16, 17 and 18, the International Headquarters is organizing an SDS Organizers School. There will be similar schools in the Midwest and on the West Coast a few weeks later.

This school will focus on how to build SDS, examining all the basic issues involved through workshops and large group discussions based on our experiences this year. We hope to have at least two people from every chapter in the U.S. and in Canada participate in one of these schools. Since there is usually not enough time for extensive discussions of what SDS is (or should be) and how to build it during the school year (especially not on the international level) the International Headquarters thought that this was the ideal time to hold such a meeting.

Among the things to be discussed are: how to start a chapter, how to build up a region of SDS, how to initiate a struggle, what kind of literature SDS needs, how to improve New Left Notes, fundraising, etc. The following are some questions which people around the country have suggested that we discuss:

1. Are students an important group to organize?

2. If so, can SDS be one of the main ways of organizing them?

3. What effect has SDS had on the student movement?

4. Should SDS be a socialist organization, or one based on a broader range of issues?

5. Should SDS primarily focus on:
   the Worker-Student Alliance?
   the fight against racism?
   or the fight against imperialism?

6. Is there a need for leadership in SDS or is that an elitist concept?

7. What should our attitude be towards repression? How should we organize against it?

8. Should SDS operate within larger coalitions and if so, how?

9. Should SDS make a big deal about the Democratic and Republican Conventions? If so, what should that big deal be?

Several people around the country are writing up their opinions about one or more of these questions. We will be sending out a packet next week containing copies of these plus a tentative agenda for the weekend. Please send in any ideas for discussion. Also, anyone who has the time can write up their ideas on these or other questions to distribute at the Organizers School. The more that we prepare for this, the more that we will get out of it. For instance, a lot of people have suggested that after the school, we should write up an organizers pamphlet based on the discussions there. Please fill in the registration blank on the back of this page if you are coming. The school will start about noon on Friday, June 16. If you are from the Midwest or the West Coast, write us if you are interested in the Organizers School there.

This school is intended to help people who want to organize and build SDS learn from each other how to do that. If you are interested in finding out more about SDS but not in organizing it, this school would not be helpful to you. Write to us if you want to know more about SDS - We could set up introductory discussions about SDS or let you know what events are going on in your area.

Our address is Box 423, Prudential Center, Boston Massachusetts, 02199.

On to Miami

The West Coast office of the Youth International Party opened Friday, June 16th and the office collective declared its intention to go ahead with its plans for a caravan to Miami despite reports that Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin, and the YIP collective in Miami are calling off the demonstrations for the Democratic party convention.

Conflicts over when to go to Miami arose between the YIP collective in Miami and other yippies across the country in Chicago, New York, and Berkeley. Local Berkeley YIP organizers claim that while the demonstrations that plagued the Democrats in Chicago 68 will be reserved for Nixie in August there are plans to go ahead with caravans for the convention in July.

"We want people to organize on anti-war activity in Miami this summer right up to election time," said Bradley Fox, spokesman for the Youth International Party here. "It will be important for people in Miami to pressure delegates on the floor of the convention to come up with a strong anti-air war plank for the Democratic Party."

Brad has been working closely with Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin, Stew Albert, and the YIP collective back East and is back in Berkeley opening the West Coast YIP office which will be a co-ordinating center for people going to Miami.

"Since 85-90% of the delegates at the Democratic Party Convention will be on the floor for the first time," he said, "we have a great opportunity to influence the direction of the Democratic Party to accept platform planks we want. The lobbying effort on the part of blacks, women, gays will be loudlyheard at this convention. Unlike '68 we can make a difference on the floor of the convention."

He said he wanted to make it clear the Youth InternationalParty is not putting its faith in the Democratic Party but is giving the electoral process one last chance to end the war and begin real change in the country.

Expressing some optimism in the potential power of the youth vote in this election, Brad said, "There is growing frustration amongst youth with the direction the country has taken. They will be a strong voting bloc for the first time in this Presidential election. With high unemployment, attacks on welfare and a badly structured society that perpetuates sexism and racism we will be in Miami to insure our voice is heard. This may be our last-ditch attempt for turning this country around from fascism."

YIP organizers are in touch with the Vietnam Vets, who are leaving from Seattle for Miami.

An office, located in Berkeley at 2490 Channing Way, room 400, is being used as a clearing house for rides, setting up meeting times and a place for departures, as well as co-ordinating caravans for the conventions. The People are urged to drop by the office or can call 841-9030 for information and contacts.

The June 22, 1972, issue of the Atlanta Constitution daily newspaper, published in Atlanta, Georgia, contains an article captioned "Abernathy Still Plans Miami Shanty Town".

The article states that Dr. Ralph Abernathy, President, Southern Leadership Conference (SCLC) said he is going ahead with plans to build a temporary "shanty town" in Miami Beach in connection with the Democratic National Convention. The article states Abernathy said he intends for construction to begin on Resurrection City II in Flamingo Park on July 5, 1972, to be completed in time for the Democratic National Convention beginning July 10, 1972.

According to the article, Abernathy said Resurrection City II will house 500 demonstrators who will dramatize poor people's problems. The article also states that the government of Miami Beach has not granted permission to SCLC to use Flamingo Park which is a 20-mile recreational area located about one-half mile from the convention center.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION, SOUTHERN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On June 23, 1972, a confidential source advised that as of that time no apparent definite plans have been made by SCLC in connection with either the Democratic or Republican National Conventions; however, they do intend to be present as an organizational force at both. The organization intends to be peaceful demonstrators and hope to maintain that image. He stated that discussions have taken place among SCLC officials to conduct some type of mule train to demonstrate poor people's problems but no definite plans have been formulated in that regard. The same source noted it is quite characteristic of SCLC leadership at the present time to vacillate and be non-decisive in regard to such matters. He stated that if SCLC conducts or participates in such activities or demonstrations, plans will be made at the last minute and will be quite indecisive.

The speaker was introduced as SHARI ANN WHITEHEAD, of the Miami Convention Coalition.

Miss WHITEHEAD spoke briefly about her boncern for the establishment of a campsite for non-delegates at Miami Beach during the Conventions and she added that she understood ~~XXXXXXX~~ through radio broadcasts that some of the Miami Beach City Councilmen who had previously voted against the establishment of such campsites where now reconsidering their stand.

She stated that people are coming to the Conventions from all over the country to express their concerns and that their intentions are ~~XXXXX~~ peaceful. She anticipated joint meetings between representatives of the National Welfare Rights Organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the National Tenents organization where poverty in America will be seriously challenged.

She also stated that there will also be lots of educational and cultural activities at the Conventions; the Miami ~~XXXXXXXXX~~ Conventions Coalition will be doing workshops on the war and ~~XXXXXX~~ making exhibits. She urged contributions from all groups towards these workshops and exhibits.

She predicted that in just a short time after the Democratic Convention there would be an opportunity to expose and confront RICHARD NIXON and the NIXON Doctrine, which has brought death and destruction and creeping government control during the past four years. This confrontation will bring people from every segment of ~~XXXXXXXX~~ American society; students, "freaks", housewives, and "all kinds of other women and people."

80-1353-1117

Specifically the Miami Conventions Coalition will support the "7 Point Peace Plan" of the Vietnamese. She explained that this peace plan was put forth on July 1, 1971, by XXHXX Madam X BIN (phonetic) and it according to WHITEHEAD really offers a xmmx solution to the war in that it deals with the United States Government's setting a date for withdrawal of troops, and the withdrawal of U.S. support from THIEU (Phonetic), whom she stated has no support in Viet Nam and whose control depends upon the military hardware furnished to him by the United States. She added that it is the "peaceable" hope that when these conditions are met the "POW"s" will be released and the steady withdrawal of troops arranged for.

She urged that all American people support the above peace plan and demand that the U.S. Government accept these peace proposals. She added that the plan is supported by all of the people in Vietnam, and that this is one way out of one of the xmmnxxix country's major problems.

She stated that the Miami Conventions Coalition is planning something called "Expose 72" which will make possible grafic representationx of the the people's concern for varous problems through exhibits and workshops and the x like. She invited everyone listening to join the Coalition and she furnished telephone number 444-0962 for the Coalition with office at 1718 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida.

She said that the orgainization is just getting moved in at the above address and urgently requested donations of rugs, typewriters, office supplies, desks and an air conditioning unit for the offixmmx office from the listeners.

The YIP will conduct a march at 2:00 PM on Thursday, June 29, 1972, which march will begin in the area of the convention and end at the Par Three Golf Course, which is located Southeast of the Bayshore Country Club. This march is going to be against the militarization of Miami Beach and compared with the militarization going on in Vietnam. Also being used as the side line now will be MARTHA MITCHELL and the fact that she is a type of political prisoner. The YIPPIES had hoped that about 1,000 would participate but it is believed that about 50 people would be more correct. The ZIPPIES are going to get involved in this march and hope to possibly create some confusion during the march by carrying CHE GUEVARRA signs and posters. They hoped that the Cubans would get mad about this and probably get into the act.

[redacted] involved in preparing for this march.

[redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] expose it, which means that they would have some type of booth explaining life styles and it is to be a cultural thing and the booth would probably be placed where cultural type things are located.

There is no information the SDS is currently in Miami or that anybody connected with it is getting associated with convention activities.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SCLC
NWRO ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, JULY 5-9, 1972
NTO
DEMONSTRATIONS AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, JULY, 1972

On [redacted] MM T-1 advised that at a meeting held at [redacted] the discussion centered around the problems of getting people together in the Miami area to participate in demonstrations at the forthcoming convention. [redacted] stated that the SCLC is having difficulty in finding staff people for the Miami SCLC and in arousing interest in the local community. b6 b7C b7D

On [redacted] MM T-2 advised that at a meeting on [redacted] NWRO, had discussed plans for the forthcoming conference to be held at the Coronet Hotel, 2001 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, July 5-9, 1972, and the problems that have been encountered in getting local participants for the NWRO demonstration to be held at the Miami Beach Convention Center Monday evening, July 10, 1972. MM T-2 further advised that at a meeting on [redacted] the NWRO had stressed that the NWRO was not going to join or support the Zippies, Yippies, and other leftist groups. They stated that they may support the SCLC and the NTO. b6 b7C b7D

On [redacted] MM T-2 advised that [redacted] SCLC, stated on that date that the prime concern for his organization at the present time is getting the plans together for Resurrection City II, to be held on July 10-13, 1972. [redacted] stated that although he has met with representatives of the Zippies, the Yippies and the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, the SCLC will not get involved with these groups because the SCLC is primarily a non-violent organization. [redacted] also expressed disapproval at that time of the "smoke-in" planned by these groups. [redacted] stated that the SCLC will have a large rally on July 9, 1972, at Manor Park, b6 b7C b7D

1300 Northwest 50th Street, Miami, Florida. The SCLC expects the Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, and other national civil rights leaders to speak at this rally. According to MM T-2, the SCLC now plans to remain for both conventions; however, the NWRO is presently planning to concentrate its efforts primarily on the Democratic Convention.

On [redacted] MM T-1 stated that the SCLC now plans for their rally to be held on July 9, 1972, at Manor Park, 13th Avenue and Northwest 50th Street, to begin at 3:00 P.M. The SCLC plans to have Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING of Atlanta, Georgia, as one of the speakers at the rally and [redacted] as another speaker. The SCLC also plans to have entertainment during the afternoon. b6 b7C b7D

MM T-1 advised that the Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, President of the SCLC, Atlanta, arrived in Miami on the evening of June 26, 1972, and that his general purpose for being in Miami is to assist the local representatives in establishing Resurrection City II. It was noted [redacted] SCLC, has had little success in organizing the local population in Miami for Resurrection City II. According to MM T-1, Reverend ABERNATHY will only remain in Miami for one or two days; however, he does not have a definite departure time. On June 27, 1972, Reverend ABERNATHY is scheduled to address a luncheon at the Tiger Bay Club, a local civic organization. b6 b7C b7D

On [redacted] MM T-1 advised that on the [redacted] a meeting was held at the New Covenant Presbyterian Church, 4300 Northwest 12th Avenue, b7D

Miami, which was attended by representatives of the SCLC, the NWRO, and the Florida Tenants Organization. There was considerable discussion concerning a coalition of these organizations to support activities of each other's organizations during the forthcoming Democratic Convention. There was also a discussion concerning plans to hold a "soul picnic" on the Fourth of July in an effort to develop interest for the local Miami people to participate in the forthcoming Democratic National Convention. MM T-1 advised that no specific plans have been made at this time for the Fourth of July "soul picnic."

On June 27, 1972, MM T-3 advised that the Florida Tenants Organization is the Florida affiliate of the National Tenants Organization.

MM T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on [redacted] that NWRO will use spot radio reports, in addition to announcements at various church services in the Miami area, to obtain local support for their convention. This source also reported that NWRO, SCLC and Florida Tenants Organization have formed a coalition and will support the programs and activities of each organization. In this regard, NWRO has scheduled a fund-raising dance for Friday evening, July 7, 1972, at the Depont Plaza Hotel, Miami, Florida. Tickets will be five dollars each. On Saturday evening, July 8, 1972, tentative plans have been made for Democratic candidate GEORGE MC GOVERN to speak at a NWRO fund-raising affair at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, Miami. Admission will be $25 per person for this affair. The source noted that a dance had previously been scheduled for Saturday evening, July 8, 1972, but this has been changed to Friday evening, July 7,

On June 27, 1972, at 1:00 PM, the YIP had called a press conference and members of the press did go to YIP headquarters at Miami Beach. However, instead of handing them a press release they were given three leaflets as follows:

The first leaflet referred to the March, which is to take place on June 29, 1972, and starting at 2:00 PM in the parking area of the convention hall. This indicated the march was to object to the militarization of Miami Beach, comparing it to Vietnam. It also reflected the March would go to the Par 3 Golf Course where the marchers were to be greeted by residents of the community. In connection with this march, information was subsequently obtained that several of the marchers would be in costume. b6 b7C b7D

The second leaflet handed the press referred to a picnic to take place at 2:00 PM on July 2 at Lummus Park, Miami Beach, which is a free share picnic where everybody brings their own food. This was a good fellowship type of picnic affair. The third leaflet pertained to a senior citizens rally to be held on July 8 at 7:00 PM at Flamingo Park at Miami Beach.

Miami, Dade Offer Campsites; Beach Mum

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Miami and Dade County officials said Thursday they can provide demonstrator campsites for the national conventions.

But Miami Beach officials refused to commit themselves — and hinted the Beach will not authorize sites within its city limits when the City Council votes on the issue today.

A special meeting of the council is scheduled for 10 a.m. with campsites the only item on the agenda.

ALL THREE local governments were asked to spell out their positions Thursday to Gov. Reubin Askew's Community Coordinating Task Force, a committee of business and civil leaders.

Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key refused.

O'Key asked the committee to lobby for more state policemen at the convention, but repeatedly declined to reveal his plans for campsites.

"Our city's position has not been taken," he said. "What they (the council) will decide I have no idea — and I would not want to say what my recommendation will be."

IN SHARP contrast, representatives of the county and city of Miami named specific sites under consideration in their jurisdictions, and said authorization has been made to use them if necessary.

But they made it clear their plans have been based on the assumption the Beach will do the same.

Asked about use of Watson Island, Miami City Manager Melvin Reese replied:

"The mayor has announced it would be available for that purpose, assuming there would also be sites on the Beach."

REESE SAID designation of Watson Island as a campsite would not, in his opinion, require approval of the City Commission.

In a parallel statement, County Commissioner Jim McKillips said the County Commission has authorized County Manager Ray Goode to designate campsites. He mentioned Haulover Beach Park as a specific possibility.

The managers and chief law enforcement officers of the county and both cities had been invited to the meet-

(Privately, other sources said the county is willing to provide Haulover, and the City of Miami Watson Island, with hopes the Beach will designate three of its parks — Flamingo, Lummus and 21st Street beach. The county is prepared to provide sanitation and other basic services for all the sites, they said.)

BUT AT THURSDAY'S meeting, Beach Councilman Leonard Haber, a member of the governor's committee, repeatedly emphasized his view that it is not necessary to quarter demonstrators on Miami Beach.

"I don't see why everybody is so hung up about the city borders," Huber said. "When we invite the Super Bowl, we don't insist the football game be played in Miami Beach."

Several committee members and a representative of the Democratic National Committee disagreed.

Jay Janis, chairman of the Metro Community Relations Board, pointed out that virtually every protest group has said sites outside Miami Beach are unacceptable.

"I DON'T BELIEVE the non-delegates are going to settle for sites off Miami Beach," Janis said. "I think this is going to lead to a confrontation."

Also arguing that there could be trouble if no Miami Beach campsites are approved were State Rep. Gwen Cherry and Hal Spaet, chairman of the Metro Youth Relations Board. They were backed by Phil Seib, special assistant for Democratic National Chairman Larry O'Brien.

Seib, a former Princeton University student body president whose assignment has included discussions with protest leaders, told the committee:

"It has been made consistently clear to us by all non-delegate leaders, they cannot accept campsites that are not on the Beach."

HOWEVER ANOTHER committee member, Alvah Chapman Jr., president of The Miami Herald, said there may not be room for all non-delegates in Miami Beach, depending on how many come.

"You cannot put a campsite of 100,000 people in Miami Beach," Chapman said. "There are going to have to be several sites . . . some people will have to stay elsewhere."

When Miami Beach council members act on the issue today, Chapman said, "they're going to do what the best interest of the voters of Miami Beach tells them to do.

"But whatever they do, the total Miami community will respond in a positive way."

The two-hour meeting of the committee also produced these other convention-related disclosures:

● In asking the committee to support his request for more state policemen, O'Key said he is "not satisfied we have all the civilian law enforcement people required."

Gov. Askew has presently assigned 400 state lawmen to the convention peace-keeping force, not including National Guardsmen and federal troops who will be on stand-by.

● Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance told the committee he will have "two squads of men in an unarmed posture in front of the convention hall," explaining that the officers "couldn't possibly" use firearms in the crowded area.

● The police chief said a joint police intelligence center has been in operation since June 1, with participation of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

● Pomerance said he's hopeful County Manager Goodd will implement a rumor control center "as soon as possible."

THE POLICE CHIEF said the most persistent rumor on Miami Beach has been the story that several "hippies" walked out of a restaurant telling the manager to "send the bill to the federal government." He added: "That never happened."

In addition, Pomerance said reports that bridges will be raised to cut the Beach off from the mainland are "nonsense."

His statement on bridges came in support of an argument by Haber that the only objection to campsites outside Miami Beach is an unfounded fear on the part of demonstrators that they will be denied access to the convention hall.

"Is there any basis for this fear?" asked the Beach councilman.

Replied O'Key, the Beach city manager: "Insofar as I am concerned, there is no such plan . . . They (demonstrators) can get to the convention site from the encampment area with the same ease that they got to the encampment area from their homes."

WHEN MIAMI POLICE Chief Bernard Garmire and Dade Public Safety Director E. Wilson Purdy agreed they have no plans to cut off access from the mainland to the Beach, Haber argued there is no reason not to place the campsites outside Miami Beach.

But Purdy later told the committee that in his opinion, "facilities as close to the Convention Hall as possible should be made available."

Miami Beach sources have said they expect O'Key to recommend today that the Beach Council designate no campsites and leave the decision to him, Goode and Reese.

But, the same sources have indicated, the council may pass a resolution ruling out location of any such sites within Miami Beach.

"Our city's position has not been taken. What they (the council) will decide I have no idea — and I would not want to say what my recommendation will be."

Beach OKs protesters' 'culture sites'

By ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporter

Miami Beach City Council today approved 5-2 a recommendation by Beach Manager Clifford O'Key that two Beach parks be designated "cultural areas" for non-delegates at the political conventions this summer. The sites are Lummus and Pier parks.

He recommended that Watson Island and Haulover Beach be set aside as encampment areas. Both are outside the city limits of Miami Beach.

Non-delegate groups had written to O'Key, requesting "cultural areas" in which to set up displays, arts and crafts centers and places to distribute literature. Camping would be prohibited in such areas.

O'Key also recommended that the sites originally requested by the non-delegates be used as a National guard staging area. The sites are Bayshore Golf Course, the par three golf course, and Miami Beach High athletic field. He also recommended that Flamingo Park be used as a non-delegate staging area.

For more than two hours this morning, the council listened to opinions on campsites for non-delegates, the only item on the agenda today.

The emergency meeting was called after O'Key, who has been negotiating with representatives of protest groups, announced that he was prepared to present a formal recommendation on the matter.

Among those who spoke at the meeting were representatives of the Governor's Community Coordinating Task Force on the conventions.

Alvah Chapman, speaking for the task force, said the members feel a number of small campsites should be set up in the county.

He said he has been assured by County Manager Ray Goode that the county would provide Haulover Beach as a site. "Miami Beach should provide at least one campsite, which would include provision for overnight stays and sanitation," he added.

State Rep. Gwenn Cherry of Dade endorsed the task force recommendation as did Robert Simms, executive director of the Community Relations Board.

Those who lined up with the task force included the non-delegate groups who argued that providing campsites within the Beach city limits would keep transportation arrangements orderly and would avoid the possibility of confrontations.

Also in agreement with the task force was Lillian Padilla, an elderly South Beach resident who brought with her a petition with "hundreds of names of elderly citizens" who back the campsite idea.

She said her group had been meeting with the non-delegates and had found them "a lovely group." "We know nothing is going to happen, they are not going to destroy Miami Beach," she said.

Those opposed to the proposal included representatives of a group opposing aid to non-delegates, Operation Backbone, and a representa-

They argued that non-delegates had no right to demand anything from Beach citizens and stated that they would also try to occupy campsites if they are designated.

Gov. Reubin Askew at a press conference in Tallahassee this morning said he backs the recommendation of his task force that at least one campsite be set up at the Beach.

Goode told The Miami News he expected the county to provide at least one alternate campsite following the Beach Council action.

He hinted also that the City of Miami would agree with him.

"Based on the flexibility provided by the County Commission and members on the task force, we would expect to work with the City of Miami in joint planning on sites," Goode said.

Goode said that alternate sites could be Haulover Beach and Watson Island but added that he wanted to leave the locations open to negotiations with non-delegates.

Miami City Manager Melvin Reese was out of town today and unavailable for comment.

But yesterday Reese said he had been delegated the authority by the City Commission to select campsites and that the Watson Island site could be made ready if needed.

Goode said, however, that Beach officials had agreed previously that if campsites were not designated at the Beach, then the City of Miami Beach would provide transportation to the convention area for non-delegates.

"We had considered Haulover Beach and Watson Island as alternate sites to be used for the run-over," he said. "Our planning had not contemplated transportation from these areas and we are counting on the Beach for help."

Form strategy for conventions, Jackson tells black publishers

By GWEN ROSS
Miami News Reporter

Tse Rev. Jesse Jackson urged black publishers meeting here this week to join in convening a "major summit" to formulate a national black political strategy for the national political conventions.

His remarks came before a luncheon yesterday of the 32nd annual convention of the National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA) at the Four Ambassadors Hotel.

This strategy, explained Jackson, national president of the newly organized People United to Save Humanity (PUSH), would be aimed at giving the black media as well as other elements of the black community its fair share of the country's economic wealth.

"Either cut us in or cut us out," Jackson said. "We want black public relations men, black lawyers, and other blacks at all levels of corporate structure.

Earlier, at an informal press conference, the former director of Southern Christian Leadership Conference's (SCLC) "Operation Breadbasket," had called on the NNPA to begin this strategy by demanding that George McGovern accept a black "Bill of Rights" before giving him its endorsement.

McGovern, who had been expected to appear at the luncheon, was reportedly restricted to his home by his doctor, Jackson learned in a call to his Washington headquarters. Officials at his headquarters later said that he had taken time off on his own.

Jackson's comments were in line with the theme of the publisher's conference: "How the Black Press Can Help Improve the Economic Status of Black Americans." About 80 black news executives are attending the two-day conference.

"Our conventions have typically dealt with the problems facing the Black press but we decided to be unselfish and concern ourselves with the economic plight of blacks," said Garth Reeves, NNPA President and publisher of The Miami Times, a black weekly newspaper. "Blacks are in a serious economic bag," he added.

While in the past the black press has been criticized for aiming its coverage at the black middle class, the black publishers meeting this week are discussing ways in which they can help to raise the social condition of the many blacks way down on the economic rung, Reeves said.

A primary goal, he said, would be to make the black community aware of the many federal aid programs that are available.

At the same time, the black press should be campaigning to get more blacks registered to vote, so that their votes can be bargained for economic gain, Reeves said the NNPA will work with Jackson's PUSH organization to register the seven million black Americans who are eligible to vote.

Tonight, the NNPA concludes its session with a presentation of meritorius awards to publications which work in 14 journalistic categories. The NNPA will also present awards to public figures who have made significant contributions to black life.

5-2 Vote Endorses O'Key Plan

By FRED BARGER
Herald Staff Writer

The Miami Beach City council, rejecting an appeal from Gov. Reubin Askew and his Citizens Task Force, refused Friday to allow demonstrators to camp in the city during the national political conventions.

The council recommended instead that Watson Island, near the Miami mainland, and Baker's Haulover Beach Park, at the north end of the Miami Beach peninsula, be used as camping areas.

Of those areas — both outside the Beach city limits — Miami officials have said Watson Island will be available as a camping area, and Metro officials have offered the Haulover site.

As the turbulent session ended, Patrick Small, 22, of New York, a correspondent for the Underground Press syndicate and member of the Zippie faction of the Youth International Party, hurled a small pumpkin pie at Councilman Harold Rosen.

SMALL WAS led out of the Council chambers by policemen and was charged at the Beach City Jail with disorderly conduct. He was released about three hours later after posting a $260 bond.

THE 5-2 council vote followed two hours of argument from civic leaders, clergymen, members of counter-culture groups, leaders of right-wing organizations, and spokesmen for such groups as the Beach Chamber of Commerce. About 250 persons attended the session.

The vote, which followed a 5-2 rejection of a motion by Councilman Leonard Haber and Mayor Chuck Hall that a Beach campsite be designated, endorsed a recommendation by City Manager Clifford O'Key that:

● Bayshore Golf Course, the Par Three Golf Course and the Beach Senior High athletic field be used as a staging area for National Guard troops. The areas are only about two blocks from the Beach Convention Hall, site of the July 10-13 Democratic National Convention and the Aug. 21-23 Republican National Convention.

● Flamingo Park, between Meridian Avenue and Alton Road at 11th Street, be used as "the staging area by non-delegate groups who propose to stage demonstration marches to the convention site." The park already is the site of a "free speech area" during the Democratic convention and of several party sponsored events.

THE BEACH City Council, refusing to designate a campsite for convention non-delegates in the city, recommended Baker's Haulover Beach Park (1) and Watson Island (7) as campsites, Bayshore Golf Course (2) and the Par Three Course and Beach Senior High athletic field (3) as staging areas for the Florida National Guard, Flamingo Park (5) as a staging area for protestors and Lummus Park (4) and Pier Park (6) as a cultural display area for non-delegates.

Parks, on the South Beach oceanfront," "and certain streets adjacent to those two public areas be set aside to be utilized as a cultural bazaar or cultural display area wherein the groups involved can display the examples of their art and crafts illustrating the proficiency of those artists associated with these groups."

THE COUNCIL'S vote was denounced by members of counter-culture groups who repeatedly have said they would not accept campsites outside Miami Beach.

And it was not viewed as good news to Miami and Metro officials who already had said they would offer campsites for demonstrators but had urged the Beach Council to do the same.

There was no immediate indication, however, that the status of the offers of Watson Island and Haulover as camping areas was threatened by the vote.

Don Pride, Askew's press secretary, said late Friday that the governor would "have no comment on the council's action at this time. So far, we haven't been able to get hold of anyone down there to talk to.

"The governor feels, however, that some provision should be made, on the Beach, for the non-delegates."

MIAMI MAYOR David Kennedy said he had been "hoping that Miami Beach would live up to its responsibility, but since they haven't it's going to fall on Miami to provide Watson Island."

"I am for it," Kennedy added, "but of course, I'm speaking as only one of five (on the Miami Commission)."

John Van Wezel, assistant to County Manager Ray Goode, said he would "probably sit down with Ray Goode (today) and we'll see where we go from here. I really expected Miami Beach to come up with something.

"As for what the county may do, we have made it plain we are ready to talk and negotiate as to Haulover, even though it is basically unacceptable to the movement people."

Richard J. Murphy, manager of the Democratic convention and an advocate of providing campsites said, "I still believe campsites are necessary within the city, but I will leave the comments on the council's action to local officials."

AFTER THE pie-throwing episode, members of counter-culture groups denounced it, disavowed any connection with it and said they were considering disassociating from the Zippies.

Small, who said later that the pie-throwing "was an official act of the Zippies," bolted toward Rosen from the press seating area as the meeting ended and hurled the small pumpkin pie, in its aluminum foil plate, at Rosen.

The pie splattered Rosen's suit, as well as those of at least one other councilman, and Rosen, a stocky, muscular lawyer and former municipal judge, shouted a profane comment and knocked Small to the floor.

Surprised bystanders separated the two, and Rosen left through one door as Small was led out another by Beach police.

Earlier, of the almost 40 speakers, those advocating campsites outnumbered those arguing against them by about two to one.

Haber and Hall voted for the campsites and Rosen and Councilmen Herbert Magnes, Robert Goodman, Jerome Greene and Leonard Weinstein were against.

During the debate and before the vote, Hall announced that Askew had endorsed the recommendation of his local task force of civic and business leaders that campsites — at least one of them in Miami Beach — be approved.

That recommendation was presented to the councilmen by Alvah H. Chapman Jr., president of The Miami Herald and one of the members of the task force, at the opening of the special session.

Chapman said the group "felt that it would certainly be unreasonable to expect the city of Miami Beach to provide for all non-delegates" and that demonstrators should not be "brought together in a great big mass encampment of 50,000 to 75,000 people."

But he said the group urged "the city of Miami Beach to designate at least one campsites. . . as part of an overall community plan to provide for these non-delegates."

CHAPMAN SAID approving a campsite would be "breaking new ground" in political convention history, but urged that it be done "as an expression of good faith by the city of Miami Beach to the non-delegates."

Lawyer Ellis Rubin, who advocated no campsite and strict enforcement of laws during the conventions, said that approving a Beach campsite would set a precedent that would require accepting such groups as the Ku Klux Klan and the American Nazi Party and providing campsites for them.

JEFF NIGHTBYRD, a Youth International Party (Yippie) leader, said his group had "reached an absolute impasse" with the city and said he feared "absolute chaos if no campsite were approved.

"You're falling into a Republican scheme to create chaos at the Democratic convention and discredit the Democratic Party," he said, commenting that, during the height of the controversy, "the City Council was in honky tonks in New Orleans watching strip tease" — a reference to a trip by councilmen last week to the National Mayors' Conference there.

The statement angered councilmen, particularly Rosen, who, red-faced, shouted:

"I object, Mr. Nightbyrd! I have listened to you here . . ."

"I believe we have good evidence," Nightbyrd continued, "that in the last week Republican advisers have come to this city and started incredible scare stories.

"It's the same party that tried to bug the Democratic offices in Washington that is trying to create chaos here," said Nightbyrd.

Aide reports Askew effort

Beach campsite still possible

By RICK EVERDAM and ROBERT STULBERG
Miami News Reporters

A spokesman for Gov. Reubin Askew told The Miami News today that there is still a possibility a campsite near Miami Beach Convention Hall will be designated for demonstrators at the coming national conventions.

Askew's press secretary Don Pride said that Askew is presently "trying to reach the National Guard people to find out their specific needs in terms of staging areas."

Asked if Askew might turn over any excess land in the designated National Guard staging areas to non-delegates, Pride replied:

"Obviously, when he is checking with the guard to find out what they need, there is that possibility."

The Miami Beach City Council yesterday rejected, 5-2, an appeal for campsites at the Beach.

Instead Miami Beach City Manager Clifford O'Key recommended yesterday, and the Beach council approved, a plan "in accordance with the request of the State of Florida National Guard General Vernon F. Sikes" that three of the four areas requested by non-delegates for camp sites be used as a staging area for troops.

The areas are the Bayshore Golf Course, the Par 3 golf course and the Miami Beach High school athletic field, all within walking distance of the convention hall.

"Consideration of use of these areas for such purposes was made early in our contingency planning for the problems involved in maintaining civil order," O'Key said explaining the decision to use the sites as troop staging areas.

The council also approved of O'Key's recommendation that Haulover Beach and Watson Island be set up as non-delegate campsites. Included also in the proposal was the establishment of a "cultural bazaar" at Lummus Park and Pier Park.

The vote was followed by an attempt by a New York member of the "Zippie" faction to hurl a pumpkin pie at Councilman Harold Rosen, one of the five councilmen who voted against the campsites.

Rosen felled the pie-toter, Patrick Small, 22, a correspondent for the underground press, with only small damage to the councilman's pants.

Small was arrested on a disorderly conduct charge and released in $260 bond pending a court appearance.

County Manager Ray Goode said that he would begin negotiations with non-delegates on arrangements for a campsite outside of the City of Miami Beach "probably at Haulover Beach."

Also yesterday, at a special luncheon meeting on the conventions, Miami Mayor David Kennedy said h would back the establishment of a campsite at Watson Island.

Askew, Goode, Kennedy and a large number of other civic, religious and governmental leaders had urged the Beach council to provide campsites for non-delegates on Miami Beach near the convention hall.

Pride said Askew has continually backed a plan calling for at least one non-delegate campsite to be located on Miami Beach near the convention hall.

"The one thing we have wanted from the very beginning is to protect the rights of the protesters and the citizens and to insure that we have an orderly convention."

Askew has said that denial of a campsite on Miami Beach would not be in the best interest of the people of Miami Beach."

Goode said that the county is prepared to provide at least one campsite but said that he did not wish to state positively which one until he had an opportunity to negotiate with non-delegates and also find out what other cities were planning. Miami City Manager Melvin Reese was unavailable for comment.

Non-delegates leaders, however, criticized the beach decision as "irresponsible" and said they did not feel that encampment sites miles from the convention activity would be acceptable.

Sheri Whitehead, a spokesman for the non-delegate Conventions Coalition, said yesterday that her group would remain willing to negotiate but added: "The people are going to be on Miami Beach, not somewhere else, and it would only create chaos to try to make them stay somewhere else."

Earnie Sieler, chairman of the Governor's Community Coordinating Task Force, called the decision "disappointing."

Seiler suggested that the Beach council members had not had enough time to study O'Key's proposals before taking a vote and that they might have voted otherwise if they understood the recommendations.

"If this was their decision I don't think they should have made it so quick," he said. "I think that maybe they didn't have time to study over some of the information we had before the voted."

Bazaar or campsite, walk or parade...?

By RICK EYERDAM
Miami News Reporter

When does a "cultural bazaar" become a campsite?

How do you move thousands of tired and disorganized young people bent on staying near the scene of the national conventions from 4 to 7 miles twice a day without an incident?

And what will be the response of residents of Pine Tree Drive, South Beach, Bal Harbour or Surfside when they realize that as many as 100,000 young people, many without transportation, will be roaming the streets late at night for a minimum of nine days this summer looking for a place to sleep, a bathroom and a drink of water?

Those are the questions raised by the action of the Miami Beach City Council yesterday when it voted 5-2 against the recommendations of Gov. Reubin Askew and a host of local governmental, civic, business and religious leaders and declined to provide a campsite for non-delegates near the Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Instead the council approved a recommendation by City Manager Clifford O'Key to use the open land area closest to the convention hall — Bayshore Golf Course, the Par 3 golf course and the Miami Beach High School athletic field — as a staging area for National Guard Troops.

At no time during deliberations on O'Key's proposal yesterday did anyone state how the "cultural bazaars" — arts and crafts display areas requested as an afterthought by non-delegates — will be dismantled each night so as not to attract a crowd.

Yet the location of the "bazaars" in Lummus and Pier Parks make them a natural area for young people to congregate and, as the hour grows late, to lay down and rest.

With the convention activities all scheduled to end no earlier than midnight each night it is logical to assume that

Here Are Comments on Campsites

Here are some of the statements by participants in the debate at Friday's emergency Miami Beach City Council session on campsites for the demonstrators at the political conventions:

"People who come here to dissent and to protest . . . may have a right to peacefully assemble," but a federal court in Chicago has ruled that a municipality is not required to provide "sleeping accommodations" — lawyer Ellis Rubin.

"There are many people besides me who are in favor of a campsite on the Beach. I think it's unrealistic to tell people that they are privileged to protest peacefully and then ask them to disperse and not have a place to disperse to." — Beach Mayor Chuck Hall

"I don't think the city of Miami Beach wants to pattern itself after Chicago. I urge the council to participate in the American process, to uphold the Constitution of the United States and to help the people who are coming into our city" — Stephen Remsen, chairman of the Jewish Labor Committee.

"We are going to be here asking for the exact same right" for the state and national Jaycees conventions. "You're creating a precedent" — Richard Selderman, former Beach Jaycees president and now president of the Greater Miami Young Americans For Freedom.

"In a meeting Wednesday night, our board unanimously endorsed the position of the governor's commission" — Bob Simms, executive director, Dade Community Relations Board.

"If we adopt a posture in this city that is not one of accommodation and welcome to the best of our abilities . . . we are going to have a generation in this country that is simply going to have an attitude that is negative toward Miami Beach" — Jack Gordon, savings and loan executive and chairman of the Beach Tourist Development Authority.

"If we can go to Vietnam and bleed for some of you people, we ought to have the right to pitch a tent on a golf course" — Alton Foss, Vietnam Veterans Against the War.

"It is . . . my recommendation that the City Council . . . recommend designation of Watson Island (excepting the Japanese Gardens) as a non-delegate campsite, as well as Haulover Park as a non-delegate campsite, and use of Flamingo, Lummus and Pier Park be restricted

Convention Plans Cover All Angles, Goode Tells Cities

By PHIL GAILEY
Herald Staff Writer

Dade County mayors and city managers Friday were assured that there has been sufficient planning to take care of any situation that might arise during the summer's two political conventions.

County Manager Ray Goode called the city officials together at a special luncheon meeting at the DuPont Plaza Hotel to brief them on convention planning and to ease any apprehensions over the prospect of having thousands of hippies, Yippies, Zippies and other non-delegates in the Miami area.

WHEN MIAMI Beach Mayor Chuck Hall arrived and informed them of his City Council's vote not to provide campsites for the non-delegates, several mayors asked Goode to "let us know if they start heading our way."

Goode promised to check with leaders of the non-delegate groups "to determine if they express any interest in your communities so we can give you plenty of time."

However, he said it was "highly unlikely" that the non-delegate groups would be interested in outlying municipalities for campsites because of the transportation and other logistical problems.

THE CITY officials expressed relief over Miami Mayor David Kennedy's announcement that he will recommend Watson Island, off MacArthur Causeway, as a campsite.

Goode said he expects no more than 20,000 non-delegates here for the Democratic convention July 10-13, but a substantially larger number for the Republican convention Aug. 21-23.

What about in between? one county manager asked.

Goode said, "The feeling among most of the leaders of the non-delegate groups is that there will be no big push to keep a large number here between conventions.

"Some of these organizations have Florida projects, and they plan to use the time to visit these places."

Goode also said that in monitoring the underground press, he has noticed that protesters who cannot afford to attend both conventions are being urged to skip the Democratic convention and confront the Republicans in August.

THE NUMBER of non-delegates left in the Miami area between conventions can be absorbed in communities like Coconut Grove without serious problems, Goode said.

"We have no reason to expect any trouble," Goode told the officials. "The overwhelming majority of them (non-delegates) will be kids just like your's and mine who are on the road for the summer and they're not looking for trouble.

"We feel like we're doing an excessive job of planning, but I'm sure history will be on our side. The important thing now is for you to go back into your communities and try to allay any fears and apprehensions among your citizens."

Goode informed the city officials that he had "watered down" their requests for supplies and equipment to deal with any convention emergencies.

"Your requests amounted to about $6.6 million, but we've had to water that down to $2 million," Goode said. "We're trying to develop a consensus list of what will be needed. Then we plan to get the items from the federal government on a consignment basis so we can return anything we don't use."

Miami Beach And Non-Delegates

THE crowning incident, regrettably, of yesterday's Miami Beach City Council sesssion regarding campsites for non-delegates to the political conventions, no doubt will obscure the general picture.

With the City of Miami and Dade County — plus many other concerned citizens and groups — showing good faith and the best of intentions, the presumed political pressures on Beach councilmen to deny any campsites at all will likely receive a disproportionate amount of attention.

There has been excellent planning and a good deal of sacrifice on the parts of many to insure a successful and peaceful convention. Policemen have taken extra training, have given up scheduled vacations and are prepared to work long hours.

The City of Miami has promised use of Watson Island for non-delegates, plus other sites if needed. The county has indicated it, too, will offer sites and alternate locations. Perhaps these will not offer easy and quick access to centers of convention activity for non-delegates, but it should be remembered that not all actual delegates will have such access, either. Many will be quartered in Miami or in Hollywood or even farther away.

The bugaboo of Miami Beach citizen reaction against a councilman for voting for non-delegate sites seemed specious as many citizens—frequently elderly citizens — spoke up before the council endorsing the right and need for such campsites.

That the culminating pie-on-the-head show business insult by a single individual should negate all the positive aspects is regrettable, however spectacular.

The community needs to remember this, and keep the entire matter in realistic perspective.

Are Protesters Taking It Easy on Demos?

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Fifteen days before the Democratic National Convention opens July 10 in Miami Beach, the scenario of protest is taking a new shape.

And Friday's decision by the Beach Council not to allow demonstrator campsites within the city is only one factor among several changes.

Others are:

● The emergence of dovish George McGovern as leading contender for the Democratic nomination — a development that has led many potential protesters to shift their sights to the Republican convention in August.

● Indications that low-income blacks — and not young white hippies, Yippies and Zippies — may be the dominant demonstrators, with their numbers possibly bolstered by local blacks.

● A subtle shift in police emphasis, apparently originating at least partly in Washington but not — as some demonstrators have charged — with the White House.

In light of these other influences, whether nondelegates will sleep in Flamingo Park on Miami Beach or on Watson Island in Miami is interpreted in some quarters as a relatively minor distinction.

Even some protest leaders responded to the council's vote with shrugs rather than outrage.

"It really didn't change anything," Yippie leader Jerry Rubin said after the council vote Friday.

THE YOUTH International Party, he explained, already had withdrawn its "mass call" for the first convention.

The reason: McGovern.

"There's no point in coming here now," Rubin said. "We were coming to stop Humphrey. Now we want to keep the numbers down. A confrontation at the Democratic convention would only help Richard Nixon."

Other groups reacted differently — a spokesman for Vietnam Veterans Against the War predicted that some 15,000 vets would camp on Miami Beach anyway.

SINCE NO single group speaks for the movement, it remains to be seen which reaction will dominate the scene.

At the least, groups now operating in Miami and Miami Beach have made it clear that they hope to demonstrate alternative points of view and cultural life-styles that could be controversial, if nonviolent.

Also, the unknown factor in everyone's forecast is just how many nondelegates may

eventually flock to the scene, not in identifiable groups, but individually and in carloads of two and three — in the same manner as college students descend on Fort Lauderdale every spring.

But with the convention hardly more than two weeks away, white demonstrators simply have not materialized in any great numbers.

The best-organized activity in town belongs to such black organizations as the National Welfare Rights Organization (NWRO) and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

IN WASHINGTON last week, SCLC President Ralph David Abernathy, NWRO Executive Director George Wiley, and Jesse Gray, head of the largely black National Tenants Organization, joined in what was in effect a black summit conference.

The effects immediately began showing up in Miami.

The groups scheduled their convention-related activities so as to provide mutual cooperation rather than competition — and to build momentum.

THE NTO announced a demonstration on July 8, the SCLC a rally on July 9, and the NWRO a march on July 10, opening day of the convention.

"We're all going to be supporting each other's actions," explained NWRO organizer Will Colom.

For the blacks, the decision of the council not to provide campsites on the Beach has raised unanswered questions.

"We're going to have Resurrection City as planned," said SCLC organizer Ray Betts. "It's going to be on Miami Beach." Where and how? "I don't want to be specific," he said.

EVEN BEFORE the council's vote, however, it was apparent that the blacks depended less than some other groups on campsites.

The NWRO has reserved hotel rooms for the 1,200 welfare recipients expected to attend its own conference. And the SCLC's July 9 rally is scheduled on the mainland, in Liberty City's Manor Park.

Perhaps even more important, the black groups are working to include local residents, who don't need campsites.

"We have teams out now, and we're going to knock on virtually every door in every low-income housing project in Dade County," Colom said.

Agreed Betts: "We are definitely mobilizing the black community."

ON THE BEACH, meanwhile, the police posture has turned out to be not quite so laissez faire as Beach Police Chief Rocky Pomerance first indicated.

It was at Pomerance's request that the Beach Council passed an emergency ordinance June 7 giving the chief sweeping authority to issue or deny permits for demonstrations.

That ordinance was part of a package — the rest of which may go to the council Wednesday.

Other proposed emergency ordinances in the same package would:

- Authorize arrest of persons — including the press — who cross police lines.
- Outlaw derogatory remarks to police officers.
- Make it illegal to sing "obscene" songs in public.
- Outlaw profane language in the presence of women and children, and make it illegal to disturb maliciously the peace and quiet of a neighborhood.

To some observers, these proposals, along with the council vote against campsites, have appeared to be a hard line.

To the Yippies, it all appears to be a plot by Richard Nixon to create confrontations at the Democratic Convention.

Some of the current police thinking has been influenced by a man from Washington. He is not the president of the United States, but a policeman who has kept such a low profile that for all practical purposes he has been virtually invisible outside police circles.

He is Theodore R. Zanders, 49, deputy chief of the police department in Washington, D.C., and the District of Columbia's acknowledged police expert on riot control.

IN WASHINGTON, where he commands a civil-disturbance unit of 800 helmeted, riot-trained policemen, Zanders is known as a tough cop, a proponent of tear gas, a man who does not hesitate to make arrests if police orders are not immediately obeyed.

A reporter who covered the 1971 May Day demonstrations recalls seeing Zanders order a group of protesters to disperse.

As the newsman recalls it, the demonstrators continued to sit in the middle of Washington's 14th Street, chanting, "Ho, Ho, Ho Chi Minh."

Zanders replied, "Ho, ho, ho here we go," and squirted the group with chemical Mace. A photograph of the incident was published in Life magazine.

IN MIAMI BEACH as part of the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration support for the conventions, Zanders' influence has been behind the scenes.

He refused to be interviewed last week about his role here. According to other high-ranking sources, however, he was the source of the package of ordinances in effect in Washington. Copies of many were sent by Pomerance to City Attorney Joe Wanick, who passed them on to City Manager Clifford O'Key, who will decide whether to recommend the remainder of them to the council.

Ironically, the ordinances dealing with obscene songs and profane language are not enforced in Washington during demonstrations there.

AT ANY RATE, Zanders' main influence here, according to informed sources, has been not so much as a counselor of tough tactics as a proponent of police mobility.

He is credited with current plans for use of mobile reserve forces that can move into a trouble area with buses.

The plan calls for arrested persons to be booked on a short arrest form, complete with Polaroid photograph, before they are loaded on the buses.

Instead of using fixed-location arrest processing centers, as originally planned, police now see the buses as moving troublemakers directly to the convention's court center at the Justice Building in Miami.

All of this is similar to standard procedure in Washington demonstrations.

BUT INFORMED sources

here do not see Zanders or anyone else as spokesman for a federal attempt to create a get-tough posture.

It is known that U.S. Attorney General Richard Kleindienst has his own Justice Department intelligence unit on Miami Beach.

"But there's no problem with the feds," one local official emphasized last week. "At this point, they're only responding to our requests."

The sum total of all these developments has been to create a delicately poised preconvention picture of balances and counterbalances in which no single generalization seems to hold true.

For every force, there has been a counterforce:

● The Democratic Party has openly welcomed peaceful demonstrations as a legitimate part of the convention process.

But the rise of McGovern as the leading candidate going into the convention has tended to discourage any mass influx of war protesters.

● Miami Beach has rejected demonstrator campsites for nondelegates who do come. But Dade County and Miami officials say they are willing to equip campsites on Watson Island and at Haulover Beach Park.

● For all the early worry about hippies, Yippies and Zippies, many demonstrators may turn out to be low-income blacks and two other groups whose primary focus is not the war.

These are homosexuals and militant women, whose protests focus on what they see as sexual repression.

● While continuing to talk peace, Pomerance and the police have followed the experience of the protest-ridden nation's capital in preparing to deal with trouble if it occurs.

None of it is working out quite like anyone planned.

The chief benefit of the Beach's highly touted police training program, also financed by federal money, may, according to one official, have been improved morale that came from weekend overtime pay the officers drew for sitting in the classrooms.

And who would have guessed that Jerry Rubin, who originally predicted a march of 10,000 nude Yippies down Collins Avenue, would at this point say it really doesn't matter if no one comes?

Even with all the unforeseens, the predominant guess among government officials and movement people alike now seems to be that with luck, the Democratic Convention could come and go without major trouble.

But no one's making any predictions about what can happen when the GOP comes to town in August.

Protesters Also Map Maneuvers

Opposition to Miami Mayor David Kennedy's offer of Watson Island as a non-delegate campsite during the Democratic National Convention was voiced Saturday by two mainland black organizations.

Meanwhile, representatives of the groups planning convention demonstrations met in Miami Beach to decide their next moves in the wake of the Miami Beach City Council's refusal to provide campsites for them.

They expect to meet again today and announce plans Monday or Tuesday.

Gov. Reubin Askew's press secretary, Don Pride, said Saturday that the governor's office will discuss with National Guard officials the extent of their need of troop staging areas designated by the Miami Beach City Council.

Pride was asked if the governor would seek portions of the staging areas for non-delegates if the Guard does not need all the property set aside. He would say only that the availability of the land would be pointed out to Miami Beach officials.

In that event, he said, it still would be up to the city council to decide whether the protest groups could use any part of that land — Par Three Golf Course, Bayshore Golf Course and Miami Beach Senior High athletic field.

The non-delegates do not want to use Watson Island because of its distance from Miami Beach Convention Hall. The island, on which are the Goodyear Blimp base, a helicopter port, Chalk's seaplane base, two boating clubs, a public boat-launching ramp, and the Japanese Garden, is on the MacArthur Causeway.

WHETHER THE non-delegates want to use Watson Island or not, the Community Rally Against Crime (CRAC) and the Black Baptist Ministers Council don't want them to have it.

"We are totally against (Mayor) Kennedy's statement that would allow non-delegates to camp in the city of Miami," said the Rev. P. W. Williams of the Ministers Council.

"If non-delegates are not allowed on Miami Beach, we believe that feelings of retaliation will cause dissenting factions to move into the black community, the same as they did at the 1968 Republican convention."

Tom Washington, of the CRAC steering committee, said the 1968 convention demonstrated what can happen when violence-oriented dissenters move into the city.

"THE BLACK community immediately became the location for a battleground between police and dissenters. Our stores were looted, burned and people shot at.

The easternmost end of Watson Island is three and three-quarters miles from the Miami Beach Convention Center. The route includes one high, steep bridge.

BECAUSE of its relative isolation from the Convention Center, the protest groups don't want to use it. For the same reasons, they have argued that Haulover Beach Park at the northern end of the Miami Beach strip (in unincorporated Dade) also is unsuitable.

Mayor Kennedy said Saturday afternoon that he had heard of the statements by CRAC and the black ministers' group.

"I think what would really happen if wte didn't provide campsites is exactly what the ministers are afraid of," Kennedy said. "If you don't have organized campsites, they'll be rolling indiscriminately throughout Dade County, and the places they wind up with will not have water, sanitary conditions and health facilities."

MIAMI BEACH Mayor Chuck Hall said he would try to arrange new meetings between non-delegates and city councilmen in hopes of getting the councilmen to change their mind. The Friday vote to deny the non-delegates campsntes within Miami Beach city limits was 5-3.

Pomerance Seeks Powers for 72-Hour Curfew

By ROB ELDER
Herald Staff Writer

Police Chief Rocky Pomerance said Monday he'll ask Miami Beach City Council for a curfew law that could be applied during the Democratic and Republican conventions.

The proposed ordinance would give Pomerance authority to declare a state of emergency for up to 72 hours during which pedestrian and vehicular movement could be restricted in any part or all of the city during police-specified hours.

Pomerance said he'll also request a law making it illegal to cross police lines, but would recommend against passage of other previously-requested emergency ordinances when the council meets Wednesday.

In other convention related developments:

● Spokesmen for Gov. Reubin Askew said he met with Miami Beach officials Sunday and still favors one non-delegate campsite on the beach itself."

● The chairman of Askew's citizen task force for convention planning said that group is "trying to get the city to reconsider" Friday's council vote against campsites.

● City Manager Clifford O'Key said he will not recommend reconsideration at Wednesday's meeting, but that "the door is always open" to possible action later.

O'Key scheduled for 4 p.m. today Rev. Ralph Davis, whose Southern Christian Leadership Council is one of several groups seeking campsites on Miami Beach.

O'KEY SAID he'll also meet with other protest groups, adding:

"It may be that in such discussions it would appear we should give some reconsideration to campsites, and if such a recommendation is warranted I would not hesitate to bring it to the council."

● Beach Mayor Chuck Hall said he's still working for a campsite within the city limits. Referring to the demonstration staging area approved Friday, Hall added:

"If we don't have one (campsite), you'll find Flamingo Park will kind of turn into an all night staging area."

. . . no singing ban

● Dade County officials began planning to equip campsites on county-owned Haulover Beach and on the City of Miami's Watson Island. "We will have toilets on both sites," said an assistant to County Manager Ray Goode.

● Hopes of the People's Party to stage a convention for non-delegates in the Convention Hall immediately following the Democratic gathering hit a snag as the Democrats said they'll need the full term of their contract — through July 29 — to remove their equipment.

● The Beach police received a request from the Youth International Party for a parade permit for this Thursday. The tentative march route would pass the convention hall.

● Federal officials doubled a previously authorized $50,000 grant for youth programs in Miami's black Model City area during July and August, the months of the two conventions.

In disclosing his request for the curfew ordinance and police lines law, Pomerance said he's no longer asking for other parts of a package of emergency proposals he previously sent to City Attorney Joe Wanick, who passed them to O'Key for presentation to the council.

OTHER PARTS of the package — largely based on existing laws in Washington, D.C. — would have outlawed profane language, "obscene" songs and derogatory remarks to police officers.

Pomerance said he feels these areas are adequately covered by state statutes.

He said the curfew proposal is "the kind of ordinance we requested some years ago prior to hurricane season," and is based on similar laws now on the books of other cities, including Washington, D.C., Los Angeles and Miami.

Under the proposal, a 72-

During the curfew period

THE COUNCIL already

O'Key said that at Wed-ich he will recommend.

It was on O'Key's recom-

mingo Park as a demon-

In so doing, the council nt against the commenda-

OVER THE WEEKEND

mpsite question in a sepa-

Askew's press secretary, Don Pride, Monday said the governor "feels that some provision should be made for campsite right on Miami Beach, because otherwise we may be faced with the prospect of having to move people out who decide to camp there anyway."

Pride added: "This wouldn't necessarily involve the golf courses or the high school." He referred to the Miami Beach High athletic grounds and city-owned Par Three and Bayshore Golf courses, all three of which were designated by the council Friday as staging areas for the National Guard.
